Item 4 – Advisory Business

The Adviser was formed in 2008 and registered with the SEC under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”) in 2008.

The Adviser is a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Morgan Stanley.

As of December 31, 2012, the Adviser had approximately $ 3,000,805,000 of regulatory assets under management, all of which are managed on a discretionary basis.

The Adviser’s primary business is the management of pooled investment vehicles that pursue the investment strategies described below.

As of March 15, 2013 Morgan Stanley Venture Capital III Inc., MSDW Venture Partners IV Inc. and MSVP 2002, Inc. (together, the “Former Adviser(s)”) each contractually transferred their respective advisory-related rights and obligations in connection with the following funds and their related funds: Morgan Stanley Venture Partners III, L.P., Morgan Stanley Dean Witter Venture Partners IV, L.P. and Morgan Stanley Venture Partners 2002 Fund, L.P. (together, the “Funds”) to MS Capital Partners Adviser Inc., an SEC-registered investment adviser (the “Adviser”). The Adviser is under the same management as the Former Advisers and is controlled by Morgan Stanley. The transfers did not result in any changes to the management of the Funds. Moreover, the transfers will have no impact on the Funds’ investment objectives, the level of services that the Funds receive from their respective Former Advisers or the fees paid by the Funds to their respective Former Adviser.

The Funds’ investment objective is to achieve attractive risk-adjusted returns primarily through investing in equity, equity-related and similar securities (including debt or other securities with equity like returns or an equity component) acquired in privately negotiated transactions. The Funds have been permitted to make investments in portfolio companies indirectly by investing through partnerships (or other investment vehicles). The Funds have generally focused on investment opportunities where it can acquire a significant minority ownership position. The Funds have also been permitted to make investments in debt or publicly-traded securities, and assets or instruments related to the foregoing.

Item 5 – Fees and Compensation

For the Venture III Funds

Management Fees

The General Partner may amend the agreement to reduce management fees otherwise payable.

Morgan Stanley Venture Partners III, L.L.C. (“Venture Partners LLC”), which is the general partner of Morgan Stanley Venture Partners III, L.P., Morgan Stanley Venture Investors III, L.P. and The Morgan Stanley Venture Partners Entrepreneur Fund, L.P. (together the “Venture III Partnerships”), and is controlled by Morgan Stanley Venture Capital III, Inc., is paid a quarterly management fee by the Venture III Partnerships. The fee payable was initially calculated as 2% of the committed capital of each Venture III Partnerships’ limited partner. Commencing on the sixth anniversary of the initial closing of the Venture III Partnerships, the management fee has been reduced by 0.25% each year until equal to 1.5%. After approximately September 2003, the management fee had been limited to 2.5% of the cost basis of the Venture III Partnerships’ remaining investments. The Venture III Partnerships ceased paying management fees as of January 2013.

Venture Partners LLC is entitled to receive an amount equal to 20% (15% in the case of limited partners who are employees of Morgan Stanley or its affiliates) of each Venture III Partnerships’ profits. No performance fee is received in connection with advisory services provided to Morgan Stanley Venture Partners Entrepreneur Fund, L.P. (the “Entrepreneur Fund”).

Because the Adviser invests in long-term private equity securities, granting a limited partner the right to short-term redemptions could adversely affect the objectives of the Venture III Partnerships and the interests of all investors. Accordingly, under the relevant partnership agreement, no limited partner has the right to (i) receive any refund of any advisory fee or (ii) terminate its obligations under a partnership agreement, or otherwise withdraw from a Venture III Partnership, prior to such Venture III Partnerships’ termination (except for limited withdrawal rights of partners subject to ERISA).

Fees may be deducted from clients’ assets as set forth in the limited partnership agreements of the Venture III Partnerships (the “Venture III Partnership Agreement”). Management fees are payable quarterly in advance. Performance fees are calculated and made to Venture Partners LLC out of the proceeds distributed to limited partners.

Transaction Based Compensation

The Adviser and its professionals may charge portfolio companies transaction fees, sponsor fees, monitoring fees, advisory fees, directors’ fees, commitment fees, closing fees, amendment fees, break up fees and other similar fees. An amount equal to each Venture III Partnership’s limited partner’s share of such fees paid by portfolio companies that are received by the Adviser or any of its employees, net of any unreimbursed expenses incurred by the Adviser or its affiliates in connection with unconsummated transactions, will be applied to reduce the Management Fee otherwise payable by such Venture III Partnership limited partner. All such fees will first be allocated among the Venture III Partnership limited partners and any other investors on the basis of capital committed by each to the relevant investment. Management Fee reductions will be carried forward if necessary.

