Item 4 Advisory Business

Description of Services and Fees

FinArc, LLC is a registered investment adviser based in Needham, Massachusetts. We are organized as a limited liability company under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. We have been providing investment advisory services since October of 1996. Prior to that we operated as a sole proprietorship DBA Financial Architects, which was founded by Ms. White in 1990. Catherine F. White is our principal owner. Currently, we offer the following investment advisory services, which are personalized to each individual client:

- Money Management Services
- Pension Consulting Services
- General Consulting Services

The following paragraphs describe our services and fees. Please refer to the description of each investment advisory service listed below for information on how we tailor our advisory services to your individual needs. As used in this brochure, the words "we", "our" and "us" refer to FinArc, LLC and the words "you", "your" and "client" refer to you as either a client or prospective client of our firm. Also, you may see the term Associated Person throughout this Brochure. As used in this Brochure, our Associated Persons are our firm's officers, employees, and all individuals providing investment advice on behalf of our firm.

Money Management Services

We provide continuous discretionary and non-discretionary asset management and investment advisory services. Subject to any written guidelines, which you may provide, we will be granted discretion and authority to manage the account. Accordingly, we are authorized to perform various functions, at your expense, without further approval from you. Such functions include making all investment decisions on the securities purchased or sold and the amount of securities to be purchased or sold. Once the portfolio is constructed, we will provide ongoing supervision and re-balancing of the portfolio as changes in market conditions and your circumstances may require. Where we enter into non-discretionary arrangements with you, we will obtain your approval prior to the execution of a trade. You may limit our discretionary authority (for example, limiting the types of securities that can be purchased for your account) by providing our firm with your restrictions and guidelines in writing. If you enter into non-discretionary arrangements with our firm, we must obtain your approval prior to executing any transactions on behalf of your account.

Our annual fee for money management services is billed quarterly in arrears based on the market value of your assets on the last day of the quarter. Fees will be assessed pro rata in the event the money management agreement is executed at any time other than the first day of a calendar quarter. On an annualized basis, our fees for ongoing money management services, subject to negotiation, are based on the following tiered fee schedules:

Equity and Bond Portfolios:

Portfolio Size	Annualized Fee
First $2,000,000	1.00%
Next $8,000,000	0.75%
Over $10,000,000	Negotiable

Mutual Fund Portfolios:

Portfolio Size	Annualized Fee
First $1,000,000	0.75%
Next $2,000,000	0.50%
Over $3,000,000	Negotiable

Related accounts may be aggregated for fee calculations. Our firm requires a minimum annual fee of $2500 for mutual fund portfolios and a minimum annual fee of $5000 for accounts that are comprised of individual stocks, bonds and mutual funds. The total fee charged by our firm will never exceed 3% of assets under management. Our fees may be waived or lowered in our sole discretion.

We do not hold ourselves out as a financial planning firm, but may provide financial planning related services as requested by you, or where the Associated Person deems such services to be in your best interest. We are not typically compensated separately for such services; although we may assess an additional fee for extraordinary services rendered outside the scope of the management agreement. Such fees will be agreed upon in advance of services rendered and shall be assessed in accordance with our current hourly rate of $225.

Either we will invoice you directly for management fees or payment will be made by the qualified custodian holding your funds and securities provided you provide written authorization permitting the fees to be paid directly from your account. We will not have access to your funds for payment of fees without your consent in writing. Further, the qualified custodian agrees to deliver a monthly account statement directly to you showing all disbursements from the account. We encourage you to review your account statements for accuracy. We have access to a duplicate copy of the statement that was delivered to you.

Either party, upon 30 day's written notice to the other, may terminate the management agreement. Refunds are not applicable since fees are payable in arrears.

Pension Consulting Services

All pension client accounts are regulated under the Employee Retirement Income Securities Act ("ERISA"). We offer various levels of advisory and consulting services to employee benefit plans ("Plan"). These services are designed to assist plan sponsors in meeting their management and fiduciary obligations to Participants under the Employee Retirement Income Securities Act ("ERISA"). Typically, the named plan fiduciary must make the ultimate decision as to retaining the services of such investment advisers as our firm recommends. The plan fiduciary is free to seek independent advice about the appropriateness of any recommended services for the plan.

