Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

On May 14, 2010, Noor Amirali was suspended for three months and asked to pay a civil and administrative penalty/fine of $5,000. Without admitting or denying the findings, Mr. Amirali consented to the described sanctions and to the entry of findings that he placed customer initials and signatures and inserted dates on account documents for customers. The various actions were approved by the customers, but they did not authorize Mr. Amirali to sign their initials, signatures, insert dates, or alter the documents. By conducting these acts, Mr. Amirali caused the firm's books and records to be inaccurate and therefore in violation of SEC Rule 17A-3.

During the registration process, the staff of the Texas State Securities Board discovered that from in or about 2005 to in or about 2008, Noor Amirali initialed forms on behalf of customers of Chase and submitted such forms to Chase, which violated the written supervisory procedures of the firm. As a result, Mr. Amirali's registration was suspended for a period of three days from the date the order was entered by the SEC. The suspension has now ended and Noor Amirali will be under the close supervision of D.H. Hill Advisors, Inc. and D.H. Hill Securities, LLLP by Compliance Supervisor Dan H. Hill for a period of two years beginning September 29, 2009.
