Advisory Business

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 4

A. Posey Capital's registration was granted by the Texas Securities Board on October 17, 2002 and by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on June 21, 2010. Thomas L. Posey (CRD No. 3008527) is President and chief compliance officer of the firm and owns one hundred (100%) percent of the firm's equity. The firm is not publicly owned or traded. There are no indirect owners of the firm or intermediaries which have any ownership interest in the firm.

B. Advisory Services

Posey Capital Management Inc. offers personalized portfolio management and financial planning services to individuals, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations, and other business entities. The firm's services and fee arrangements are described in the following pages.

Posey Capital Management is a corporation formed under the laws of the State of Texas. This F narrative provides clients with information about the firm, its qualifications and business practices, and the nature of the advisory services offered by the firm. The information in this brochure has not been approved or verified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the State of Texas or any other State securities authority.

Please contact Thomas L. Posey, President, if you have any questions about this narrative. Additional information about Posey Capital Management is available on the Internet at www.poseycapital.com. In addition, the Securities and Exchange Commission's Web site offers information about registered investment advisors at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. You can search the SEC site by a unique identifying number, known as a CRD number. The CRD number for Posey Capital Management is 122405.

Portfolio Management Services

Posey Capital Management offers portfolio management services in which the investment advice provided is custom-tailored to meet the needs and investment objectives of the client. Subject to any written guidelines that the client may provide, the firm may be granted discretionary authority to manage the account. Accordingly, Posey Capital Management is authorized to perform various functions, at the client's expense, without further approval from the client. Such functions include the determination of securities to be purchased/sold and the amount of securities to be purchased/sold. Once the portfolio is constructed, Posey Capital Management provides ongoing supervision of the portfolio.

At its discretion, the firm may allow accounts of members of the same household to be aggregated for purposes of determining the advisory fee. Posey Capital Management may allow such aggregation, for example, where the firm services accounts on behalf of minor children of current clients, individual and joint accounts for a spouse, and certain other types of related accounts. This consolidation practice is designed to allow clients the benefit of an increased asset base which could potentially enable the accounts to be assessed a reduced advisory fee based on the larger asset base.

Qualified Independent Custodian

Posey Capital Management never has custody of any client funds or securities. The services of a qualified independent third-party custodian who reports directly to the client are utilized for all portfolio management accounts. The custodian sends transaction confirmations and monthly statements directly to the client on all client accounts.

Currently Fidelity Investments is the custodian for most client accounts. In business since 1946, Fidelity Investments is one of the largest account custodians in the world with well over $1 trillion in assets custodied.

The independent third-party custodian relationship is strictly between the client and the custodian. Generally, Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) and certain private insurance provided by Fidelity Investments are available to protect most client accounts with the custodian. Nevertheless, if the custodian were to become financially insolvent the client would be subject to risk of loss. For information about steps Fidelity Investments takes to enhance the security of client accounts, see <http://personal.fidelity.com/global/content/protecting-our-clients-asset-is-our-priority.shtml?cvsrc=cp>.

While Posey Capital believes that Fidelity is strong, financially solvent, and able to honor its commitments to its clients, Posey Capital does not guarantee Fidelity's financial situation or its ability to honor its commitments to its clients. The custodial relationship is between the client and Fidelity.

As a general rule, the minimum amount under management for a new client relationship is $2,000,000. Sometimes the firm makes exceptions.

Financial Planning Services

Financial planning typically involves providing a variety of services, principally advisory in nature, to clients regarding the management of their financial resources based upon an analysis of their individual needs. The topics frequently covered include retirement planning, investment advice on asset allocation and investment selections, insurance planning, tax planning, planning for children's and grandchildren's educations, gifting programs, wealth transfer planning, business succession planning and estate planning. Financial planning services may include consultations and/or written plans that analyze a client's financial situation and make appropriate recommendations for strategies. Assistance with implementing the strategies may be provided as well.

Some clients may only require advice on a single aspect of the management of their financial resources. For these clients, Posey Capital Management may offer consulting services that address only those specific areas of concern.