Pursuant to adopted regulations of the U.S. Department of Labor, we are required to provide the Plan's responsible plan fiduciary (the person who has the authority to engage us as an investment adviser to the Plan) with a written statement of the services we provide to the Plan, the compensation we receive for providing those services, and our status.

Services - Our firm will provide pension consulting services to employee benefit plans and their fiduciaries based upon an analysis of the needs of the plan. In general, these services may include an existing plan review, assistance in the development of a retirement plan, evaluation of retirement plan vendors, asset allocation advice, money management services, communication and education services to plan participants, investment performance monitoring, and/or ongoing consulting. The specific services we provide to your Plan are described in the advisory agreement that you sign.

Compensation - We will be compensated at a rate negotiated between our firm and you on a case-by-case basis. The fees and terms will be clearly set forth in the executed agreement for services. The amount of the fees charged to you will be based on the scope and complexity of the qualified plan and the requested services. An estimate of the total cost will be determined at the start of the advisory relationship. The final fee shall be directly dependent upon the facts and circumstances of your financial situation and the complexity of the pension consulting services provided. We do not reasonably expect to receive any other compensation, direct or indirect, for the services we provide to the Plan or Participants, unless the plan sponsor directs us to deduct our fee from the plan or directs the plan record-keeper to issue payment for our fee out of the plan. If we receive any other compensation for such services, we will (i) offset the compensation against our stated fees, and (ii) we will promptly disclose the amount of such compensation, the services rendered for such compensation and the payer of such compensation to you.

Status - FinArc, LLC is a state registered investment adviser and represents that it is not subject to any disqualification as set forth in Section 411 of ERISA. In performing fiduciary services, we are acting either as a non-discretionary fiduciary of the Plan as defined in Section 3(21) under ERISA, or as a discretionary fiduciary of the plan as defined in Section 3(38) under ERISA, as determined by the arrangement set forth with each Plan sponsor.

Either party may terminate the agreement by providing 30 day written notice to the other party.

General Consulting Services

We may provide general consulting services based on our firm's current hourly rate of $225, where an Associated Person of our firm provides a professional opinion on specific financial related areas. Such services may include, but are not limited to, retirement planning, risk assessment/management, education funding, investment planning, estate planning, financial organization, or financial decision making/negotiation. The consulting fee is payable at the conclusion of each session or as invoiced. We may, in our sole discretion, waive our advisory consulting fees for clients that have engaged our firm for our money management services.

General Information on Advisory Services and Fees

We shall never have custody of any client funds or securities, as the services of a qualified independent custodian will be used for these asset management services.

We do not represent, warrant, or imply that the services or methods of analysis employed by our firm can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate clients from losses due to market corrections or declines.

Types of Investments

We may advise you on any type of investment that we deem appropriate based on your stated goals and objectives. We may also provide advice on any type of investment held in your portfolio at the inception of our relationship.

Assets Under Management

As of December 31, 2011, we manage $60,429,951 in client assets on a discretionary basis, and $2,023,910 in client assets on a non-discretionary basis.

Item 5 Fees and Compensation

Additional Fees and Expenses

As part of our investment advisory services to you, we may invest, or recommend that you invest, in mutual funds and exchange traded funds. The fees that you pay to our firm for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds or exchange traded funds (described in each fund's prospectus) to their shareholders. These fees will generally include a management fee and other fund expenses. You may also incur transaction charges and/or brokerage fees when purchasing or selling securities. These charges and fees are typically imposed by the broker-dealer or custodian through whom your account transactions are executed. We do not share in any portion of the brokerage fees/transaction charges imposed by the broker-dealer or custodian. To fully understand the total cost you will incur, you should review all the fees charged by mutual funds, exchange traded funds, our firm, and others. For information on our brokerage practices, please refer to the "Brokerage Practices" section of this Disclosure Brochure.

Item 6 Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

We do not accept performance-based fees or participate in side-by-side management. Side-by-side management refers to the practice of managing accounts that are charged performance-based fees while at the same time managing accounts that are not charged performance-based fees.

