Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Irene Gillig was born on June 14, 1944 and after graduating high school in 1962 she attended Boston University from 1962 to 1963 and Quinnipiac University in 1963. She has held a Series 6 (Investment Company Products and Variable Contracts Representative) license with FINRA since 1997 and has been registered through Investments by Planners, Inc. since that time. She has also held the salaried position of full-charge bookkeeper and back-office manager for the firm since 1990.

Item 3 – Disciplinary information

Irene has no material disciplinary events to disclose.

Item 4 – Outside Business Activities

Irene has no outside business activities.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Irene's activities involve the day to day back-office operations of the firm which include taking phone orders from clients and maintaining the accuracy of their accounts. In her capacity as a registered agent she will, from time to time, receive commissions on any Mutual Fund sales. These commissions are in addition to her salary.

Item 6 - Supervision

Irene is supervised by Gary Saginor, President and Principal of Investments by Planners, Inc. He oversees her daily schedule in order to have the most critical assignments completed first. She advises the Principal on the progress of each assignment as well as any unscheduled orders called in by clients. Irene is presently compliant in her Continuing Education requirement and must attend the firm's annual compliance meeting. Gary Saginor can be reached at (561) 998-0909 for any additional information.

Item 7 – Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Irene has no disciplinary events to disclose. In addition, he has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
