- Self-study program (250 hours of study for each of the three levels)
- Three course exams

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Except as set forth below, neither M² nor any employee of M² has been named in a legal or disciplinary event that is material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of our advisory business or the integrity of our management.

On March 13, 2009, iHealthCare, Inc., a debtor in a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case and the former owner of the equity interests of Heartland Memorial Hospital, LLC, a healthcare system located in Indiana ("Heartland Hospital"), commenced an action in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Indiana against Alfred Sharp and certain other individuals, who had been involved in the acquisition and subsequent management of Heartland Hospital by Wright Capital Partners, alleging breaches of fiduciary duty and self dealing in connection with the management of Heartland Hospital. Mr. Sharp was the interim Chief Financial Officer and later Chief Financial Officer at Heartland Hospital from 2005 through 2007. There has been no finding of wrongdoing; this litigation is ongoing. Mr. Sharp denies the material allegations of the complaint and is contesting the case vigorously along with the other defendants. Additionally, the IRS has assessed a penalty against Mr. Sharp and other former Heartland Hospital directors and officers with respect to unpaid employee payroll taxes by Heartland Hospital. Mr. Sharp is vigorously contesting this assessment.
