ADVISORY SERVICES AND FEES

Arkenstone Financial, LLC (hereinafter "Adviser", "AFL" or the "Firm") is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the State of Colorado. AFL offers investment advisory services to individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations or other organizations. This Schedule F narrative provides clients with information regarding AFL and the qualifications, business practices, and nature of advisory services that should be considered before becoming an advisory client of the Firm.

Please contact Paul H. Lundeen, Managing Member and Chief Compliance Officer, if you have any questions about this Schedule F narrative. Additional information about AFL is available on the Internet at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You can search this site by a unique identifying number, known as a CRD number. The CRD number for AFL is 153530.

Individuals associated with AFL will provide its investment advisory services. These individuals are appropriately licensed, qualified, and authorized to provide advisory services on behalf of the Firm. Such individuals are known as Investment Adviser Representatives (IARs).

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES PROVIDEDDiscretionary Wrap Portfolio Management

Adviser will emphasize continuous personal client contact and interaction in providing discretionary wrap investment supervisory services. Further, Adviser will work with its clients to identify their investment goals and objectives as well as risk tolerance in order to create an initial portfolio allocation designed to complement their clients' goals and objectives. Adviser may create a portfolio, consisting of individual stocks or bonds; no-load funds and/or load-waived funds (front-end commissions will not be charged).

Investment strategies may include long term buy and hold, short-term trading, and option writing strategies. Each portfolio will be initially designed to meet particular investment goals. Adviser has determined that this portfolio is suitable to the client's goals, objectives, circumstances, and risk tolerance. Once the appropriate portfolio has been determined, Adviser will manage the client's portfolio in accordance with the particular client's investment goals and objectives. Each client will have the opportunity to place reasonable restrictions on the types of investments to be held in the portfolio. Adviser's strategy, generally, will be to seek to meet client investment objectives while providing clients with access to personal advisory services on at least an annual basis, or more often, depending upon prior agreement.

The All Terrain Portfolio account is a wrap account, the Client will not incur transaction charges imposed by unaffiliated third parties. The Client may pay custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund which shall be disclosed in the funds prospectus (i.e., fund management fees and other fund expenses), wire transfer fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions.

The fee for investment management will be based on the value of the account for the previous quarter and is payable quarterly in advance. The first advisory fee is based on the value of the account on the first day of management by AFL and is payable upon execution of the agreement. The first advisory fee will be assessed on pro-rata basis taking into account the time for which the account was not managed by AFL and the time left in the quarter.

Fees may be negotiable. The Client's fees will take into account the aggregate number of portfolios under management with Advisor.

Fees will be automatically deducted from the account. AFL sends a copy of Clients' invoices to the custodian or trustee and at the same time that AFL sends a copy to the Client. The custodian sends quarterly statements to AFL's Clients showing all disbursements for the custodian account, including the amount of the advisory fees. Clients provide written authorization permitting AFL to be paid directly for their accounts held by the custodian or trustee.

AFL discloses that it may utilize various firms for the execution of securities transactions and to custody assets. In certain cases, Adviser may recommend that clients execute transactions through unaffiliated broker-dealers further described in Item 12B of Schedule F. Adviser does not earn any commissions from unaffiliated broker-dealers. In any event, for non-discretionary accounts, Client is under no obligation to act upon Adviser's recommendations and if the Client elects to act on any of the recommendations, the Client is under no obligation to effect the transaction through Adviser, or any of the unaffiliated broker-dealers listed in Item 12B of Schedule F.

Either party may terminate the agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive pro-rata refunds, which

Financial Planning and Consulting Services

AFL will typically provide a variety of financial planning services, pursuant to a written Agreement, to individuals, families and other clients regarding the management of their financial resources based upon an analysis of client's current situation, goals, and objectives. Generally, such financial planning services will involve preparing a financial plan or rendering a financial consultation for clients based on the client's financial goals and objectives. This planning or consulting may encompass one or more of the following areas: investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, charitable planning, education planning, and business planning.

