

Item 1 – Cover Page

Scott White Advisors, LLC
1510 Royal Palm Square Boulevard #103
Fort Myers, Florida 33919
(239) 936-6300
www.scottwhiteadvisors.com
March 31, 2011

This Brochure provides information about the qualifications and business practices of Scott White Advisors, LLC [“ADVISER”]. If you have any questions about the contents of this Brochure, please contact us at (239) 936-6300 or www.uhlerandvertich.com. The information in this Brochure has not been approved or verified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or by any state securities authority.

Scott White Advisors, LLC is a registered investment adviser. Registration of an Investment Adviser does not imply any level of skill or training. The oral and written communications of an Adviser provide you with information about which you determine to hire or retain an Adviser.

Additional information about Scott White Advisors, LLC is also available on the SEC’s website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 2 – Material Changes

On July 28, 2010, the United State Securities and Exchange Commission published “Amendments to Form ADV” which amends the disclosure document that we provide to clients as required by SEC Rules. This Brochure dated March 31, 2011 is a new document prepared according to the SEC’s new requirements and rules. As such, this Document is materially different in structure and requires certain new information that our previous Brochure did not require.

In the future, this Item will discuss only specific material changes that are made to the Brochure and provide clients with a summary of such changes. We will also reference the date of our last annual update of our Brochure.

In the past we have offered or delivered information about our qualifications and business practices to clients on at least an annual basis. Pursuant to new SEC Rules, we will ensure that you receive a summary of any material changes to this and subsequent Brochures within 120 days of the close of our business’ fiscal year. We may further provide other ongoing disclosure information about material changes as necessary.

We will further provide you with a new Brochure as necessary based on changes or new information, at any time, without charge.

Currently, our Brochure may be requested by contacting A. Scott White at (239) 936-6300 or scott@scottwhiteadvisors.com. Our Brochure is also available on our web site www.scottwhiteadvisors.com, also free of charge.

Additional information about Scott White Advisors, LLC is also available via the SEC’s web site www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The SEC’s web site also provides information about any persons affiliated with Scott White Advisors, LLC who are registered, or are required to be registered, as Investment Adviser Representatives of Scott White Advisors, LLC.

Item 3 -Table of Contents

Item 1 – Cover Page.....	1
Item 2 – Material Changes.....	2
Item 3 -Table of Contents.....	3
Item 4 – Advisory Business.....	4
Item 5 – Fees and Compensation.....	11
Item 6 – Performance Fees and Side-By-Side Management.....	17
Item 7 – Types of Clients.....	17
Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss.....	17
Item 9 – Disciplinary Action.....	18
Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations.....	19
Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation in Client Transactions and Personal Trading.....	20
Item 12 – Brokerage Practices.....	21
Item 13 – Review of Accounts.....	22
Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation.....	23
Item 15 – Custody.....	24
Item 16 – Investment Discretion.....	24
Item 17 – Voting Client Securities.....	24
Item 18 – Financial Information.....	25

Item 4 – Advisory Business

FINANCIAL PLANNING

Scott White Advisors, LLC (SWA), founded in July of 2002, is owned by A. Scott White, and offers a range of financial planning and investment advisory services to its clients. These services include review of all aspects of an individual's current financial situation, with emphasis on income tax planning, estate tax planning, insurance planning, investment planning, retirement planning and capital needs planning. To the extent other services are needed, SWA will assist the individual in those areas in which it is competent to advise.

As a follow-up, SWA will also help the client coordinate the implementation of any recommendations made, including referral to other practicing professionals whose services may be required.

The initial step in the financial planning process involves a meeting with the client for the purpose of defining the scope of the engagement. Once defined, the client and SWA will enter into an Investment Advisory Agreement, disclosing the terms of the engagement and fees to be charged.

After the engagement is formalized, the client will be requested to provide SWA with necessary financial information, including information on sources of income, assets owned, liabilities, insurance policies owned, wills, trusts, business agreements, tax returns, investments, and personal and family obligations. In addition, the client will be requested to provide financial goals and objectives, both long and short term.

SWA will then target a date for anticipated completion of the financial plan. Upon completion, a personal presentation of the written plan may be made. At this meeting, the client will be provided with recommendations compatible with the goals and objectives established. An implementation schedule will then be reviewed with the client to determine which steps will be pursued and with whom those steps can be accomplished. Implementation usually includes periodic meetings with clients to monitor the results of the plan. The client will be under no obligation to use SWA and may choose to apply or implement all recommendations in any manner that is most expedient and in the client's best interest.

SWA is not in the practice of providing legal or tax preparation advice, nor is it licensed to provide property and casualty lines of insurance coverage. Clients are advised to seek the counsel of qualified professionals for the purpose of addressing concerns in these areas.

Fees charged for the full financial planning service will be dependent upon the anticipated time and complexity of the plan. The fees are determined in advance and disclosed to the client prior to the time the Investment Advisory Agreement is executed. Rarely will a fee quoted depart from the established fee schedule but exceptional circumstances may dictate a higher or lower fee.

Fees are as follows:

Hourly rates for plan development or consultation - $250 to $350 (a lesser hourly fee may be charged for administrative and staff functions).

Fixed fees for plans are from $1,000 to $15,000, depending on the complexity and comprehensiveness of the plan.

All fees are subject to negotiation.

Specific services and amount of fees are spelled out fully in the Investment Advisory Agreement.

ASSET MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Asset management services involve discretionary and non-discretionary account management. Fees are dependent on the level of services.