Performance-based fees are fees that are based on a share of capital gains or capital appreciation of a client's account. Our fees are calculated as described in the Advisory Business section above, and are not charged on the basis of a share of capital gains upon, or capital appreciation of, the funds in your advisory account.

Item 7 Types of Clients

We offer investment advisory services to individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations, and other business entities.

In general, we require a minimum of $250,000 to open and maintain an advisory account. At our discretion, we may waive this minimum account size. For example, we may waive the minimum if you appear to have significant potential for increasing your assets under our management. We may also combine account values for you and your minor children, joint accounts with your spouse, and other types of related accounts to meet the stated minimum.

Item 8 Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Our Methods of Analysis and Investment Strategies

We may use one or more of the following methods of analysis or investment strategies when providing investment advice to you:

- Fundamental Analysis - involves analyzing individual companies and their industry groups, such as a company's financial statements, details regarding the company's product line, the experience and expertise of the company's management, and the outlook for the company's industry. The resulting data is used to measure the true value of the company's stock compared to the current market value.
- Technical Analysis - involves studying past price patterns and trends in the financial markets to predict the direction of both the overall market and specific stocks.
- Long Term Purchases - securities purchased with the expectation that the value of those securities will grow over a relatively long period of time, generally greater than one year.

- Short Term Purchases - securities purchased with the expectation that they will be sold within a relatively short period of time, generally less than one year, to take advantage of the securities' short-term price fluctuations.

Our investment strategies and advice may vary depending upon each client's specific financial situation. As such, we determine investments and allocations based upon your predefined objectives, risk tolerance, time horizon, financial horizon, financial information, liquidity needs, and other various suitability factors. Your restrictions and guidelines may affect the composition of your portfolio.

Fundamental Analysis - The risk of fundamental analysis is that information obtained may be incorrect and the analysis may not provide an accurate estimate of earnings, which may be the basis for a stock's value. If securities prices adjust rapidly to new information, utilizing fundamental analysis may not result in favorable performance.

Technical Analysis - The risk of market timing based on technical analysis is that charts may not accurately predict future price movements. Current prices of securities may reflect all information known about the security and day to day changes in market prices of securities may follow random patterns and may not be predictable with any reliable degree of accuracy.

Our strategies and investments may have unique and significant tax implications. However, unless we specifically agree otherwise, and in writing, tax efficiency is not our primary consideration in the management of your assets. Regardless of your account size or any other factors, we strongly recommend that you continuously consult with a tax professional prior to and throughout the investing of your assets.

Moreover, as a result of revised IRS regulations, custodians and broker-dealers will begin reporting the cost basis of equities acquired in client accounts on or after January 1, 2011. We use the FIFO (highest cost, first out), accounting method for calculating the cost basis of your investments. You are responsible for contacting your tax advisor to determine if this accounting method is the right choice for you. If your tax advisor believes another accounting method is more advantageous, please provide written notice to our firm immediately and we will alert your account custodian of your individually selected accounting method. Please note that decisions about cost basis accounting methods will need to be made before trades settle, as the cost basis method cannot be changed after settlement.

Risk of Loss

Investing in securities involves risk of loss that you should be prepared to bear. We do not represent or guarantee that our services or methods of analysis can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate clients from losses due to market corrections or declines. We cannot offer any guarantees or promises that your financial goals and objectives will be met. Past performance is in no way an indication of future performance.

Recommendation of Particular Types of Securities

As disclosed under the "Advisory Business" section in this Brochure, we recommend all types of securities and we do not necessarily recommend one particular type of security over another. Since each client has different needs and different tolerance for risk. Each type of security has its own unique set of risks associated with it and it would not be possible to list here all of the specific risks of every type of investment. Even within the same type of investment, risks can vary widely. However, in very general terms, the higher the anticipated return of an investment, the higher the risk of loss associated with it.

Item 9 Disciplinary Information

FinArc, LLC has been registered and providing investment advisory services since 1996. In 1998, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order stating that the firm had violated the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 by overstating its assets under management in a press release dated July 25, 1997. The order further stated that Ms. White as President of FinArc had caused, aided and abetted in the firm's violation. The issue was resolved in 1999 with FinArc agreeing to send out a copy of the order to its clients and potential clients for one year and paying a fifteen thousand dollar fine. As a federally registered investment adviser, this information was not required to be reported after ten years; however, due to the switch from federal to state registration, the firm was required by the state to once again report this information. There have been no additional disciplinary or disclosure events to report since the issue that was resolved in 1999.

