Item # 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Samuel J. Taylor (54) established Wealthview Capital, LLC in 05/2009 as its Managing Member/Chief Compliance Officer and concurrently became an Investment Advisor Representative. Previously he served as Managing Member of Taylor Capital Management, LLC an independent contractor registered with Wachovia Securities Financial Network (WSFN) from 03/05 – 05/09. While affiliated with WSFN he was a registered associate from 03/2005-05/2009. He holds a master's degree in Human Relations and Supervision and a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Louisiana Tech University.

He is a Certified Investment Management Analyst<sup>SM</sup> (CIMA®), a designation he received in 1996 from the Investment Management Consultants Association<sup>SM</sup> (IMCA®) after completing coursework at the Wharton Business School. The CIMA certification program is the only credential designed specifically for financial professionals who want to attain a level of competency as an advanced investment consultant. The CIMA professional integrates a complex body of investment knowledge to provide objective investment advice and guidance to individuals and institutions. CIMA designees must successfully complete IMCA's rigorous education program and meet other certification requirements including adherence to IMCA's Code of Professional Responsibility and Standards of Practice and obtaining 40 hours of qualifying continuing professional education every two years.

He also holds the designation of Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) awarded in 2010 by Fi360™. The AIF designation represents a thorough knowledge of and ability to apply the fiduciary Practices. AIF designees learn the Practices and the legal and best practice framework upon which they are built and how to apply them within existing fiduciary policies and procedures. AIF designees must complete an in-depth training curriculum, adhere to the AIF/AIFA Code of Ethics and obtain 6 hours of continuing professional education annually.

Additionally he was awarded the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor<sup>SM</sup> designation in 1999 from the College for Financial Planning®. The CRPC Program focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals including estate planning and asset management. The College for Financial Planning® awards the CRPC® designation to students who have successfully completed the program, comply with the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct and obtain 16 hours continuing professional education every two years.
