Form ADV, Part 2A, Appendix 1, our “Program Brochure” or “Brochure” for our CHOICE Portfolios, offered as a wrap fee program or as an investment advisory service, as required by the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 is a very important document between Clients (you, your) and “Scott & Stringfellow, LLC” (Scott & Stringfellow, S&S, we, us, our, the “Firm”).

This Brochure provides information about the qualifications and business practices of Scott & Stringfellow and the services relevant to our CHOICE Portfolios. If you have any questions about the contents of this Brochure, please contact us at (804) 782-8798. The information in this Brochure has not been approved or verified by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) or by any State Securities Authority.

Additional information about Scott & Stringfellow is also available at the SEC’s investment advisers public disclosure website www.adviserinfo.sec.gov (click on the link, select “investment adviser firm” and type in our Firm name). Results will provide you both Part 1 and 2 of our Form ADV.

We are a registered investment adviser with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Our registration as an Investment Adviser does not imply a certain level of skill or training. The oral and written communications we provide to you, including this Brochure, are information you can use to evaluate us and our CHOICE Portfolios. These communications are factors you can use in your decision to hire us or to continue to maintain a mutually beneficial relationship with us.

Item 2 – Material Changes

1. We discuss below only material changes which were made since the last filing of our Form ADV Part 2A, Appendix 1, for its CHOICE Wrap Fee Program. Our most recent CHOICE Program Brochure filing is dated December 15, 2011. That filing was made to disclose the addition of two new investment portfolios to our CHOICE Program.

2. This is our annual amendment update which we have filed on the SEC’s Investment Advisers Public Disclosure Website (IAPD), www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.
3. Effective January 9, 2012, S&S has revised its policy regarding disclosure of disciplinary events on its Form ADV Part 2A, the Appendices thereto, and Form ADV Part 2B. Historically S&S had disclosed on these forms all disciplinary matters in which it was involved and all disciplinary events affecting its financial advisers. S&S now believes that disclosure of all disciplinary events has the potential to cause confusion for its investment advisory customers, particularly when these matters are minor in nature and/or not related to its investment advisory business.

Therefore, S&S has decided to modify its disclosure policy prospectively and only disclose those future disciplinary events which it determines are material to a customer’s evaluation of S&S’s investment advisory business, the integrity of its advisory management, and the integrity and professionalism of its individual financial advisers. The disciplinary events set forth in Items 9.A, 9.B, and 9.C of Form ADV Part 2A and Items 3.A, 3.B, 3.C, and 3.D of Form ADV Part 2B are presumed to be material. However, S&S is permitted to rebut this presumption of materiality. In making a determination as to whether a disciplinary event is material or not, S&S will rely on the following factors:

- The proximity of the person involved in the disciplinary event to the advisory function;
- The nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event;
- The severity of the disciplinary sanction; and
- The time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event.

S&S has established a committee consisting of a Firm principal and professionals within S&S’s Compliance Department to review each disciplinary event in which S&S and/or its individual financial advisers are involved and make a determination as to its materiality to an investor’s evaluation of S&S’s investment advisory business. Only when the committee determines that a disciplinary event is material, will S&S disclose the event on its Form ADV Part 2A, the Appendices thereto, and Form ADV Part 2B as appropriate.

S&S will maintain on its Forms ADV all prior disclosures of past disciplinary events for a period of ten years from the date of the event. S&S will continue to disclose all future disciplinary events, as required, on its broker-dealer Form BD and on the Form ADV Part 1. Customers can access the Form ADV on the SEC website, www.adviserinfo.sec.gov, and the Form BD on the FINRA website, www.finra.org/Investors/ToolsCalculators/BrokerCheck/. We will also promptly provide copies of all such disclosures to our customers upon their request.

4. We may, at any time, update this Brochure, which you can download from the SEC website referred to above. You may contact Theresa J. Manderski in the Compliance Department at (804) 782-8798 regarding any questions you have about the Brochure or its contents.

