Item 2: Educational Background and Business Experience.

Date of Birth: 1948

Formal education after high school: None

Mr. Kirch joined Carrington Capital Management, LLC (“Carrington”) affiliated broker-dealer, Carrington Investment Services, LLC in February, 2009 as President. In 2010, he was also appointed President of Carrington. Mr. Kirch has had a 35 year Wall Street career creating securities and other bond instruments. Prior to joining Carrington, Mr. Kirch was the co-founder and owner of Bonds Direct, whose innovative business model brought the electronic execution of high grade institutional fixed income products in smaller incremental amounts to the regional dealer and end user account base. Mr. Kirch and his partners completed the successful sale of Bonds Direct to Jefferies and Co., Inc. in October, 2005. Prior to Bonds Direct, Mr. Kirch managed national fixed income sales for fixed income products and held responsibility for the mortgage trading desk (both single-family and commercial real estate) at Chase Manhattan Bank. Prior to this, Mr. Kirch managed domestic branches for capital markets and fixed income at Paine Webber and Company, with a particular focus on mortgage products. While at Paine Webber, he was also a member of the risk variance and new product development committees. Prior to Paine Webber, Mr. Kirch was with Morgan Stanley, where he was a key member of the team responsible for establishing the firm's mortgage business and was the sales manager of the southern California sales group. Prior to Morgan Stanley, Mr. Kirch spent 12 years at A.G. Becker & Co., Inc., where he was instrumental in the creation of the first issuance of institutionalized certificates of deposit for the savings and loan industry and the first mortgage backed bond issuance.
