Item 4 – Advisory Business

- A. BEWA, LLC (“BEWA,” “we,” or “us”) is an investment adviser registered with the SEC since October 2012. We are a limited liability company organized under the laws of Delaware since October 2012. We are owned by Brinton Eaton. Brinton Eaton is majority owned by Robert J. DiQuollo and Jerry A. Miccolis.
- B. As discussed below, BEWA offers to its clients (individuals, business entities, trusts, estates, pension and profit sharing plans and charitable organizations, etc.) investment advisory services, which may include financial planning and related consulting services.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES

The client can determine to engage BEWA to provide discretionary investment advisory services on a fee-only basis. BEWA’s annual investment advisory fee is based upon a percentage (%) of the market value of the assets under BEWA’s management (between 0.50% and 1.00%) as follows:

Assets Under Management	Annual Fee
First $5,000,000	1.00%
Over $5,000,000	0.50%

* In limited circumstances, BEWA may provide investment advisory services on a fixed fee basis.

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTING SERVICES

To the extent specifically requested by a client, BEWA may determine to provide financial planning and/or consulting services (including investment and non-investment related matters, including estate planning, insurance planning, etc.) as part of its investment advisory services. BEWA generally requires an annual minimum fee of $5,000 for financial planning and/or consulting services. BEWA’s obligation shall be expressly limited to those planning and consulting services specifically requested by the client. In the event that the client requires extraordinary planning and/or consultation services (to be determined in the sole discretion of BEWA), BEWA may determine to charge for such additional services, the dollar amount of which shall be set forth in a separate written notice to the client on a stand-alone separate fee basis. Prior to engaging BEWA to provide planning or consulting services, clients are generally required to enter into a Financial Planning and Consulting Agreement with BEWA setting forth the terms and conditions of the engagement (including termination) and the portion of the fee that is due from the client prior to BEWA commencing services. If requested by the client, BEWA may recommend the services of other professionals for implementation purposes, including BEWA for tax preparation services. The client is under no obligation to engage the services of any such recommended professional. The client retains absolute discretion over all such implementation decisions and is free to accept or reject any recommendation from BEWA. Please Note: If the client engages any such recommended professional, and a dispute arises thereafter relative to such engagement, the client agrees to seek recourse exclusively from and against the engaged professional. Please Also Note: It remains the client's responsibility to promptly notify BEWA if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing/evaluating/revising BEWA's previous recommendations and/or services.

TAX PREPARATION SERVICES

BEWA may provide clients with tax preparation services on a separate fee basis. BEWA's tax preparation fees are negotiable, but generally range from $750 to $2,000 on a fixed fee basis per tax year, depending upon the level and scope of the service(s) required and the professional(s) rendering the service(s).

MISCELLANEOUS

Non-Investment Consulting/Implementation Services. To the extent requested by the client, BEWA may provide consulting services regarding non-investment related matters, such as estate planning, tax planning, insurance, etc. Neither BEWA, nor any of its representatives, serves as an attorney or licensed insurance agent, and no portion of BEWA's services should be construed as same. To the extent requested by a client, BEWA may recommend the services of other professionals for certain non-investment implementation purposes (i.e. attorneys, accountants, insurance, etc.), including BEWA for tax preparation services. The client is under no obligation to engage the services of any such recommended professional. The client retains absolute discretion over all such implementation decisions and is free to accept or reject any recommendation from BEWA. Please Note: If the client engages any such recommended professional, and a dispute arises thereafter relative to such engagement, the client agrees to seek recourse exclusively from and against the engaged professional. Please Also Note: It remains the client's responsibility to promptly notify BEWA if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing/evaluating/revising BEWA's previous recommendations and/or services.

Private Investment Funds. BEWA may offer advice relative to family limited partnerships, hedge fund investments, publicly and foreign traded securities. To the extent that BEWA provides such advice, the following disclosure is applicable:

Please Note: Private investment funds generally involve various risk factors, including, but not limited to, potential for complete loss of principal, liquidity constraints and lack of transparency, a complete discussion of which is set forth in each fund's offering documents, which will be provided to each client for review and consideration. Unlike other liquid investments that a client may maintain, private investment funds do not provide daily liquidity or pricing. Each prospective client investor will be required to complete a Subscription Agreement, pursuant to which the client shall establish that he/she is qualified for investment in the fund, and acknowledges and accepts the various risk factors that are associated with such an investment.

