Answer

Item 1.D

Vectors Research Management LLC (the "Adviser") provides fixed income investment management services on both a discretionary and non discretionary basis to institutions. This makes up the significant majority of services provided.

Vectors Research Management also provides advisory services on a discretionary basis to Vectors Research Opportunities Fund, LP (The "Partnership" or The "Fund") This is a private investment fund offered to high net-worth, financially sophisticated individuals and institutional investors.

In September 2006, the Advisor began providing separate account investment advisory services on a discretionary basis to Institutional Investors such as Pension, Endowment and Foundation, Banks, and Insurance Companies (the "Accounts").

In December 2007 the Advisor began providing independent asset valuation consulting services.

For Institutional Accounts the basic fee schedule is as follows:

First $10,000,000 in assets	.35%
Next $10,000,000 in assets	.30%
Next $10,000,000 in assets	.25%
Next $20,000,000 in assets	.20%
Next $20,000,000 in assets	.15%
Next $30,000,000 in assets	.10%
Over $100,000,000 in assets	.08%

The fee is paid in arrears based on total account value at the end of each quarter. The Management Fee will be prorated for any period that is less than a full fiscal quarter. The fees may be negotiable.

The basic fee schedule for the Funds is as follows: the Adviser receives a management fee from the Fund based on net assets under management of 1.5% annually (the "Management Fee"). The Management Fee is paid quarterly, in advance, based on the net assets of the Fund as of the beginning of each quarter adjusted for the current month's subscriptions and redemptions. The Management Fee will be prorated for any period that is less than a full fiscal quarter.

In addition, the Adviser (or its affiliate) receives performance compensation equal to 20% of the Funds net profits, if any, subject to a "loss carryforward" provision (the "Performance Fee"). The Performance Fee is charged by the Adviser (or its affiliate) in compliance with Rule 205-3 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Management Fee and Performance Fee are negotiable. The Adviser, in its sole discretion, may waive or reduce the Management Fee and/or the Performance Fee with regard to investors that are employees or affiliates of the Adviser, relatives of such persons, and for certain strategic investors.

	An investor in the Funds may, upon at least 45 days' prior written notice, withdraw all or any portion of its capital account as of the last day of each calendar quarter occurring on or after the one-year anniversary of the date of its initial investment; provided, however, that withdrawals may occur as of the last day of a calendar quarter occurring prior to the one-year anniversary of its initial investment but any such withdrawal will be subject to a withdrawal fee equal to an amount of up to 2% of the withdrawal proceeds, payable to the Funds.
	The fees on asset valuation consulting services to financial institutions is an hourly rate on a negotiated basis.
Item 2.G	The Adviser provides investment advice, to institutional investors such as insurance companies, corporations, endowment and foundations, banks, and insurance companies, and to hedge funds.
Items 3 and 4	In institutional separate account management, The Advisor considers the investment objectives and constraints of the Account, and considers the overall macro environment and levels of interest rate risk, credit risk, and structure risk in assessing relative value in fixed income securities. The Advisor will allocate investments in US Government, Agency, Corporate, Mortgage Backed, Asset Backed and other fixed income securities based upon a relative risk and return profile, and appropriateness of the investment depending upon investor objectives. In assessing relative value, the Advisor uses proprietary and nonproprietary quantitative models to determine credit risk, interest rate risk and structure risk of various securities. The Advisor obtains information through internally generated research as well as research generated by the Broker/Dealer Community, as well as other public information in analyzing and evaluating credit risk of various securities. The Advisor uses market monitor and trading tools such as Bloomberg to analyze, evaluate, communicate and execute transactions. The Adviser offers investment advice in the mortgage-backed securities ("MBS") and asset-backed securities ("ABS") markets. This includes securities of Agency MBS, non-Agency MBS, collateralized mortgage obligations ("CMOs"), home-equity loan securities, manufactured home loan securities, commercial mortgage-backed securities as well as other securities backed by mortgages, consumer loans and commercial loans. Additional financial instruments includes swaps, swaptions, Treasuries, Treasury options, futures contracts on financial instruments, and mortgage forward contracts known as TBAs. The Adviser uses proprietary analytical tools which include prepayment and option-adjusted spread ("OAS") models and other advanced mortgage analytics and risk management tools. The Adviser's strategy related to hedge fund management is to invest in MBS and ABS securities that can produce high risk adjusted returns through long term income and capital appreciation. The core strategy includes high grade and distressed MBS/ABS assets across sectors. Interest rates risks may be hedged and leverage may be applied. This strategy mainly generates returns through income. The opportunity strategy takes advantage of event driven opportunities and market dislocations. These typically include assets with leveraged sensitivities to prepayments and credit. This strategy mainly generates returns through income and price appreciation.

