Item 2 - Material Changes To This Brochure Since Its Last Annual Update

Financial Service Group, Inc. (FSG) had several material changes since its last annual update including:

Change to Fee Structure

The firm has adopted a Total Wealth Retainer (TWR) fee structure which bases the clients' annual fee on their net worth and annual income instead of just their investment assets. The purpose for this change was to better align the fees with the comprehensive financial planning services FSG offers to its clients. See Item 4 and 5 for additional information.

Staff changes

FSG has added several new Investment Advisor Representatives in the past year. Brian McClaren joined the firm in October 2011. R. Alan Moore joined the firm in November 2011. Joy Clady is no longer with the firm. See Schedule 2B for additional information.

FINANCIAL
SERVICE GROUP INC.

Registered Investment Advisory Firm

Item 4 - Advisory Business

Financial Services Group, Inc. ("FSG") is an investment adviser registered with the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). FSG has been offering advisory services since 1992. FSG offers investment supervision and financial planning services to their clients on a fee-only basis. FSG is owned by Michael Haubrich and Justus Morgan. FSG does not control any other firm.

The advisory services consist of preparing financial plans and providing evaluation services to clients based on their current and anticipated financial situations, needs and investment objectives and goals. FSG also provides advisory consulting services to clients with regard to specific situations and problems. FSG offers advice on the following investments: equity securities including exchange listed securities, over the counter and foreign issuers, corporate debt securities, United States government securities, investment company securities including mutual fund shares, variable annuities and variable life insurance and partnership interests investing in real estate.

Total Wealth Retainer Services offered:

1. Financial Planning Review(s) - At least annually, FSG will meet with clients to review clients' existing goals and objectives, monitor progress towards achieving goals and discuss changes that may have occurred to clients' financial circumstances necessitating revisions to those goals and objectives. Additional meetings may be scheduled throughout the year to discuss career planning, charitable gift planning, education planning, estate planning, insurance planning, long term care planning, real estate planning, and/or retirement planning in the scope designated by the client. It is the client's responsibility to be certain that FSG has current and accurate information.
2. Portfolio Management Services - At least annually, FSG will meet with clients to review investment account performance, current investment objectives, constraints and time horizons to determine if changes are necessary. FSG will monitor and review accounts on an ongoing basis during the year, place investment and sale orders when it deems it appropriate to do so, and provide client with reports or arrange for client's account custodian to do so, at least quarterly.
3. Tax Services - FSG will contact client for year-end tax planning to discuss tax minimizing strategies. FSG may also prepare client's personal income tax return.

Limited Retainer Services offered:

1. Financial Planning Review - At least annually, FSG will meet with Client to review investment objectives, constraints and time horizons to determine if changes are necessary. FSG will also review the Client's goals & objectives and discuss any changes that may have occurred necessitating revisions to those goals and objectives. Additional meetings for other services will incur separate fees.

2. Tax Services – At the Client's discretion, FSG will prepare the Client's personal income tax return for a separate fee.

All planning is based on information provided by the client. It is the client's responsibility to be certain FSG has current and accurate information to enable FSG to prepare the initial plan, and it is the client's responsibility to inform the Representative of material changes affecting the investments and planning strategies implemented so the Representative has them for future reference.

Item 5 - Fees and Compensation

Fees paid to FSG are for FSG advisory services only. In addition to FSG's fees, account custodians and investment companies may charge their own management and distribution fees and transaction expenses. Occasionally, Third Party Service Providers (example: attorneys, realtors, or insurance agents) are used to assist with the implementation of recommendations. The expenses for these services are separate from fees charged by FSG and are estimated to client before these services are provided.

Total Wealth Retainer Service Fees

The Total Wealth Retainer (TWR) annual fee is based on the following formula:

$$400 + 0.50\%$ of Net Worth up to $2 million (0.25% on amounts over $2 million) + 1% of AGI

- a. Net Worth equals Assets minus Liabilities
 - a. Assets include all non-personal property such as investments, retirement accounts, cash accounts, real estate, majority-owned businesses, etc.
 - b. Liabilities include all debts such as mortgages, student loans, consumer debt, etc.
- b. Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) equals the amount reported on the most recent income tax return

The fee is fixed for 12 months and billed equally in quarterly installments. It will then be recalculated based on the above components.

The minimum annual fee is $5,000 ($4,000 for ongoing client relationships established prior to 12/31/2009).

Limited Retainer Service Fees

The annual fee for the Limited Retainer is $1,500. An additional fee of 1.00% will be charged for portfolios greater than $150,000. Additional fees for more than one meeting per year and tax preparation services also apply.

Thirty (30) days advance written notice will be provided to client prior to any change in applicable fees by FSG. Client will receive an invoice with a calculation showing how FSG arrived at the fee prior to fees being deducted from client's account, or being paid directly by the client.

Item 6 - Performance Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

FSG does not charge any performance-based fees. All fees are disclosed above.

Item 7 - Types of Clients/Minimum Account Size

FSG makes its' advisory services available to a wide variety of clients including, but not limited to, individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and other business entities.

FSG does not impose a minimum dollar value of assets or other conditions for starting or maintaining an account. FSG does impose a minimum annual fee for Total Wealth Retainer Services of $5,000.

Item 8 - Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

FSG's security analysis methods include, but are not limited to, fundamental analysis (evaluating securities based upon its historical and projected financial performance) and a tactical asset allocation strategy using passive (indexing) portfolios to implement investment policy statements. This is accomplished by making long and short term purchases, short selling and margin transactions.

FSG's main sources of information include, but are not limited to, financial newspapers and magazines, research materials prepared by others, corporate rating services, annual reports, prospectuses, public filings and company press releases.

FSG does not guarantee the results of the advice given. Thus, significant losses can occur by investing in any security, or by following any strategy, including those recommended or applied by FSG.

Item 9 - Disciplinary Information

FSG does not have any disciplinary information to report regarding itself or any of its counselors or other related persons.

Item 10 - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Partnering With You Through Life's Transitions

FINANCIAL
SERVICE GROUP INC.

Registered Investment Advisory Firm

FSG prepares tax returns for selected clients in addition to financial and investment advice. FSG is not registered and does not have an application pending as a securities broker dealer, a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading adviser.

FSG does not have arrangements that are material to its advisory business or its clients with a related person who is a broker dealer, investment company, other investment adviser, financial planning firm, commodity pool operator, commodity trading adviser or futures commission merchant, banking or thrift institution, accounting firm, law firm, insurance company or agency, pension consultant, real estate broker or dealer, or any entity that creates or packages limited partnerships.

Neither FSG nor any related persons are general partners in any partnership in which clients are solicited to invest.

Item 11 - Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Representatives of FSG may buy or sell securities for themselves that they also recommend to clients. Where a transaction for a Representative, or an account related to a Representative, is contemplated, a client's transaction is given priority. FSG has developed a Code of Ethics applicable to all persons who have access to confidential client records or to recommendations being made for client accounts. Designed to prevent conflicts of interest between the financial interests of clients and the interests of the firm's staff, the Code requires, among other procedures, such as "access persons" to report transactions quarterly and to report all securities positions in which they have a beneficial interest at least annually. These reporting requirements allow supervisors at the firm to determine whether to allow or prohibit certain employee securities purchases and sales based on transactions made, or anticipated to be made, in the same securities for clients' accounts. The Code also established certain bookkeeping requirements relating to federal reporting rules. The Code is required to be reviewed annually and updated as necessary. A complete copy of the firm's Code is available upon request.

Item 12 - Brokerage Practices

Although they generally do not exercise discretion to select brokerage firms, FSG may recommend that clients establish brokerage accounts with the Schwab Institutional® division of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. (Schwab), member FINRA/SIPC, or other custodians, to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. (collectively known as Custodian) Although FSG may recommend that clients establish accounts at Custodian, it is the client's decision to custody assets with Custodian. FSG is independently owned and operated and not affiliated with Custodian.

Custodian provides FSG with access to its institutional trading and custody services, which are typically not available to Custodian retail investors. These services generally are available to independent investment advisors on an unsolicited basis, at no charge to them so long as a

FINANCIAL
SERVICE GROUP INC.

Registered Investment Advisory Firm

total of at least $10 million of the advisor's clients' assets are maintained in accounts at Custodian. These services are not contingent upon FSG committing to Custodian any specific amount of business (assets in custody or trading commissions). Custodian's brokerage services include the execution of securities transactions, custody, research, and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

For FSG client accounts maintained in its custody, Custodian generally does not charge separately for custody services but is compensated by account holders through commissions and other transaction-related or asset-based fees for securities trades that are executed through Custodian or that settle into Custodian accounts.

Custodian also may make available to FSG other products and services that benefit FSG but may not directly benefit its clients' accounts. Many of these products and services may be used to service all or some substantial number of FSG accounts, including accounts not maintained in at Custodian.

Custodian's products and services that assist FSG in managing and administering clients' accounts include software and other technology that (i) provide access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements); (ii) facilitate trade execution and allocate aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts; (iii) provide research, pricing and other market data; (iv) facilitate payment of FSG fees from its clients' accounts; and (v) assist with back-office functions, recordkeeping and client reporting.