1) Investment Management Program for Advisory Clients (IMPAC)

This is a fee-based account, offered and administered through Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (RJFS), in which the client is provided with ongoing investment advice and monitoring of securities holdings. Scott White Advisors, LLC will manage the account on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis according to the client's objectives. Equity trades will incur a $30 transaction charge while Options, Bonds and Preferred Stocks will incur a $50 transaction charge paid to the broker-dealer. Mutual fund purchases may have a $30 transaction charge. Mutual funds incur expenses for portfolio management services and fund administrative services. These expenses are disclosed in the mutual fund prospectus and discussed in Item 5 of this document.

Annual fees charged can range from .75% to 1.00%. The annual asset-based fee is paid quarterly in arrears, as outlined in the Investment Advisory Agreement. For these accounts, the asset-based fee is calculated on the account asset value on the last business day of the quarter for the previous quarter. SWA authorizes and directs RJA as Custodian to deduct asset-based fees from the client's account; SWA further authorizes and directs the Custodian to send a quarterly statement to the client that shows all amounts disbursed from the client's account, including fees paid to RJFS. SWA understands that the brokerage statement will show the amount of the asset-based fee, the value of the assets on which the fee was based, and the specific manner in which the fee was calculated.

All fees are subject to negotiation.

In addition to the foregoing transaction charge, the client will incur a charge from Raymond James in the amount of $4.95 per transaction for handling and postage charges. The client may also incur charges for other account services provided by RJFS or SWA not directly related to the execution and clearing of transactions including, but not limited to, IRA custodial fees, safekeeping fees, interest charges on margin loans, and fees for legal or courtesy transfers of securities.

The client or SWA may terminate the Investment Management Agreement at any time upon providing written notice pursuant to the provisions of the Investment Management Agreement. There is no penalty for terminating an account. Upon termination, the client will receive a refund of the portion of any prepaid asset-based fee which is not utilized for accounts billed in advance. For accounts billed in arrears, the client may be charged a fee pursuant to the number of days the account was managed for the current quarter. SWA will not accept instructions to terminate the Agreement unless Client provides such instructions in writing.

As a general rule, an account will not be charged a commission and an advisory fee on the same asset. SWA may offer an asset management to clients who desire only periodic monitoring including investment performance reviews as covered in the RJFS IMPAC Investment Advisory Independent Agreement.

Certain open-end mutual funds which may be acquired by clients, may, in addition to assessing management fees, internally assess a distribution fee pursuant to section 12(b)-1 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, or an administrative or service fee ("trail"). Such fees are included in the calculation of operating expenses of a mutual fund and are disclosed in the fund prospectus. If received by RJFS, these fees may, at the instruction of SWA, be credited back to the client's account.

Clients should understand that the annual advisory fees charged in the IMPAC program are in addition to the management fees and operating expenses charged by open-end, closed-end and exchange-traded funds. To the extent that a client intends to hold fund shares for an extended period of time, it may be more economical for the client to purchase fund shares outside of these programs. Clients may be able to purchase mutual funds directly from their respective fund families without incurring the Registrant's advisory fee. When purchasing directly from fund families, clients may incur a front- or back-end sales charge.

Clients should also understand that the shares of certain mutual funds offered in these programs may impose short-term trading charges (typically 1%-2% of the amount originally invested) for redemptions generally made within short periods of time. These short-term charges are imposed by the funds (and not Registrant) to deter "market timers" who trade actively in fund shares. Clients should consider these short-term trading charges when selecting the program and/or mutual funds in which they invest. These charges, as well as operating expenses and management fees which may increase the overall cost to the client by 1%-2% (or more), are available in each fund's prospectus. SWA may also recommend "no-load" funds.

Investment of Cash Reserves

With respect to cash reserves of advisory Client accounts, the custodian of the account assets will determine where cash reserves are held. The custodian may offer one or multiple options to different account types (such as non-taxable and managed accounts). In addition, the custodian may, among other things, consider terms and conditions, risks and features, conflicts of interest, current interest rates, the manner by which future interest rates will be determined, and the nature and extent of insurance coverage (such as deposit protection from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation). The custodian may change an investment option at any time by providing the Client with thirty (30) days advance written notice of such change, modification or amendment. As of January 2011, Cash Sweep Options include the Raymond James Bank Deposit Program ("RJBDP"), the Eagle Cash Trust and the Credit Interest Program ("CIP") sponsored by RJA, including money-market and municipal money-market funds, or any combination thereof.

Raymond James Bank is an affiliate of RJFS, and offers a similar interest rate to the yield on CIP, but generally earns more than the interest it pays on such balances. The Eagle Cash Trust money-market and municipal money-market fund both pay Eagle Asset Management, Inc. (also an affiliate) a fee for investment management and administrative services. Raymond James & Associates generally earns a higher rate of interest on CIP balances than the interest rate it pays on such balances. The income earned by Eagle Asset Management and RJA is in addition to the asset-based fees that RJFS receives from these accounts.

Where an unaffiliated third party acts as custodian of account assets, the Client and/or the custodian will determine where cash reserves are held.

Cash balances arising from the sale of securities, redemptions of debt securities, dividend and interest payments and funds received from customers are invested automatically ("swept") on a daily basis. When securities are sold, funds are deposited on the day after settlement date. Funds placed in a Client's account by personal check usually will not be invested until the second business day following the day that the deposit is credited to the Client's account. Due to the foregoing practices, RJA may obtain federal funds prior to the date that deposits are credited to Client accounts and thus may realize some benefit because of the delay in investing such funds.

For further information please refer to the Cash Sweep Options disclosure statement, a copy of which is available from your IAR, or is available on the Raymond James public website, www.raymondjames.com.