Please Also Note: Valuation. In the event that BEWA references private investment funds owned by the client on any supplemental account reports prepared by BEWA, the value(s) for all such private investment funds shall reflect either the initial purchase and/or the most recent valuation provided by the fund sponsor. If the valuation reflects the initial purchase price (and/or a value as of a previous date), the current value(s) (to the extent ascertainable) could be significantly more or less than the original purchase price.

Structured Notes. BEWA may purchase structured notes for client accounts. A structured note is generally a financial instrument that combines two elements, a debt security and exposure to an underlying asset or assets. However, BEWA may also recommend structured notes that do not contain a debt security. A structured note is essentially a promissory note, carrying counter party risk of the issuer. However, the return on the note is linked to the return of an underlying asset or assets (such as the S&P 500 Index or commodities). It is this latter feature that makes structured products unique, as the payout can be used to provide some degree of principal protection, leveraged returns (but usually with some cap on the maximum return), and be tailored to a specific market or economic view. In addition, investors may receive long-term capital gains tax treatment if certain underlying conditions are met and the note is held for more than one year. In the event that a client has any questions regarding the purchase of structured notes for his/her/its account, BEWA's Chief Compliance Officer remains available to address them.

Please Note: Cash Positions. At any specific point in time, depending upon perceived or anticipated market conditions/events (there being no guarantee that such anticipated market conditions/events will occur), BEWA may maintain cash positions for defensive purposes. All cash positions (money markets, etc.) shall be included as part of assets under management for purposes of calculating BEWA's advisory fee. BEWA's Chief Compliance Officer remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above fee billing practice.

Trade Error Policy. BEWA shall reimburse accounts for losses resulting from BEWA's trade errors, but shall not credit accounts for such errors resulting in market gains. The gains and losses are reconciled within BEWA's custodian firm account and BEWA retains the net gains and losses.

Client Obligations. In performing its services, BEWA shall not be required to verify any information received from the client or from the client's other professionals, and is expressly authorized to rely thereon. Moreover, each client is advised that it remains his/her/its responsibility to promptly notify BEWA if there is ever any change in his/her/its financial situation or investment objectives for the purpose of reviewing/evaluating/revising BEWA's previous recommendations and/or services.

Disclosure Statement. A copy of BEWA's written Brochure as set forth on Part 2A of Form ADV shall be provided to each client prior to, or contemporaneously with, the execution of the Investment Advisory Agreement or Financial Planning and Consulting Agreement. Any client who has not received a copy of BEWA's written Brochure at least 48 hours prior to executing the Investment Advisory Agreement or Financial Planning and Consulting Agreement shall have five business days subsequent to executing the agreement to terminate BEWA's services without penalty.

- C. BEWA shall provide investment advisory services specific to the needs of each client. Prior to providing investment advisory services, an investment adviser representative will ascertain each client's investment objective(s). Thereafter, BEWA shall allocate and/or recommend that the client allocate investment assets consistent with the designated investment objective(s). The client may, at any time, impose reasonable restrictions, in writing, on BEWA's services.
- D. BEWA does not participate in a wrap fee program.
- E. As of October 31, 2012, the Registrant had $0 in assets under management.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

- A. The client can determine to engage BEWA to provide discretionary investment advisory services on a fee-only basis.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES

If a client determines to engage BEWA to provide discretionary investment advisory services on a fee-only basis, BEWA's annual investment advisory fee shall be based upon a percentage (%) of the market value and type of assets placed under BEWA's management (between 0.50% and 1.00%) as follows:

Assets Under Management	Annual Fee	First $5,000,000	1.00%
Over $5,000,000		0.50%

* In limited circumstances, BEWA may provide investment advisory services on a fixed fee basis.

