Item 4 – Services, Fees and Compensation

Investment Partners, LTD (referred to as “Investment Partners”, “INVP”, or “Adviser” throughout this document) is an investment adviser registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Investment Partners, LTD is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the state of Ohio. Associated persons of Investment Partners are referred to as “Advisory Representatives.”

Investment Partners offers asset management services through a wrap-fee management program. In our wrap-fee management program, clients may elect to pay expenses under a “traditional” payment option meaning that advisory services are provided for a fee but transaction services are billed separately on a per-transaction basis, or may elect the bundled “wrap-fee” payment option meaning that advisory services (including portfolio management or advice regarding selecting other investment advisors) and transaction services are provided for one fee. Our Asset Management Services are considered a wrap-fee program. Whenever a fee is charged to a client for services described in this Wrap Fee Program Brochure, we will receive all or a portion of the fee charged.

We provide investment advisory services other than the Asset Management Services described in this Wrap Fee Program Brochure. A description of all fee-based investment advisory services that we provide is available in the Investment Partners, LTD Form ADV Part 2A Disclosure Brochure.

When making the determination of whether one of the advisory programs available through Investment Partners, LTD is appropriate for your needs, you should bear in mind that fee-based accounts, when compared with commission-based accounts, often result in lower costs during periods when trading activity is heavier, such as the year an account is established. However, during periods when trading activity is lower, the fee-based account arrangements may result in a higher annual cost for transactions. Thus, depending on a number of factors, the total cost for transactions under a fee account versus a commission account can vary significantly. Factors which affect the total cost include account size, amount of turnover, type and quantities of securities purchased or sold, commission rates and your tax situation.

You should discuss the advantages and disadvantages of fee-based and commission-based accounts with your advisor representative and you should read this Wrap Fee Disclosure Brochure carefully as it explains, in detail, our Asset Management Services.

Asset Management Services

Investment Partners offers asset management services based on the client's individual needs on a continuous and ongoing basis. When providing asset management services, Investment Partners gathers information on a client's financial history, goals, objectives, and financial concerns and assists client in developing an asset allocation strategy. All information gathered from the client is confidential. Clients will establish an account and deposit cash, cash equivalents and securities and engage Investment Partners to manage the account. Based on the client's investment objectives, risk tolerance, and financial situation, Investment Partners manages the account on a continuous basis. Investment Partners does not maintain custody of client's funds or securities. However, Investment Partners may have authorization to withdraw its quarterly fee directly from clients' accounts. Custodial services for managed accounts are provided through National Financial Services, LLC (NFS).

Our Asset Management Services may include asset allocation, investment policy statements and decisions regarding the purchase of individual securities; including stocks, bonds and mutual funds.

Each client's specific needs, objectives and requirements are identified prior to implementing any investment decisions. The client's goals and objectives are reviewed by an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Investment Partners when known changes in client circumstances or market conditions dictate.

Separate records are maintained for each client and statements are sent at least quarterly. Statements include information relating to the composition of the portfolio, market value, and may include asset allocation information and performance comparisons. Trade confirmations are mailed to the client from the account custodian as transactions occur in the client's account. Investment Partners will meet with clients when needed (as determined by Investment Partners) or at the client's request to discuss the client's investment portfolio and to update the client's financial information if any changes have occurred.

Clients are advised that transactions in the account, account reallocations and rebalancing may trigger a taxable event for the client, with the exception of IRA accounts, 403(b) accounts and other qualified retirement accounts.

If the account is opened with securities previously purchased through an Investment Partners' Investment Adviser Representative (IAR) in the IAR's separate capacity as a Registered Representative, the IAR may have already received commissions on the securities purchase transaction. Clients may deposit assets on which a commission was previously paid, including mutual funds on which a sales charge was paid, to a fee-based managed account. Clients are advised that for transactions made in the managed account through an Investment Partners IAR, the IAR receives an advisory fee based on the fee schedules disclosed below.

Asset Management Fee Schedule

Investment Partners' compensation is based on fees calculated as a percentage of the market value of the client's account on the last business day of the preceding calendar quarter and is paid in advance for each calendar quarter. Accounts managed for a partial quarter (i.e. accounts established during a calendar quarter or closed during a calendar quarter) will be charged or credited a prorated portion of the advisory fees for that partial calendar quarter. Accounts established during a quarter will be charged an initial advisory fee based on the value of the account at the end of the month following account establishment and prorated for the remaining calendar quarter.