The plan developed for or financial consultation rendered to the client will usually include general recommendations for a course of activity or specific actions to be taken by the clients. For example, recommendations may be made that the clients begin or revise investment programs, create or revise wills or trusts, obtain or revise insurance coverage, commence or alter retirement savings, or establish education or charitable giving programs. AFL may also refer clients to an accountant, attorney or other specialist. For planning engagements, Adviser will provide a written summary of Client's financial situation, observations, and recommendations. For consulting engagements, Adviser may not provide a written summary. Plans or consultations are typically completed within six months of contract date, assuming all information and documents requested are provided promptly.

FEE SCHEDULE: Financial Planning and Consulting Services

Adviser offers financial planning and consulting services on an hourly basis for $250 per hour, which may be negotiable depending on the nature and complexity of each client's circumstances. An estimate for total hours will be determined at the start of the advisory relationship.

The Adviser's fee is exclusive of, and in addition to brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses which shall be incurred by the client. However, the Adviser shall not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. The hourly fees are determined after considering many factors, such as the level and scope of the services.

The Adviser may also charge a negotiable fixed fee ranging from $500 to $5,000 for a financial plan, the total of which is dependent upon the level and scope of these services. One half of the total estimated fixed and hourly fees are due and payable at the time the client's agreement is executed, the remainder of the fees are due upon presentation of a plan or the rendering of consulting services. Financial plans will be

The Client may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing written notice to the Advisor. If the Client terminates this Agreement by written notice within five (5) business days of the date of this Agreement, the Client is entitled to a full refund of advisory fees paid. Thereafter, a client will receive a pro rata refund of unearned fees based on the time and effort expended by the Advisor and Planner.

Selection, Recommendation, Due Diligence, Performance Reporting Of Third Party Advisory Services

In order to assist the client in the selection of a Third Party Advisory Service, AFL will typically gather information from the clients about the client's financial situation, investment objectives, and reasonable restrictions the clients wants imposed on the management of the account. AFL will not offer advice on any specific securities or other investments in connection with this service.

AFL will periodically review reports provided to the clients. The Investment Advisory Representatives of AFL will contact the client periodically, as agreed to with the clients, in order to review the client's financial situation and objectives; communicate information to the Third Party Advisory Service managing the account as warranted; and, assist the clients in understanding and evaluating the services provided by the Third Party Advisory Service. Clients will be expected to notify AFL of any changes in their financial situation, investment objectives, or account restrictions. Clients may also contact directly the Third Party Adviser managing the account or sponsoring the program.

AFL receives compensation pursuant to its agreements with these Third Party Advisory Programs for introducing Clients to these Third Party Advisory Programs and for certain ongoing services provided to Clients. This compensation, which is disclosed to the Client in a separate disclosure document provided by the Third Party Advisory Program, is typically equal to a percentage of the investment advisory fee charged by that Third Party Advisory Program or a fixed fee.

Due to the fact that AFL receives compensation from the Third Party Advisory Services for referring Clients and because such compensation may differ depending upon the individual agreement with each Third Party Advisory Service, AFL may have an incentive to recommend one of these Third Party Advisory Services over others with which it has less favorable compensation arrangements or other advisory programs offered by Third Party Advisory Services with which it has no compensation arrangements.

A complete description of the programs and services available through the Third Party Advisory Services will be provided to the Client upon receipt and review of the Advice offered by Adviser may involve investments in mutual and/or money market funds. Clients are hereby advised that all fees paid to Adviser for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by money market funds (described in each fund's prospectus) to their shareholders. These fees may include, but are not limited to, a management fee, upfront sales charges, and other fund expenses. Further, there may be transaction charges involved with purchasing or selling of securities. Adviser does not share in any portion of the brokerage fees/transaction charges imposed by the custodian holding the client funds or securities. The client should review all fees charged by money market funds, Adviser, and others to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client.

The fees charged are calculated as described above, and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains upon, or capital appreciation of, the funds, or any portion of the funds of an advisory client.

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

As a licensed insurance agent, Mr. Lundeen may recommend to advisory clients a variety of insurance products, and may offer commissionable (non-variable) insurance products to Adviser's clients for which he may receive compensation. A conflict of interest exists, please refer to item 9E and Miscellaneous. Mr. Lundeen spends approximately 10% or less of his time on this activity.