Financial plans are based on the client's financial situation at the time the plan is presented and are based on financial information disclosed by the client to Posey Capital Management. The client is responsible for providing complete and accurate information about his or her financial situation and circumstances. Clients are advised that certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates and use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. Past performance is in no way an indication of future performance. Posey Capital Management cannot offer any guarantees or promises that the client's financial goals and objectives will be met. As the client's financial situation, goals, objectives, or needs change, the client must notify Posey Capital Management promptly.

Insurance

If the firm's analysis indicates that the client should consider insurance, the firm may recommend an insurance agent based on the agent's costs, reputation, dependability and compatibility with the client, and may assist the client with obtaining the insurance. The firm may charge separately for this service or it may be included in the fixed fee.

Posey Capital Management does not accept insurance commissions or referral fees in connection with any insurance that may be purchased by the client. Posey Capital Management is not related to any insurance company or agent. Posey Capital Management does not guarantee the products or services of any insurance company or agent.

Wills and Other Legal Documents

Thomas L. Posey, President, is an attorney and a member in good standing of the State Bar of Texas, but he does not practice law. At the client's request, the firm may recommend an attorney based on the attorney's costs, reputation, dependability and compatibility with the client.

Posey Capital Management does not accept legal fees or referral fees from any legal referral. Posey Capital Management is not related to any attorney or law firm. Posey Capital Management does not guarantee the work of any attorney or law firm.

Termination

The client may terminate the financial planning and portfolio management agreement within five days of the date of acceptance without penalty to the client. However, the client will incur a pro rata charge for bona fide financial planning and/or consulting services rendered prior to such termination. After the five-day period, either party may terminate the agreement by providing written notice to the other party. If there are any prepaid unearned fees, Posey Capital Management will promptly refund the unearned fees to the client. Any portfolio management fee that has been earned for the current quarter will be pro-rated for the portion of the quarter in which the assets were managed before the cancellation notice was received.

C. The firm tailors its advisory services to the individualized needs of its clients. Reviews are offered, typically annually, but more often if needed. Advisory clients may impose restrictions on their accounts.

D. The firm does not participate in any wrap fee programs.

E. The firm manages about 235 accounts.

Fees and Compensation

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 5

Portfolio Management Fees

The fee for portfolio management services is billed quarterly at the end of each quarter. Fees are assessed in arrears, on a pro rata basis if the portfolio management service begins at any time other than the first day of a calendar quarter. Fees are calculated by our staff and randomly spot-checked by a third party the firm engages for this purpose. Posey Capital Management invoices the client directly for portfolio management services or, with client consent, fees may be paid on the client's behalf by the qualified independent custodian holding the client's funds and securities and deducted from the client's account. The portfolio management fee is based on a percentage of the assets under management and typically ranges from 1/2 of 1% to 2% per year, depending on the size and complexity of the client's account. In most cases the fee is 1% per year, or 1/4% per quarter.

Financial Planning Fees

Typically, Posey Capital Management provides financial planning services only to portfolio management clients. A negotiable fixed fee is paid in advance before the financial planning begins. In unusual cases, Posey Capital Management may provide financial planning services for a negotiable hourly fee or fixed fee.

Types of Clients

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 7

Types of clients include individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations or other business entities.

Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 8

The method of securities analysis employed by the firm shall be fundamental analysis.

Posey Capital Management does not represent, warrant, guarantee or imply that the services or methods of analysis employed by the firm can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate clients from losses due to market corrections or declines. Past performance is no guarantee of future performance. Market values of investments will always fluctuate based on market conditions.

Advice offered by Posey Capital Management may involve investments in mutual funds. Clients are advised that all fees paid to Posey Capital Management for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds to their shareholders. Mutual fund fees will generally include a fund management fee and other fund expenses. Mutual fund fees are described in the fund's prospectus, which the custodian mails directly to the client following any purchase of a mutual fund that is new to the client's account. In addition, a prospectus is available online at each mutual fund company's Web site. At the client's request at any time Posey Capital Management will direct the client to the appropriate Web page to access the prospectus.

In addition, the custodian may charge the client a brokerage fee to purchase or sell securities. Generally the brokerage fee charged to clients by Fidelity Investments is $25 per mutual fund trade. Posey Capital Management does not share in any brokerage fee that may be charged by the custodian.