Other Fees and Expenses

In addition to the management fee and the carried interest, pursuant to the Venture III Partnership Agreement, the Venture III Partnerships generally bear their own expenses, including organizational and syndication expenses; legal, accounting, audit, custodial and other professional fees; banking, brokerage, broken-deal, registration, finders, depositary and similar fees or commissions; transfer, capital and other taxes, duties and costs incurred in acquiring, holding, selling or disposing of assets; insurance premiums, indemnifications and costs of litigation; cost of reports to partners an annual or special meetings; and interest expenses.

For the Venture IV Funds

Management Fees and Carried Interest

Through the end of the Morgan Stanley Dean Witter Venture Partners IV, L.P. and its related funds' (together, the "Venture IV Partnerships") investment period, the Adviser will generally receive an annual management fee by each Venture IV Partnership, which is funded by the Venture IV limited partners. The fee payable by each limited partner is initially calculated as 2% of the committed capital of such Venture IV Partnerships' limited partner. Commencing on the sixth anniversary of the initial closing of the Venture IV Partnerships, the management fee is reduced by 0.25% each year until it is equal to 1.5%. Since approximately October 2006, the management fee has been limited to 2.5% of the cost basis of the Venture IV Partnerships' remaining investments. Upon termination of the management agreement between the Adviser and the relevant Venture IV Partnership, the Adviser shall repay to such Venture IV Partnership or to a replacement manager, as directed by the general partner of the Venture IV Partnerships, the unearned portion (computed on the basis of the number of days elapsed), if any of the management fees previously paid to the Adviser.

MSDW Venture Partners IV, LLC (the "Venture IV GP") is generally entitled to carried interest equal to 25% of all realized income, gain and losses with respect to the portfolio securities of the Venture IV Partnerships, except for Morgan Stanley Dean Witter Venture Investors IV, L.P. (the "Venture IV Employee Fund"). The Venture IV GP is entitled to carried interest equal to 12.5% of all realized income, gain and losses with respect to the portfolio securities of the Venture IV Partnerships.

Fees may be deducted from clients' assets as set forth in the limited partnership agreements of the Venture IV Partnerships (the "Venture IV Partnership Agreement"). The management fee is payable quarterly in advance. Carried interest distributions are calculated and made to the Venture IV GP out of the proceeds at the time of distribution to Venture IV Limited Partners.

Transaction Based Compensation

The Adviser and its professionals may charge portfolio companies transaction fees, sponsor fees, monitoring fees, advisory fees, directors' fees, commitment fees, closing fees, amendment fees, break up fees and other similar fees. An amount equal to each Venture IV Partnerships' limited partner's share of such fees paid by portfolio companies that are received by the Adviser or any of its employees, net of any unreimbursed expenses incurred by the Adviser or its affiliates in connection with unconsummated transactions, will be applied to reduce the management fee otherwise payable by such Venture IV Partnerships limited partner. All such fees will first be allocated among the Venture IV Partnerships' limited partners and any other investors on the basis of capital committed by each to the relevant investment. Management fee reductions will be carried forward if necessary.

Other Fees and Expenses

In addition to the management fee and the carried interest, pursuant to the Venture IV Partnership Agreement, the Venture IV Partnerships generally bears its own expenses, including organization and syndication expenses; legal, accounting, audit, custodial and professional fees; banking, brokerage, broken-deal, registration, finders, depositary and similar fees or commissions; transfer, capital and other taxes, duties and costs incurred in acquiring, holding, selling or otherwise disposing of assets, insurance premiums, indemnifications and costs of litigation, cost of reports to partners and annual or special meetings; and interest expenses.

For the 2002 Funds

All fees are non-negotiable.

Management Fees and Carried Interest

The Adviser is paid an annual management fee by the Morgan Stanley Venture Partners 2002 Fund (the "Main Fund") and Morgan Stanley Venture Investors 2002 Fund L.P. (the "2002 Employee Fund") and together with the Main Fund, the "2002 Funds"), which is funded by the limited partners. The fee payable by each limited partner was initially calculated as 2% of the committed capital of such limited partner. Commencing on the earlier of (i) the sixth anniversary of the 2002 Fund's first investment and (ii) the initial closing date of any successor fund, the management fee was reduced by 0.25% each year until equal to 1.50%; provided that the management fee beginning with the seventh anniversary of the 2002 Partnerships' first investment has not exceeded 2.50% of the cost basis of the 2002 Fund's remaining investments.