Item 9E and
MiscellaneousPARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENTS' TRANSACTIONS

Occasionally, AFL or its Investment Adviser Representatives may buy or sell for themselves/itself securities that AFL or its Investment Adviser Representatives recommend to clients. Although personal security transactions may be made by AFL or its Investment Adviser Representatives for its/their own account(s) without specific disclosure to the client, such transactions will not be effected when they are adverse to the client's interests. All the above represent various conflicts of interest, which are mitigated by the above disclosure to clients and the code of ethics below.

Because of the types of services offered and the securities typically recommended (mutual funds, Exchange Traded Funds or ETF's, or fixed income securities) it is unlikely that any security holding by the firm or any associated person would have an impact on the market and would not likely have any influence on any recommendation.

Code of Ethics

Adviser and/or its representatives may buy or sell for their personal account(s) investment products identical to those recommended to clients. It is in general the policy of Adviser that neither Adviser, nor its representatives may purchase or sell any individual stock or bond prior to a transaction(s) being implemented for an advisory account, however the Adviser will act in the best interest of clients. This policy is meant to prevent Adviser and/or its representatives from benefiting as a result of transactions placed on behalf of advisory accounts. Adviser has established the following restrictions in order to ensure its fiduciary responsibilities to clients are met:

- 1) Adviser's representatives shall not buy or sell securities for their personal portfolio(s) where their decision is substantially derived, in whole or in part, by their role as an Investment Advisory Representative of Adviser, unless the information is also available to the investing public on reasonable inquiry. In no case, shall Adviser's representatives prefer their own interest to that of their advisory clients^(1,2).
- 2) Adviser emphasizes the unrestricted right of its clients to decline to implement any advice rendered.
- 3) Adviser recognizes it must act in accordance with all applicable Federal and State regulations governing registered investment advisory practices.

Item 9E and Miscellaneous (Continued)	Footnotes (1) This investment policy has been established recognizing that some securities being considered for purchase and sale on behalf of Adviser's clients trade in sufficiently broad markets to permit transactions by clients to be completed without an appreciable impact on the markets of the securities. Under certain circumstances, exceptions may be made to the policies stated above. Records of these trades, including the reasons for the exceptions, will be maintained with Adviser's records in the manner set forth above. (2) Open-end mutual funds and/or the investment sub-accounts which may comprise a variable insurance product are purchased or redeemed at a fixed net asset value price per share specific to the date of purchase of redemption. As such, transactions in mutual funds and/or variable insurance products by Adviser are not likely to have an impact on the prices of the fund shares in which clients invest, and are therefore not prohibited by Adviser's Investment policies and procedures. A complete copy of the Adviser's Code of Ethics is available upon request. Insider Trading In accordance with State statutes or rules, Adviser also maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material non-public information by Adviser. Proxy Voting Adviser does not vote proxies

from TD AMERITRADE through its participation in the program.

Advisor considers a number of factors in selecting and/or recommending brokers and custodians for its Clients' accounts, including, but not limited to, execution capability, experience and financial stability, reputation and the quality of services provided. Please see the disclosure under Item 13A below.

Item 13A

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

As disclosed under Item 12B above, Advisor participates in TD AMERITRADE's institutional customer program and Advisor may recommend TD AMERITRADE to Clients for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between Advisor's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although Advisor receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD AMERITRADE retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services provided without cost or at a discount: receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving adviser participants; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts; the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to Advisor by third party vendors. TD AMERITRADE may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by Advisor's related persons. Some of the products and services made available by TD AMERITRADE through the program may benefit Advisor but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist Advisor in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD AMERITRADE. Other services made available by TD AMERITRADE are intended to help Advisor manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by Advisor or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD AMERITRADE. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, the firm endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by Advisor or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence the Advisor's choice of TD AMERITRADE for custody and brokerage services.

THIRD PARTY MONEY MANAGERS AND ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Adviser may refer clients to third party money managers and receive a portion of the advisory fee charged to the client by money managers within their programs. The amount of the Adviser's portion of the fee will be disclosed to clients at the time of the referral.

