Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to the client's evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. No information is applicable to this item.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Alan S. Friedlander is also a registered representative of D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP, a broker dealer and member of FINRA. This other activity may require up to 80% of his time.

As a registered representative with D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP, commission-based products may be offered to advisory clients through D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP, which creates a conflict of interest. The client is under no obligation to implement any such recommendations and may select any other advisor or broker dealer to implement them. However, if any of such recommendations are implemented through D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP for the purchase of a specific security, insurance, or other investment product, a conflict of interest exists because commissions will be paid to the investment advisor representative in his capacity as a registered representative of D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP. Clients are advised of the existence of any conflict of interest and a disclosure of the conflict of interest is included on the new account form of D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP.

As an insurance representative, commission-based insurance products may be offered to advisory clients through multiple insurance companies, which create a conflict of interest.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation
