ADVISORY SERVICES AND FEES

Comprehensive Wealth Management, Inc. dba Claycomb Wealth Management (hereinafter "CWM" or "Adviser") is a corporation formed under the laws of the State of California and registered with the State of California. Adviser offers investment advisory services to individuals, high net worth individuals. This Schedule F narrative provides clients with information regarding Adviser and the qualifications, business practices, and nature of advisory services that should be considered before becoming an advisory client of the CWM.

Please contact Shawn Claycomb, Chief Compliance Officer, if you have any questions about this Schedule F narrative. Additional information about Adviser is available on the Internet at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You can search this site by a unique identifying number, known as a CRD number. The CRD number for Adviser is 152822.

Financial Planning and Financial Consulting Services

Adviser will typically provide a variety of financial planning services, pursuant to a written Agreement, to individuals, families and other clients regarding the management of their financial resources based upon an analysis of client's current situation, goals, and objectives. Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial plan or rendering a financial consultation for clients based on the client's financial goals and objectives. This planning or consulting may encompass one or more of the following areas: investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, charitable planning, education planning, and business planning.

The plan developed for or financial consultation rendered to the client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the clients. For example, recommendations may be made that the clients begin or revise investment programs, create or revise wills or trusts, obtain or revise insurance coverage, commence or alter retirement savings, or establish education or charitable giving programs. Adviser may also refer clients to an accountant, attorney or other specialist. For planning engagements, Adviser will provide a written summary of Client's financial situation, observations, and recommendations. For consulting engagements, Adviser may not provide a written summary. Plans or consultations are typically completed within six months of contract date, assuming all information and documents requested are provided promptly.

FEE SCHEDULE: Financial Planning/Financial Consulting Services

Adviser offers financial planning services on an hourly basis for $300 per hour, which may be negotiable depending on the nature and complexity of each client's circumstances. An estimate for total hours will be determined at the start of the advisory relationship.

The Adviser's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses which shall be incurred by the client. However,

Item 1.D (Continued)	the Adviser shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The hourly fees are determined after considering many factors, such as the level and scope of the services. The Adviser may also charge a negotiable fixed fee ranging from $500 to $10,000 for a financial plan, the total of which is dependent upon the level and scope of these services. One half of the total estimated fixed and hourly fees are due and payable at the time the client's agreement is executed, the remainder of the fees are due upon presentation of a plan or the rendering of consulting services. Financial plans will be presented to the clients within 6 months of the contract date, provided that all information needed to prepare the financial plan has been promptly provided by the clients. As stated previously, the hourly rate is $300 per hour. In the event that a client should cancel the financial planning agreement under which any plan is being created, the client shall be billed for actual hours logged on the planning project times the agreed upon hourly rate. Any surplus in the Adviser's possession as the result of collecting a deposit at the time of signing the financial planning agreement will be returned to the client within 5 business days of cancellation. Either party may terminate the agreement at anytime by providing written notice to the other party within five (5) days of signing the Adviser's financial planning agreement. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client. Refunds will be given on a pro-rata basis.
Item 5.	Education and Business Background Standards All individuals that render investment advisory services on behalf of Adviser must have or be working towards a four-year college degree, graduate degree, or post-graduate degree and/or have substantive investment-related experience. Items 7.	Other Business Activities If the client wants to, the client can engage the associated person of the Applicant (but not the Applicant) to render securities brokerage services under a commission arrangement. Under this arrangement, the client may implement securities transaction through the associated persons in their respective individual capacities as registered representatives of LPL Financial, a registered broker/dealer and member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). Brokerage commission may be charged by LPL Financial to effect these securities transactions and thereafter, a portion of these commissions may be paid by LPL Financial to such associated persons. Prior to effecting any transactions, the client will be required to enter into a new account agreement with LPL Financial. The brokerage commissions charged by LPL Financial may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker/dealers. In addition, the associated person may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 fees for mutual fund purchases from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment. Depending of the type of LPL Financial account that could be used to implement a financial plan, such compensation may include (but is not limited to) advisory program wrap fees; commissions; mark-ups and mark-downs; transaction charges; confirmation charges; small account fees; mutual fund 12b-1 fees; mutual fund sub-transfer agency fees; hedge fund, managed futures, and variable annuity investor servicing fees; retirement plan fees; fees in connection with LPL Financial's insured deposit account program; administrative servicing fees for trust accounts; referral fees; compensation for directing order flow; and bonuses, awards or other things of value offered by LPL Financial to the IAR. This compensation to IAR and LPL Financial may be more or less depending on the product or service that IAR Recommends. Therefore, the IAR may have a financial incentive to recommend that a financial plan be implemented using a certain product or services over another product or service. Shawn Claycomb is a Registered Representative with LPL Financial. In such a capacity, he may offer securities and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that he recommends that a client invest in a security which results in a commission being paid to him. He spends 90% of time on these activities.

