ITEM 1.D	Advisory Services and Fees Registrant serves as the sole general partner and the sole investment adviser of NeXt X Fund, LP, LP, a private investment limited partnership (the "Fund"). See Item 3.L below for a description of the Fund's investment strategy. Although custody of Fund assets is entrusted to an independent custodian pursuant to the limited partnership agreement of the Fund, Registrant is nevertheless deemed to have custody of Fund assets under current regulations under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Accordingly, Registrant is required to comply with all Investment Advisers Act regulations applicable to an investment adviser having custody of client assets. Registrant has full discretion over Fund investments, and the Fund's limited partners have no right to participate in investment decisions. Registrant charges each Fund limited partner an asset-based fee ("Management Fee"), quarterly in advance, equal to .5% (a 2.0% annual rate) of the limited partner's capital account value on the first day of the quarter. This fee is fully earned and non-refundable as of the first day of each quarter. A pro-rated Management Fee is charged with respect to capital contributions made as of a date other than the first day of a quarter. Registrant is also entitled to a performance-based allocation (a "Performance Allocation") from each Fund limited partner, annually or upon any partial of full withdrawal of capital, equal to 20% of the net appreciation in the limited partner's capital account during the measurement period, after absorption of any prior-period net capital depreciation (i.e. subject to a high water mark). Registrant will charge performance-based fees only in compliance with applicable regulations under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, including but not limited to Rule 205-3 thereunder. At any time when Registrant is subject to Section 260.234 of the California Code of Regulations, Registrant will charge performance-based fees only in compliance with Section 260.234 of the California Code of Regulations. Registrant has authority to vary the percentage applicable to its asset-based fee and/or its performance-based compensation for any limited partner, upon agreement with the limited partner (provided that the quarterly asset-based Management Fee may not exceed .75% (a 3.0% annual rate) of the limited partner's capital account value). A limited partner has the right to withdraw from the Fund on 60 days' notice as of the end of any quarter (subject to a four-quarter lockup). Registrant has discretion to approve withdrawals during a Limited Partner's lock-up period, in which case the Limited Partner will be subject to a withdrawal fee (payable to the Fund) equal

	to 3% of the amount withdrawn, unless such fee is waived by Registrant. Upon any withdrawal, any unearned prepaid fees will be refunded to the withdrawing Limited Partner. These compensation and withdrawal provisions are described in detail in the Confidential Private Offering Memorandum pursuant to which limited partnership interests in the Fund are offered. A prospective investor in the Fund should read carefully the Confidential Private Offering Memorandum and its attached Exhibits and consult his or her own advisers before considering an investment in the Fund, and should rely on the more detailed disclosures in those documents. Among other disclosures, prospective investors in the Fund are advised of the possibility that other investment advisers would perform the same services as Registrant agrees to perform under the Fund's limited partnership agreement for smaller compensation than Registrant will receive under the Fund's limited partnership agreement. The same possibility will exist under any investment advisory agreement which Registrant may make with a client other than the Fund, and Registrant accordingly will make a similar disclosure to such a client before entering into such an agreement. Such disclosure will be made in compliance with applicable regulations under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. At any time when Registrant is subject to 260.238(j) of the California Code of Regulations, the disclosures will comply with Section 260.238(j) of the California Code of Regulations. In the event that Registrant advises clients other than the Fund, Registrant anticipates that its compensation arrangements with such clients will resemble the fee arrangements applicable to a limited partner in the Fund. Registrant nevertheless reserves the right to enter into compensation arrangements with any existing or future client that may vary substantially from the compensation arrangements between Registrant and the Fund or between Registrant and other clients.
ITEM 2.G	See also response to Part II, 1, D. Investors in the Fund generally must be accredited investors as defined in Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, and qualified clients under Rule 205-3 of the Investment Advisers Act, though Registrant has authority to waive these requirements on a case by case basis. The Fund places no formal restrictions on the types of clients that may invest, provided that a prospective client satisfies these eligibility requirements. Registrant may decline a proposed investment from any person.