MSVP 2002 Fund, LLC, the general partner of the 2002 Funds, is entitled to receive a carried interest equal to 20% from the 2002 Funds and, generally, 10% from the 2002 Employee Fund (or 25% and 12.5%, respectively, if both (i) the internal rate of return on the 2002 Funds' portfolio is at least 25%, and (ii) the limited partners have received aggregate distributions from the 2002 Funds in an amount that is no less than 225% of their aggregate capital contributions to the 2002 Funds) of the 2002 Funds' profits.

Advisory fees may be deducted from clients' assets as set forth in the limited partnership agreements of the 2002 Funds (the 2002 "Partnership Agreements"). Management fees are payable quarterly in advance. Carried interest distributions are calculated and made to the general partner out of the investment proceeds at the time of distribution to partners.

Because the Adviser invests in long-term private equity securities, granting a limited partner the right to short-term redemptions could adversely affect the objectives of 2002 Funds and the interests of all investors. Accordingly, under the relevant partnership agreements, no limited partner has the right to (i) receive any refund of any advisory fee or (ii) terminate its obligations under a partnership agreement, or otherwise withdraw from a 2002 Fund, prior to the 2002 Funds' termination (except for limited withdrawal rights of certain regulated partners).

Transaction Based Compensation

The Adviser and its professionals may charge portfolio companies transaction fees, sponsor fees, monitoring fees, advisory fees, directors' fees, commitment fees, closing fees, amendment fees, break up fees and other similar fees. An amount equal to each 2002 Fund's limited partner's share of all such fees paid by portfolio companies that are received by the Adviser or any of its employees, net of any unreimbursed expenses incurred by the Adviser or its affiliates in connection with unconsummated transactions, will be applied to reduce the management fee otherwise payable by such 2002 Fund's limited partner. All such fees will first be allocated among the 2002 Fund's limited partners and any other investors on the basis of capital committed by each to the relevant investment. management fee reductions will be carried forward if necessary.

Other Fees and Expenses

In addition to the management fee and the carried interest, pursuant to the 2002 Partnership Agreements for the relevant 2002 Fund, such 2002 Fund generally bears its own expenses, including organizational and syndication expenses; legal, accounting, audit, custodial and other professional fees; banking, brokerage, broken-deal, registration, finders, depositary and similar fees or commissions; transfer, capital and other taxes, duties and costs incurred in acquiring, holding, selling or disposing of assets; insurance premiums, indemnifications and costs of litigation; cost of reports to partners an annual or special meetings; and interest expenses.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

In some cases, the Adviser has entered into performance fee arrangements with qualified clients; such fees are subject to individualized negotiation with each such client. The Adviser will structure any performance or incentive fee arrangement subject to Section 205(a)(1) of the Advisers Act in accordance with the available exemptions thereunder, including the exemption set forth in Rule 205-3. Performance-based fee arrangements may create an incentive for the Adviser to recommend investments that may be riskier or more speculative than those which would be recommended under a different fee arrangement. Such fee arrangements also create an incentive to favor higher fee paying accounts over other accounts in the allocation of investment opportunities. The Adviser has designed and implemented procedures to ensure that all clients are treated fairly and equitably, and to prevent this conflict from influencing the allocation of investment opportunities among clients.

Item 7 – Types of Clients

The Adviser provides portfolio management services to pooled investment vehicles. These pooled investment vehicles are not subject to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”). In addition, limited partner interests in a partnership may be purchased only by certain eligible investors who are “accredited investors” as defined in Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and “qualified purchasers” for purposes of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act.

For the Venture III Funds

Generally, Venture III Partnerships institutional investors must invest a minimum of $5,000,000 and individual investors must invest a minimum of $2,000,000. The general partner reserves the right to waive this requirement in its discretion.

For the Venture IV Funds

Generally, Venture IV Partnerships investors must invest a minimum of $1 million. The general partner reserves the right to waive this requirement in its discretion.

In the case of the Venture IV Employee Fund, interests have been offered and sold to investors who are “accredited investors” as defined in Regulation D of the Securities Act and in accordance with the requirements of an exemptive order under the Investment Company Act received by Morgan Stanley from the United States Securities and Exchange Commission in April 2000.

For the 2002 Fund

Generally, 2002 Fund investors must invest a minimum of 50% of their capital commitment to the MSDW Venture Partners IV, Inc. Fund, which the Adviser also manages. The general partner reserves the right to waive this requirement in its discretion.

In the case of the 2002 Employee Fund, interests have been offered and sold to investors who are “accredited investors” as defined in Regulation D of the Securities Act and in accordance with the requirements of an exemptive order under the Investment Company Act received by Morgan Stanley from the United States Securities and Exchange Commission in April 2000.