Item 13B

USE OF UNAFFILIATED SOLICITORS

AFL may pay referral fees (non-commission) to independent solicitors (non-registered representatives) for the referral of their Clients to the Advisor in accordance with Colorado Rule 51-4.9(IA) or Rule 206 (4)-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Such referral fee represents a share of AFL's asset-based investment Advisory fee. This arrangement will not result in higher costs to the Client. In this regard, AFL maintains Solicitors Agreements in compliance with Colorado Rule 51-4.9(IA) or Rule 206 (4)-3 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. All Clients referred by Solicitors to AFL will be given full written disclosure describing the terms and fee arrangements between AFL and its Solicitor(s).

(for sponsors of wrap fee programs)

Name of wrap fee program or programs described in attached brochure:

All Terrain Portfolio Discretionary Wrap Fee Program

1. Applicability of Schedule. This Schedule must be completed by applicants that are compensated under a wrap fee program for sponsoring, organizing, or administering the program, or for selecting, or providing advice to clients regarding the selection of, other investment advisers in the program ("sponsors"). A wrap fee program is any program under which a specified fee or fees not based directly upon transactions in a client's account is charged for investment advisory services (which may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisers) and execution of client transactions.
2. Use of Schedule. This Schedule sets forth the information the sponsor must include in the wrap fee brochure it is required to deliver or offer to deliver to clients and prospective clients of its wrap fee programs under Rule 204-3 under the federal Advisers Act and similar rules of the jurisdictions. The wrap fee brochure prepared in response to this Schedule must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions as part of Form ADV by completing the identifying information on this Schedule and attaching the brochure. Brochures should be prepared separately, not on copies of this Schedule. Any wrap fee brochure filed with the Commission as part of an amendment to Form ADV shall contain in the upper right hand corner of the cover page the sponsor's registration number (801-).
3. General Contents of Brochure. Unlike Parts I and II of this form, this Schedule is not organized in "check-the-box" format. These instructions, including the requests for information in Item 7 below, should not be repeated in the brochure. Rather, this Schedule describes minimum disclosures that must be made in the brochure to satisfy the sponsor's duty to disclose all material facts about the sponsor and its wrap fee programs. Nothing in this Schedule relieves the sponsor from any obligation under any provision of the federal Advisers Act or rules thereunder, or other federal or state law to disclose information to its advisory clients or prospective advisory clients not specifically required by this Schedule.
4. Multiple Sponsors. If two or more persons fall within the definition of "sponsor" in Item 1 above for a single wrap fee program, only one such sponsor need complete the Schedule. The sponsors may choose among themselves the sponsor that will complete the Schedule.
5. Omission of Inapplicable Information. Any information not specifically required by this Schedule that is included in the brochure should be applicable to clients and prospective clients of the sponsor's wrap fee programs. If the sponsor is required to complete this Schedule with respect to more than one wrap fee program, the sponsor may omit from the brochure furnished to clients and prospective clients of any wrap fee program or programs information required by this Schedule that is not applicable to clients or prospective clients of that wrap fee program or programs. If a sponsor of more than one wrap fee program prepares separate wrap fee brochures for clients of different programs, each brochure prepared must be filed with the Commission and the jurisdictions attached to a separate copy of this Schedule. Each such brochure must state that the sponsor sponsors other wrap fee programs and state how brochures for those programs may be obtained.
6. Updating. Sponsors are required to file an amendment to the brochure promptly after any information in the brochure becomes materially inaccurate. Amendments may be made by use of a "sticker," i.e., a supplement affixed to the brochure that indicates what information is being added or updated and states the new or revised information, as long as the resulting brochure is readable. Stickers should be dated and should be incorporated into the text of the brochure when the brochure itself is revised.
7. Contents of Brochure. Include in the brochure prepared in response to this Schedule:
 - (a) on the cover page, the sponsor's name, address, telephone number, and the following legend in bold type or some other prominent fashion:

This brochure provides clients with information about Arkenstone Financial, LLC and the All Terrain Portfolio Discretionary Wrap Fee Program that should be considered before becoming a client of the Wrap Program. This information has not been approved or verified by any governmental authority.
 - (b) a table of contents reflecting the subject headings in the sponsor's brochure;
 - (c) the amount of the wrap fee charged for each program or, if fees vary according to a schedule established by the sponsor, a table setting forth the fee schedule, whether such fees are negotiable, the portion of the total fee (or the range of such amounts) paid to persons providing advice to clients regarding the purchase or sale of specific securities under the program ("portfolio managers"), and the services provided under each program (including the types of portfolio management services);