Item 10 Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

We have not provided information on other financial industry activities and affiliations because we do not have any relationship or arrangement that is material to our advisory business or to our clients with any of the types of entities listed below.

1. broker-dealer, municipal securities dealer, or government securities dealer or broker
2. investment company or other pooled investment vehicle (including a mutual fund, closed-end investment company, unit investment trust, private investment company or "hedge fund," and offshore fund)
3. other investment adviser or financial planner
4. futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading advisor
5. banking or thrift institution
6. accountant or accounting firm
7. lawyer or law firm
8. insurance company or agency
9. pension consultant
10. real estate broker or dealer
11. sponsor or syndicator of limited partnerships

Item 11 Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Description of Our Code of Ethics

We strive to comply with applicable laws and regulations governing our practices. Therefore, our Code of Ethics includes guidelines for professional standards of conduct for our Associated Persons. Our goal is to protect your interests at all times and to demonstrate our commitment to our fiduciary duties of honesty, good faith, and fair dealing with you. All of our Associated Persons are expected to adhere strictly to these guidelines. Our Code of Ethics also requires that certain persons associated with our firm submit reports of their personal account holdings and transactions to a qualified representative of our firm who will review these reports on a periodic basis. Persons associated with our firm are also required to report any violations of our Code of Ethics. Additionally, we maintain and enforce written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse or dissemination of material, non-public information about you or your account holdings by persons associated with our firm.

Our Code of Ethics is available to you upon request. You may obtain a copy of our Code of Ethics by contacting us at the telephone number listed on the cover page of this brochure.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

Neither our firm nor any of our Associated Persons has any material financial interest in client transactions beyond the provision of investment advisory services as disclosed in this Brochure.

Personal Trading Practices

Our firm or persons associated with our firm may buy or sell the same securities that we recommend to you or securities in which you are already invested. A potential conflict of interest exists in such cases because we have the ability to trade ahead of you and potentially receive more favorable prices than you will receive. To avoid this conflict of interest, it is our policy that neither our Associated Persons nor we shall have priority over your account in the purchase or sale of securities. Before any Associated Person makes a trade in a stock, ETF (exchange-traded security), or a bond they receive pre-clearance authority. No Associated Person is permitted to trade the same stock, ETF (exchange-traded security), or bond as a client on the same day.

Item 12 Brokerage Practices

We recommend that clients establish brokerage accounts with the Schwab Institutional division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab Institutional"), a registered broker-dealer, member FINRA/SIPC, to maintain custody of your assets and to effect trades for your account. You are advised that there may be transaction charges involved when purchasing or selling securities. We do not share in any portion of the brokerage fees/transaction charges imposed by Schwab Institutional. Additionally, the commission/transaction fees charged by Schwab Institutional may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealer/custodians.

Schwab Institutional provides our firm with access to its institutional trading and operations services, which are typically not available to Schwab retail investors. These services generally are available to independent investment advisers at no charge to them so long as a total of at least $10 million of the adviser's clients' account assets are maintained at Schwab Institutional. Schwab Institutional services may include research, brokerage, custody, access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise available only to institutional investors or would require significantly higher minimum initial investments. Schwab Institutional also makes available to us other products and services that benefit our firm but may not benefit its clients' accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to your account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements), facilitate trade execution, provide research, pricing information and other market data, facilitate payment of our fees from your account, and assist with back-office support, recordkeeping and client reporting. The availability to our firm of the foregoing products and services is not contingent upon us committing to Schwab Institutional any specific amount of business (assets in custody or trading).

We believe that Schwab Institutional provides the best services at competitive commission rates. The reasonableness of commissions is based on several factors, including the broker's ability to provide professional services, competitive commission rates, volume discounts, execution price negotiations, the broker's reputation, experience and financial stability of the broker or dealer, and the quality of service rendered by the broker or dealer in other transactions.