Cash Rule Conflict

Participants in the Raymond James Financial Services IMPAC, PASSPORT and similar programs with cash or money market investments which exceed 20% of the total market value of client's account at the time of billing will be included for fee purposes only if the account did not exceed 20% in cash or money market investments at the end of the previous quarter. Otherwise the balance in excess of 20% will not be included in the value of Client's account for fee purposes. This fee billing provision is intended to equitably assess advisory fees on client assets for which an ongoing advisory service is being provided, and the exclusion of excess cash from the advisory fee is intended to benefit clients holding substantial cash balances (as a percentage of the total individual account value) for an extended period of time. However, this provision may pose a financial disincentive to an IAR, as the portion of cash or money market investments will not be included in the asset-based fee charged to the account. This may cause an IAR to reallocate a client account from cash or money market investments to advisory fee eligible investments in order to avoid the application of this provision and therefore receive a fee on the full asset value in a client's account(s).

For non-IRA/ERISA IMPAC and PASSPORT accounts, the client's Investment Adviser Representative may elect to absorb all or a portion of the Processing Fee. Certain open-end mutual funds which may be acquired by clients, may, in addition to assessing management fees, internally assess a distribution fee pursuant to section 12(b)-1 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, or an administrative or service fee ("trail"). Such fees are included in the calculation of operating expenses of a mutual fund and are disclosed in the fund prospectus. However, if the IAR elects to absorb the Processing Fees in non-IRA/ERISA accounts, they may also elect to receive trails paid by the fund company, if any, to defray the cost of the Processing Fees they absorb. If such an election is made, there may be a conflict of interest where the IAR may have an incentive to absorb all of the Processing Fees in consideration of the actual or anticipated trails they will receive.

Clients should also understand that certain no-load variable annuities may be offered in the IMPAC, PASSPORT and similar programs and may be charged an advisory fee. The annual advisory fees charged for these no-load variable annuities are in addition to the management fees and operating expenses charged by the insurance companies offering these products.

Clients should also understand that more sophisticated investments such as short sells and margins may be offered in the IMPAC, PASSPORT and similar programs. Fees for advice and execution on these securities are based on the total asset value of the account. While a negative amount may show on a client's statement for the margined security as the result of a lower net market value, the amount of the fee is based on the absolute market value. This could create a conflict of interest where a financial advisor may have an incentive to encourage the use of margin to create a higher market value and therefore receive a higher fee. The use of margin may also result in interest charges in addition to all other fees and expenses associated with the security involved.

A client's total cost of each of the services provided through these programs, if purchased separately, could be more or less than the costs of each respective program. Cost factors may include the client's ability to:

- A. Obtain the services provided within the programs separately with respect to the selection of mutual funds,
- B. Invest and rebalance the selected mutual funds without the payment of a sales charge, and
- C. Obtain performance reporting comparable to those provided within each program.

When making cost comparisons, clients should be aware that the combination of multiple mutual fund investments, advisory services, custodial and brokerage services available through each program may not be available separately or may require multiple accounts, documentation and fees. If an account is actively traded or the client otherwise may not qualify for reduced sales charges for fund purchases, the fees may be less expensive than separately paying the sales charges and advisory fees. If an account is not actively traded or the client otherwise would qualify for reduced sales charges, the fees in these programs may be more expensive than if utilized separately.

The client's financial advisor may have a financial incentive to recommend a fee-based advisory program rather than paying for investment advisory services, brokerage, performance reporting and other services separately. A portion of the annual advisory fee is paid to the client's financial advisor, which may be more than the financial advisor would receive under an alternative program offering or if the client paid for these services separately. Therefore, the client's financial advisor may have a financial incentive to recommend a particular account program over another. Financial advisors do not receive a financial incentive to recommend and sell proprietary mutual funds versus non-proprietary funds. However, because compensation structures vary by product type, financial advisors may receive higher compensation for certain product types. In addition, your financial advisor may receive incentive compensation for utilizing a particular account program.

SWA believes the charges and fees offered within each fee-based program are competitive with alternative programs available through other firms and/or investment sources, yet makes no guarantee that the aggregate cost of a particular program is lower than that which may be available elsewhere.

Clients can terminate all advisory agreements within the first 5 days and any fees charged will be refunded.

2) Raymond James Consulting Services (RJCS)

SWA provides access to separately managed accounts through its broker/dealer. RJCS is a division of Raymond James & Associates (RJA), which is a registered investment adviser and broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Please refer to the Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure of RJA for further information regarding RJA's business relationships with affiliated entities, and RJCS' services with respect to cash reserves of Client accounts. Client authorizes the investment of cash reserves of Client's Account(s) in accordance with the provisions of the Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure. The Managers in the RJCS program are registered as investment advisers with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Please refer to the Form ADV, Part 2 of each Manager selected by Client for further information regarding that Manager's services, key personnel, policies and practices, and business relationships with affiliated entities. Eagle Boston Investment Management, Inc. Eagle Asset Management, Inc. and Raymond James & Associates, Inc. are wholly owned subsidiaries of Raymond James Financial, Inc. a publicly owned corporation.

Suggested Fees are based on assets under management and investment objective. Fees are typically between 3.0% and .65%. For further discussion on fees please refer to Schedule B on the asset-based fee schedule located in the RJCS Investment Management Client Agreement. All fees are subject to negotiation.

3) Insurance

SWA from time to time may offer insurance contracts that are not subject to regulatory supervision by RJFS. This outside business activity will be processed through various insurance brokers. Normal and customary commissions as determined by the insurance carrier will compensate SWA.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

The adviser from time to time may issue special reports, charts, graphs, etc. to clients. It may also offer investment advice in manners not described above. It may also recommend that clients utilize certain allocation services. Fees for such services are disclosed in the disclosure documents provided to the client.

Clients can terminate the agreement within the first five days after execution and any fees charged will be refunded. Otherwise, client can obtain a refund of any unearned fees and may terminate the agreement by notifying in writing the cancellation of the agreement to:

Scott White Advisors, LLC
1510 Royal Palm Square Boulevard #103
Fort Myers, FL 33919.

