Item 3 Disciplinary Information

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Adam Ciepiela, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.¹

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

A. If Adam Ciepiela is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Adam Ciepiela is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant (“FCM”), commodity pool operator (“CPO”), commodity trading advisor (“CTA”), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If Adam Ciepiela receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Adam Ciepiela receives. We must explain that this practice gives Adam Ciepiela an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

Adam Ciepiela is a registered representative of NFP Securities, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC. He may offer securities and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that Adam Ciepiela recommends that a client invest in a security which results in a commission being paid to him.

A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation adviser and/or our supervised persons may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client.

- B. If Adam Ciepiela is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Adam Ciepiela's income or involve a substantial amount of Adam Ciepiela's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Adam Ciepiela's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Adam Ciepiela is an insurance representative. He may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. This presents a conflict of interest to the extent that Adam Ciepiela recommends that a client invest in an insurance product which results in a commission being paid to him.

A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation adviser and/or our supervised persons may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Adam Ciepiela for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Adam Ciepiela's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6 Supervision

We are required to explain how we supervise Adam Ciepiela, including how we monitor the advice Adam Ciepiela provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Adam Ciepiela's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Stephen Ciepiela, Chief Compliance Officer of our firm, supervises and monitors Adam Ciepiela's activities on a regular basis. Stephen Ciepiela reviews all outgoing correspondence for written financial advice that Adam Ciepiela provides to his clients. Please contact Stephen Ciepiela if you have any questions about Adam Ciepiela's brochure supplement at (505) 884-0451.
