Item 2: Educational Background and Business Experience

Name: Justin George Sautter

Born: 1972

Education Background and Professional Designations:

Education:

Justin George Sautter attended Colgate University; his field of study was Economics and International Relations and graduated in 1996 with a BA.

Designations:

CPWA® - Certified Private Wealth Advisor

- The Certified Private Wealth AdvisorSM designation program is an advanced credential created specifically for wealth managers and advisors who work with high-net-worth clients on the life cycle of wealth: accumulation, preservation, and distribution. Candidates who earn this designation learn to identify and analyze challenges facing high-net-worth clients and learn to develop specific strategies to minimize taxes, monetize and protect assets, maximize growth, and transfer wealth.
- In keeping with IMCA's history of working only with prestigious business schools, the CPWA designation is offered in conjunction with The University of Chicago Booth School of Business.
- As the premier credential in this arena, the CPWA designation program offers a challenging educational program focused on advanced wealth management topics, including: behavioral finance, charitable and estate planning, planning for closely held business owners, planning for executives, portfolio management, retirement planning, risk management, and tax planning.
