Kenneth Palmer Applegate, CFA, CMT

Item 2: Educational Background and Business Experience

Kenneth Palmer Applegate was born in 1971 in Dallas, Texas. He completed his Bachelor of Management Studies from The University of Waikato in 1994. Mr. Applegate has been designated a Chartered Financial Analyst by the CFA Institute and a Chartered Market Technician by the Market Technicians Association.

Mr. Applegate has focused exclusively on small cap investing throughout his 18 year investment career. In 2012, Mr. Applegate helped launch Pacific View Asset Management. He is the Senior Portfolio Manager for the firm's International and Global Small Cap Strategies and co-head of the firm's Small-Cap investment team.

Mr. Applegate's investment career began in 1994 in London where he served initially as a financial analyst and later as a co-manager of a foreign exchange hedge portfolio for Refco, Inc. In 1996, Mr. Applegate moved to the United States where he spent 11 years specializing in global small cap investing. He started in 1996 at RCM Global Investors in San Francisco as an Analyst and, ultimately, Assistant Portfolio Manager for both a U.S. and a global small cap growth fund.

In 2001, Mr. Applegate joined Berkeley Capital Management (formerly CapitalWorks Investment Partners), where he was the Lead Portfolio Manager of the Harlingwood Capital Management Small Cap Growth fund. In 2007, Mr. Applegate left the United States for New Zealand where he joined Fisher Funds as Senior Portfolio Manager and was integral in launching and managing their international funds.

The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is a globally recognized, graduate-level investment credential awarded by the CFA Institute. Among other requirements, candidates must have at least four years of qualified investment work experience, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute's Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, and complete the CFA Program, which typically takes between two and five years and requires passing exams at three separate levels.

In order to be granted the Chartered Market Technician (CMT) designation, candidates must successfully complete three levels of examinations, obtain "member status" in the Market Technicians Association, and have been gainfully employed in a professional analytical or investment management capacity for a minimum period of three years, including at the time of successfully passing all three levels of examinations.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

Mr. Applegate has no legal or disciplinary events to report that would be material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of him.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Applegate is not engaged in business activities that present a conflict of interest with any of Pacific View Asset Management's clients. Mr. Applegate does not spend a substantial amount of time on, or receive a substantial compensation for, any outside business activities.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Applegate does not receive economic benefits from any non-client for performing advisory services.

Item 6: Supervision

Mr. Applegate, as Senior Portfolio Manager and co-head of Pacific View Asset Management's Small Cap investment team, is, together with Scott Brown, responsible for all investment advice and activities of the Small Cap investment team. He is subject to Pacific View Asset Management's Compliance Manual, Code of Ethics and other policies and procedures intended to cause Pacific View Asset Management to discharge its duties to clients consistently with its investment management agreements and applicable regulations and otherwise to comply with applicable laws and regulations. As to those matters, Mr. Applegate is supervised by Steven Druskin, the Chief Operating Officer and Chief Compliance Officer of Pacific View Asset Management. Mr. Druskin can be contacted at (415) 318-5805.

Item 7: Requirements for State-Registered Investment Advisers

In addition to the events required to be listed in "Item 3: Disciplinary Information" of this brochure supplement (above), state-registered investment advisers are required to disclose if a representative has been involved in any of a list of specified events, such as being found liable in certain enumerated arbitration claims, being found civilly liable in certain enumerated civil or administrative proceedings, or being the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