FINANCIAL PLANNING AND CONSULTING SERVICES

To the extent specifically requested by a client, BEWA may determine to provide financial planning and/or consulting services (including investment and non-investment related matters, including estate planning, insurance planning, etc.) as part of its investment advisory services. BEWA generally requires an annual minimum fee of $5,000 for financial planning and/or consulting services.

TAX PREPARATION SERVICES

BEWA's tax preparation fees are negotiable, but generally range from $750 to $2,000 on a fixed fee basis per tax year, depending upon the level and scope of the service(s) required and the professional(s) rendering the service(s).

- B. Clients may elect to have BEWA's advisory fees deducted from their custodial account. Both BEWA's Investment Advisory Agreement and the custodial/ clearing agreement may authorize the custodian to debit the account for the amount of BEWA's investment advisory fee and to directly remit that management fee to BEWA in compliance with regulatory procedures. In the limited event that BEWA bills the client directly, payment is due upon receipt of BEWA's invoice. BEWA shall deduct fees and/or bill clients quarterly in advance, based upon the market value of the assets on the last business day of the previous quarter.
- C. As discussed below, unless the client directs otherwise or an individual client's circumstances require, BEWA shall generally recommend that Fidelity Investments ("Fidelity") serve as the broker-dealer/custodian for client investment management assets. Broker-dealers such as Fidelity charge brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees for effecting certain securities transactions (i.e. transaction fees are charged for certain no-load mutual funds, commissions are charged for individual equity and fixed income securities transactions). In addition to BEWA's investment management fee, brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees, clients will also incur, relative to all mutual fund and exchange traded fund purchases, charges imposed at the fund level (e.g. management fees and other fund expenses). When beneficial to the client, individual debt and/or equity transactions may be effected through broker-dealers with whom BEWA and/or the client have entered into arrangements for prime brokerage clearing services, including effecting certain client transactions through Fidelity, or other various SEC registered and FINRA member broker-dealers (in which event, the client shall incur both the transaction fee charged by the executing broker-dealer and a "tradeaway" fee charged by Fidelity).

- D. BEWA's annual investment advisory fee shall be prorated and paid quarterly, in advance, based upon the market value of the assets on the last business day of the previous quarter. The Investment Advisory Agreement between BEWA and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party by written notice in accordance with the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement. Upon termination, BEWA shall refund the pro-rated portion of the advanced advisory fee paid based upon the number of days remaining in the billing quarter.
- E. Neither BEWA, nor its representatives accept compensation from the sale of securities or other investment products.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

BEWA does not charge any performance-based fees (fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets of a client).

Item 7 – Types of Clients

BEWA's clients shall generally include individuals, business entities, trusts, estates, pension and profit sharing plans and charitable organizations. BEWA generally does not require an annual minimum fee for investment advisory services. BEWA, in its sole discretion, may charge a lesser investment management fee based upon certain criteria (i.e. anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, negotiations with client, etc.).

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. BEWA may utilize the following methods of security analysis:

- a. Fundamental - (analysis performed on historical and present data, with the goal of making financial forecasts)
- b. Technical – (analysis performed on historical and present data, focusing on price and trade volume, to forecast the direction of prices)

BEWA may utilize the following investment strategies when implementing investment advice given to clients:

- a. Long Term Purchases (securities held at least a year)
- b. Short Term Purchases (securities sold within a year)
- c. Options (contract for the purchase or sale of a security at a predetermined price during a specific period of time)

Please Note: Investment Risk. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk, and it should not be assumed that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy (including the investments and/or investment strategies recommended or undertaken by the Registrant) will be profitable or equal any specific performance level(s).

B. BEWA's methods of analysis and investment strategies do not present any significant or unusual risks.

However, every method of analysis has its own inherent risks. To perform an accurate market analysis BEWA must have access to current/new market information. BEWA has no control over the dissemination rate of market information; therefore, unbeknownst to BEWA, certain analyses may be compiled with outdated market information, severely limiting the value of BEWA's analysis. Furthermore, an accurate market analysis can only produce a forecast of the direction of market values. There can be no assurances that a forecasted change in market value will materialize into actionable and/or profitable investment opportunities.

