4. Other Business Activities

David Wilson is also a registered representative of Walnut Street Securities, Inc. ("WSS"), a FINRA registered broker-dealer and may receive commissions on securities transactions. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that Mr. Wilson recommends that a client invest in a security which results in a commission being paid to him. Approximately 20% of his time is spent in this capacity. Notwithstanding the fact that principals and associates of MFA may be registered representatives of WSS, the investment advisor representative of MFA is solely responsible for the investment advice rendered. Advisory services are provided separately and independently of WSS.

In addition, Mr. Wilson may engage in selling individual insurance (health, life, disability, and long-term care) and group retirement plans, including, 401k. Approximately 15% of his time is spent in this capacity.

5. Additional Compensation

Mr. Wilson does not receive an economic benefit from someone that is not a client for providing advisory services. He is not compensated through sales awards or prizes.

6. Supervision

MFA is composed of experienced investment professionals possessing a broad range of knowledge within the securities industry. Advisory persons associated with MFA must possess appropriate business experience and all required licenses. Michael Matson, President of Matson Financial Advisors (203-743-0131) is responsible for any supervisory responsibilities.