All above quoted fees may be negotiated within the stated range; however exceptional circumstances may dictate deviation from the set range. The firm reserves the right to waive any fee or portion thereof.

ASSETS UNDER MANAGEMENT

As of February 28, 2011, Scott White Advisors managed client assets valued at $55,000,000. Scott White Advisors, LLC generally manages client assets under a non-discretionary agreement in order to provide for prompt changes in portfolio holdings when needed.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

FINANCIAL PLANNING

Fees charged for the full financial planning service will be dependent upon the anticipated time and complexity of the plan. The fees are determined in advance and disclosed to the client prior to the time the Investment Advisory Agreement is executed. Rarely will a fee quoted depart from the established fee schedule but exceptional circumstances may dictate a higher or lower fee.

Fees are as follows:

Hourly rates for plan development or consultation - $250 to $350 (a lesser hourly fee may be charged for administrative and staff functions).

Fixed fees for plans are from $1,000 to $15,000, depending on the complexity and comprehensiveness of the plan.

All fees are subject to negotiation.

Specific services and amount of fees are spelled out fully in the Investment Advisory Agreement.

ASSET MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Asset management services involve non-discretionary account management. Fees are dependent on the level of services.

1) Investment Management Program for Advisory Clients (IMPAC)

This is a fee-based account, offered and administered through Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (RJFS), in which the client is provided with ongoing investment advice and monitoring of securities holdings. Scott White Advisors, LLC will manage the account on a non-discretionary basis according to the client's objectives. Equity trades will incur a $30 transaction charge while Options, Bonds and Preferred Stocks will incur a $50 transaction charge paid to the broker-dealer. Mutual fund purchases may have a $30 transaction charge. Mutual funds incur expenses for portfolio management services and fund administrative services. These expenses are disclosed in the mutual fund prospectus and discussed in Item 5 of this document.

Annual fees charged can range from 0.75% to 1.00%. The annual asset-based fee is paid quarterly in arrears, as outlined in the Investment Advisory Agreement. For these accounts, the asset-based fee is calculated on the account asset value on the last business day of the quarter for the previous quarter. SWA authorizes and directs RJA as Custodian to deduct asset-based fees from the client's account; SWA further authorizes and directs the Custodian to send a quarterly statement to the client that shows all amounts disbursed from the client's account, including fees paid to RJFS. SWA understands that the brokerage statement will show the amount of the asset-based fee, the value of the assets on which the fee was based, and the specific manner in which the fee was calculated.

All fees are subject to negotiation.

In addition to the foregoing transaction charge, the client will incur a charge from Raymond James in the amount of $4.95 per transaction for handling and postage charges. The client may also incur charges for other account services provided by RJFS or SWA not directly related to the execution and clearing of transactions including, but not limited to, IRA custodial fees, safekeeping fees, interest charges on margin loans, and fees for legal or courtesy transfers of securities.

The client or SWA may terminate the Investment Management Agreement at any time upon providing written notice pursuant to the provisions of the Investment Management Agreement. There is no penalty for terminating the client's account. Upon termination, the client will receive a refund of the portion of any prepaid asset-based fee which is not utilized for accounts billed in advance. For accounts billed in arrears, the client may be charged a fee pursuant to the number of days the account was managed for the current quarter. SWA will not accept instructions to terminate the Agreement unless Client provides such instructions in writing.

As a general rule, an account will not be charged a commission and an advisory fee on the same asset. SWA may offer an asset management to clients who desire only periodic monitoring including investment performance reviews as covered in the RJFS IMPAC Investment Advisory Independent Agreement.

Certain open-end mutual funds which may be acquired by clients, may, in addition to assessing management fees, internally assess a distribution fee pursuant to section 12(b)-1 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, or an administrative or service fee ("trail"). Such fees are included in the calculation of operating expenses of a mutual fund and are disclosed in the fund prospectus. If received by RJFS, these fees may, at the instruction of SWA, be credited back to the client's account.

Clients should understand that the annual advisory fees charged in the IMPAC program are in addition to the management fees and operating expenses charged by open-end, closed-end and exchange-traded funds. To the extent that a client intends to hold fund shares for an extended period of time, it may be more economical for the client to purchase fund shares outside of these programs. Clients may be able to purchase mutual funds directly from their respective fund families without incurring the Registrant's advisory fee. When purchasing directly from fund families, clients may incur a front- or back-end sales charge.

Clients should also understand that the shares of certain mutual funds offered in these programs may impose short-term trading charges (typically 1%-2% of the amount originally invested) for redemptions generally made within short periods of time. These short-term charges are imposed by the funds (and not Registrant) to deter "market timers" who trade actively in fund shares. Clients should consider these short-term trading charges when selecting the program and/or mutual funds in which they invest. These charges, as well as operating expenses and management fees, which may increase the overall cost to the client by 1%-2% (or more), are available in each fund's prospectus. SWA may also recommend "no-load" funds.

Investment of Cash Reserves

With respect to cash reserves of advisory Client accounts, the custodian of the account assets will determine where cash reserves are held. The custodian may offer one or multiple options to different account types (such as non-taxable and managed accounts). In addition, the custodian may, among other things, consider terms and conditions, risks and features, conflicts of interest, current interest rates, the manner by which future interest rates will be determined, and the nature and extent of insurance coverage (such as deposit protection from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation). The custodian may change an investment option at any time by providing the Client with thirty (30) days advance written notice of such change, modification or amendment. As of January 2011, Cash Sweep Options include the Raymond James Bank Deposit Program ("RJBDP"), the Eagle Cash Trust and the Credit Interest Program ("CIP") sponsored by RJA, including money-market and municipal money-market funds, or any combination thereof.

