Item 2 Educational Background and Business Experience

We are required to disclose the following information about Mr. Melling:

David A. Melling, CFS, BCAA

Year of Birth: 1965

Formal Education after high school:

1985- Attended University of Colorado at Denver, studied Finance.

Business Background:

1989-Present, Personal Benefit Services of Colorado, Inc- Investment Adviser Representative

Professional Licenses and Exams:

Mr. Melling holds the FINRA Series 7, 24, 51 and 63 securities licenses, and is a licensed life, accident and health insurance agent.

Mr. Melling has earned a CFS designation. CFS® is the oldest designation in the mutual fund industry. As a certified funds specialist, candidates learn criteria such as alpha, beta, correlation coefficient, first-auto correlation, R-squared, and standard deviation that should be incorporated in the selection process.

With mutual funds training, a Certified Fund Specialist® is able to evaluate and compare financial measurements and benchmarks when constructing a portfolio. Modern portfolio theory (MPT) is a key part of the program; its components are broken down and detailed in terms the advisor can easily understand and convey to a client. Armed with MPT and other selection criteria learned as part of the mutual fund education, a suitable and efficient portfolio using closed-end, exchange-traded, and open-end funds can be derived.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Mr. Melling, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.<sup>1</sup>

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

<sup>1</sup> Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving Mr. Melling to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of Mr. Melling to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

A. If Mr. Melling is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if he is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Mr. Melling's other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

2. If Mr. Melling receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation he receives. We must explain that this practice gives Mr. Melling an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

Mr. Melling is a registered representative of Royal Alliance, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC. He may offer securities and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that Mr. Melling recommends that a client invest in a security which results in a commission being paid to him.

A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products incentive to recommend products based on the compensation adviser and/or our supervised persons may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client.

B. If Mr. Melling is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of his income or involve a substantial amount of his time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Melling's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Melling is licensed as an insurance agent with various insurance companies, and in such capacity, may recommend, on a fully disclosed basis, the purchase of insurance-related products. Mr. Melling currently devotes 30% of his time to securities and life insurance commission business.

Mr. Melling offers non-investment related financial planning and retirement seminars for Federal employees. He provides general financial advice which is not geared towards the individual needs of the attendees. Mr. Melling spends approximately 20% of his time in this outside business activity.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Melling for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include his regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6 Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Mr. Melling, including how we monitor the advice he provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mr. Melling's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Ms. Evans, Chief Compliance Officer of Personal Benefit Services of CO, Inc supervises Mr. Melling's activities to ensure compliance with our firm's code of ethics. Please contact Ms. Evans if you have any questions about Mr. Melling's brochure supplement at (303)991-6400.