Generally, Investment Partners' advisory fees will be collected directly from the client's accounts provided the client has given Investment Partners written authorization to deduct the advisory fees. Clients will be provided with an account statement reflecting the deduction of the advisory fee from the client's account. If the client's account does not contain sufficient funds to pay advisory fees, Investment Partners has limited authority to sell or redeem securities in sufficient amounts to pay advisory fees. For accounts other than ERISA and IRA accounts, the clients may reimburse the account for advisory fees paid to Investment Partners. The advisory fees are generally deducted from the client's brokerage account by the end of the following month.

Fees are negotiable. Therefore, fees may differ from client to client based on factors such as the type and size of the account. Additionally, advisory fees are not based on a share of capital gains upon or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds. Advisory fees are in accordance with the following fee schedules depending on the type of managed account. All of a client's accounts under management with Investment Partners (i.e. those accounts being charged an advisory fee) are aggregated to determine the fee breakpoint.

INDIVIDUAL SECURITIES PORTFOLIOS
EQUITY AND BALANCED ACCOUNTS:

Account Value	Fee
$0 to $250,000	1.75%
$250,001 to $500,000	1.50%

$500,001 to $1,000,000	1.00%
$1,000,000 and above	0.85%

In addition to the advisory fees above, clients may pay fees for custodial services, account maintenance fees, transaction fees, and other fees associated with maintaining their account. For the Investment Partners Asset Management Services Program, there are two different options regarding how the client will pay costs incurred for the managed account. Clients will select the option for how account costs will be paid for their account in the Asset Management Services Agreement. Clients may elect to directly pay execution charges, including transaction ticket fees charged by the account custodian, which are in addition to and separate from the advisory management fee that the client pays to Investment Partners. If the client elects to directly pay these charges, the transaction ticket fees will be billed directly to the client by the account custodian. Alternatively, the client may elect to have execution charges, including transaction ticket fees charged by the account custodian, to be included in the total fee for asset management services the client pays to Investment Partners. If the client has elected this option, then the client will pay a “bundled” fee to Investment Partners, which will cover both the account management fee and the transaction ticket fees. If the client has elected to pay a bundled fee, then transaction ticket fees incurred for the client's managed account will be billed directly to Investment Partners by the account custodian.

A transaction fee applies to all stock trades of 1000 shares or less and an additional $0.01 for each share over 1000. A transaction fee also may apply to the purchase, sale or exchange of certain mutual funds. If the client has elected to directly pay for the execution charges in their managed account, these transaction fees will be debited from the client's account on the settlement date of such transactions. Investment Partners does not share in a portion of transaction fees for stock trades. Additionally, all clients may pay their proportionate share of the fund's management and administrative fees as well as the mutual fund adviser's fee of any mutual fund they purchase in the managed account. Such fees are not shared with Investment Partners and are compensation to the fund-manager. Clients should read the mutual fund prospectus prior to investing.

Clients may make additions to their account or withdrawals from their account. No fee adjustments will be made for partial withdrawals from the account, additional deposits to the account, or for account appreciation or depreciation.

Clients may terminate management services obtained from Investment Partners, without penalty, upon written notice within five (5) business days after entering into the advisory agreement with Investment Partners. Clients will be responsible for any fees and charges incurred by client from third parties as a result of maintaining their account such as account maintenance or custodial fees. Thereafter, clients may terminate management services upon Investment Partners' receipt of client's written notice to terminate. Should the client terminate investment advisory services during a quarter, the client will be refunded a pro-rata portion of the advisory fee for the quarter from the date of termination to the end of the calendar quarter.

Block Trading

Investment Partners may aggregate ("bunch") transactions in the same security on behalf of more than one client in an effort to strive for best execution and to possibly reduce the price per share. However, aggregated or bunched orders will not reduce the transaction costs to participating clients. Typically, the process of aggregating client orders is done in order to achieve better execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates or to allocate orders among clients on a more equitable basis in order to avoid differences in prices and transaction fees or other transaction costs that might be obtained when orders are placed independently. Investment Partners conducts aggregated transactions in a manner designed to ensure that no participating client is favored over another client. Participating clients will obtain the average share price per share for the security executed that day. To the extent the aggregated order is not filled in its entirety and when possible, securities purchased or sold in an aggregated transaction will be allocated pro-rata to the participating client accounts in proportion to the size of the orders placed for each account. The amount of securities may be increased or decreased to avoid holding odd-lot or a small number of shares for particular clients. It should be noted, Investment Partners does not receive any additional compensation or remuneration as a result of aggregation. Advisory clients purchase funds at net asset value.

Suitability and Investment Strategy

Investment Partners will assist clients in determining their objective(s), investment strategy, and investment suitability, prior and subsequent to opening an Asset Management account. Clients must contact us to notify of any changes in their investment objective(s) and/or financial situation. Investment strategies used to implement investment advice include, but are not necessarily limited to, long term purchases (securities held at least a year); short term purchases (securities sold within a year); trading (securities sold within 30 days); and option writing, including covered options, uncovered options or spread strategies.

Termination of Services

Either party may terminate the agreement for services at any time. If services are terminated within five business days of executing the agreement, services will be terminated without penalty and a full refund of all fees paid in advance will be provided. If services are terminated after the initial five day period, Investment Partners, LTD will provide you with a prorated refund of fees paid in advance. The refund will be based on the number of days service was actually provided during the final billing period. Termination will be effective from the time the other party receives written notification or such other time as may be mutually agreed upon, subject to the settlement of transactions in progress and the final refund of advisory fees. There will be no penalty charge upon termination.

Additional Compensation, Economic and Non-Economic Benefits

Associated Persons of Investment Partners LTD ("APs") may be Registered Representatives of Commonwealth Financial Network, a registered broker/dealer, member FINRA and SIPC. They may have limited access to certain product sponsors where selling agreements have been executed by Commonwealth.

APs who are Registered Representatives of Commonwealth are subject to FINRA Conduct Rule 3040 which may restrict such registered individuals from conducting securities transactions away from Commonwealth unless Commonwealth provides the AP with written authorization. Therefore, clients are advised that the AP may be limited to conducting securities transactions through Commonwealth and its clearing firm, National Financial Services LLC.

APs may suggest that clients use Commonwealth as the Broker/Dealer for executing securities transactions. Clients are not obligated to use Commonwealth as the Broker/Dealer, and are free to use the Broker/Dealer of their choice; however, if the client wishes to implement the plan or advice through the AP of Adviser, then the Client may only use Commonwealth to do so.

Client transactions will be charged according to Commonwealth's then-current commission schedule and clients may pay higher commission rates and other fees than otherwise available. The client may be assessed transaction fees charged by custodians and/or product sponsors, in addition to normal and customary commissions, all of which are fully disclosed to the client. These fees and expenses are separate and distinct from any fee(s) charged by the AP of Investment Partners, LTD.

Item 5 – Account Requirements and Types of Clients

Opening an Account

To open an Asset Management Services account, a services agreement between you and Investment Partners, LTD must be executed setting forth the terms and conditions, including the amount of investment advisory fees, under which we will manage your assets. In addition, you will be required to establish a brokerage account through the Commonwealth Financial Network platform, or institutional clients who have designated an alternative custodian will be required to enter a separate custodial/clearing agreement with the alternative custodian.

Minimum Account Size

All clients are required to execute an agreement for services in order to establish a client arrangement with Investment Partners. Investment Partners does not require a minimum investment amount or account size for participation in its advisory service programs. However, asset management services are more suitable for clients with at least $150,000 to participate in the Equity and Balanced Account program and $25,000 to participate in the mutual fund allocation service program.

Types of Accounts

Investment Partners generally provides investment advice to the following types of clients:

- Individuals
- High-Net Worth Individuals
- Pension and profit sharing plans
- Trusts, estates, or charitable organizations

- Corporations or business entities other than those listed above

Item 6 – Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

Investment Partners and its Investment Adviser Representatives act as the portfolio manager(s) for accounts receiving Asset Management Services. Our Asset Management Services is considered a wrap-fee program. For our Asset Management Services, we do not allow the use of portfolio managers that are not associated with Investment Partners. In other words, the only portfolio managers selected for managing client assets in the Asset Management Services Program are Investment Adviser Representatives of Investment Partners. Therefore, conflicts of interest present in other wrap-fee programs that make available both affiliated and unaffiliated portfolio managers are not present in the Investment Partners Asset Management Services Program. Because our Asset Management Services Program does not provide for outside portfolio managers, Investment Partners does not have procedures designed to select outside portfolio managers. Many of the disclosures required by the Item 6 Wrap Fee Program Brochure instructions do not apply to Investment Partners. The disclosures that do apply are answered below.