Item 5	While the Adviser has no formal minimum education and business requirements, any future personnel involved in investment advisory activities generally will possess several years of experience in the areas of security analysis and corporate finance, with a demonstrated thorough understanding of mortgage and debt markets, as well as some level of relevant college and graduate school education and/or have obtained the CFA designation.
Item 6	Andrew Davidson – Principal Andrew Davidson is co-founder and CIO at Vectors Research Management, LLC. Mr. Davidson is also President and founder of AD&Co., a leading developer and provider of MBS/ABS analytical tools. AD&Co provides consulting advice on risk management, security valuation, and investment strategies for a broad range of financial institutions. Prior to AD&Co he worked for six years at Merrill Lynch, where he was a Managing Director in charge of a staff of 60 financial and systems analysts. In this role, he developed sophisticated analytical tools, including prepayment and option-adjusted spread models, as well as sophisticated portfolio analysis tools. He initiated a comprehensive set of investor-oriented publications and established groups of specialized analysts to advise traders, sales people and investors. He has an extensive trading desk background and experience in risk management roles. Andrew began his financial career as an analyst in Exxon’s Treasurer’s Department. He received an MBA in Finance at the University of Chicago and a BA in Mathematics and Physics at Harvard. Neil Powers, CFA – Principal Neil Powers is a co-founder and Portfolio Manager at Vectors Research Management, LLC. He has over 25 years of portfolio management experience within Fixed Income Institutional accounts and Mutual Funds. Prior to Vectors, Mr. Powers worked at Putnam Investments for 12 years, where he was a Senior Portfolio Manager for Core and Core Plus Institutional accounts and the Lead Portfolio Manager for the Putnam family of Multi-Sector Bond mutual funds. Institutional clients included Insurance Company, Corporate, Pension, State and County Government, and Financial Institution assets. He started at Putnam Investments as a quantitative analyst building yield curve and sector relative value models. Mr. Powers served as the Director of Fixed Income for 7 years at Crestar Asset Management Co. and Co-Head of Fixed Income at Trusco Capital Management Co. Neil managed Institutional accounts, Government, and Multi-Sector bond Mutual funds. Neil is a CFA, and graduated from West Virginia University with a BS in Finance specializing in securities and investments.

Item 13
Note on Proxy Voting
Policy

The Adviser offers investment advice in mortgage-backed securities ("MBS") and asset-backed securities ("ABS") which are typically pass-through securities or debt instruments. In general, these type of securities do not lend themselves to proxy voting. As such, the Adviser has not implemented policies and procedures for proxy voting. However, in the rare instance that the Adviser is asked to vote by proxy for a security the Adviser will determine whether the proposal is in the best interest of its clients and may take into account the following factors, among others: (i) whether the proposal was recommended by management and Adviser's opinion of management; (ii) whether the proposal acts to entrench existing management; and (iii) whether the proposal fairly compensates management for past and future performance.

For Accounts, unless otherwise agreed to, Adviser does not vote proxies on behalf of its clients, and the voting of all such proxies remains solely the client's obligation. The Adviser will use its full resources to work with clients to help determine what is in the best interest of its clients.
