1. If a relationship between the advisory business and Christopher Bleuher's other financial industry activities creates a material conflict of interest with you, the SEC requires us to describe the nature of the conflict and generally how we address it.

Mr. Bleuher is a licensed insurance agent. He may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary fees as a result of insurance sales. A conflict of interest may arise as these insurance sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation adviser and/or our supervised persons may earn and may not necessarily be in the best interests of the client.

2. If Christopher Bleuher receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered representative, and including distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. We must explain that this practice gives Christopher Bleuher an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.