Participation in Wrap Fee Programs

Investment Partners offers asset management services through the Asset Management Services Program, which is a wrap-fee management program. In our wrap-fee management program, clients may elect to pay expenses under a “traditional” payment option meaning that advisory services are provided for a fee but transaction services are billed separately on a per-transaction basis, or may elect the bundled “wrap-fee” payment option meaning that advisory services (including portfolio management or advice regarding selecting other investment advisors) and transaction services are provided for one fee. Our Asset Management Services are considered a wrap-fee program. Whenever a fee is charged to a client for services described in this Wrap Fee Program Brochure, we will receive all or a portion of the fee charged.

From a management perspective, there is not a fundamental difference in the way we manage accounts that have elected the traditional payment option versus those that have elected the bundled wrap-fee payment option. The only significant difference is the way in which transaction costs are paid.

General Description of Other Advisory Services

In addition to the Asset Management Service, Investment Partners provides advisory services including Planning Services and Mutual Fund Asset Allocation Services. A detailed description of these other advisory services is provided in the Investment Partners Form ADV Part 2A Disclosure Brochure, which is available to wrap fee clients upon request.

Limits Advice to Certain Types of Investments

Investment Partners provides investment advice on the following types of investments:

- Exchange-listed securities
- Securities traded over-the-counter
- Foreign issues
- Warrants
- Corporate debt securities (other than commercial paper)
- Commercial paper
- Certificates of deposit
- Municipal securities
- Variable life insurance
- Variable annuities

- Mutual fund shares
- United States government securities
- Options contracts on securities
- Interests in partnerships investing in real estate
- Interests in partnerships investing in futures

Tailor Advisory Services to Individual Needs of Clients

Investment Partners' services are always provided based on the individual needs of each client. This means, for example, that you are given the ability to impose restrictions on the accounts we manage for you, including specific investment selections and sectors. We work with each client on a one-on-one basis through interviews and questionnaires to determine the client's investment objectives and suitability information.

Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Investment Partners does not charge or accept performance-based fees. Performance based fees are defined as fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets held within a client's account.

Methods of Analysis

Investment Partners uses the following methods of analysis in formulating investment advice:

Charting. This is a method used in technical analysis in which charts are used to plot price movements, volume, settlement prices, open interest, and other indicators, in order to anticipate future price movements. Users of these charting techniques believe that past trends in these indicators can be used to extrapolate future trends.

Fundamental. This is a method of evaluating a security by attempting to measure its intrinsic value by examining related economic, financial and other qualitative and quantitative factors. Fundamental analysts attempt to study everything that can affect the security's value, including macroeconomic factors (like the overall economy and industry conditions) and individually specific factors (like the financial condition and management of companies). The end goal of performing fundamental analysis is to produce a value that an investor can compare with the security's current price in hopes of figuring out what sort of position to take with that security (underpriced = buy, overpriced = sell or short). This method of security analysis is considered to be the opposite of technical analysis. Fundamental analysis is about using real data to evaluate a security's value. Although most analysts use fundamental analysis to value stocks, this method of valuation can be used for just about any type of security.

Technical. This is a method of evaluating securities by analyzing statistics generated by market activity, such as past prices and volume. Technical analysts do not attempt to measure a security's intrinsic value, but instead use charts and other tools to identify patterns that can suggest future activity. Technical analysts believe that the historical performance of stocks and markets are indications of future performance.

Cyclical. This is a method of analyzing the investments sensitive to business cycles and whose performance is strongly tied to the overall economy. For example, cyclical companies tend to make products or provide services that are in lower demand during downturns in the economy and in higher demand during upswings. Examples include the automobile, steel, and housing industries. The stock price of a cyclical company will often rise just before an economic upturn begins, and fall just before a downturn begins. Investors in cyclical stocks try to make the largest gains by buying the stock at the bottom of a business cycle, just before a turnaround begins.