BEWA's primary investment strategies - Long Term Purchases and Short Term Purchases - are fundamental investment strategies. However, every investment strategy has its own inherent risks and limitations. For example, longer term investment strategies require a longer investment time period to allow for the strategy to potentially develop. Shorter term investment strategies require a shorter investment time period to potentially develop but, as a result of more frequent trading, may incur higher transactional costs when compared to a longer term investment strategy.

In addition to the fundamental investment strategies discussed above, BEWA may also implement and/or recommend options transactions. Each of these strategies has a high level of inherent risk. (See discussion below).

The use of options transactions as an investment strategy involves a high level of inherent risk. Option transactions establish a contract between two parties concerning the buying or selling of an asset at a predetermined price during a specific period of time. During the term of the option contract, the buyer of the option gains the right to demand fulfillment by the seller. Fulfillment may take the form of either selling or purchasing a security depending upon the nature of the option contract. Generally, the purchase or the recommendation to purchase an option contract by BEWA shall be with the intent of offsetting/"hedging" a potential market risk in a client's portfolio. Please Note: Although the intent of the options-related transactions that may be implemented by BEWA is to hedge against principal risk, certain of the options-related strategies (i.e. straddles, short positions, etc.), may, in and of themselves, produce principal volatility and/or risk. Thus, a client must be willing to accept these enhanced volatility and principal risks associated with such strategies. In light of these enhanced risks, client may direct BEWA, in writing, not to employ any or all such strategies for his/her/their/its accounts.

- C. Currently, BEWA primarily allocates client investment assets among various individual equity, fixed income securities and mutual funds on a discretionary basis in accordance with the client's designated investment objective(s).

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of us or the integrity of our management. We have no information applicable to this Item.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

We are affiliated, and under common control, with Brinton Eaton (CRD No. 104846), an SEC registered investment adviser.

Neither BEWA, nor its representatives, are registered or have an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer or a registered representative of a broker-dealer.

Neither BEWA, nor its representatives, are registered or have an application pending to register, as a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, a commodity trading advisor, or a representative of the foregoing.

BEWA does not recommend or select other investment advisors for its clients.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

- A. BEWA maintains an investment policy relative to personal securities transactions. This investment policy is part of BEWA's overall Code of Ethics, which serves to establish a standard of business conduct for all of BEWA's employees that is based upon fundamental principles of openness, integrity, honesty and trust, a copy of which is available upon request.

In accordance with Section 204A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, BEWA also maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material non-public information by BEWA or any person associated with BEWA.

- B. Neither BEWA nor any related person of BEWA recommends, buys, or sells for client accounts, securities in which BEWA or any related person of BEWA has a material financial interest.
- C. BEWA and/or employees of BEWA may buy or sell securities that are also recommended to clients. This practice may create a situation where BEWA and/or employees of BEWA are in a position to materially benefit from the sale or purchase of those securities. Therefore, this situation creates a potential conflict of interest. Practices such as "scalping" (i.e., a practice whereby the owner of shares of a security recommends that security for investment and then immediately sells it at a profit upon the rise in the market price which follows the recommendation) could take place if BEWA did not have adequate policies in place to detect such activities. In addition, this requirement can help detect insider trading, "front-running" (i.e., personal trades executed prior to those of BEWA's clients) and other potentially abusive practices.

BEWA has a personal securities transaction policy in place to monitor the personal securities transactions and securities holdings of each of BEWA's "Access Persons". BEWA's securities transaction policy requires that an Access Person of BEWA must provide the Chief Compliance Officer or his/her designee with a written report of their current securities holdings within ten (10) days after becoming an Access Person. Additionally, each Access Person must provide the Chief Compliance Officer or his/her designee with a written report of the Access Person's current securities holdings at least once each twelve (12) month period thereafter on a date BEWA selects; provided, however that at any time that BEWA has only one Access Person, he or she shall not be required to submit any securities report described above.

