Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. No information is applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Mr. Hayes is separately licensed as an independent insurance agent. In this capacity, he can effect transactions in insurance products for his clients and earn commissions for these activities. The fees you pay our firm for advisory services are separate and distinct from the commissions earned by Mr. Hayes for insurance related activities. This may present a conflict of interest because Mr. Hayes may have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, Amicus advisors only sell Term and Fixed Insurance products and you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through any person affiliated with our firm.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Mr. Hayes does not receive any additional compensation for providing advisory services beyond that received as a result of his capacity as Investment Advisor Representative of Amicus Financial Advisors, LLC. Some commissions are received from the sale of an insurance product to clients in the course of providing financial planning recommendations. – See Item 4 above.

Item 6 - Supervision

Mr. Hayes is supervised by the Chief Compliance Officer Larry Peterson, MS, CFP®. Mr. Peterson conducts periodic review of client accounts and communications. Mr. Peterson can be contacted at 801-938-1226.