Investment Strategies

Investment Partners uses the following investment strategies when managing client assets and/or providing investment advice:

Long term purchases. Investments held at least a year.

Short term purchases. Investments sold within a year.

Trading. Investments sold within 30 days.

Option writing including covered options, uncovered options, or spreading strategies. Options are contracts giving the purchaser the right to buy or sell a security, such as stocks, at a fixed price within a specific period of time.

Risk of Loss

Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results. Therefore, no current or prospective client should assume that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy will be profitable. Investing in securities involves risk of loss. Further, depending on the different types of investments there may be varying degrees of risk. Clients and prospective clients should be prepared to bear investment loss including loss of original principal.

Investment Partners does not represent, warrant or imply that the services or methods of analysis used by Investment Partners can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate clients from losses due to major market corrections or crashes. No guarantees can be offered that client's goals or objectives will be achieved. Further, no promises or assumptions can be made that the advisory services offered by Investment Partners will provide a better return than other investment strategies.

Varied fluctuations in the price of investments are a normal characteristic of securities markets due to a variety of influences. Managed account programs should be considered a long-term investment and thus long-term performance and performance consistency are the major goals.

Voting Client Securities

Clients are advised that Investment Partners does not vote proxies on clients' behalf or take responsibility in any way to ensure client's securities are voted. Clients retain the responsibility for voting their own proxies.

Item 7 – Client Information Provided to Portfolio Managers

Because only Investment Adviser Representatives of Investment Partners serve as portfolio managers for the Asset Management Services Program, the Investment Adviser Representatives are responsible for gathering all information provided by clients. Investment Adviser Representatives will interview and work with clients to gather all information needed relative to the client's investment objectives and needs in order to provide management services through the Asset Management Services Program. Clients are responsible for promptly contacting their Investment Adviser Representative to notify of any changes to the client's financial situation that will impact or materially influence the way Investment Partners manages the client's accounts. Since Investment Partners does not use any outside portfolio managers, Investment Partners does not share client information with any outside portfolio managers.

Item 8 - Client Contact with Portfolio Managers

Because only Investment Adviser Representatives of Investment Partners serve as portfolio managers for the Asset Management Services Program, there are no restrictions placed on the clients' ability to contact and consult with their portfolio managers. It is the policy of Investment Partners to provide for open communications between the Investment Adviser Representatives and clients. Clients are encouraged to contact their Investment Adviser Representative whenever the client has questions about the management of their account(s).

Item 9 - Additional Information

Disciplinary Information

Investment Partners is required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of Investment Partners or the integrity of Investment Partners' management. Investment Partners has no information applicable to this Item.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Investment Partners is not and does not have a related company that is a (1) municipal securities dealer, government securities dealer or broker, (2) investment company or other pooled investment vehicle (including a mutual fund, closed-end investment company, unit investment trust, private investment company or "hedge fund," and offshore fund), (3) other investment adviser or financial planner, (4) futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading advisor, (5) banking or thrift institution, (6) accountant or accounting firm, (7) lawyer or law firm, (8) pension consultant, (9) real estate broker or dealer, or (10) sponsor or syndicator of limited partnerships.

Other Business Activities

Associated Persons ("APs") have obtained securities licenses and are Registered Representatives and Investment Advisory Representatives of Commonwealth Financial Network, an SEC investment adviser and registered Broker/Dealer, member FINRA and SIPC. As such, they spend approximately 25 % of their time offering securities products on a commission or fee basis with Commonwealth. APs may also be licensed insurance agents and offer various insurance products for which they will be paid a commission. APs spend approximately 5% of their time offering insurance products. The remainder of the time is spent acting in the capacity of an AP for Applicant.

APs may be licensed with various insurance companies as life, health and accident insurance brokers with all the appropriate state Departments of Insurance, and may receive customary commissions on insurance products sold. In such instances, there is no advisory fee associated with these insurance products.

