

Brochure Supplement

Bailey Kristin Showalter
20512 Reserve Falls Terrace #314
Potomac Falls, VA 20615
phone: 276.806.6050

CSA Wealth Management, LLC
729 Country Place Road
Axton, VA 24054
276-634-0000
September 22, 2011

Item 1 Cover Page

This brochure supplement provides information about Bailey Showalter that supplements the CSA Wealth Management, LLC brochure. Please contact Cindi Showalter at 276-634-0000 if you did not receive our firm brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Bailey is an independent contractor to our firm and is not an employee of the firm. She is, however, considered a supervised person for regulatory purposes. Additional information about Bailey Showalter is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. She is the daughter of Cindi Showalter, and will be the investment adviser representative who will be the primary contact with our firm for those clients she introduces to the firm. Some existing accounts may be assigned to her as well. She will not be making the investment decisions in your account, but will be communicating with you and with me about those decisions.

Throughout the remainder of this document, each of us may be referred to as Bailey or Cindi, respectively, and the company as CSA.

Item 2 Educational Background and Experience

Bailey received her BA in English Literature with a minor in Global Culture and Commerce from the University of Virginia in 2010. While in high school and in college, she has had various jobs unrelated to this business, primarily working part time jobs as a server or in clerical positions while attending school.

In the summers of 2008 and 2009, she was an Independent Contractor, Student Manager, and Assistant Organization Leader for the Southwestern Company. She was ranked number six in sales out of approximately 3000 first year dealers her first summer. Because of her sales performance, she was quickly promoted, and her second summer she helped lead one of the top organizations in the company.

Bailey grew up in a household involved in the financial services industry and has been exposed to various related issues for her entire life. In September of 2011, Bailey passed the Series 65 examination, which is the required examination for all persons representing clients of an Investment Advisory Firm. At that time, she began her association with our firm.

The Series 65 examination, though required, is designed to test basic knowledge of securities and related laws, and is not an indication of skill or training. Her training will be on the job, and her responsibilities will increase with her experience. Bailey is considered by Cindi Showalter to have the necessary discretion, ethical standards, communication skills, and concern for clients and their financial well-being to be an asset to both her clients and to the company. At this time, she will not be making any investment decisions for any client accounts.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to a client or prospective client's evaluation of Bailey Showalter to disclose, including any convictions, felonies, or misdemeanors that are investment related; nor are there any criminal proceedings of any kind; judgments or violations of investment-related statutes or regulations; administrative proceedings before any regulatory agency; or any instances of wrong-doing or violations of any kind in any jurisdiction that would be reportable here.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

- A. There are no other investment-related businesses in which Bailey is involved or intends to be involved, including giving advice, receiving payment, representing other firms, or any other form of activity or compensation outside of that associated with CSA Wealth Management, LLC. Even though an independent contractor, her services will remain exclusive to CSA.

- B. Outside of the investment related industry, Bailey will continue to write her food blog, sevendcloves.wordpress.com, and for a period of time will work as a server in a restaurant while she is building her business. Initially, it would be expected that the income received as a server will be more than ten percent of her total income, but this activity is expected to end during the course of 2011 as she becomes involved with and responsible for more client account communications. These outside activities are more closely related to hobbies than career interests, despite their income potential.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

All payment to Bailey Showalter is in the form of a percentage of the fees paid to CSA Wealth Management, LLC, or an advance against those fees in the initial months of her association with CSA. There are no additional economic benefits in the form of sales awards, prizes, or bonuses based on sales, referrals, or new accounts. Additionally, no one who is not a client of CSA provides an economic benefit to Bailey Showalter for providing advisory services. At some point, it is expected that Bailey will become more involved in the research of new ideas or techniques. If travel is required for these activities, it is possible that some or all of those expenses might be paid or reimbursed by CSA.

Item 6 Supervision

Bailey Showalter will be supervised by Cindi Showalter, Investment Manager and Chief Compliance Officer of the firm. Cindi can be reached at 276.634.0000 or at the address on this form. As part of this process, Bailey will be required to copy the firm on all written correspondence with clients and prospective clients; send daily or weekly e-mail summaries of all business-related contact and conversation; and advise Cindi Showalter of any client questions or concerns regarding his or her account. Cindi will also randomly contact clients to review this information and compare it to the information reported.

The intention of this supervision is to avoid, detect, and correct any type of misrepresentation, deception, overstatement or over-promising, misunderstanding or miscommunication of any type at any time. While we have no doubts about the honesty, integrity or ethics of our people and our clients, it is always understood that misunderstandings are possible. Bailey will remain in a period of training for at least one year, and it is our intention to closely monitor all communications throughout this training period. If at any time there is any question about anything said, please contact Cindi Showalter immediately for clarification.

Clients are at all times encouraged to contact Cindi Showalter directly at 276.634.0000 with any comments or concerns.

Item 7 Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

1A. Bailey has not been involved in or found liable in any arbitration claim of any kind at any point in time with or without award of damages.

2A Bailey has not been involved in or found liable in any civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding involving any wrong-doing of any kind at any point in time.

2B Bailey has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.