Item 8– Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Investment Strategies and Methods of Analysis

The Funds investment periods have terminated. The Funds' investment objective is to achieve attractive risk-adjusted returns primarily through investing in equity, equity-related and similar securities (including debt or other securities with equity like returns or an equity component) acquired in privately negotiated transactions. The Funds have from time to time made investments in portfolio companies indirectly by investing through partnerships (or other investment vehicles). The Funds generally have focused on investment opportunities where they can acquire a significant minority ownership position. The Funds have been permitted to make investments in debt or publicly-traded securities, and assets or instruments related to the foregoing. For the Venture IV Partnerships, for certain investments such as leveraged buyouts, the Venture IV Partnerships may acquire a majority ownership position.

The Adviser's main sources of information and investment opportunities have been contacts with employees of Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley's network of clients, executives, partners and other industry participants.

From time to time the Adviser may cause the Fund to invest cash held by the Fund in temporary investments or to employ hedging techniques to reduce the risk of adverse interest rate, currency, credit or security movements on investments.

Risk of Loss - Certain Risks Related to Investment Strategy

Investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear. The Adviser cannot provide assurance that they will be able to generate any level of returns for investors. Our investment strategy entails a high degree of risk and is suitable only for sophisticated investors who fully understand and are capable of bearing the risks of an investment in the relevant Fund.

The following list of risk factors does not purport to be a complete list or explanation of the risks involved in an investment in the Fund. The risks summarized below are described in greater detail in the relevant private placement memoranda for the Funds. In addition, there are other risks (in addition to risks related to our investment strategy) associated with investing in the Fund, which are described in the relevant private placement memorandum. You may also request an updated explanation of risk factors by contacting Morgan Stanley Merchant Banking Investor Services as described above.

- Inability to Meet Investment Objective or Execute Investment Strategy
- Potential loss of invested capital;
- Reliance on expertise of Morgan Stanley investment professionals;
- Highly competitive markets and prevailing regulatory or political climates;
- Illiquidity of investments;

- Little or no current return on investments prior to their disposition;
 - Significant degree of financial and/or business risk;
 - Lack of diversification;
 - Volatility of the global fixed income and equity markets;
 - Lack of protection by financial covenants in debt investments;
 - Leverage at the level of the Fund and/or portfolio companies;
 - Adverse political developments and regulation in foreign countries;
 - Potential inability to protect the value of minority equity investments;
 - Reliance on portfolio company management;
 - Exposure to portfolio company and related party claims;
 - Potential liabilities related to portfolio company restructurings;
 - Use of hedging techniques;
 - Changes in general economic conditions and global economic and political events;
 - Potential liquidating distributions of restricted or otherwise illiquid securities to investors;
 - Limitations on transfer and withdrawal;
 - Risks associated with making venture capital investments, non-U.S. investments and minority investments;
 - Risks associated with the realization and disposition of investments;
 - Risks associated with required regulatory clearance and approval for healthcare investments;
 - Catastrophic and other force majeure events; and
 - Legal and regulatory risks, including: investment restrictions related to the Fund's operation as a VCOC within the meaning of ERISA and burdensome regulation by one or more governmental entities in specific industries.

The general partners of the relevant Funds and the Adviser also may face conflicts of interest in connection with managing the relevant Funds. See Item 10 – Other Financial and Industry Activities.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

The Adviser has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Introduction

As a diversified global financial services firm, Morgan Stanley engages in a broad spectrum of activities including financial advisory services, investment management activities, lending, commercial banking, sponsoring and managing private investment funds, engaging in broker-dealer transactions and principal securities, commodities and foreign exchange transactions, research publication and other activities. Investors should be aware that potential and actual conflicts of interest between Morgan Stanley or any Affiliated Investment Account (as defined below), on the one hand, and the Funds, on the other hand, may exist and others may arise in connection with the operation of the Funds. Morgan Stanley's employees may also have interests separate from those of Morgan Stanley and the Funds. The discussion below enumerates certain actual, apparent and potential conflicts of interest. The Adviser can give no assurance that conflicts of interest will be resolved in favor of the Funds' investors, and, in fact, they may not be.

The following discussion enumerates certain potential conflicts of interest, which should be carefully evaluated before making an investment in the Funds.

Broker-Dealer Registration

Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC is a registered broker-dealer. Certain of the Adviser's management persons are registered representatives of Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC, where it is necessary or appropriate to perform their responsibilities.