APs may be Registered Representatives and Investment Advisory Representatives of Commonwealth. Clients are under no obligation to purchase or sell securities through AP. However, if they choose to implement the plan with Adviser, commissions may be earned in addition to any fees paid for advisory services. Commissions may be higher or lower at Commonwealth than at other Broker/Dealers. APs may have a conflict of interest in having clients purchase securities and/or insurance related products through Commonwealth in that the higher their production with Commonwealth the greater potential for obtaining a higher pay-out on commissions earned. Further, APs may be restricted to only offering those products and services that have been reviewed and approved for offering to the public through Commonwealth. Commonwealth is a FINRA-registered broker/dealer, and is also licensed as a broker/dealer with the states in which Commonwealth's or its representatives offer securities to clients. Commonwealth's Registered Representatives may act as the advisory client's representative in the execution of securities transactions on a normal and customary basis. The applicable provisions of Section 206 of the Investment Adviser's Act of 1940 are strictly complied with in the execution of each transaction.

APs, in their dual capacity, may offer clients the services of Commonwealth, an investment advisory firm registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. In return, AP's may share in a portion of the advisory fees. Clients shall receive the appropriate adviser's Form ADV Part II or equivalent brochure (in the case of SEI's AMP disclosure is made to the client via Commonwealth's Form ADV Part II).

Relationship with Rea Financial Services; Relationship with Unaffiliated Broker-Dealer

Investment Partners, LTD has formed a strategic and financial partnership with Rea Financial Services, LTD a wholly owned subsidiary of Rea & Associates, Inc. Through this partnership, clients of Investment Partners, LTD may choose to have their Pension, Profit Sharing and other Qualified Plan accounts administered by Rea. Fees for Pension Administration are billed separately by Rea and do not impact the costs or charges of a client's investment management by Investment Partners, LTD. Additionally, representatives of both Rea and Investment Partners, LTD may refer clients to each other on an ongoing basis. All fees are billed separately by the company providing the service. Rea Financial Services, LTD is a 40.48% owner of Investment Partners, LTD, and as such shares in the net profits of Investment Partners, LTD. Under no circumstances do the professionals employed by Rea Financial Services, LTD provide investment advisory services to clients.

Other Affiliations

Investment Partners is not and does not have a related person that is:

- A broker/dealer, municipal securities dealer or government securities dealer or broker
- An investment company or other pooled investment vehicle (including a mutual fund, closed-end investment company, unit investment trust, private investment company or "hedge fund," and offshore fund)
- Other investment advisor or financial planner
- A futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator or commodity trading advisor
- A banking or thrift institution
- Accountant or accounting firm
- A lawyer or law firm
- A pension consultant
- A real estate broker or dealer
- A sponsor or syndicator of limited partnerships

Interest in Client Transactions and Code of Ethics

Associated Persons (AP) may be Registered Representatives with Commonwealth and, as such, must execute securities transactions through Commonwealth, unless AP obtains authorization from Commonwealth to execute securities transactions through another Broker/Dealer. In such instances, the AP may receive normal and customary commissions for such transactions. The possible receipt of said commissions and the possibility of any conflict of interest are fully disclosed in advance.

APs may buy or sell securities identical to those securities recommended to clients. Therefore, APs may have an interest or position in certain securities that are also recommended and bought or sold to clients. Any such securities transactions are likely to be insignificant in relation to the market as a whole. As a practice the transactions, if any, are executed after related client transactions have been executed; however, Adviser may aggregate proprietary, affiliated or related accounts with those of clients. APs will not put their interests before a client's interest and may not trade ahead of their clients or trade in such a way to obtain a better price for themselves than for their clients. However, in all cases, full disclosure is provided to the client. Adviser is required to maintain a list of all securities holdings for its associated persons. Further, APs are prohibited from trading on non-public information or sharing such information. Clients have the right to decline any investment recommendation. Adviser and its APs are required to conduct their securities and investment advisory business in accordance with all applicable Federal and State securities regulations.

Code of Ethics

Investment Partners has a fiduciary duty to clients to act in the best interest of the client and always place the client's interests first and foremost. Investment Partners takes seriously its compliance and regulatory obligations and requires all staff to comply with such rules and regulations as well as Investment Partners' policies and procedures. Further, Investment Partners strives to handle clients' non-public information in such a way to protect information from falling into hands that have no business reason to know such information and provides clients with Investment Partners' Privacy Policy. As such, Investment Partners maintains a code of ethics for its Advisory Representatives, supervised persons and staff. The Code of Ethics contains provisions for standards of business conduct in order to comply with applicable securities laws, personal securities reporting requirements, pre-approval procedures for certain transactions, code violations reporting requirements, and safeguarding of material non-public information about client transactions. Further, Investment Partners' Code of Ethics establishes Investment Partners' expectation for business conduct. A copy of our Code of Ethics will be provided to any client or prospective client upon request.