- D. BEWA and/or employees of BEWA may buy or sell securities, at or around the same time as those securities are recommended to clients. This practice creates a situation where BEWA and/or employees of BEWA are in a position to materially benefit from the sale or purchase of those securities. Therefore, this situation creates a potential conflict of interest. As indicated above in Item 11.C, BEWA has a personal securities transaction policy in place to monitor the personal securities transaction and securities holdings of each of BEWA's Access Persons.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

- A. In the event that the client requests that BEWA recommend a broker-dealer/custodian for execution and/or custodial services (exclusive of those clients that may direct BEWA to use a specific broker-dealer/custodian), BEWA generally recommends that investment management accounts be maintained at Fidelity. Prior to engaging BEWA to provide investment management services, the client will be required to enter into a formal Investment Advisory Agreement with BEWA setting forth the terms and conditions under which BEWA shall manage the client's assets, and a separate custodial/clearing agreement with each designated broker-dealer/custodian.

Factors that BEWA considers in recommending Fidelity (or any other broker-dealer/custodian to clients) include historical relationship with BEWA, financial strength, reputation, execution capabilities, pricing, research, and service. Although the commissions and/or transaction fees paid by BEWA's clients shall comply with BEWA's duty to obtain best execution, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where BEWA determines, in good faith, that the commission/transaction fee is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although BEWA will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client account transactions. The brokerage commissions or transaction fees charged by the designated broker-dealer/custodian are exclusive of, and in addition to, BEWA's investment management fee. BEWA's best execution responsibility is qualified if securities that it purchases for client accounts are mutual funds that trade at net asset value as determined at the daily market close.

1. Research and Additional Benefits

Although not a material consideration when determining whether to recommend that a client utilize the services of a particular broker-dealer/custodian, BEWA may receive from Fidelity (or another broker-dealer/custodian) without cost (and/or at a discount) support services and/or products, certain of which assist BEWA to better monitor and service client accounts maintained at such institutions. Included within the support services that may be obtained by BEWA may be investment-related research, pricing information and market data, software and other technology that provide access to client account data, compliance and/or practice management-related publications, discounted or gratis consulting services, discounted and/or gratis attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational and/or social events, marketing support, computer hardware and/or software and/or other products used by BEWA in furtherance of its investment advisory business operations.

As indicated above, certain of the support services and/or products that may be received may assist BEWA in managing and administering client accounts. Others do not directly provide such assistance, but rather assist BEWA to manage and further develop its business enterprise.

BEWA's clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at Fidelity as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by BEWA to Fidelity or any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities or other investment products as a result of the above arrangement.

BEWA's Chief Compliance Officer remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above arrangement and any corresponding perceived conflict of interest such arrangement may create.

2. BEWA does not generally accept directed brokerage arrangements (when a client requires that account transactions be effected through a specific broker-dealer). In such client directed arrangements, the client will negotiate terms and arrangements for their account with that broker-dealer, and BEWA will not seek better execution services or prices from other broker-dealers or be able to "batch" the client's transactions for execution through other broker-dealers with orders for other accounts managed by BEWA. As a result, client may pay higher commissions or other transaction costs or greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices, on transactions for the account than would otherwise be the case.

Please Note: In the event that the client directs BEWA to effect securities transactions for the client's accounts through a specific broker-dealer, the client correspondingly acknowledges that such direction may cause the accounts to incur higher commissions or transaction costs than the accounts would otherwise incur had the client determined to effect account transactions through alternative clearing arrangements that may be available through BEWA.

BEWA's Chief Compliance Officer remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above arrangement.

