Antonio Camejo is required to adhere to PRAG processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. PRAG will monitor the advice Mr. Camejo gives you by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed at least annually to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives.

The firm utilizes a team approach in designing and supervising client portfolios. The Investment Committee reviews policies and strategies affecting client investments. It is a consultative body which confers from time to time to analyze market conditions and discuss general investment ideas and/or review specific products which may be suitable for certain types of clients. Members of the committee are available to Investment Advisor Representatives for consultations regarding individual client portfolios, or the suitability of specific products. The Committee recommends that Investment Advisor Representatives review the following with clients at least once a year: investment objectives, targeted allocation, current allocation, suitability, performance, number of trades, monthly distributions, concentrated positions, diversification, and outside holdings. PRAG's current Investment Committee members are: Antonio Camejo, Chairman; J. Christopher Cogswell, AIF®; Douglas Goldstein, CFP®; Aaron Katsman; Dr. Manuel Lasaga, Ph.D., Associate Director; Ann-Marja Lander CFP®; Thomas L. Moser, CFP® (Portfolio Manager, High Impact Investments), Associate Director; Joyce K. Moore, ChFC, LUTCF; José M. Maraver, Director; Juan Ignacio Sosa, Director.

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

J. Chris Cogswell, born in 1967, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since January 2008. From July 2002 to December 2007, Chris was an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group.

Chris established Chancery Financial Advisors in Louisville, Kentucky in 2002, with the vision of servicing clients with the help of a talented and character driven team of people. To that end, Chris has put together an office and built relationships with people that appreciate that same vision. Prior to establishing Chancery Financial Advisors, Chris lived and worked in Hong Kong and in China in the investment banking industry.

Business Experience:

Chris worked as an equity analyst with Peregrine Brokerage Ltd. in Hong Kong covering the Chinese stock markets from 1994 through 1996. He held the same role with Nikko Research Centre from 1996 through 1998, and was based in Shanghai from 1997 to 1998. During this time Chris traveled throughout China visiting companies and developing relationships that he maintains to this day, and made use of his Mandarin Chinese ability on a daily basis. Chris left the banking world for the corporate world, working in Strategic Investments for Distacom Communications Ltd. in Hong Kong from 1998 through 2000. This was an Asian regional role and Chris aided Distacom in the management of its US$1bn wireless investment portfolio, including investments in Japan, Hong Kong, India, Malaysia, and Thailand.

Educational Background:

Chris graduated from St. Xavier High School in 1985 and attended Indiana University, Bloomington. He graduated from IU in 1989 with a BA in History from the College of Arts and Sciences, and a Certificate of Public Affairs from the School of Public and Environmental Affairs. His Asian history studies at IU led him to study Chinese culture and language in Beijing for an academic year after graduating from IU. Chris received a degree in Mandarin Chinese from the Beijing Foreign Language Normal College in 1990. After returning to the U.S., Chris completed his Master of International Management (MIM) with a concentration in finance at the Thunderbird School of Global Management in 1993.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Chris is an Accredited Investment Fiduciary® and a member of the Center for Fiduciary Studies. In addition Chris is a Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner®. He has both Series 7 and Series 66 registrations.

Administered by fi360, the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) professional designation demonstrates knowledge and competency in the area of fiduciary responsibility and communicates a commitment to standards of investment fiduciary excellence. Holders of the AIF® mark have successfully completed a specialized program on investment fiduciary standards and subsequently passed a comprehensive examination. Six hours of continuing education is required annually in order to maintain the designation.

As a Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner®, certified by the Association for Catholic Investing, Chris has had training to be able to integrate Catholic social criteria into the investment decision process. As a CCIP®, Chris is also a member in good standing with the Financial Advocacy Network.

The Association for Catholic Investing was formed to work with all types of registered financial advisers and investors who wish to integrate Catholic social criteria into their investment decisions. To meet the educational needs of investment advisers, interested individuals, and Catholic organizations, the Association for Catholic Investors provides dedicated educational services. Financial professionals receive educational training on the background of Catholic investing and certification testing. After successfully passing the testing, the Association accepts them into membership and confers the designation "Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner".

The CCIP® designation requires a commitment to Catholic values and an understanding of the principles supported by the US Catholic Bishops. Qualification is maintained on an annual basis in order to assure that the practitioner remains current in the investing guidelines of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Members are automatically listed in the Financial Advocacy Network that provides opportunities for corporate engagement and access to proxy voting recommendations.

Personal:

Chris is happily married to Ampy Lee Cogswell, and both look forward to the growth of their family. He can't find enough time for cycling, reading up on economics and demographics, or traveling. Chris is a member of the St Martin of Tours Catholic parish in downtown Louisville, Kentucky.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. J. Chris Cogswell has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

J. Chris Cogswell is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and SIFMA. He is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities and other investment products and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 35% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities. This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, J. Chris Cogswell is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended commission based products.