Account Reviews

All asset management client accounts are reviewed by an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of the firm on a quarterly basis, or when changes in client circumstances or market conditions warrant. Securities held in managed accounts are continuously reviewed. Applicant does not have specific limitations on the number of accounts assigned to each Investment Advisor Representative. Financial plans are prepared for clients who have retained Investment Partners, LTD's services for this purpose. Upon completion of the plan, Investment Partners, LTD, will meet with every client to review the plan and answer any questions the client may have about the contents of the plan. There are no different levels of review for financial plans. After this consultation at the time the plan is delivered and reviewed with the client, there are no further reviews unless the client requests additional meetings.

Account Statements and Reports

All asset management client accounts receive statements at least quarterly from the account custodian. Trade confirmations are mailed from the custodian to the client as transactions occur in their account. Quarterly statements include information relating to the composition of the portfolio, market value, and may include asset allocation information, gain and loss information and performance comparisons. In addition to the statements received from the custodian, all asset management clients receive quarterly performance reports from Investment Partners, LTD. Clients should carefully compare reports received from Investment Partners, LTD against the statements received from the account custodian and should immediately report any discrepancies to Investment Partners, LTD and/or the custodian.

Client Referrals

Investment Partners does not have any arrangements under which it compensates any individual for client referrals.

Other Compensation – Expense Reimbursement

From time to time, Investment Partners or its Investment Adviser Representatives may receive expense reimbursement for travel and/or marketing expenses from distributors of investment and/or insurance products. Travel expense reimbursements are typically a result of attendance at due diligence and/or investment training events hosted by product sponsors. Marketing expense reimbursements are typically the result of informal expense sharing arrangements in which product sponsors may underwrite costs incurred for marketing such as advertising, publishing and seminar expenses. Although receipt of these travel and marketing expense reimbursements is not predicated upon specific sales quotas, the product sponsor reimbursements are typically made by those sponsors for whom sales have been made or it is anticipated sales will be made. We endeavor at all times to put your interests first as a part of our fiduciary duty. However, you should be aware that receiving additional compensation through nominal sales awards, expense reimbursements, etc. creates a conflict of interest that may impact our judgment when making advisory recommendations.

Brokerage, Clearing and Custody

APs may be Registered Representatives of Commonwealth Financial Network, a registered broker/dealer, member FINRA and SIPC. They may have limited access to certain product sponsors where selling agreements have been executed by Commonwealth.

APs who are Registered Representatives of Commonwealth are subject to FINRA Conduct Rule 3040 which may restrict such registered individuals from conducting securities transactions away from Commonwealth unless Commonwealth provides the AP with written authorization. Therefore, clients are advised that the AP may be limited to conducting securities transactions through Commonwealth and its clearing firm, National Financial Services LLC.

APs may suggest that clients use Commonwealth as the Broker/Dealer for executing securities transactions. Clients are not obligated to use Commonwealth as the Broker/Dealer, and are free to use the Broker/Dealer of their choice; however, if the client wishes to implement the plan or advice through the AP of Adviser, then the Client may only use Commonwealth to do so.

Client transactions will be charged according to Commonwealth's then-current commission schedule and clients may pay higher commission rates and other fees than otherwise available. The client may be assessed transaction fees charged by custodians and/or product sponsors, in addition to normal and customary commissions, all of which are fully disclosed to the client. These fees and expenses are separate and distinct from any fee(s) charged by the AP of Investment Partners, LTD.

Financial Information

We do not require or solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per client, six months or more in advance. Therefore, we are not required to include a balance sheet for our most recent fiscal year with this Brochure Appendix. We are not subject to a financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet contractual commitments to clients. Finally, we have not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time.

Item 10 - CUSTOMER PRIVACY POLICY

Investment Partners gathers various non-public information from clients in order to provide advisory products and services. Investment Partners does not share nonpublic information with nonaffiliated third parties except as permitted by law. Clients will be provided with a copy of Investment Partners' privacy policy upon establishment of a client relationship with Investment Partners and annually thereafter as long as client remains an active client.