- (d) a statement that the program may cost the client more or less than purchasing such services separately and a statement of the factors that bear upon the relative cost of the program (e.g., the cost of the services if provided separately and the trading activity in the client's account);
- (e) if applicable, a statement that the person recommending the program to the client receives compensation as a result of the client's participation in the program, that the amount of this compensation may be more than what the person would receive if the client participated in other programs of the sponsor or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage, and other services, and that the person may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend the wrap fee program over other programs or services;
- (f) a description of the nature of any fees that the client may pay in addition to the wrap fee and the circumstances under which these fees may be paid (including, if applicable, mutual fund expenses and mark-ups, mark-downs or spreads paid to market makers from whom securities were obtained by the wrap fee broker);
- (g) how the program's portfolio managers are selected and reviewed, the basis upon which portfolio managers are recommended or chosen for particular clients, and the circumstances under which the sponsor will replace or recommend the replacement of the portfolio manager;
- (h)
 - (1) if applicable, a statement to the effect that portfolio manager performance information is not reviewed by the sponsor or a third party and/or that performance information is not calculated on a uniform and consistent basis,
 - (2) if performance information is reviewed to determine its accuracy, the name of the party who review the information and a brief description of the nature of the review,
 - (3) a reference to any standards (i.e., industry standards or standards used solely by the sponsor) under which performance information may be calculated;
- (i) a description of the information about the client that is communicated by the sponsor to the client's portfolio manager, and how often or under what circumstances the sponsor provides updated information about the client to the portfolio manager.
- (j) any restrictions on the ability of clients to contact and consult with portfolio managers;
- (k) in narrative text, the information required by Items 7 and 8 of Part II of this form and, as applicable to clients of the wrap fee program, the information required by Items 2, 5, 6, 9A and C, 10, 11, 13 and 14 of Part II;
- (l) if any practice or relationship disclosed in response to Item 7, 8, 9A, 9C and 13 of Part II presents a conflict between the interests of the sponsor and those of its clients, explain the nature of any such conflict of interest; and
- (m) if the sponsor or its divisions or employees covered under the same investment adviser registration as the sponsor act as portfolio managers for a wrap fee program described in the brochure, a brief, general description of the investments and investment strategies utilized by those portfolio managers.

8. Organization and Cross References. Except for the cover page requirements in Item 7(a) above, information contained in the brochure need not follow the order of the items listed in Item 7. However, the brochure should not be organized in such a manner that important information called for by the form is obscured.

Set forth below the pages(s) of the brochure on which the various disclosures required by Item 7 are provided.

Program Description

AFL's Wrap Program has been designed to help meet AFL's client's financial circumstances and investment objectives.

AFL Services

AFL's All Terrain Portfolio Discretionary Wrap Program Accounts. AFL's Wrap Assets will be managed by AFL on a discretionary basis. AFL will review the Wrap Assets on a regular and continuous basis and make recommendations as AFL deems appropriate. AFL typically recommends stocks, ETF's, hedge funds, private equities, managed futures, and some mutual funds that are appropriate given the client's financial circumstances and investment goals for the Wrap Program Accounts, but may also recommend other securities or money management programs from time to time. AFL selects mutual funds for inclusion in its recommended list of funds based on style, past performance, experience and track records of fund managers, and risk ratings as established by independent rating services. AFL's recommendations of other securities will be based on the client's particular needs and AFL's independent review of the appropriateness of the securities to assist the client to meet those needs.

Wrap Program Accounts that are managed on a discretionary basis allow AFL to implement recommendations without the client's prior approval. AFL will act as the Client's agent to implement such recommendation in accordance with Client's instructions. The client agrees to review trade confirmations received from the client's custodian and notify AFL immediately of any errors.