Other Material Relationships with Affiliated Entities

- Broker-Dealer, Municipal Securities Dealer, Government Securities Dealer or Broker

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Adviser, Funds or its portfolio companies may use the securities, futures execution, underwriting or other services offered by Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC or other affiliates. Please see Item 12 for more information about the Adviser's practices concerning using a Morgan Stanley affiliate as a broker.

- Other Advisory Affiliates

The Adviser is part of a group of investment advisers within the Morgan Stanley Investment Management business, including Morgan Stanley Investment Management Inc, Morgan Stanley Investment Management Limited, Morgan Stanley AIP GP LP, Morgan Stanley Asset Management Private Limited, Morgan Stanley Real Estate Advisor, Inc., MSDW Real Estate Special Situations II Manager LLC, Morgan Stanley Infrastructure Partners Inc., Morgan Stanley Private Equity Asia, Inc., MSREF III, Inc., MSREF IV, L.L.C., MSREF V, L.L.C., MSREF Real Estate Advisor, Inc., and MSRESS III Manager, L.L.C.

The Adviser, in its discretion, may delegate all or a portion of its advisory or other functions to any affiliate that is registered with the SEC as an investment adviser and may receive a variety of services from such affiliates, including gathering information about potential investment opportunities, financial advice and assistance in connection with the making, monitoring and disposing of investments and securities underwriting and brokerage services in connection with the sale of investments. The Adviser shares certain officers and directors with related investment advisers that also manage affiliated private equity funds.

To the extent that the Adviser delegates its advisory or other functions to such investment advisers, a copy of the brochure of each such affiliate is available on the SEC's website and will be provided to investors in the Funds upon request.

- Affiliates Acting as Fundraising Broker-Dealers

Broker-dealers that are affiliates of Morgan Stanley may act as placement agents (the "Placement Agents") to assist in the placement of interests to certain Limited Partners (such as Limited Partners, the "Solicited Partners"). The potential for the Placement Agents to receive compensation in connection with a Solicited Partner's investment in the Funds presents a potential conflict of interest in recommending that such Solicited Partner purchase Interests.

The prospect of receiving, or the receipt of, additional compensation by the Placement Agents may provide such Placement Agents and their salespersons with an incentive to favor sales of Interests and interests in funds whose affiliates make similar compensation available over sales of interests in funds (or other fund investments) with respect to which the Placement Agent does not receive additional compensation, or receives lower levels of additional compensation. Prospective investors should take such payment arrangements into account when considering and evaluating any recommendations related to the Interests. Morgan Stanley employees involved in the marketing and placement of the Interests are not acting as tax, financial, legal or accounting advisors to potential investors in connection with the offering of the Interests. Potential investors must independently evaluate the offering and make their own investment decisions.

The Adviser and the Funds may use registered representatives and/or employees of its affiliates to conduct solicitation activities in relation to new or oncoming limited partners to the Funds or act as placement agents

- Affiliates Acting as Investment Bankers

In the ordinary course of its business, Morgan Stanley performs full-service investment banking and financial services and therefore engages in activities where Morgan Stanley's interests or the interests of its clients may conflict with the interests of the investors, notwithstanding Morgan Stanley's direct or indirect participation in the investments of the Funds.

From time to time, Morgan Stanley's investment banking professionals may introduce to one or more of the Funds a client that requires equity to complete an acquisition transaction. If the relevant Fund pursues the resulting investment, Morgan Stanley could have a conflict in its representation of the client over the price and terms of the Funds' investment.

Morgan Stanley has long-term relationships with a significant number of institutions and corporations and their advisors. In determining whether to pursue a particular transaction on behalf of the Funds, these relationships will be considered by Morgan Stanley and there may be certain potential transactions that will or will not be pursued on behalf of the Funds in view of such relationships

In addition, Morgan Stanley could provide investment banking services to competitors of companies in which the Funds invest, in which case it will take appropriate steps to safeguard the confidential information of each client. Morgan Stanley is under no obligation to share and may not share any such information with the Funds or the Adviser. Such activities may present Morgan Stanley with a conflict of interest vis-à-vis the Funds' portfolio entities and may also result in a conflict with respect to the allocation of investment banking resources to portfolio entities.

- Other Limited Partnership Investment Vehicles or Funds

- General; Carried Interests

The Adviser is the manager of the Funds and serves as the managing member of the Funds. The Adviser and/or certain related persons have and may continue to organize other partnerships and serve as the manager, general partner, or the managing member or general partner of the general partner, to these partnerships. In organizing these partnerships, the Adviser or a related person may be deemed to have been or to be soliciting investors.