- B. To the extent that BEWA provides investment management services to its clients, the transactions for each client account generally will be effected independently, unless BEWA decides to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. BEWA may (but is not obligated to) combine or "bunch" such orders to obtain best execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates or to allocate equitably among BEWA's clients differences in prices and commissions or other transaction costs that might have been obtained had such orders been placed independently. Under this procedure, transactions will be averaged as to price and will be allocated among clients in proportion to the purchase and sale orders placed for each client account on any given day. BEWA shall not receive any additional compensation or remuneration as a result of such aggregation.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

- A. BEWA assigns two investment managers to each client, with one having primary assignment responsibility. Each investment manager will review the portfolios for which he or she has primary responsibility on an ongoing basis. Portfolios will be reviewed on at least a monthly basis to monitor that client objectives are being met. BEWA's general policy and strategies for investment will have, as their foundation, the fundamental objectives specifically detailed by the client, generally, in an Investment Objective Confirmation (IOC) signed by each client. This IOC is the framework within which BEWA must work. These objectives will be reviewed, generally semiannually, with the client to ensure they can be and are being achieved by the portfolio strategies in place. All clients are advised that it remains their responsibility to advise BEWA of any changes in their investment objectives and/or financial situation. All clients (in person or via telephone) are encouraged to review financial planning issues (to the extent applicable), investment objectives and account performance with BEWA on an annual basis.
- B. BEWA may conduct account reviews on an other than periodic basis upon the occurrence of a triggering event, such as a change in client investment objectives and/or financial situation, market corrections and client request.
- C. BEWA furnishes its clients with detailed reports at the end of each calendar quarter showing holdings at the end of the quarter, transactions during the quarter and the results of BEWA's activities during the quarter and year to date. In addition, BEWA will, upon request, furnish clients with interim portfolio holdings reports every month and will provide such additional information and prepare such additional reports as are appropriate to the client relationship. Clients are furnished only with such reports and information as they wish to receive and as are required by the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. In addition, each client receives detailed summary reports directly from the custodian of the account, generally on a monthly basis. Also, each client receives directly from the custodian a contemporaneous transaction notification.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

- A. As referenced in Item 12.A.1 above, BEWA may receive an indirect economic benefit from Fidelity. BEWA, without cost (and/or at a discount), may receive support services and/or products from Fidelity.

BEWA's clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at Fidelity as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by BEWA to Fidelity or any other entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities or other investment products as a result of the above arrangement.

BEWA's Chief Compliance Officer remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above arrangement and any corresponding perceived conflict of interest any such arrangement may create.

- B. BEWA does not compensate, directly or indirectly, any person, other than its employees, for client referrals.

Item 15 – Custody

BEWA shall have the ability to have its advisory fee for each client debited by the custodian on a quarterly basis. Each client receives detailed summary reports directly from the custodian of the account, generally on a monthly basis. Also, each client receives directly from the custodian a contemporaneous transaction notification.

Please Note: To the extent that BEWA provides clients with periodic account statements or reports, the client is urged to compare any statement or report provided by BEWA with the account statements received from the account custodian. Please Also Note: The account custodian does not verify the accuracy of BEWA's advisory fee calculation.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

The client can determine to engage BEWA to provide investment advisory services on a discretionary basis. Prior to BEWA assuming discretionary authority over a client's account, the client shall be required to execute an Investment Advisory Agreement, naming BEWA as the client's attorney and agent in fact, granting BEWA full authority to buy, sell, or otherwise effect investment transactions involving the assets in the client's name for found in the discretionary account.

Clients who engage BEWA on a discretionary basis may, at any time, impose restrictions, in writing, on BEWA's discretionary authority (i.e. limit the types/amounts of particular securities purchased for their account, exclude the ability to purchase securities with an inverse relationship to the market, limit or proscribe BEWA's use of margin, etc.).

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

- A. BEWA does not vote client proxies. Clients maintain exclusive responsibility for: (1) directing the manner in which proxies solicited by issuers of securities beneficially owned by the client shall be voted, and (2) making all elections relative to any mergers, acquisitions, tender offers, bankruptcy proceedings or other type events pertaining to the client's investment assets.
- B. Clients will receive their proxies or other solicitations directly from their custodian. Clients may contact BEWA to discuss any questions they may have with a particular solicitation.

Item 18 – Financial Information

- A. BEWA does not solicit fees of more than $1,200, per client, six months or more in advance.
- B. BEWA is unaware of any financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair its ability to meet its contractual commitments relating to its discretionary authority over certain client accounts.
- C. BEWA has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.

ANY QUESTIONS: BEWA's Chief Compliance Officer remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above disclosures and arrangements.
