ITEM 3. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Mark Logan, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.

Mr. Logan does not have any disciplinary information to disclose.

Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving Mark Logan to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of Mark Logan to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

ITEM 4. OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

A. If Mark Logan is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mark Logan is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.

1. If Mark Logan receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Mark Logan receives. We must explain that this practice gives Mark Logan an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

Mark Logan is a registered representative of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, member FINRA/SIPC. He may offer securities and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of securities transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation Mark Logan may earn. Clients are under no obligation to act upon any recommendations or effect any transactions through Mark Logan if they decide to follow his recommendations.

B. If Mark Logan is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Mark Logan's income or involve a substantial amount of Mark Logan's time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mark Logan's time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mark Logan is a licensed insurance agent. As such, he may have an incentive to sell and recommend insurance products to Fairhaven Financial Advisors Inc.'s clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Logan may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Clients are under no obligation to purchase insurance products from Mr. Logan. He spends approximately 4-6 hours per month on this activity.

Mr. Logan also serves as a minority member in a family limited liability company (LLC) named "Logan Family Apartments, LLC." This is a real estate investment-related business. Mr. Logan spends 2 hours during securities trading hours and 2 hours of non-trading hours on this activity. Mr. Logan does not advise his clients to take part in and/or invest in this business. This does not pose any conflict of interests.

ITEM 5. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mark Logan for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mark Logan's regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

On occasion, Mark Logan may attend 3rd party sponsored educational events. Such events are made available to our firm by number and amount of sales. We limit the events each employee can take in a year and have a policy of returning from such events with a daily report and a summary report to be shared with the non-attending members of our team.

ITEM 6. SUPERVISION

We are required to explain how we supervise Mark Logan, including how we monitor the advice Mark Logan provides to you. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mark Logan's advisory activities on behalf of our firm.