The relevant general partner's carried interest may create an incentive for such general partner to make more speculative investments for the relevant Fund than it would otherwise make in the absence of such performance-based distributions. Furthermore, investments made with third parties in joint ventures or other entities may involve carried interests and/or other fees payable to such third party partners or co-investors, which could also create an incentive for such parties to take risks with respect to such investments. In addition, the method of calculating the carried interest may result in conflicts of interest between a the relevant general partner, on the one hand, and the investors, on the other hand, with respect to the management and disposition of investments. For example, the relevant general partner will value any securities being distributed in-kind to investors in order to calculate the carried interest. If the valuations conducted by the relevant general partner are incorrect, the amount of payment of carried interest could be incorrect.

- Morgan Stanley Investments and Affiliated Investment Accounts

Morgan Stanley may advise clients and has sponsored, managed or advised other alternative investment funds and investment programs, accounts and businesses (collectively, together with any new or successor funds, programs, accounts or businesses, the "Affiliated Investment Accounts") that have or will have active investment programs that are substantially similar to those of the Funds. Morgan Stanley may also from time to time create new or successor Affiliated Investment Accounts that may compete with the Funds and may present similar conflicts of interest. Certain members of the Funds' investment team and the investment committee may make investment decisions on behalf of both Morgan Stanley and such Affiliated Investment Accounts, including Affiliated Investment Accounts with investment objectives that overlap with those of the Funds. In addition, certain Affiliated Investment Accounts may make investments similar to those that may be made by the Funds even if they are not solely focused on such investments.

Morgan Stanley related persons (including Morgan Stanley's trading and principal investing businesses) will have no obligation to offer to the Funds investment opportunities that are excluded from any otherwise existing contractual obligation. In such situations, a Morgan Stanley related person may pursue and make the investment for its own account. When deciding how to allocate such opportunities, Morgan Stanley will exercise its discretion and may consider its own financial interests or the interests of other clients or affiliates of Morgan Stanley ahead of those of the Funds.

In some cases, Morgan Stanley or an Affiliated Investment Account may invite one or more of the Funds to co-invest with it or a Fund's relevant general partner may invite Morgan Stanley or an Affiliated Investment Account to co-invest with one or more of the Funds, in either the same or different tiers of a portfolio entity's capital structure or in an affiliate of such portfolio entity. To the extent the relevant Fund holds investments in the same portfolio entity or in an affiliate thereof that are different (including with respect to their relative seniority) than those held by Morgan Stanley or an Affiliated Investment Account, the Adviser and Morgan Stanley may be presented with decisions when the interests of the two co-investors are in conflict.

- Management Persons

Officers and employees supporting the Adviser may also serve as directors of certain portfolio companies and, in that capacity, will be required to make decisions that they consider to be in the best interest of the portfolio company, which in certain circumstances may not be in the best interests of the Funds. Companies with which one or more members of the investment team or other employees of Morgan Stanley are involved may also engage in transactions that would be suitable for the Funds, but in which the Funds might be unable to invest. Accordingly, in these situations, there may be conflicts of interests between such person's duties as an officer or employee of the Adviser and such person's duties as a director of the portfolio company.

Certain of the Adviser's management persons may also hold positions with the affiliates listed above. In these positions, those management persons of the Adviser may have some responsibility with respect to the business of these affiliates and the compensation of these management persons may be based, in part, upon the profitability of other affiliates. Consequently, in carrying out their roles with the Adviser or the Funds and these other entities, the management persons of the Adviser may be subject to the same or similar conflicts of interest that exist between the Adviser and these affiliates.

Conflict Identification and Mitigation

Morgan Stanley and the Adviser have established procedures intended to identify and mitigate conflicts of interest related to business activities on a worldwide basis. A conflict management officer for each business unit and/or region acts as a focal point to identify and address potential conflicts of interest in their business area. When appropriate, there is an escalation process to senior management within the business unit, and ultimately if necessary to firm management or the firm's franchise committees, for potentially significant conflicts that cannot be resolved by the conflict management officers or that otherwise require senior management review. In addition, the Adviser addresses conflicts through disclosure to its investors and should any transactions that present a potential conflict of interest actually arise, the Adviser may in certain situations choose to notify and/or seek the approval of the investors, limited partners and/or advisory committee for the respective fund with respect to conflicts of interest or approvals required under the Advisers Act, including Section 206(3) and/or the relevant partnership agreement. The Adviser may also choose to seek the approval of Limited Partners of the applicable Funds with respect to certain conflict situations or matters under the Advisers ActItem

