A number of our employees included in this Brochure Supplement have earned certifications and credentials that are described below.

- CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ or CFP®: The CFP® and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ marks are financial planning credentials awarded by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. to individuals who meet education, examination, experience and ethics requirements. In order to maintain the designation, the individual must meet minimum annual continuing education requirements.
- Chartered Financial Analyst® or CFA®: Holders of the Chartered Financial Analyst® or CFA® designation are securities analysts, money managers and investment advisers who have completed the CFA program, a graduate-level, self-study curriculum and examination program for investment professionals that covers a broad range of investment topics. CFA charterholders are required to affirm their commitment to high ethical standards and voluntarily submit to the authority of CFA Institute.
- Certified Employee Benefit Specialist or CEBS: The CEBS designation is cosponsored by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans (IFEBP) and the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. The eight course college level curriculum provides a comprehensive understanding of employee benefit concepts and principles.