Chris is the founder and president of the Catholic Business Network of Louisville, KY since December 2008. Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Ronald Irwin Cohen, born in 1949, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and an investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group since January 2008.

Business Experience:

Ron has worked as a Financial Planner since 1983, specializing in Socially Responsible Investing. From January 2006 to December 2007 Ron was an investment adviser representative at Financial West Group. From January 2002 to December 2004 he was an investment adviser representative at First Affirmative Financial Network LLC. From October 1998 to December 2005 he was an investment adviser representative of Walnut Street Advisers, Inc.

In addition, he has worked in the business of tax and investments for over 28 years. Since 1982 he has owned and operated Middle Mountain Tax Service LTD, a successful tax preparation and tax planning business, advising individuals, corporations, and small businesses in all facets of taxation and business development.

Educational Background:

Ron earned his B.A. at Michigan State University, graduating with High Honors with a focus on Economics, Psychology & Sociology.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Ron holds the Series 7, Series 63 and Series 66 registrations. He is also a licensed Tax Consultant, enrolled to practice before the IRS. He is also a Member of the First Affirmative Financial Network, LLC, and since 1988 a member of the Social Investment Forum. Ron is likewise a Member of various national tax organizations, has an Enrolled Agent (EA) license, and is designated by the State of Oregon as a Licensed Tax Consultant (LTC).

The Enrolled Agent (EA) license is issued by the US government and allows individuals to represent tax-payers before all administrative levels of the IRS. The license is earned in one of two ways, by passing a comprehensive examination that covers all aspects of the tax code, or having worked at the IRS for five years in a position that regularly interpreted and applied the tax code and its regulations. All candidates are subjected to a rigorous background check conducted by the IRS. In addition to the stringent testing and application process, EA's are required to complete 72 hours of continuing professional education, reported every three years, to maintain their status.

The Licensed Tax Consultant (LTC) is a state designation and enables an individual to lawfully prepare personal income tax returns for a fee as a self-employed or independent tax practitioner. In order to become licensed, individuals must pass a tax consultant examination administered by the state. In addition, there are minimum education, experience, and continuing education requirements that vary by state.

Community Involvement:

Ron has always been committed to serving his community. He helped organize several local non-profits and presently serves on the board of directors of a local hospice organization, an environmental and land use group and an affordable housing agency. Ron coached his children's soccer teams and remains an avid fan and supporter of local soccer. He and his son play softball together on a community team.

Personal:

Ron grew up in Detroit, Michigan. After college, he headed west to Yosemite National Park in California, where he lived and worked for 10 years. He then migrated north and found the beautiful Hood River Valley of Oregon, which has been his home since 1975. Ron has been married to Christie for over 30 years and they have two grown children. His son Muir and daughter-in-law Jenny own and operate an independent bookstore in Hood River. His daughter Jasmine is a songwriter and striving to become a Naturopathic Doctor. In his spare time, Ron manages Muir Woods Tree Farm, growing fir, cedar and sequoia trees.

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Harold J. Moran, born November 23, 1960, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since September 2011.

Harold (Harry) Moran heads up the Saratoga Springs Branch office of Portfolio Resources Group, Inc. A highly experienced Certified Financial Planner®, Mr. Moran attributes his success to the fact that he enjoys working with "creative, thoughtful, and intentional people who ask the big questions and lead interesting lives." Mr. Moran believes that financial and life planning, as well as asset management, must focus first and foremost on client needs and values. With this solid foundation, he then crafts, implements, and monitors strategic action plans to help them achieve their goals. Helping clients accomplish what is truly important to them "is highly energizing and rewarding, but requires commitment to the process," according to Mr. Moran. He believes that developing collaborative long-term client relationships is what counts. "Helping clients secure their financial future, while at the same time being sensitive to their ethical and social values, has resulted in a positive impact on their communities and the world," according to Mr. Moran.

Business Experience:

From July 1992 to September 2011, Harry was a Registered Representative of Cadaret, Grant & Co., Inc. From August, 1992 to August 2011, he was an Investment Adviser Representative of Cornerstone Financial Advisors. From April 1988 to July 1992, he worked for Advantage Capital Corporation. This Brochure Supplement provides information about Thomas Moser that supplements the Portfolio Resources Advisor Group Brochure. You should have received a copy of that Brochure. Please contact Antonio Camejo at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or acamejo@inres.net if you did not receive Portfolio Resources Advisor Group's Brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Additional information about Thomas Moser is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov and on FINRA's website at www.finra.org/brokercheck

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Tom Moser, CFP®, born in 1953, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and Associate Director and Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since January 2008.

Thomas Moser is Founder and President of High Impact Investments®. His expertise is in portfolio management of clean energy, clean water, healthy food and preventative health care solution company stocks.