Item 4 – Services, Fees and Compensation

CHOICE Portfolios

1. Services

A. CHOICE Wrap Fee Program

Scott & Stringfellow's CHOICE Portfolios ("CHOICE") provide investment advisory services to client accounts on a discretionary basis using one or more of six portfolios: Equity Income Portfolio, Leaders Portfolio, Special Opportunities Portfolio, SMID Portfolio, Insight Portfolio and/or Enhanced Equity Portfolio. Each CHOICE client must complete and sign a Questionnaire and Investor Risk Profile that inquires about the client's attitude toward risk and reward, the client's current financial situation and any specific constraints that might affect investment decisions for the client.

The CHOICE Wrap Portfolios are Wrap-Fee Programs, i.e., programs under which a client is charged a specified fee or fees not based directly upon transactions in a client's account for investment advisory services (which may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisors) and execution of client transactions.

In addition to CHOICE, Scott & Stringfellow offers other Wrap Fee Programs: the Investment Advisory Program, the Professional Management Program, the S&S Advisor Account Program, the Spectrum Investment Program and the Unified Managed Account Program. Please contact your Investment Advisor if you would like information about any of these other Wrap Fee Programs.

As a general matter, Scott & Stringfellow considers it appropriate to use its own execution services for the purchase and sale of securities involved through its CHOICE portfolios.

CHOICE accounts are carried by Clearview Correspondent Services, LLC ("Clearview"), an affiliate of Scott & Stringfellow. Both Scott & Stringfellow and Clearview are separate, non-bank affiliates of BB&T Corporation, and members of the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation. On an exception-only basis at the request of the client, a third party custodian other than Clearview may be used. For those clients choosing to use a third party custodian, they may be subject to additional custodial fees charged by and collected by their respective third party custodian. Those clients who use a third party custodian will be charged for custodian fees within the wrap program in addition to any fee assessed by their respective third party custodian.

Under CHOICE, Scott & Stringfellow effects securities transactions as agent or, where permitted by law, as principal for clients but receives no additional brokerage execution compensation for the account. Clients authorize Scott & Stringfellow to effect brokerage transactions, including on a national exchange, as permitted by current provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules promulgated thereunder. Scott & Stringfellow's CHOICE Portfolio Managers also are authorized to purchase for their own accounts securities that are purchased for clients subject to Scott & Stringfellow's Code of Ethics.

It is Scott & Stringfellow's practice, when feasible, to aggregate for execution as a single transaction orders for the purchase or sale of a particular security for the accounts of CHOICE (including employee, Scott & Stringfellow or Scott & Stringfellow affiliates' CHOICE accounts), in order to seek a lower commission or more advantageous net price. The benefit, if any, obtained as a result of such aggregation generally is allocated pro rata among the accounts of CHOICE.

Since the wrap fee paid by the client under CHOICE covers all transaction-related costs, the client will not pay separate commissions for purchases or sales of securities for the client's account unless the client directs Scott & Stringfellow to execute transactions in securities with another broker-dealer. Because all transaction related fees are paid for out of the wrap fee, Scott & Stringfellow anticipates that it will fulfill its duty to obtain best price and execution of client orders by effecting those transactions itself as broker. If Scott & Stringfellow, LLC effects a transaction for a client through another broker, the net purchase or sale price reflected on the confirmations of such trades may reflect brokerage commissions or dealer "mark-ups" or "mark-downs."

Each CHOICE client may grant Scott & Stringfellow the limited authority to exercise discretion in effecting transactions for the client's account. Scott & Stringfellow will decide what securities to buy and sell for each account, and in what quantity, consistent with each client's Questionnaire.

Outside of CHOICE, Scott & Stringfellow provides a variety of services to clients as a broker-dealer for which it is compensated. Scott & Stringfellow typically acts as broker in transactions for clients. Scott & Stringfellow may act in a riskless principal capacity for certain fixed income securities that impose sales loads. All transactions, whether Scott & Stringfellow acts as broker or as riskless principal, are effected at the prevailing market price consistent with Scott & Stringfellow's duty to obtain best execution. Scott & Stringfellow is compensated in such transactions in the form of commissions on trades. In connection with clients investing in money market funds, Scott & Stringfellow may be paid compensation as described in the funds' prospectuses.

