Item 3                      Disciplinary Information

Information regarding the following categories of legal or disciplinary events, as pertinent to the supervised person:

A.                      There have been no criminal or civil actions in a domestic, foreign, or military court of competent jurisdiction in which the supervised person: (1) was convicted of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere (“no contest”) to (a) any felony; (b) a misdemeanor that involved investments or an investment-related business, fraud, false statements or omissions, wrongful taking of property, bribery, perjury, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion; or (c) a conspiracy to commit any of these offenses; (2) is the named subject of a pending criminal proceeding that involves an investment-related business, fraud, false statements or omissions, wrongful taking of property, bribery, perjury, forgery, counterfeiting, extortion or a conspiracy to commit any of these offenses; (3) was found to have been involved in a violation of an investment-related statute or regulation; or (4) was the subject of any order, judgment, or decree permanently or temporarily enjoining, or otherwise limiting, our firm or a management person from engaging in any investment-related activity, or from violating any investment-related statute, rule or order.

There have been no administrative proceedings before the SEC, any other federal regulatory agency, any state regulatory agency or any foreign regulatory authority in which the supervised person: (1) was found to have caused an investment-related business to lose its authorization to do business; or (2) was found to have been involved in a violation of an investment-related statute or regulation and was the subject of an order by the agency or authority

- denying, suspending, or revoking the authorization of the supervised person to act in an investment-related business;
- barring or suspending the supervised person’s association with an investment-related business;

- otherwise significantly limiting the supervised person's investment-related activities; or
- imposing a civil money penalty of more than $2,500 on the supervised person.

C. There have been no self-regulatory organization (SRO) proceedings in which the supervised person: (1) was found to have caused an investment-related business to lose its authorization to do business; or (2) was found to have been involved in a violation of the SRO's rules and was (a) barred or suspended from membership or from association with other members, or was expelled from membership; (b) otherwise significantly limited from investment-related activities; or (c) fined more than $2,500.

D. There have been no other proceedings in which: (1) a professional attainment, designation, or license of the supervised person was revoked or suspended because of a violation of rules relating to professional conduct; or (2) the supervised person resigned (or otherwise relinquished his attainment, designation, or license) in anticipation of such a proceeding (and the adviser knows, or should have known, of such resignation or relinquishment).

E. The supervised person has not been involved in a legal or disciplinary event that is not listed in items 3.A, 3.B, 3.C or 3.D but nonetheless is material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of the supervised person's integrity.