Custodian also offers other services intended to help FSG manage and further develop its business enterprise. These services may include: (i) compliance, legal and business consulting; (ii) publications and conferences on practice management and business succession; and (iii) access to employee benefits providers, human capital consultants and insurance providers. Custodian may discount or waive fees it would otherwise charge for some of these services or pay all or a part of the fees of a third-party providing these services to FSG. Custodian may also provide other benefits such as educational events or occasional business entertainment of FSG personnel. In evaluating whether to recommend or require that clients custody their assets at Custodian, FSG may take into account the availability of some of the foregoing products and services and other arrangements as part of the total mix of factors it considers and not solely the nature, cost or quality of custody and brokerage services provided by Custodian, which may create a potential conflict of interest.

FSG may combine orders for more than one client's account to form a "block" order for the purpose of seeking a better price and or execution. When a block order is executed, the broker/dealer executing the order typically allocates an average execution price to all shares in the block order, which FSG then allocates to each customer's account position on a pro rata basis. Should a block order only be partially filled, available shares are distributed in a manner fair to all accounts.

If a client directs FSG to effect transactions through a particular broker/dealer, FSG will do so.

However, such an instruction may have implications to the client which may include incurring transaction costs and commissions that may be higher or lower than if the instruction had not been given. Also, restricting FSG to particular broker/dealers may limit FSG's ability to include a client account order within block orders to obtain the best price or execution. In addition, if FSG is effecting transactions in a security for clients by means of a block order, as well as an order in the same security for a client who has directed FSG to use a particular broker/dealer, FSG will effect the block order immediately prior to effecting the directed brokerage trade. Thus, clients directing FSG to use a particular broker/dealer may not receive the same average price for securities bought or sold that would be received if the order was part of a block order.

Item 13 - Review of Accounts and Reports

FSG will review the accounts at least quarterly for Total Wealth Retainer clients. The accounts are reviewed to make sure that the investments allocations in the account match the investment objectives of the client. Accounts are also reviewed at client meetings. If a client's objectives have changed or if market conditions have materially changed the weightings of class allocation, adjustments will be implemented to fulfill client's goals. Clients that are receiving periodic distributions are reviewed monthly to ensure there is sufficient cash available to cover the distributions.

FSG provides Total Wealth Retainer clients with reports on their accounts on a quarterly basis, at all meetings, and as requested by clients. Clients also receive statements directly from the custodians of their funds or mutual fund companies on a monthly basis.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

FSG does not currently have any client referral relationships. Thus, it does not pay any fee to a third party for making client referrals to it. Also, as indicated above, the firm does not direct brokerage transactions to any third party, including Custodian, in return for client referrals.

FSG utilizes a Charity Referral Program which provides donations to charities when a client or other individual refers someone to FSG for a complementary initial consultation.

Item 15 - Custody

FSG does not take custody of client funds or securities. These safekeeping services are typically provided to managed accounts only by the brokerage firm processing the securities transactions ordered by FSG.

To the extent a client receives any account or other investment ownership statement from FSG, FSG recommends the client carefully compare the information in the report to that in the custodian's statements.

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

FSG has discretionary power from clients with respect to the client's purchases or sales of

FINANCIAL
SERVICE GROUP INC.

Registered Investment Advisory Firm

securities. This means clients authorize FSG to complete transactions on their behalf without prior authorization from the client. Securities purchased or sold are only done within the context of the Investment Policy Statement and objectives of the client. FSG will recommend custody and clearing firms for clients accounts based on the objectives of client as to costs and services provided. The ultimate choice resides with the client

Clients should be aware that Representatives may make different recommendations and effect different trades with respect to the same securities to different advisory clients. Commissions and execution of securities transactions implemented through the custodian/broker dealer recommended by FSG may not be better than the commissions or execution available if the client used another brokerage firm. However, FSG believes that the overall level of services and support provided to the client by custodians and broker-dealers whom FSG recommends outweighs the potentially lower costs that may be available from other brokerage service providers.

In those instances where an order error occurs by FSG, it is FSG's policy to reverse the order to make the client's account whole.

Item 17 - Voting Client Securities

FSG and its Representatives do not vote proxies on behalf of clients who will receive such notices from their account's custodian.

FSG also does not take any action on legal notices it or a client may receive from issuers of securities held in a client's managed account. However, it is available to answer questions regarding such notices.

Item 18 - Financial Information

FSG does not require or solicit fees of more than $1,200 six months or more in advance, thus no financial statement for FSG is attached. FSG does not have any financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair its ability to meet its contracted commitment to any client.