Scott & Stringfellow may purchase or sell the same security for a number of clients at the same time. Because of market fluctuations, the prices obtained on such transactions within a single day may vary substantially. In such a case, transactions in the same security for a number of customers, as well as for Scott & Stringfellow and affiliated persons, may be "batched" to allocate more fairly those market fluctuations among clients. In these circumstances, the confirmations and statements for each party's transaction may show that the transaction was effected at a price equal to the average execution price for all transactions in that security on that day. In addition, Scott & Stringfellow may buy or sell securities for its own account that it recommends to clients and may profit from such transactions.

Please be aware that you have the ability to impose reasonable restrictions on the management of the Account, including the designation of particular securities or types of securities that should not be purchased for the Account, or that should be sold if held in the Account. If the Firm believes the instructions are unreasonable or if the Firm believes that the instructions are inappropriate, the Firm will notify you that unless the instructions are modified you may be required to cancel the Account.

If the Account is subject to the provisions of ERISA, the Firm represents that it is a fiduciary as defined in that Act in performing its duties under this Agreement.

Scott & Stringfellow will not act for the client in any legal proceedings, including bankruptcies, involving securities held or previously held in the CHOICE account.

At account inception, Client may elect not to receive proxy and annual reports for the holdings in the account, which election may be rescinded at any time. Upon request, client will be provided with a copy of our proxy voting policies and procedures which may be updated from time to time. In addition, client will be provided information on how the proxies were voted upon request.

B. CHOICE Investment Advisory Services

CHOICE Asset Management Group, a department of Scott & Stringfellow, offers investment advisory services to assist clients, both high-net worth individuals, and institutions (such as pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, or charitable organizations, corporations and other business entities). In addition, the Group offers investment sub-advisory services to mutual funds and outside investment platforms. The Group's clients look to obtain professional asset management for an investment advisory fee. Custody and brokerage services are not included in the investment advisory service.

The CHOICE Asset Management Group provides disciplined equity portfolios based on certain established CHOICE guidelines designed to help meet a variety of client investment objectives. CHOICE consists of six portfolios, each using a multi-cap, multi-style approach to build a diversified, but concentrated portfolio; an Equity Income Portfolio, a Special Opportunities Portfolio, an Enhanced Equity Portfolio, a SMID Portfolio, an Insight Portfolio, and a Leaders Portfolio. The Equity Income Portfolio is primarily a larger-cap portfolio focused on increasing dividend payouts; the Special Opportunities Portfolio is a multi-cap, multi-style portfolio focused on stock selection; the Enhanced Equity Portfolio is a portfolio that manages risk through the use of covered call writing; the SMID Portfolio concentrates on small- and mid-cap stocks; the Insight Portfolio focuses on corporate insiders' stock purchasing activity or existing ownership based on SEC filings, and the Leaders Portfolio primarily consists of larger cap equities that are seen as industry leaders.

Clients for this service are expected to be sophisticated institutional and high-net worth individuals that can adequately assess their own investing risk/reward profiles and select appropriately from the available portfolios. CHOICE provides monitoring and reporting of portfolio performance to clients on a periodic basis.

Scott & Stringfellow will not act for the client in any legal proceedings, including bankruptcies, involving securities held or previously held in the CHOICE account.

2. Fees

A. CHOICE Wrap Fee Program

CHOICE accounts are charged an all inclusive "wrap fee" that is both for investment advice and in lieu of commissions. The standard CHOICE fee schedule, which is negotiable, is based on asset size and an assumed "active" portfolio.

$5,000,000 - $9,999,999	1.80%
$10,000,000 and Over	1.70%

*Calculated as the value of the account based on your quarter month-end statement, the "value of the account" includes free credit cash balances and for purposes of the accounts described, shall mean the sum of the long market value of all securities, money market, cash and credit balances. Margin debit balances and the short market value of securities held do not reduce the value of the account.