Best execution is not measured solely by reference to commission rates. Paying a broker a higher commission rate than another broker might charge is permissible if the difference in cost is reasonably justified by the quality of the brokerage services offered.

Brokerage for Client Referrals

We do not receive client referrals from broker-dealers in exchange for cash or other compensation, such as brokerage services or research.

Directed Brokerage

We routinely recommend that you direct our firm to execute transactions through Charles Schwab & Co. As such, we may be unable to achieve the most favorable execution of your transactions and you may pay higher brokerage commissions than you might otherwise pay through another broker-dealer that offers the same types of services. Not all advisers require their clients to direct brokerage.

In limited circumstances, and at our discretion, some clients may instruct our firm to use one or more particular brokers for the transactions in their accounts. If you choose to direct our firm to use a particular broker, you should understand that this might prevent our firm from aggregating trades with other client accounts or from effectively negotiating brokerage commissions on your behalf. This practice may also prevent our firm from obtaining favorable net price and execution. Thus, when directing brokerage business, you should consider whether the commission expenses, execution, clearance, and settlement capabilities that you will obtain through your broker are adequately favorable in comparison to those that we would otherwise obtain for you.

Block Trades

We combine multiple orders for shares of the same securities purchased for advisory accounts we manage (this practice is commonly referred to as "block trading"). We will then distribute a portion of the shares to participating accounts in a fair and equitable manner. The distribution of the shares purchased is typically proportionate to the size of the account, but it is not based on account performance or the amount or structure of management fees. Subject to our discretion regarding factual and market conditions, when we combine orders, each participating account pays an average price per share for all transactions and pays a proportionate share of all transaction costs. Accounts owned by our firm or persons associated with our firm may not participate in block trading with your accounts.

Item 13 Review of Accounts

As portfolio managers, Catherine F. White and Matthew Slaney conduct ongoing reviews of stocks and mutual funds, perform quarterly reviews of all money management accounts and offer to meet with clients semi-annually or at their request to discuss financial planning and investing. Triggering factors that may stimulate additional reviews of your account include, but are not limited to, the following: contributions and withdrawals, year-end tax planning, market-moving events, securities-specific events and a change in your risk/return objectives.

You will receive statements directly from your account custodian(s) within a month of the quarter end. These statements include prices, income and balances. A report on the economic and financial outlook will be mailed to you quarterly. We encourage you to reconcile our invoices with the statement(s) you receive from the qualified custodian.

We provide money management clients with quarterly reports for the periods ending on 3/31, 6/30, 9/30 and 12/31. Such reports include a written summary of changes in the investment outlook, a listing of account holdings, closing prices, and balance and income (if any). The report dated 12/31 includes annual summaries of dividend and interest income.

Item 14 Client Referrals and Other Compensation

We do not receive any compensation from any third party in connection with providing investment advice to you nor do we compensate any individual or firm for client referrals.

Please refer to the Brokerage Practices section above for disclosures on research and other benefits we may receive resulting from our relationship with Charles Schwab & Co.

Item 15 Custody

We directly debit your account(s) for the payment of our advisory fees. This ability to deduct our advisory fees from your accounts causes our firm to exercise limited custody over your funds or securities. We do not have physical custody of any of your funds and/or securities. Your funds and securities will be held with a bank, broker-dealer, or other independent, qualified custodian. You will receive account statements from the independent, qualified custodian(s) holding your funds and securities at least quarterly. The account statements from your custodian(s) will indicate the amount of our advisory fees deducted from your account(s) each billing period. You should carefully review account statements for accuracy.

You should compare any statements that you may receive from us with the statements from your account custodian(s) to reconcile the information reflected on each statement. If you have a question regarding your account statement or if you did not receive a statement from your custodian, please contact Catherine White, Chief Compliance Officer at 781.449.8989.

Item 16 Investment Discretion

Before we can buy or sell securities on your behalf, you must first sign our discretionary management agreement, a power of attorney, and/or trading authorization forms.