Raymond James Bank is an affiliate of RJFS, and offers a similar interest rate to the yield on CIP, but generally earns more than the interest it pays on such balances. The Eagle Cash Trust money-market and municipal money-market fund both pay Eagle Asset Management, Inc. (also an affiliate) a fee for investment management and administrative services. Raymond James & Associates generally earns a higher rate of interest on CIP balances than the interest rate it pays on such balances. The income earned by Eagle Asset Management and RJA is in addition to the asset-based fees that RJFS receives from these accounts.

Where an unaffiliated third party acts as custodian of account assets, Client and/or the custodian will determine where cash reserves are held.

Cash balances arising from the sale of securities, redemptions of debt securities, dividend and interest payments and funds received from customers are invested automatically ("swept") on a daily basis. When securities are sold, funds are deposited on the day after settlement date. Funds placed in a Client's account by personal check usually will not be invested until the second business day following the day that the deposit is credited to the Client's account. Due to the foregoing practices, RJA may obtain federal funds prior to the date that deposits are credited to Client accounts and thus may realize some benefit because of the delay in investing such funds.

For further information please refer to the Cash Sweep Options disclosure statement, a copy of which is available from your IAR, or is available on the Raymond James public website, www.raymondjames.com.

Cash Rule Conflict

Participants in the Raymond James Financial Services IMPAC, PASSPORT and similar programs with cash or money market investments which exceed 20% of the total market value of client's account at the time of billing will be included for fee purposes only if the account did not exceed 20% in cash or money market investments at the end of the previous quarter. Otherwise the balance in excess of 20% will not be included in the value of Client's account for fee purposes. This fee billing provision is intended to equitably assess advisory fees on client assets for which an ongoing advisory service is being provided, and the exclusion of excess cash from the advisory fee is intended to benefit clients holding substantial cash balances (as a percentage of the total individual account value) for an extended period of time. However, this provision may pose a financial disincentive to an IAR, as the portion of cash or money market investments will not be included in the asset-based fee charged to the account. This may cause an IAR to reallocate a client account from cash or money market investments to advisory fee eligible investments in order to avoid the application of this provision and therefore receive a fee on the full asset value in a client's account(s).

For non-IRA/ERISA IMPAC and PASSPORT accounts, the client's Investment Adviser Representative may elect to absorb all or a portion of the Processing Fee. Certain open-end mutual funds which may be acquired by clients, may, in addition to assessing management fees, internally assess a distribution fee pursuant to section 12(b)-1 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, or an administrative or service fee ("trail"). Such fees are included in the calculation of operating expenses of a mutual fund and are disclosed in the fund prospectus. However, if the IAR elects to absorb the Processing Fees in non-IRA/ERISA accounts, they may also elect to receive trails paid by the fund company, if any, to defray the cost of the Processing Fees they absorb. If such an election is made, there may be a conflict of interest where the IAR may have an incentive to absorb all of the Processing Fees in consideration of the actual or anticipated trails they will receive.

Clients should also understand that certain no-load variable annuities may be offered in the IMPAC, PASSPORT and similar programs and may be charged an advisory fee. The annual advisory fees charged for these no-load variable annuities are in addition to the management fees and operating expenses charged by the insurance companies offering these products.

Clients should also understand that more sophisticated investments such as short sells and margins may be offered in the IMPAC, PASSPORT and similar programs. Fees for advice and execution on these securities are based on the total asset value of the account. While a negative amount may show on a client's statement for the margined security as the result of a lower net market value, the amount of the fee is based on the absolute market value. This could create a conflict of interest where a financial advisor may have an incentive to encourage the use of margin to create a higher market value and therefore receive a higher fee. The use of margin may also result in interest charges in addition to all other fees and expenses associated with the security involved.

A client's total cost of each of the services provided through these programs, if purchased separately, could be more or less than the costs of each respective program. Cost factors may include the client's ability to:

- A. Obtain the services provided within the programs separately with respect to the selection of mutual funds,
- B. Invest and rebalance the selected mutual funds without the payment of a sales charge, and

C. Obtain performance reporting comparable to those provided within each program.

When making cost comparisons, clients should be aware that the combination of multiple mutual fund investments, advisory services, custodial and brokerage services available through each program may not be available separately or may require multiple accounts, documentation and fees. If an account is actively traded or the client otherwise may not qualify for reduced sales charges for fund purchases, the fees may be less expensive than separately paying the sales charges and advisory fees. If an account is not actively traded or the client otherwise would qualify for reduced sales charges, the fees in these programs may be more expensive than if utilized separately.

The client's financial advisor may have a financial incentive to recommend a fee-based advisory program rather than paying for investment advisory services, brokerage, performance reporting and other services separately. A portion of the annual advisory fee is paid to the client's financial advisor, which may be more than the financial advisor would receive under an alternative program offering or if the client paid for these services separately. Therefore, the client's financial advisor may have a financial incentive to recommend a particular account program over another. Financial advisors do not receive a financial incentive to recommend and sell proprietary mutual funds versus non-proprietary funds. However, because compensation structures vary by product type, financial advisors may receive higher compensation for certain product types. In addition, your financial advisor may receive incentive compensation for utilizing a particular account program.

SWA believes the charges and fees offered within each fee-based program are competitive with alternative programs available through other firms and/or investment sources, yet makes no guarantee that the aggregate cost of a particular program is lower than that which may be available elsewhere.

Clients can terminate all advisory agreements within the first 5 days and any fees charged will be refunded.