Business Experience:

Mr. Moser joined the company that was to become First Affirmative Financial Network as a financial planner in 1989. His "early on" personal interest in solar, wind, and geothermal were an outgrowth of his desire to leverage time, money and work towards making the greatest planet impact. The High Impact Growth portfolio was launched in 2003 as a part of First Affirmative Financial's Generation program. Since that initial launch High Impact® has evolved by moving onto the Envestnet trading platform and expanded portfolio choices including a 5% minimum community investment standard for total equity and fixed income portfolios.

From May 2007 to June 2008 Tom Moser was an investment adviser representative of Responsible Portfolio Management, LLC. From July 2002 to December 2007 Tom was an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group. From August 1999 to December 2004 he was an investment adviser representative of First Affirmative Financial Network LLC. He is an Associate Director of PRAG and a member of its Investment Committee.

Educational Background:

Mr. Moser graduated with a MA in Education in 1978 from the University of Arizona. He graduated with a BA in Education in 1975, likewise from the University of Arizona.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Tom has a Series 7 Securities License, a Series 24, Series 63, Series 65, an Arizona Insurance License, and a Certified Financial Planner™ designation.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates are required to complete a CFP-board registered program. They must also pass the CFP Certification Examination, which is administered in 10 hours over a two-day period. The exam includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances. Certified individuals are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite to sitting for the CFP Certification Examination, candidates must hold a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and have at least 3 years of full time personal financial planning experience.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Tom Moser has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Tom Moser is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and SIFMA. Tom Moser is also licensed to sell variable, fixed annuities and life insurance as an independent contractor for CPS Insurance. He is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities, investment and insurance products, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 12% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities.

This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, Tom Moser is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended insurance and/or commission based products.

Tom has spent 25 years as a public educator in Tucson, Arizona. He chooses to be involved in his community by helping youth. During the past 25 years besides his classroom teaching, he has coached local youth sports, volunteered his time helping "at risk" youth in a nearby detention facility, and taught Life Skills classes to disadvantaged youth.

His belief that social investing should be properly seen in the context of a broad social agenda is seen in his five year old "not for loss" business venture bringing dance, singing and performing arts to the Tucson area, as Owner and Producer of the Youth @ Performing Arts, creating drama with a social purpose. The past two years 40 youth ages 8-18 with over 50 community minded adults have, under his direction, put on productions such as Disney's Aladdin Jr. and Disney's High School Musical. Rehearsals where young people study and create middle eastern art, investigate peer pressure, or find themselves on stage is an outgrowth of Mr. Moser's desire to leverage time, money and work for the social good.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Tom Moser does not receive compensation for advisory services other than fees paid by the client, or as disclosed in the client's Investment Management Agreement.

Item 6- Supervision

Tom Moser is supervised by Antonio Camejo, Chief Compliance Officer. Antonio Camejo can be reached at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or at acamejo@inres.net.

Tom Moser is required to adhere to PRAG's processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. We will monitor the advice that Tom gives you by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed at least annually to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives.

The firm utilizes a team approach in designing and supervising client portfolios. The Investment Committee reviews policies and strategies affecting client investments. Additional information about Krista Strohofer is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov and on FINRA's website at www.finra.org/brokercheck

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Krista Strohofer, born in 1970, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since January 2008.

Krista helps her clients identify their financial goals and helps them develop a strategy to reach them. These goals might include a comfortable retirement, education savings, or a first time home purchase. During this process, Krista spends a great deal of time educating her clients. She believes that knowledge is power and with financial knowledge comes financial freedom. Krista is also a firm believer that everyone deserves and can benefit from professional financial advice regardless of their net worth or investable assets.

Krista has specialized in Sustainable and Socially Responsible Investing since 1999. She and her clients believe that money can and does make a difference and that how you invest can have a positive socio-economic and environmental impact. When selecting investments, Sustainable and Socially Responsible Investing looks beyond the financials to include the environmental, social and governance (ESG) records of a particular investment. How a company treats their employees, their community, the environment and the consumers of their products sheds light on how well that company is managed and how well that company is likely to compete in the long term.

Business Experience:

Krista Strohofer is a licensed financial advisor. She received her first license in 1998 and started Principled Investing LLC, in January 2006.

Prior to working with Portfolio Resources Group and Portfolio Resources Advisory Group, Krista was an Investment Advisor Representative at Financial West Group from January 2006 to December 2007. Prior to that, Krista worked with Citigroup Global Markets from May 2005 to December 2005, at Morgan Stanley from August 2004 to May 2005 and at Walnut Street Securities from November 1999 to July 2004.

Educational Background:

Graduated George Washington University in Washington, DC in 1997 with a Master of Arts Cum Laude and was a Fulbright Scholar in Budapest Hungary from 1996-1997.

Completed Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) Certification from Hamline University in St. Paul, Minnesota in 1995.

Graduated from the University of Minnesota Twin Cities in 1994 with a Bachelor of Arts Cum Laude and was a Samantha Smith Scholar in Budapest Hungary from 1990-1991.
