Item 3 Disciplinary Information

None to report

Item 4 Other Business Activities

David Plaisance has a financial industry affiliated business as an insurance agent. Mr. Plaisance is also Vice-President of Business-Estate Underwriters, providing marketing services and support for life insurance agents. From time to time, he will offer clients advice or products from those activities. He may receive separate yet typical compensation in the form of commissions for the sale of insurance products.

These practices represent conflicts of interest because it gives Mr. Plaisance an incentive to recommend products based on the commission amount received. This conflict is mitigated by the fact that Mr. Plaisance has a fiduciary responsibility to place the best interest of the client first and the clients are not required to purchase any products. Clients have the option to purchase these products through another insurance agent of their choosing.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

David Plaisance receives compensation from his business as an insurance agent, but he does not receive any performance based fees.

Item 6 Supervision

David Plaisance is supervised by Matthew Coakley, Chief Compliance Officer. He reviews David's work through frequent remote office interactions.

Matthew Coakley's contact information:
