Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to the client's evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. No information is applicable to this item.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Dan H. Hill is also the principal executive officer and general securities principal of D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP, a broker dealer and member of FINRA. He is also a registered representative of the broker dealer and a licensed insurance agent. These other activities may require up to 50% of his time.

As a registered representative with D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP, commission-based products may be offered to advisory clients through D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP, which creates a conflict of interest. The client is under no obligation to implement any such recommendations and may select any other advisor or broker dealer to implement them. However, if any of such recommendations are implemented through D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP for the purchase of a specific security, insurance, or other investment product, a conflict of interest exists because commissions will be paid to the investment advisor representative in his capacity as a registered representative of D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP. Clients are advised of the existence of any conflict of interest, and a disclosure of the conflict of interest is included on the new account form of D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP.

Dan H. Hill is the principal executive officer of D.H. Hill Insurance Services, LLC, an insurance agency. Commission-based insurance products may be offered to advisory clients through D.H. Hill Insurance Services, LLC, which creates a conflict of interest.

Dan H. Hill is also a Texas real estate broker. Dan spends less than 5 hours per month with generally none during trading hours.