The annual fee does not include certain dealer markups or markdowns, odd lot differentials, postage and handling charges, transfer taxes, exchange fees, pass-through fees, and any other fees required by law (which Scott & Stringfellow will receive quarterly in advance).

Free credit cash balances resulting from sales, cash deposits, or interest or dividend credits (that is, cash that may be withdrawn from the Account without resulting interest changes) will automatically be swept on a daily basis into the Firm's Insured Deposit Program providing FDIC insurance for all eligible cash balances or, in some cases, into shares of a money market fund made available by the Firm at their then current net asset value. The Firm and its affiliates may have agreements to provide advisory, administrative, distribution, and other services to the money market fund used in the CHOICE Portfolio and receive compensation as a result of those services. As a shareholder of a money market fund, in addition to fees that Client pays to the Firm under the CHOICE program, Client will bear a proportionate share of the money market fund's expenses which may include the investment management fees that are paid to the fund's investment advisor, which, as stated above, may be the Firm or its affiliates. Refer to the prospectus or statement of additional information provided for a more complete description of this fund and its operation.

The initial annual fee under the CHOICE fee schedule is calculated and due as of the date the Program Agreement is opened and approved by Scott & Stringfellow. It is based on the initial value of the account, and covers the remainder of the calendar quarter. Thereafter, the Annual Fee will be based on the Account market value as reflected on the quarter month-end statement and will be due the following business day to cover the next calendar quarter. Should cash and/or securities be added between billing periods, a pro-rated Annual fee based upon the number of days remaining in the calendar quarter will be charged on the value added as of the date of the addition. No fee adjustment will be made for partial withdrawals or for account appreciation or depreciation within a billing period.

Scott & Stringfellow may terminate any account that has fallen below the minimum account value shown above. Accounts will not be terminated due to fluctuations in market value or fees deducted. However, should the net of the assets received into the account less any client withdrawals taken from the account fall below the minimum account value, then trading will be suspended in the account at that time and the client will be notified in writing of deficiency in that case. Should the account not receive a deposit for at least the amount of the deficiency shown within 30 days of the date that the notification was mailed, then the account shall be removed from the Program and become a non-discretionary investment account at Scott & Stringfellow.

Account assets invested in mutual funds, exchange traded funds or other investment companies will be included in calculating the value of the account to determine the amount of the fee. Clients with mutual funds in their portfolios are effectively paying Scott & Stringfellow and the mutual fund advisor for the management of the client's assets. Clients who place mutual funds shares under Scott & Stringfellow's management incur both Scott & Stringfellow's direct management fee and the indirect management fee of the mutual fund advisor. Mutual funds are subject to additional advisory and other fees and expenses, as set forth in the prospectuses for those funds, which are ultimately borne by the client. Whenever there are changes to the fee schedule, the schedule or charges previously in effect shall continue until the next quarterly billing cycle. Established fees may not be increased unless the client executes a new agreement. Client may terminate this Agreement within five (5) business days of its signing and receive a full refund of all fees. Thereafter, either party may terminate this agreement at any time and for any reason by notifying the other in writing and termination will become effective upon the receipt of this notice. However, termination will not affect either party's responsibilities under this Agreement for previously initiated transactions or for balances due in the Account. Upon the termination of this Agreement, Client assumes the exclusive responsibility to direct and monitor the securities in the Account and the Program will have no further obligation to act or advise with respect to those assets or to liquidate the positions held in the Account under this Agreement. Fees paid in advance hereunder will be prorated to the date of termination, and any unearned portion thereof will be refunded to the Client. If the term of this Agreement is less than one year, then the Firm will have no obligation to liquidate the positions held in the Account as part of the Program. If the term of this Agreement is more than one year but less than five years, then the Client may request in writing that the Firm liquidate the positions in the Account and the Client shall pay a liquidation fee of the lesser of the prorated refund above or $750. If the term of this Agreement is longer than five years, then the Client may request in writing that the Firm liquidate the positions in the Account and the Client will not be charged a liquidation fee.