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

The Adviser has adopted a Code of Ethics (the “Code”) pursuant to Rule 204A-1 under the Advisers Act, applicable to persons persons who are supervised by the Adviser or support the Adviser in providing investment advice to the Fund or their general partners or, and who have access to nonpublic information regarding the purchase or sale of securities, or who make securities recommendations to the Funds or their general partners, or who have access to such recommendations that are nonpublic. (“Access Persons”). Each Access Person is required to acknowledge the Code at the inception of his/her employment and annually thereafter. The Code is designed to make certain that all acts, practices and courses of business engaged in by Access Persons are conducted in accordance with the highest possible standards and to prevent abuse, or even the appearance of abuse, by Access Persons with respect to their personal trading and other business activities.

The Code addresses the personal trading and investment activities of Access Persons, as more fully described below. In addition, the Code addresses standards of business conduct and fiduciary duties expected of Access Persons, including confidentiality obligations and restrictions on outside business activities and other conflicts of interest.

Violations of the Code are subject to sanction, including reprimand, demotion, suspension or termination of employment.

Copies of the Code are available upon request from the Adviser.

Personal Trading and Investments

The Code refers to a number of policies governing the securities trading and investing activities of employees for their own accounts. Such policies require all Access Persons to pre-clear trades for covered securities, as defined under the policies, in a personal account. A pre-clearance request will be denied if such securities are under consideration for investment, or have been acquired by, a client of the Adviser, or if the Adviser is in receipt of material non-public information of the company or if another conflict exists. Such policies also impose holding periods and reporting requirements for covered securities. In addition, investments in private placements or an employee’s participation in an outside business activity must be pre-approved by the employee’s designated manager and the Chief Compliance Officer.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

We recommend that current or prospective investors invest in our Funds. Prior to subscribing for interests in a Fund, investors receive information relating to potential conflicts of interest between the activities of the Fund and the business activities of the Adviser, and its affiliates, or clients that may have a financial interest in the securities in which the Fund invests.

On rare occasions, a fund may sell a security or asset which another fund, or an affiliate of the Adviser, wants to own. On these occasions, after extensive Firm and legal and compliance review and documentation, a sale of the security or asset from one fund to another will be permitted.

The Adviser may purchase and sell public and private investments and co-invest the assets of the clients alongside other funds and accounts managed by the Adviser or its affiliates in compliance with the requirements and conditions of rules, regulations, orders, or interpretations of the SEC, or no-action letters of the SEC Staff, and in accordance with fund and client account governing documents. The Adviser has adopted an Allocation Policy and Procedures in order to ensure that each client is treated in a fair and equitable manner. The following factors will be considered, as appropriate, in connection with allocation decisions:

- Rights of first offer in favor of a client
- Investment guidelines, goals or restrictions of the client
- Capacity of the client
- Existing allocation to similar strategies and the diversification objectives of the client
- Tax, legal or regulatory considerations
- With respect to co-investment allocations, whether the co-investor can provide value add to the operations of the business or provide future opportunities to the business of the client
- Other relevant business considerations

Please refer to Item 10 for a description of other financial industry activities and affiliations of Morgan Stanley, and a discussion of the material conflicts relating thereto.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

Due to the nature of the investments the Funds make, broker-dealers are not generally used for transactions. However, when executing transactions on behalf of the Fund through a broker, dealer or underwriter, the Adviser's objective will be to obtain "best execution" (that is, the most favorable price and execution). The Adviser's effort to obtain best execution on any individual transaction depends substantially on its judgment, knowledge and experience in evaluating the counterparties', advisers' and service providers' ("Counterparties") reliability and capability based on previous and pending transactions effected by the broker-dealer for client accounts. Some of the factors considered by the Adviser in selecting a Counterparty include, among other things, execution quality and capabilities, including with regard to market making, commissions charged by and gross compensation paid to such Counterparty, and special knowledge of the Adviser's client's markets.

The Adviser will only consider engaging in a principal or cross transaction with Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC or its affiliates on behalf of a fund or client to the extent permitted by applicable law.

A broker-dealer (including a Morgan Stanley affiliate) may act as agent for one or more clients in selling publicly traded securities simultaneously. In such a situation, transactions may, but are not required to, be bundled and clients will receive proceeds from sales based on average prices received, which may be lower than the price which could have been received had each client sold its securities separately from such broker-dealer's other clients.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

The General Partners' investment committee reviews and approves all significant investment decisions. The members of the General Partners' investment committee are identified in the Supplements to the Adviser's Brochure in Form ADV Part 2B.