2) Raymond James Consulting Services (RJCS)

SWA provides access to separately managed accounts through its broker/dealer. RJCS is a division of Raymond James & Associates (RJA), which is a registered investment adviser and broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Please refer to the Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure of RJA for further information regarding RJA's business relationships with affiliated entities, and RJCS' services with respect to cash reserves of Client accounts. Client authorizes the investment of cash reserves of Client's Account(s) in accordance with the provisions of the Form ADV, Part 2A Brochure. The Managers in the RJCS program are registered as investment advisers with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Please refer to the Form ADV, Part 2 of each Manager selected by Client for further information regarding that Manager's services, key personnel, policies and practices, and business relationships with affiliated entities. Eagle Boston Investment Management, Inc. Eagle Asset Management, Inc. and Raymond James & Associates, Inc. are wholly owned subsidiaries of Raymond James Financial, Inc. a publicly owned corporation.

Suggested Fees are based on assets under management and investment objective. Fees are typically between 3.0% and .65%. For further discussion on fees please refer to Schedule B on the asset-based fee schedule located in the RJCS Investment Management Client Agreement. All fees are subject to negotiation.

3) Insurance

SWA from time to time may offer insurance contracts that are not subject to regulatory supervision by RJFS. This outside business activity will be processed through various insurance brokers. Normal and customary commissions as determined by the insurance carrier will compensate SWA.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

The adviser from time to time may issue special reports, charts, graphs, etc. to clients. It may also offer investment advice in manners not described above. It may also recommend that clients utilize certain allocation services. Fees for such services are disclosed in the disclosure documents provided to the client.

Clients can terminate the agreement within the first five days after execution and any fees charged will be refunded. Otherwise, client can obtain a refund of any unearned fees and may terminate the agreement by notifying in writing the cancellation of the agreement to:

Scott White Advisors, LLC
1510 Royal Palm Square Boulevard #103
Fort Myers, FL 33919.

All above quoted fees may be negotiated within the stated range; however exceptional circumstances may dictate deviation from the set range. The firm reserves the right to waive any fee or portion thereof.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Scott White Advisors, LLC does not charge any performance-based fees (fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets of a client).

Item 7 – Types of Clients

Scott White Advisors, LLC provides comprehensive financial planning and portfolio management services to individuals, high-net-worth individuals, corporate pension and profit-sharing plans, charitable institutions, foundations and endowments.

Prospects are expected to complete a financial planning process before becoming clients, and SWA may require a minimum annual fee.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

METHODS OF ANALYSIS

Scott White Advisors, LLC believes that several fundamental tenets increase the probability of success in long-term investing. These include diversification, asset allocation, adoption of a suitable time frame and professional management.

Scott White Advisors, LLC chooses to not research and recommend individual stocks and bonds, so we do not perform analysis on these, choosing instead to delegate these responsibilities to experienced mutual fund managers with verifiable track records.

For the purpose of choosing funds, we employ analytical data from Morningstar, Raymond James Research and Marking, Lipper Analytical Services and other sources. We also study material released by the funds and speak frequently with the fund managers.

INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

Scott White Advisors, LLC provides comprehensive financial planning. As such, clients are required to provide all relevant information regarding assets, liabilities, goals, taxes, capital needs, and charitable desires. From this information, SWA may develop a written financial plan and investment policy statement for each client.

The financial plan and investment policy statement create the strategies that drive the investments which will be used.

Clients indicate their emergency reserve and cash flow requirements for three to five years, and this total amount is invested in money market and short-term bond funds with relatively low volatility. Each year, an additional year's cash flow needs, if any, are either harvested from the equity (growth) portion of the client's investment account or, if insufficient growth has occurred in the equity investments, from the short-term bond funds. The purpose of this strategy is to reduce the need to liquidate equity investments when this would incur a loss of principal.

The balance of the investment portfolio is considered long-term and invested in a highly diversified, asset-allocated growth equity portfolio of mutual funds. Scott White Advisors, LLC may use no-load fund shares or other share classes but always attempts to provide clients with the lowest cost share class available in any particular mutual fund. SWA is compensated for its comprehensive services on a fee basis, as previously noted. Therefore, clients are charged Scott White Advisors, LLC's management fee as well as the management fee allocated to the mutual fund by the fund's management.

RISK OF LOSS

SWA believes that by reserving multiple years of cash flow needs for clients who require cash flow from the investment portfolio, the probability of having to sell growth investments at a loss is significantly reduced. However, investing in any securities, including mutual funds, involves risk of loss which clients should be prepared to bear.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of an investment company carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information and should be read carefully before investing. A prospectus for any mutual fund offered by Scott White Advisors, LLC may be obtained at the offices of the adviser, by e-mail request, or by calling the telephone number on the Cover Page (Item 1) of this document.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Action

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Scott White Advisors, LLC or the integrity of Scott White Advisors,' management. Scott White Advisors, LLC has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Scott White Advisors' primary business activity is financial planning. Incidental to this planning activity, various services offered through trust companies, banks and insurance companies may be discussed with clients. Some of these trust companies, banks and insurance companies may be affiliated with the broker-dealer with which SWA is associated.

Approximately 95% of SWA's time is spent in financial planning.

Investment Advisory Representatives (IARs) of Scott White Advisors, LLC are registered representatives of Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. and may receive commissions on securities transactions. Approximately 5% of their time is spent in this capacity.

Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (RJFS), a wholly owned subsidiary of Raymond James Financial, Inc. (RJF), is a member of FINRA and SIPC. RJFS clears its securities transactions on a fully disclosed basis through Raymond James & Associates, Inc. (member NYSE), which is also a wholly owned subsidiary of Raymond James Financial, Inc. Notwithstanding the fact that principals and associates of the adviser may be registered representatives of RJFS, the adviser is solely responsible for investment advice rendered. Advisory services are provided separately and independently of the broker-dealer.