The client should review all fees charged by mutual funds, Posey Capital Management, and the custodian to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 10

Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 11

The firm has adopted a written Code of Ethics in accordance with SEC Rule 204A-1. This Code of Ethics discusses the required professional behavior imposed by the firm upon all associated persons and access persons. The Code of Ethics also discusses the required protocol in relation to the trading of personal securities. The governing principle by which the firm conducts its business is that the firm is a fiduciary to its clients. As a fiduciary, the firm has a duty of care, loyalty, honesty, and good faith to its clients. Compliance with this duty can be achieved by trying to avoid conflicts of interest and by fully disclosing all material facts concerning any conflict that does arise with a client.

A copy of the firm's Code of Ethics is available to clients and prospective clients upon request.

Posey Capital Management may recommend publicly-traded securities to its clients which employees of the firm own in their personal accounts. In order to prevent "front-running" and to avoid potential conflicts of interest, Posey Capital Management prohibits employees from conducting trades in their accounts when there is an open order pending for a client in the same security, other than mutual funds which trade at the day's closing price and which therefore cannot be affected by intraday trading.

Brokerage Practices

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 12

Posey Capital Management manages client accounts on a discretionary basis. The firm's and the custodian's policies and procedures both prohibit and prevent Posey Capital Management or its associates from withdrawing any assets from client accounts. The firm's discretionary transactions in client accounts are limited to general securities, mutual funds, options and government securities.

Suggestions of Broker

Those clients who ask Posey Capital Management to recommend a broker will receive a recommendation based on the broker's costs, skills, reputation, dependability and compatibility with the client. Clients may be able to obtain lower commissions and fees from other brokers. The value of products, research and services provided to Posey Capital Management by the broker, if any, is not a factor in determining the selection of broker-dealers.

Review of Accounts

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 13

The firm reviews and, if appropriate, rebalances client accounts following the client's financial plan update, typically annually. While the firm encourages annual financial plan updates, clients may and often do defer their updates until they feel they have a need to meet. To address this situation, the firm may review client accounts more often. In order to avoid unnecessary transaction costs and income taxes, the firm rebalances to the target asset allocation only if necessary, in the firm's judgment, to meaningfully reduce risk or enhance return. In some circumstances, the firm will perform a special review of an account. Events that may trigger a special review include a client request, or receipt of information from the client of a substantial change in the client's financial circumstances or investment objectives. Tom Posey, Jeff Eschman or Dani LaMarche will analyze the account and generate trades where appropriate. The trades generally then will be checked by one or both of the other team members before the orders are placed with the custodian.

It is further disclosed that the firm prepares quarterly reports for its clients showing their account balances and certain other information. In addition, clients receive monthly or quarterly statements and/or annual and semi-annual mutual fund reports from their custodians, mutual funds and other money managers, as appropriate.

The firm's principal executive officer and other management persons, their formal education and business background, are provided elsewhere in this Form ADV Part 2. The firm is not engaged in any business other than giving investment advice. The firm is not compensated with performance-based fees. The firm has no relationship or arrangement by which it or the principal executive officer or any management person is compensated by any issuer of securities.

Additional Information

Posey Capital Management is entirely independent, does not share in any fees or commissions charged by any custodian, and does not accept compensation from any custodian.

Currently Fidelity Investments is the qualified independent third-party custodian for all client accounts. In business since 1946, Fidelity Investments is one of the largest account custodians in the world with well over $1 trillion in assets combined.

The independent third-party custodian relationship is strictly between the client and the custodian. Generally, Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) and certain private insurance provided by Fidelity Investments are available to protect most client accounts with the custodian. Nevertheless, if the custodian were to become financially insolvent the client would be subject to risk of loss. For information about steps Fidelity Investments takes to enhance the security of client accounts, see <http://personal.fidelity.com/global/content/protecting-our-clients-asset-is-our-priority.shtml.cvsr?refhp=cp>.

While Posey Capital Management believes that Fidelity is strong, financially solvent, and able to honor its commitments to its clients, Posey Capital Management cannot guarantee Fidelity's financial situation or its ability to honor its commitments to its clients.