You may grant our firm discretion over the selection and amount of securities to be purchased or sold for your account(s) without obtaining your consent or approval prior to each transaction. You may specify investment objectives, guidelines, and/or impose certain conditions or investment parameters for your account(s). For example, you may specify that the investment in any particular stock or industry should not exceed specified percentages of the value of the portfolio and/or restrictions or prohibitions of transactions in the securities of a specific industry or security. Please refer to the "Advisory Business" section in this Brochure for more information on our discretionary management services.

If you enter into non-discretionary arrangements with our firm, we will obtain your approval prior to the execution of any transactions for your account(s).

Item 17 Voting Client Securities

Proxy Voting

We will vote proxies on behalf of your account. Our firm will determine how to vote proxies based on its reasonable judgment that the vote will produce favorable financial results for its clients. Proxy votes generally will be cast in favor of proposals that maintain or strengthen the shared interests of shareholders and management, increase shareholder value, maintain or increase shareholder influence over the issuer's board of directors and management, and maintain or increase the rights of shareholders; proxy votes generally will be cast against proposals having the opposite effect. However, we will consider both sides of each proxy issue. We vote proxies with the social, environmental, and ethic guidance provided by our clients and their financial investment goals, in mind.

Conflicts of interest between the our firm or a principal of our firm and our clients in respect of a proxy issue conceivably may arise, for example, from personal or professional relationships with a company or with the directors, candidates for director, or senior executives of a company that is the issuer of client securities.

If the Compliance Officer determines that a material conflict of interest exists, the following procedures shall be followed:

- (a) We may disclose the existence and nature of the conflict to the client(s) owning the client securities, and seek directions on how to vote the proxies;
- (b) We may abstain from voting, particularly if there are conflicting client interests (for example, where client accounts hold different client securities in a competitive merger situation); or
- (c) We may follow the recommendations of an independent proxy voting service in voting the proxies.

Our firm keeps certain records required by applicable law in connection with its proxy voting activities for clients and shall provide proxy-voting information to clients upon their written or oral request. A copy of our proxy-voting policies is available to you upon request. If you would like a copy of this policy please contact us at the telephone number listed on the cover page of this brochure.

Item 18 Financial Information

We are not required to provide financial information to our clients because we do not:

- require the prepayment of more than $500 in fees and six or more months in advance, or
- take custody of client funds or securities, or
- have a financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our commitments to you.

Item 19 Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Refer to the Part(s) 2B for background information about management personnel and those giving advice on behalf of our firm.

Neither our firm, nor any persons associated with our firm are compensated for advisory services with performance-based fees. Please refer to the "Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management" section above for additional information on this topic.

Neither our firm, nor any of our management persons have any reportable arbitration claims, civil, self-regulatory organization proceedings or administrative proceedings.

Neither our firm, nor any of our management persons have a material relationship or arrangement with any issuer of securities.

Massachusetts Residents - Pursuant to 950 CMR12.205 (8)(d), the disciplinary history, if any, of all investment advisors and their representatives may be obtained by calling The Massachusetts Securities Division at (617) 727-3548.

Item 20 Additional Information

Your Privacy

We view protecting your private information as a top priority. Pursuant to applicable privacy requirements, we have instituted policies and procedures to ensure that we keep your personal information private and secure.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you to any nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law. In the course of servicing your account, we may share some information with our service providers, such as transfer agents, custodians, broker-dealers, accountants, consultants, and attorneys.

We restrict internal access to nonpublic personal information about you to employees, who need that information in order to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical and procedural safeguards that comply with regulatory standards to guard your nonpublic personal information and to ensure our integrity and confidentiality. We will never sell information about you or your accounts to anyone. We do not share your information unless it is required to process a transaction, at your request, or required by law.

You will receive a copy of our privacy notice prior to or at the time you sign an advisory agreement with our firm. Thereafter, we will deliver a copy of the current privacy policy notice to you on an annual basis. Please contact Catherine White, Chief Compliance Officer at 781.449.8989, if you have any questions regarding this policy.

Massachusetts Residents - Our firm is forbidden from sharing any information about you which qualifies as private unless you specifically agree to it or "opt in".

Trade Errors

In the event a trading error occurs in your account, our policy is to restore your account to the position it should have been in had the trading error not occurred. Depending on the circumstances, corrective actions may include canceling the trade, adjusting an allocation, and/or reimbursing the account.