Items 7.

Shawn Claycomb is a licensed insurance agent through numerous insurance companies. In such a capacity, he may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of such a purchase. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that he recommends the purchase of an insurance product which results in a commission being paid to him as an insurance agent. He spends less than 5% of time on these activities.

Shawn Claycomb is an Investment Advisor Representative, ("IAR"), with LPL Financial. In such a capacity, the IAR may offer advisory accounts through LPL Financial, the details of which are fully described in LPL Financial's Form ADV or relevant schedules. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that he recommends that a client open an account in which compensation is received as an IAR with LPL Financial.

The primary business of the principal of the applicant, Shawn Claycomb, is providing brokerage services through LPL Financial. He spends 90% of time on this activity.

Items 9.B&E

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions.

Adviser's Investment Advisor Representatives, as brokers or agents of a broker-dealer may effect securities transactions for compensation from any client, recommend to clients that they buy or sell securities or investment products in which the applicant or a related person may have some financial interest, and buys or sells for itself securities that it also recommends to clients.

Mr. Claycomb may receive payments from certain mutual funds distributed pursuant to a 12b-1 distribution plan or other such plans as compensation for administrative services, representing a separate financial interest. As such, a conflict of interest may exist with respect to recommendations to buy or sell securities. In all cases, transactions are effected in the best interests of the client. The Adviser does not permit insider trading and has implemented procedures to ensure that its policy regarding insider trading is being observed by associated persons.

Clients are advised that they are under no obligation to implement the plan or its recommendations through Mr. Claycomb in his capacity as a registered representative or licensed insurance agent. All conflicts of interest relating to compensation are disclosed.

The applicant or any of its employees may own or transact securities which may coincide with a client recommendation. In every situation, the clients needs are considered first and the securities are widely held and publicly traded.

Item 12.B & 13.A

Recommended Broker-Dealers

Shawn Claycomb may suggest that clients implement recommendations set forth in the financial plan through LPL Financial in his capacity as a registered representative or an independent licensed insurance agent. If the client chooses to do so, this would present a conflict of interest to the extent that Mr. Claycomb would receive normal and customary

Miscellaneous

Code of Ethics.

Adviser and/or its representatives may buy or sell for their personal account(s) investment products identical to those recommended to clients. It is the expressed policy of Adviser that neither Adviser, nor its investment adviser representatives may purchase or sell any individual stock or bond prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account. This policy is meant to prevent Adviser and/or its investment adviser representatives from benefiting as a result of transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts.

Adviser has established the following restrictions in order to ensure its fiduciary responsibilities to clients are met:

1) Adviser's representatives shall not buy or sell securities for their personal portfolio(s) where their decision is substantially derived, in whole or in part, by their role as an Investment Advisory Representative of Adviser, unless the information is also available to the investing public on reasonable inquiry. In no case, shall Adviser's representatives prefer their own interest to that of their advisory clients^(1,2).

2) Adviser emphasizes the unrestricted right of its clients to decline to implement any advice rendered.

3) Adviser recognizes it must act in accordance with all applicable Federal and State regulations governing registered investment advisory practices.

Footnotes:

(1) This investment policy has been established recognizing that some securities being considered for purchase and sale on behalf of Adviser's clients trade in sufficiently broad markets to permit transactions by clients to be completed without an appreciable impact on the markets of the securities. Under certain circumstances, exceptions may be made to the policies stated above. Records of these trades, including the reasons for the exceptions, will be maintained with Adviser's records in the manner set forth above.

(2) Open-end mutual funds and/or the investment sub-accounts which may comprise a variable insurance product are purchased or redeemed at a fixed net asset value price per share specific to the date of purchase or redemption. As such, transactions in mutual funds and/or variable insurance products by Adviser are not likely to have an impact on the prices of the fund shares in which clients invest, and are therefore not prohibited by Adviser's Investment policies and procedures.