If clients act upon SWA IAR advice and choose to use one of Raymond James Financial Services' affiliates as a money manager, trustee, custodian, or for purchasing insurance, SWA may receive compensation in the form of commissions from the affiliate. If a client chooses to use a SWA IAR in a capacity as an insurance agent, SWA will receive a commission. If a client purchases a mutual fund containing a 12b-1 fee, the adviser and representative may receive and retain such fee or credit it back to the client.

From time to time, Scott White Advisors, LLC may receive compensation in the form of financial support for seminars, conferences, meal or travel expenses in connection with due diligence visits and meetings from sponsors of investment products such as mutual funds. Such sponsorship fees generally entitle the sponsor to an allotted presentation to representatives of SWA.

As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, SWA endeavors at all times to put the interests of its advisory clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by SWA (or its related persons) in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Scott White Advisors, LLC has adopted a Code of Ethics for all supervised persons of the firm describing its high standard of business conduct and fiduciary duty to its clients. The Code of Ethics includes provisions relating to the confidentiality of client information, a prohibition on insider trading, a prohibition against rumor mongering, restrictions on the acceptance of significant gifts and the reporting of certain gifts and business entertainment items, and guidelines regarding personal securities trading procedures, among other things. All supervised persons at Scott White Advisors, LLC must acknowledge the terms of the Code of Ethics annually or as amended.

Scott White Advisors, LLC anticipates that, in appropriate circumstances, consistent with clients' investment objectives, it will cause accounts over which SWA has management authority to effect, and will recommend to investment advisory clients or prospective clients, the purchase or sale of securities in which SWA, its affiliates and/or clients, directly or indirectly, have a position or interest. Scott White Advisors, LLC employees and persons associated with SWA are required to follow Scott White Advisors' Code of Ethics. Subject to satisfying this policy and applicable laws, officers, directors and employees of SWA and its affiliates may trade for their own accounts in securities which are recommended to and/or purchased for Scott White Advisors' clients. The Code of Ethics is designed to assure that the personal securities transactions, activities and interests of the employees of SWA will not interfere with (i) making decisions in the best interest of advisory clients and (ii) implementing such decisions while, at the same time, allowing employees to invest for their own accounts. Under the Code of Ethics certain classes of securities have been designated as exempt transactions, based upon a determination that these would materially not interfere with the best interest of Scott White Advisors' clients. In addition, the Code requires pre-clearance of many transactions, and restricts trading in close proximity of client trading activity. Nevertheless, because the Code of Ethics in some circumstances would permit employees to invest in the same securities as clients, there is a possibility that employees might benefit from market activity by a client in a security held by an employee. Employee trading is continually monitored under the Code of Ethics, and to reasonably prevent conflicts of interest between SWA and its clients.

Certain affiliated accounts may trade in the same securities with client accounts on an aggregated basis when consistent with Scott White Advisors' obligation of best execution. In such circumstances, the affiliated and client accounts will share commission costs equally and receive securities at a total average price. Scott White Advisors, LLC will retain records of the trade order (specifying each participating account) and its allocation, which will be completed prior to the entry of the aggregated order. Completed orders will be allocated as specified in the initial trade order. Partially filled orders will be allocated on a pro rata basis. Any exceptions will be explained on the Order.

Scott White Advisors' clients or prospective clients may request a copy of the firm's Code of Ethics by contacting A. Scott White.

It is Scott White Advisors' policy that the firm will not affect any principal of agency cross securities transactions for client accounts. Scott White Advisors, LLC will also not cross trades between client accounts. Principal transactions are generally defined as transactions where an adviser, acting as principal for its own account or the account of an affiliated broker-dealer, buys from or sells any security to any advisory client. A principal transaction may also be deemed to have occurred if a security is crossed between an affiliated hedge fund and another client account. An agency cross transaction is defined as a transaction where a person acts as an investment adviser in relation to a transaction in which the investment adviser, or any person controlled by or under common control with the investment adviser, acts as broker for both the advisory client and for another person on the other side of the transaction. Agency cross transactions may arise where an adviser is dually registered as a broker-dealer or has an affiliated broker-dealer.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

SWA recommends that certain clients provide discretionary authority to Scott White Advisors, LLC. Clients who are candidates for this program may be participants in the Raymond James Financial Services IMPAC program and will have created, in concert with SWA, an Investment Policy Statement. This discretion is used for the replacement of investment managers when needed.

Scott White Advisors, LLC does not render advice to or take any actions on behalf of clients with respect to any legal proceedings including bankruptcies and shareholder litigation, to which any securities or other investments held in client accounts, or the issuers thereof, become subject, and does not initiate or pursue legal proceedings, including without limitation shareholder litigation, on behalf of clients with respect to transactions, securities or other investments held in client accounts. The right to take any actions with respect to legal proceedings, including shareholder litigation, with respect to transactions, securities or other investments held in a client account is expressly reserved for the client.

A Scott White, Investment Adviser Representatives (IARs) of Scott White Advisors, LLC, and all Client Service Associates of SWA are registered representatives of Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. (RJFS), a registered broker-dealer with FINRA, and may recommend RJFS to advisory clients for brokerage services. Registered representatives of RJFS are subject to FINRA Conduct Rule 3040 that restricts them from conducting securities transactions away from RJFS. Therefore, clients are advised that such IARs are limited to conducting securities transactions through RJFS. It may be the case that RJFS charges a higher or lower fee than another broker charges for a particular type of service, such as transaction fees. Clients may utilize the broker-dealer of their choice and have no obligation to purchase or sell securities through RJFS. However, if the client does not use RJFS, the IAR will reserve the right not to accept the account. As a registered FINRA broker-dealer, RJFS routes order flow through its affiliated broker-dealer Raymond James & Associates, Inc. (RJA). RJA is obligated to seek best execution pursuant to FINRA Rule 2320 for all trades executed, however better executions may be available via another broker-dealer based on a number of factors including volume, order flow and market making activity.

