ITEM 3. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Mr. Reinhard, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.

Bryan Reinhard does not have disciplinary events to disclose.

Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving Mr. Reinhard to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of Mr. Reinhard to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

ITEM 4. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

A. If Mr. Reinhard is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mr. Reinhard is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Mr. Reinhard's other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

Bryan Reinhard is a licensed insurance agent. As such, he may have an incentive to sell and recommend insurance products to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Bryan Reinhard may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Clients are under no obligation to purchase insurance products from Bryan Reinhard.

- B. If Mr. Reinhard is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Mr. Reinhard's income or involve a substantial amount of Mr. Reinhard's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Reinhard's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Bryan Reinhard does not participate in any outside business that is considered substantial to disclose.

ITEM 5. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Reinhard for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mr. Reinhard's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

Bryan Reinhard does not receive any additional compensation or economic benefits for advisory services provided to Omega Financial Group, LLC's clients.

ITEM 6. SUPERVISION

We are required to explain how we supervise Mr. Reinhard, including how we monitor the advice Mr. Reinhard provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mr. Reinhard's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Dylan Minor, Principal of Omega Financial Group, LLC, supervises and monitors Mr. Reinhard's activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with our firm's Code of Ethics. Please contact Mr. Dylan Minor if you have any questions about Mr. Reinhard's brochure supplement at (805) 560-9030.

ITEM 7. REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE-REGISTERED ADVISERS

In addition to Item 3 of this ADV Part 2B Brochure, Bryan Reinhard has not been involved in any arbitration claim, civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding, or filed bankruptcy. Bryan Reinhard does not have any material disciplinary events to disclose.

CFP®- Certified Financial Planner

Candidates must pass a CFP-board registered program or hold one of seven advanced degrees, designations or professional licenses and pass the CFP exam. Current prerequisites include a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. Thirty hours of continuing education must be completed every two years. Areas of study include insurance and estate planning, employee benefit and tax planning, as well as investment and retirement planning. CFP practitioners are also subject to strict adherence to the CFP Board's Financial Planning Practice Standards and Professional Code of Ethics and Responsibility.

CIMA - Certified Investment Management Analyst:

The CIMA certification signifies that an individual has met initial and on-going experience, ethical, education, and examination requirements for investment management consulting, including advanced investment management theory and application. Prerequisites for the CIMA certification are three years of financial services experience and an acceptable regulatory history. To obtain the CIMA certification, candidates must pass an online Qualification Examination, successfully complete a one-week classroom education program provided by a Registered Education Provider at an AACSB accredited university business school, pass an online Certification Examination, and have an acceptable regulatory history as evidenced by FINRA Form U-4 or other regulatory requirements.

CIMA designees are required to adhere to IMCA's Code of Professional Responsibility, Standards of Practice, and Rules and Guidelines for Use of the Marks. CIMA designees must report 40 hours of continuing education credits, including two ethics hours, every two years to maintain the certification. The designation is administered through Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA).

The CIMA certification has earned ANSI® (American National Standards Institute) accreditation under the personnel certification program. The American National Standards Institute, or ANSI, is a private non-profit organization that facilitates standardization and conformity assessment activities in the United States. CIMA is the first financial services credential to meet this international standard for personnel certification.

ChFC® - Chartered Financial Consultant:

Mr. Minor has a professional designation, Chartered Financial Consultant. The ChFC® is offered by The American College. To receive the ChFC® designation, you must successfully complete all courses in your selected program, meet experience requirements and ethics standards, and agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures. Prerequisites include three years of full-time business experience and an undergraduate or graduate degree. ChFC®s must obtain recertification every two years by completing 30 hours of continuing education. The following topics are covered under the program: Financial Planning: Process and Environment, Income Taxation, Planning for Retirement Needs, Investments, Fundamentals of Estate Planning, Financial Planning Applications, The Financial System in the Economy, Estate Planning Applications, Executive Compensation, and Financial Decisions for Retirement.

To receive the CLU® designation, you must successfully complete all courses in your selected program, meet experience requirements and ethics standards, and agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures. Prerequisites include three years of full-time business experience and an undergraduate or graduate degree. CLU®s must obtain recertification every two years by completing 30 hours of continuing education. The following topics were covered under the program: Fundamentals of Insurance Planning, Individual Life Insurance, Life Insurance Law, Fundamentals of Estate Planning, Planning for Business Owners and Professionals, Financial Planning: Process and Environment, Individual Health Insurance, Income Taxation, Group Benefits, Planning for Retirement Needs, Investments, and Estate Planning.

ITEM 3. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Mr. Minor, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.

Dylan Minor does not have disciplinary events to disclose.

Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving Mr. Minor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of Mr. Minor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

ITEM 4. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

- A. If Mr. Minor is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mr. Minor is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

Dylan Minor does not participate in any outside investment-related business or occupation. All investment-related business is done through Omega Financial Group, LLC.

- B. If Mr. Minor is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Mr. Minor's income or involve a substantial amount of Mr. Minor's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Minor's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Minor is a Professor of Managerial Economics at Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University. He spends approximately 50% of his time during trading hours in this other business activity. This presents a conflict of interest to clients as Mr. Minor dedicates a significant amount of time on this activity. This conflict is mitigated as clients are under full discretion to choose an alternate investment adviser representative to manage their accounts.

ITEM 5. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Minor for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mr. Minor's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

Dylan Minor does not receive any additional compensation or economic benefits for advisory services provided to Omega Financial Group, LLC's clients.

ITEM 6. SUPERVISION

We are required to explain how we supervise Mr. Minor, including how we monitor the advice Mr. Minor provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mr. Minor's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Bryan W. Reinhard, Chief Compliance Officer of Omega Financial Group, LLC, supervises and monitors Mr. Minor's activities on a regular basis to ensure compliance with our firm's Code of Ethics. Please contact Mr. Reinhard if you have any questions about Mr. Minor's brochure supplement at (805) 560-9030.

ITEM 7. REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE-REGISTERED ADVISERS

In addition to Item 3 of this ADV Part 2B Brochure, Dylan Minor has not been involved in any arbitration claim, civil, self-regulatory organization, or administrative proceeding, or filed bankruptcy. Dylan Minor does not have any material disciplinary events to disclose.