ITEM 3.L	Registrant serves as the general partner and investment adviser of the Fund. See also response to Part II, 1, D. In that capacity, Registrant advises the Fund on investments in "Securities" as broadly defined in the Fund's limited partnership agreement (see response to Part II, 1, D above). The General Partner will act in a manner which it considers fair and equitable in allocating investment opportunities among the Fund and the accounts of its other clients. On request from any client or prospective client, Registrant will provide a copy of its code of ethics reflecting the principles described above in this response. Without limiting the preceding portions of this response, all material conflicts of interest regarding Registrant, its representatives or any of its employees which could be reasonably be expected to impair Registrant's rendering of unbiased and objective advice to an advisory client will be disclosed to the client as and when required under Section 260.238(k) of the California Code of Regulations, if applicable, and any other applicable laws or regulations.
ITEM 10	Registrant may (or may elect not to) provide investment advisory services for managed accounts for a minimum investment amount yet to be determined. Registrant also serves as the general partner and investment adviser to the Fund. See response to Part II, 1, D.
ITEM 11.A	Reviews of the Fund's accounts are conducted on an ongoing basis by Registrant's portfolio manager, and at least quarterly are reviewed by the portfolio manager in greater depth. All reviews are undertaken to determine whether the Fund's portfolio reflects the investment strategies, restrictions and policies stated in the Fund's Confidential Private Placement Memorandum. Any accounts other than the Fund's accounts will be reviewed at such frequency and according to such criteria as may be agreed between Registrant and the client involved, but Registrant intends that such reviews generally will be conducted in substantially the same manner, and with substantially the same frequency, as reviews of the Fund's accounts.
ITEM 11.B	Investors in a Fund receive quarterly unaudited financial statements and performance summaries, and annual audited financial statements. Any clients other than investors in a Fund will receive reports at such frequency and with such content as may be agreed between Registrant and the client involved, but Registrant intends that such reports generally will include substantially the same content, and be delivered with substantially the same frequency, as reports delivered to investors in a Fund.
ITEM 12.A	Registrant has full discretion to determine the identity and the amount of all securities to be bought and sold by the Fund, and to determine which broker or dealer is to be used in each transaction and the commission rates to be paid in such transactions. See also responses to Part II, 1, D and Part II, 12, B.

ITEM 12.B	Registrant's brokerage practices with respect to the Fund, which Registrant generally intends to follow with other clients except as may be specifically agreed with a client, are described in the section of its Confidential Private Placement Memorandum entitled "Brokerage Arrangements." That description follows: The General Partner and the Investment Manager assume no responsibility for the actions or omissions of any broker or dealer selected by the Investment Manager in good faith to execute Fund transactions. In negotiating commission rates, the Investment Manager takes into account the financial stability and reputation of the broker, and the quality of the investment research, investment strategies, special execution capabilities, clearance, settlement, custody, recordkeeping and other services provided by such broker (as described more fully below), even though the Fund may or may not in any particular instance be the direct or indirect beneficiary of the research or other services provided. In selecting brokers or dealers to execute transactions for the Fund, the Investment Manager will not solicit competitive bids and has no obligation to seek the lowest available commission cost. The Investment Manager may not always negotiate "execution only" commission rates. In addition to research, the services that may be provided to the Investment Manager by the Fund's brokers may include, without limitation, services such as special execution capabilities, clearance, settlement, net pricing, online pricing, block trading and block positioning capabilities, willingness to execute related or unrelated difficult transactions in the future, online access to computerized data regarding clients' accounts, performance measurement data, consultations, economic and market information, portfolio strategy advice, industry and company comments, technical data, recommendations, general reports, financial strength and stability, efficiency of execution and error resolution, quotation services, the availability of securities to borrow for short sales. Although the General Partner and Investment Manager presently do not contemplate that broker-provided services, if any, will extend to the following, they have authority to retain brokers on behalf of the Fund who agree to provide one or more of such services for the Fund: custody, recordkeeping and similar services, as well as paying for a portion of the Fund's costs and expenses of operation, such as newswire and data processing charges, quotation services, periodical subscription fees and other reasonable expenses incurred by the Fund. The foregoing list of "soft dollar" services which may be received by the Investment Manager is extensive because of the diverse range of the possible services which the Fund's brokers may provide.