Raymond James Financial Services provides extensive research, securities compliance, educational, planning, marketing and analytical resources to Scott White Advisors, LLC. SWA considers these services and the Raymond James brand to offer substantial value to its clients and practice and believes that these benefits justify the decision to use Raymond James in the manner described above.

This research, compliance, educational, planning and marketing benefit extends to all Scott White Advisors, LLC clients.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

Scott White Advisors, LLC continuously monitors client's accounts to identify situations that may warrant specific actions be taken on behalf of a client's investments or their overall portfolio. Such review includes, but is not necessarily limited to, suitability, performance, asset allocation, change in investment objectives and risk tolerance, concentrations and prohibited products. In addition, Scott White Advisors, LLC will be providing regular investment advice, review client portfolios, and communicate with clients at least annually. Reviews and meetings are conducted by A. Scott White.

Compliance personnel located within RJFS corporate headquarters provide additional monitoring of accounts. Reviews include, but are not limited to: suitability, concentration, active trading and accounts managed on a discretionary basis.

At least quarterly, clients receive a brokerage statement from the firm's clearing broker-dealer, Raymond James and Associates (RJA). The brokerage statement contains the cash balance, type, name and amount of each security, the current market value of each security, account activity for the period, and when available, the unrealized gain or loss of each security. The client also receives a confirmation of each transaction from RJA, and if available and elected by the client, a monthly or quarterly trade confirmation report.

Additionally, Scott White Advisors, LLC and Raymond James Financial Services offers clients online (internet) access to accounts. Through this service, clients have real time information available at any time.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Scott White Advisors, LLC refers clients to other professional advisors. We do not accept compensation for such referrals.

SWA, through its broker-dealer, may participate in programs through which allied professionals, particularly in the accounting and legal fields, may be compensated for referrals. The professional who refers the account will receive a portion of the advisory fee, but in no case will the client pay more because of the referral (solicitor) fee. The referral fees will be paid on a cash-only basis. The client will be provided proper disclosure about the advisory and referral fees. The professional will be either an investment adviser representative or a solicitor of SWA's broker-dealer.

From time-to-time, Scott White Advisors, LLC' IARs may receive economic benefit in the form of travel, meals and lodging for attendance at due diligence and educational meetings. Raymond James Financial Services and mutual fund firms through which SWA invests client funds may provide these benefits.

Raymond James Financial Services sponsors annual and regional conferences for professional development. Travel and lodging may be awarded by Raymond James based on individual and branch office production of fees and commissions. RJFS may also award cash gifts of no more than $100 value annually to Scott White Advisors, LLC IARs based on these same criteria. RJFS also provides restricted, non-qualified independent contractor stock options to IARs who meet certain criteria. These are awarded annually and are exercisable at a set price for one year beginning four years after issue.

Raymond James Financial Services also sponsors a non-contributory deferred compensation plan awarded to IARs who meet certain criteria.

Subsidiaries of Raymond James Financial such as Raymond James Trust may also hold professional training programs to which Scott White Advisors, LLC IARs are invited and for which travel, lodging and meals may be provided.

SWA IARs may also attend due diligence meetings sponsored by mutual fund and money management firms for the purpose of informing SWA advisers about these firms. These meetings are an important part of an advisory firm's due diligence into the business practices of such companies.

Typically, the sponsors may offer to provide transportation, lodging and meals directly related to these meetings. In order to minimize any potential conflict of interest, Scott White Advisors, LLC carefully supervises all such arrangements and determines the reasonableness of IARs attending. In no case are decisions impacting client investments or the costs inherent in these investments made based on benefits received as a result of these due diligence meetings.

Sponsors of investment products may also provide speakers and bear the cost of meals for SWA client events. To avoid a conflict of interest, only sponsors with investment products used in client portfolios, and therefore relevant to client interests, are invited to participate.

Item 15 – Custody

Client funds and securities are held in custody by Raymond James & Associates, an affiliate of Raymond James Financial Services. Raymond James & Associates is a member of the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC).

Clients of Scott White Advisors, LLC will receive statements from Raymond James & Associates at least quarterly. SWA urges clients to carefully review these statements and question any items which are unclear. SWA does not produce client statements.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

Scott White Advisors, LLC usually does not receive discretionary authority from clients at the outset of an advisory relationship. However, clients who are candidates for discretionary program may be participants in the Raymond James Financial Services IMPAC program and will have created, in concert with SWA, an Investment Policy Statement. The discretion will be exercised in a manner consistent with the stated objectives of the Investment Policy Statement. This discretion is used for the replacement of mutual fund managers when needed.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Scott White Advisors, LLC does not render advice to or take any actions on behalf of clients with respect to any legal proceedings including bankruptcies and shareholder litigation, to which any securities or other investments held in client accounts, or the issuers thereof, become subject, and does not initiate or pursue legal proceedings, including without limitation shareholder litigation, on behalf of clients with respect to transactions, securities or other investments held in client accounts. The right to take any actions with respect to legal proceedings, including shareholder litigation, with respect to transactions, securities or other investments held in a client account is expressly reserved for the client.

Questions regarding the voting of proxies may be directed to persons indicated on information sent to clients directly by law firms or broker-dealer firms.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Registered investment advisers are required in this Item to provide you with certain financial information or disclosures about Scott White Advisors' financial condition.

Scott White Advisors, LLC has no financial commitment that impairs its ability to meet contractual and fiduciary commitments to clients and has not been the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding.