Item 3 Disciplinary Information

No charges or disciplinary events have been imposed on Mr. Linderman.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

A. If Robert R. Linderman is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Robert R. Linderman is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Robert R. Linderman’s other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, we are required to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

See Item 2 below.

2. If Robert R. Linderman receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Robert R. Linderman receives. We must explain that this practice gives Robert R. Linderman an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

We are actively engaged in the business of being a registered securities broker-dealer, member FINRA, MSRB, SIPC. All of our firm’s investment advisory representatives are dually licensed registered representatives with the affiliated broker-dealer. In their separate roles as registered representatives, they may offer commissionable securities products to clients for which they will earn the normal commissions.

Clients in our firm’s Separate Account and Asset Advantage Service Programs may also be clients of the broker-dealer. In such cases a client may be solicited by their respective representative about investment ideas or products for their brokerage account if such solicitations are in line with the client’s overall investment objectives and risk tolerance.

Our principal business activity is that of a registered securities broker-dealer. Our firm’s officers and employees spend more than half of their time devoted to broker-dealer business.

A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation adviser and/or our supervised persons may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client.

- B. If Robert R. Linderman is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Robert R. Linderman’s income or involve a substantial amount of Robert R. Linderman’s time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Robert R. Linderman’s time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Robert R. Linderman for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Robert R. Linderman's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6 Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Robert R. Linderman, including how we monitor the advice Robert R. Linderman provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Robert R. Linderman's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Julie Lan Cohen, Chief Compliance Officer of our firm, supervises and monitors Robert R. Linderman's activities on a regular basis. Ms. Cohen reviews all outgoing correspondence for written financial advice that Robert R. Linderman provides to his clients. Please contact Ms. Cohen if you have any questions about Robert R. Linderman's brochure supplement at 805-764-6730.

Item 7 Requirements for State-Registered Advisers
