However, it should be noted that this event is in no way associated with his daily duties as CEO at Thomson Financial Advisors, LLC but rather took place when Mr. Thomson was acting in the capacity as a registered representative with UBS Financial Services, Inc. As it relates to past, current or prospective clients, Mr. Thomson has been involved in the following event: FINRA Staff made a determination to bring a disciplinary proceeding against Mr. Thomson for sending emails in 2005 to customers that FINRA staff determined failed to comply with content requirements for options communications and without obtaining appropriate advance approval from his firm. As such FINRA determined Mr. Thomson to be in violation of NASD Rules 2220, 2110 and 2220(B). On December 7, 2005, Mr. Thomson's employment with UBS was terminated. As a result of the actions brought against him, Mr. Thomson agreed to an Acceptance, Waiver and Consent (AWC) on October 30, 2009, was ordered to pay a monetary sanction of $5,000 and serve a 25-business day suspension from association with any FINRA regulated broker/dealer in any capacity. While Mr. Thomson disagreed with the violations brought against him he cooperated fully and honestly in an effort to resolve the matter as swiftly as possible. All detailed information regarding this event can also be found at <http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov>.

Additionally, it should be noted that Mr. Thomson as an advisory representative of Thomson Financial Advisors, LLC is held to certain fiduciary standards to ensure he is acting in the best interest of his clients. Mr. Thomson treats such standards with the utmost seriousness. Mr. Thomson has never been found to be in violation of any such standards and/or rules.