B. CHOICE Investment Advisory Services

CHOICE investment advisory accounts are charged an investment advisory fee that is only for investment advice. Under CHOICE, the client will pay an annual fee, based on the amount of assets under management, for investment advice and management of the account. The standard fee schedule, which is negotiable, is tiered according to asset size.

Equity Income, Leaders, SMID, Insight and Special Opportunities Portfolios

Account Size*	Annual Fee
First $3,000,000	0.90%
Next $22,000,000	0.70%
Next $25,000,000	0.60%
Next $25,000,000	0.50%
Over $75,000,000	0.40%

Enhanced Equity Portfolio

Account Size*	Annual Fee
First $3,000,000	1.25%
Next $22,000,000	0.90%
Next $25,000,000	0.70%
Next $25,000,000	0.60%
Over $75,000,000	0.50%

*Calculated as the value of the account based on the quarter month-end statement from your custodian, the "value of the account" includes free credit cash balances and for the purposes of the accounts described, shall mean the sum of the long market value of all securities, money market, cash and credit balances. Margin debit balances and the short market value of securities held do not reduce the value of the account.

The initial annual fee under the CHOICE fee schedule is calculated and due as of the date the agreement is opened and approved by CHOICE Asset Management, is based on the initial value of the account, and covers the remainder of the calendar quarter. Subsequent fees will be determined for calendar quarter periods, are payable in advance and shall be calculated on the basis of the market value of the securities and cash held for the account of the client as reflected on the quarter end statement from your custodian. Should cash and/or securities be added between billing periods, a proportionate fee will be charged on the value added as of the date of the addition. No fee adjustment will be made for partial withdrawals or for account appreciation or depreciation within a billing period.

CHOICE may, at its discretion, terminate any account that has fallen below the minimum account value shown above. Accounts will not be terminated due to fluctuations in market value or fees deducted. Should the account not receive a deposit for at least the amount of the deficiency shown within 30 days of the date that the notification was mailed, then the account will be removed from the Program.

Whenever there are changes to the fee schedule, the schedule of charges previously in effect shall continue until the next quarterly billing cycle. Established fees may not be increased unless the client executes a new agreement. If the CHOICE agreement is terminated during a quarter upon written notice from the client, a pro rata refund, less reasonable administrative costs, will be made to the client. The CHOICE agreement may be terminated at any time by either the client or CHOICE upon written notice. A full refund will be provided to the client should they terminate the CHOICE agreement within five (5) business days of its execution.

The wrap fee charged under CHOICE may cost clients more or less than purchasing such services separately depending on the frequency of trading in the client's accounts, commissions charged at other broker-dealers for similar products, fees charged for like services by other broker-dealers, and other factors.

3. Compensation

Scott & Stringfellow may receive compensation or other benefits in addition to the wrap fee it receives from clients and, therefore, may have an incentive to engage in such transactions. Further, Scott & Stringfellow will maintain records of all securities purchased and sold by Scott & Stringfellow, its associated persons, and related entities, which will be available for client inspection upon reasonable request.

Under CHOICE, Scott & Stringfellow effects securities transactions as agent or, where permitted by law, as principal for clients but receives no additional brokerage execution compensation for the account.

Scott & Stringfellow will not act as principal in a transaction for CHOICE clients without providing disclosure that it is so acting and obtaining prior client consent. Scott & Stringfellow also, with appropriate disclosure and client consent, may effect transactions for a CHOICE client in which it acts as broker for both that client and the other party to the transaction and earn a commission on the trade from that other party. Scott & Stringfellow will do so only to the extent consistent with its duty to obtain best execution for the CHOICE client and with appropriate client consent. CHOICE clients may revoke consent to engage in such transactions at any time.

Finally, because the wrap fee under CHOICE may cost clients more or less than purchasing the included services separately, Scott & Stringfellow may have a financial incentive to recommend participation in CHOICE.