Brokerage and Custody of Program Accounts

AFL will direct transactions for Wrap Program Accounts to such broker-dealers as they may select, unless the client gives specific directions otherwise. In directing or recommending brokerage, AFL seeks "best execution" for client accounts, which is a combination of a number of judgmental factors including price, execution quality and client needs. Recognizing the value of these judgmental factors, brokers selected or recommended may charge commissions that are higher than the lowest commissions that might otherwise be available.

AFL has a relationship with TD AMERITRADE Institutional, a division of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. ("TD AMERITRADE") member FINRA/SIPC. This firm will provide custody and execution services in accordance with the terms set forth in your agreement. AFL reasonably believes that in the case of managed accounts, TD AMERITRADE's blend of execution services, commission and transaction costs as well as professionalism allows AFL to seek best execution and competitive prices.

Program Fees

The annual Program Fees payable to AFL is as follows:

Assets under Management	Advisory Fee
$0-$249,999	1.90 %
$249,999-$999,999	1.50 %
$1,000,000-$2,999,999	1.00 %
$3,000,000+	Negotiable

What costs are covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees pay for AFL's advisory services to clients under the Program and transaction fees of the Program.

What costs are not covered by the Program Fees? The Program Fees do not cover brokerage to the extent trades are conducted through brokers or dealers other than TD AMERITRADE and custody charges. Finally, the Program Fees do not include expenses of mutual funds that may be included in the client's portfolio.

How are fees charged? The fee for investment management will be based on the value of the account for the previous quarter and is payable quarterly in advance. The first advisory fee is based on the value of the account on the first day of management by AFL and is payable upon execution of the agreement. The first advisory fee will be assessed on pro-rata basis taking into account the time for which the account was not managed by AFL and the time left in the quarter.

Is there a minimum fee and are fees negotiable? AFL generally requires a minimum account size of $250,000 for managed accounts. This account requirement is negotiable in certain circumstances. The fact that a client's household has multiple accounts under management with AFL may be taken into consideration when determining minimum account size requirements.

Additional Information about Program Fees. AFL may offer the services provided under the Program separately. However, clients may be able to purchase services similar to those offered under the Program from other service providers either separately or as part of a similar wrap fee program. These services or programs may cost more or less than the Program, depending on the fees charged by such other service providers.

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES OR AFFILIATIONS

As a licensed insurance agent, Mr. Lundeen may recommend to advisory clients a variety of insurance products, and may offer commissionable (non-variable) insurance products to Adviser's clients for which he may receive compensation.

A conflict of interest exists, please refer to item 9E and Miscellaneous of Schedule F of Form ADV.

Mr. Lundeen spends approximately 10% or less of his time on this activity.

Education and Business Standards

All individuals that render investment advisory services on behalf of AFL must have earned a four-year college degree and/or have substantive investment-related experience. In addition, all such individuals shall have attained all required investment-related licenses and/or designations.

Other Financial Industry Activities or Affiliations

IARs of AFL who are also licensed insurance agents can effect transactions in insurance products and earn the standard and customary commissions for these activities. Moreover, the fees charged by AFL for advisory services are separate and distinct from any commissions earned by insurance agents for the sale and servicing of insurance products.

Additional Disclosure regarding Fees and Accounts

Fees will be automatically deducted from the account. AFL sends a copy of Clients' invoices to the custodian or trustee and at the same time that AFL sends a copy to the Client. The custodian sends quarterly statements to AFL's Clients showing all disbursements for the custodian account, including the amount of the advisory fees. Clients provide written authorization permitting AFL to be paid directly for their accounts held by the custodian or trustee.

Adviser shall never have custody except for authorized fee withdrawal of any client funds or securities, as the services of a qualified and independent custodian will be used for these asset management services.

Either party may terminate the agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party. Full refunds will only be made in cases where cancellation occurs within five (5) business days of signing the Advisor's investment advisory agreement. After five (5) business days, clients will receive pro-rata refunds, which take into account work completed by the Advisor on behalf of the client. The client will incur charges for bona fide advisory services rendered to the point of termination and such fees will be due and payable by the client.

The fees charged are calculated as described above, and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains upon, or capital appreciation of, the funds, or any portion of the funds of an advisory client.

Insider Trading

In accordance with State statutes or rules, Adviser also maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material non-public information by Adviser.