The investments made by the Funds are generally private, illiquid and long-term in nature. Accordingly, the review process is not directed toward a short term decision to dispose of securities. However, the Adviser's portfolio management staff closely monitors companies and assets in which the Funds invests and generally maintains an ongoing oversight position in such companies and assets (including, where relevant, representation on the board of directors of such companies). Reviews occur on a quarterly, and in some cases, monthly basis.

The Adviser provides quarterly unaudited reports and annual audited reports to the limited partners of the Funds managed by the Adviser, which include, among other things, financial statements.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

The Adviser may from time to time compensate certain of its employees, its affiliates' employees or any other placement agents in return for referrals of limited partners that have not previously invested in a fund managed by the Adviser. Any additional compensation paid specifically for such referrals will meet the requirements of Rule 206(4)-3 under the Advisers Act if applicable.

Item 15 – Custody

The Adviser is deemed to have custody of the Funds' cash and securities by virtue of its relationship with the General Partners of the Funds. Each limited lartner of a Fund receives the Fund's audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles within 120 days of the end of the Fund's fiscal year.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

As the manager of the Funds, the Adviser will have discretion to recommend to the General Partners, without consent of the Funds' investors, the particular securities to be bought and sold, the broker or dealer (including a Morgan Stanley affiliate) to be used (if any) and the commission rates to be paid by the Fund in cases where a broker or dealer is used. The Adviser will provide investment advice to the Funds, subject to certain investment limitations regarding diversification and type of permitted investments as set forth in the applicable partnership agreements. When executing transactions on behalf of the Funds through a broker, dealer or underwriter, the Adviser's objective will be to obtain the most favorable commission and the best price available on each transaction in light of the quality of execution provided. Consequently, brokers, dealers and underwriters are selected primarily on the basis of their execution, capability and trading expertise.

Adviser generally receives discretionary authority from a fund at the outset of an advisory relationship to select the identity and amount of securities to be bought or sold. Such authority is provided in Adviser's advisory contract with each fund and/or under the terms of the operating agreement of each fund. In all cases, however, such discretion is to be exercised in a manner consistent with the stated investment objectives for the particular fund. When selecting securities and determining amounts, Adviser observes the investment policies, limitations and restrictions of the relevant fund.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Where the Adviser has accepted authority to vote proxies on behalf of a client, the Adviser will vote proxies in accordance with its policies and procedures in place for voting of proxies (the “Proxy Voting Policy”), which are designed to ensure compliance with Rule 206(4)-6 of the Advisers Act. Copies of the Proxy Voting Policy are available upon request from the Adviser. Under the Proxy Voting Policy the Adviser will vote proxies on behalf of the clients based on a determination of the best interest of the clients, consistent with the objective of maximizing long term investment returns for the clients.

In many situations, a client is a party to a stockholder or a similar agreement. These agreements are entered into in the best interests of the clients, and may require the Adviser to vote the other investors’ nominees to a board of directors or similar body, or require a vote in favor of a particular transaction. If this is the case, the Adviser will comply with the applicable clients’ contractual obligations.

Where no contract requires a client to vote for a specific outcome, the Proxy Voting Policy is designed to be responsive to the wide range of issues that may be subject to proxy vote, but is not exhaustive due to the variety of proxy voting issues that the Adviser may be required to consider.

The clients generally make a limited number of direct investments in portfolio companies that will become or are public. As a result, the Adviser will generally cast proxy votes on behalf of the clients with respect to a limited number of public portfolio companies.

The Adviser reserves the right to depart from the Proxy Voting Policy in order to avoid voting decisions that it believes may be contrary to the clients’ best interests. In addition, the Adviser may also abstain from voting if, based on factors such as expense or difficulty of exercise, it determines that the client’s interests are better served by an abstention.

The Adviser may be subject to conflicts of interest in the voting of proxies. A potential conflict of interest may occur where an adviser or any of its affiliates or their respective employees has a direct or indirect economic stake in the outcome of a proxy vote that is different from a client’s stake. When such a potential conflict arises between an Adviser and any of its affiliates or their respective employees on the one hand and one or more of the clients on the other, the matter is evaluated to determine whether an actual conflict exists. Where an actual conflict exists, the Adviser will take necessary and appropriate steps to address the conflict.

Item 18 – Financial Information

Registered investment advisers are required in this Item to provide you with certain financial information or disclosure about the Adviser’s financial condition. The Adviser is not aware of any financial condition that impairs its ability to meet contractual and fiduciary commitments to clients, and has not been the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding.