Outside of CHOICE, Scott & Stringfellow provides a variety of services to clients as a broker dealer for which it is compensated. Scott & Stringfellow usually acts as broker in transactions for clients. Scott & Stringfellow may act in a riskless principal capacity for certain fixed income securities that impose sales loads. All transactions, whether Scott & Stringfellow acts as broker or as riskless principal, are effected at the prevailing market price consistent with Scott & Stringfellow's duty to obtain best execution. Scott & Stringfellow is compensated in such transactions in the form of commissions on trades. In connection with client investing in money market funds, Scott & Stringfellow may be paid compensation as described in the fund's prospectus.

Item 5 – Account Requirements and Types of Clients

Under the CHOICE Wrap Fee Program, a minimum initial account value of $100,000 is required for the Equity Income Portfolio, Leaders Portfolio, SMID Portfolio, Insight Portfolio and Special Opportunities Portfolio accounts, and $250,000 for the Enhanced Equity Portfolio accounts. Under the CHOICE Investment Advisory Services, a minimum initial account value of $1,000,000 is required for the Equity Income Portfolio, Leaders Portfolio, Special Opportunities Portfolio, SMID Portfolio, Insight Portfolio and Enhanced Equity Portfolio accounts.

The Firm may terminate any Account that has fallen below the minimum Account value shown above as required to remain in the Program. Should the Account not receive a deposit for at least the amount of the deficiency shown within thirty (30) days of the date that the notification was mailed, the Account shall be removed from the Program and become a nondiscretionary commission-based investment Account at the Firm.

We generally provide our services to the following types of Clients:

- Trusts, estates and charitable organizations
- Corporations or other business entities
- Taft-Hartley plans, governmental plans, municipalities

Item 6 – Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

Related persons of Scott & Stringfellow act as Portfolio Managers for the CHOICE Wrap Fee Program and CHOICE Investment Advisory Services.

Scott & Stringfellow reviews the performance of these Portfolio Managers and the accounts and sub-accounts invested with them.

Scott & Stringfellow also engages a third party to audit the Portfolios' performance and track record to ensure the consistency of the performance and its compliance with the Global Investment Performance Standards ("GIPS"). CHOICE Portfolio Managers are also reviewed annually by Scott & Stringfellow's Compliance Department as well as periodically by Scott & Stringfellow's parent company, BB&T Corporation.

Conflicts of Interest

As a general matter, Scott & Stringfellow considers it appropriate to use its own execution services for the purchase and sale of securities involved in its CHOICE program. Clients of the CHOICE Investment Advisory Services can elect to have execution services done away from Scott & Stringfellow.

Under CHOICE, Scott & Stringfellow effects securities transactions as agent or, where permitted by law, as principal for clients but receives no additional brokerage execution compensation for the account. Clients authorize Scott & Stringfellow to effect brokerage transactions, including on a national exchange, as permitted by current provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules promulgated thereunder. Scott & Stringfellow's CHOICE Portfolio Managers also are authorized to purchase for their own accounts securities that are purchased for clients subject to Scott & Stringfellow's Code of Ethics.

It is Scott & Stringfellow's practice, when feasible, to aggregate for execution as a single transaction orders for the purchase or sale of a particular security for the accounts of CHOICE (including employee, Scott & Stringfellow or Scott & Stringfellow affiliates' CHOICE accounts), in order to seek a lower commission or more advantageous net price. The benefit, if any, obtained as a result of such aggregation generally is allocated pro rata among the accounts of CHOICE.

Advisory Business of Scott & Stringfellow

For a full description of the Advisory Services offered by Scott & Stringfellow, please see Item 4B of Scott & Stringfellow's Firm Disclosure Brochure dated December 15, 2011.

Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

We do not charge advisory fees based on the capital appreciation of the funds or securities in a client account (so-called performance-based fees). Our advisory fee compensation for each of our Programs is disclosed in Item 5 of Scott & Stringfellow's Firm Disclosure Brochure dated December 15, 2011.

Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

For a description of the methods of analysis and investment strategies of each of our Programs, see Item 4B of Scott & Stringfellow's Firm Disclosure Brochure dated December 15, 2011. These methods vary widely across the Firm and Managers. Security analysis methods include charting, fundamental, technical and cyclical analysis. Investment strategies used to implement advice given to clients may include long term purchases (securities held at least a year), short term purchases (securities sold within a year), trading (securities sold within 30 days), short sales, margin transactions and approved option writing.

Risk of Loss

All investments in securities include a risk of loss of your principal (invested amount) and any profits that have not been realized. As you know, stock markets and bond markets fluctuate substantially over time. In addition, as recent global and domestic economic events have indicated, performance of any investment is not guaranteed. As a result, there is a risk of loss of the assets we manage that may be out of our control. We will do our very best in the management of your assets; however, we cannot guarantee any level of performance or that you will not experience a loss of your account assets.

Voting Client Securities

For CHOICE accounts where the Firm votes proxies, you may obtain a copy of our Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures, which may be updated from time to time, upon request by using the address or telephone number on the front page of this Brochure, attn: Chief Compliance officer or by contacting your Portfolio Manager. In addition, Client will be provided information on how the proxies were voted by the Portfolio Manager upon request.

Item 7 – Client Information Provided to Portfolio Manager

As previously stated, related persons of Scott & Stringfellow act as Portfolio Managers for the CHOICE Programs.

Client information is provided to the Portfolio Managers so that they may properly manage the client account on an ongoing basis.

Item 8 – Client Contact with Portfolio Manager

Clients may have access to a Portfolio Manager through various means acceptable to both parties either in-person, by conference call or email. Access to the Portfolio Manager for the CHOICE Wrap Fee Program may be coordinated through the Client's financial advisor. In some cases, geographic differences may dictate that an in-person meeting is not feasible and that other means must suffice.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

As a registered broker-dealer and investment advisor, we from time to time are subject to disciplinary actions from our regulators. Such disciplinary actions have historically been and are currently disclosed on our Forms BD and ADV Part 1. We disclose the following material disciplinary events occurring within the last ten (10) years which we believe may be material to you when evaluating us to initiate a Client/Adviser relationship, or to continue a Client/Adviser relationship with us:

On April 15, 2002, NASD Regulation, Inc. initiated a regulatory action against the applicant (Docket #CMS020106 AWC). The allegations related to this action are NASDR alleged that Scott & Stringfellow, Inc. ("S&S") failed to use reasonable diligence to ascertain the best inter-dealer market for selected transactions during the period July 1, 1999 through September 30, 1999. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Scott & Stringfellow, Inc. ("S&S") entered into a letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") relating to certain account transactions during the period July 1, 1999 through September 30, 1999, relating to S&S' diligence in ascertaining the best inter-dealer market for selected customer orders. On June 27, 2002, S&S agreed to a censure, to pay a fine of $15,000, and to make restitution to customers of $4,861.13 plus interest.

On October 16, 2003, the New York Stock Exchange initiated a regulatory action against the applicant (Docket #03-207). The allegations related to this action are violations of Rules 15c3-3(E)(1) and 15c3-3(E)(1)/01. It was alleged that applicant transacted options from branch where supervisor is not properly qualified, and failed to properly compute its customer reserve requirement and deposited the special reserve funds into a money market deposit account that exceeded the amount permitted by the Rule. In May 2000, two of S&S former brokers executed options contracts in their personal accounts in a manner designed to evade S&S's Compliance Procedures. During the applicant's investigation into the trading the applicant determined that the branch office where these individuals worked did not have a ROP. The applicant has subsequently revised its procedures and the branch manager is now registered as a ROP. In an unrelated matter, S&S determined that one of its employees made an error in a spreadsheet calculation that caused a hindsight deficiency in the applicant's reserve deposit for the week of November 22, 2002. The applicant corrected the error and notified the SEC and MFR immediately. In conjunction with this error, the applicant exceeded the amount of allowable deposits into a money market deposit account. Upon discovery, the applicant took corrective action, and subsequently revised its procedures so that an automated system performs these calculations. Without admitting or denying the allegations, S&S consented to a censure and a $50,000.00 fine to resolve these matters.

On March 8, 2004, NASD Regulation, Inc. initiated a regulatory action against the applicant (Docket #CMS040022 AWC).
