C. Professional Designations

CPA (Certified Public Accountant)

CPAs are the only licensed accounting professionals. CPA licenses are issued by state boards of accountancy in the 55 jurisdiction. In Maryland, the license is overseen by the Maryland Board of Public Accountancy. Educational requirements in Maryland to obtain the license are 120 undergraduate semester hours or 180 undergraduate quarter hours including the attainment of a baccalaureate or higher degree from an accredited institution of higher education as specified in the Maryland Public Accountancy Act. Specific subject matter must be covered within those hours. A full list of subject matter requirements may be obtained at the website for the Maryland Department of Labor Licensing and Regulation (<http://www.dllr.state.md.us/license/cpa/cpareq.shtml#cir>). The Uniform CPA Examination consists of four sections: Auditing and Attestation (AUD), Business Environment and Concepts (BEC), Financial Accounting and Reporting (FAR), and Regulation (REG). These four sections represent a total of 14 hours of testing. All sections of the examination must be passed within 18 months of each other to successfully complete the entire examination. In addition, there is a biennial continuing education requirement.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events against Jullie Caniford.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Jullie Caniford operates outside of Sentinel Capital Solutions, Inc. as a CPA. Tax planning and preparation services may be rendered to individuals or institutions that are also advisory clients. Ms. Caniford and Sentinel believe that in such circumstances, the client serves to benefit from the arrangement. Clients are made aware that any CPA services are provided outside of their relationship with Sentinel, and that any fees charged will be billed and collected separately by Ms. Caniford. Ms. Caniford does not have the ability to bill client accounts at Sentinel; billing is handled solely by Cort Meinelschmidt.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

The Advisor does not receive additional compensation via bonuses, sales awards, or other prizes in addition to the management fees for advisory services other than any tax planning or wealth management fees as described in Item 4 above.

Item 6 – Supervision

Supervision of Jullie A. Caniford and the monitoring of advice she provides to clients are overseen by Cort Meinelschmidt, the CCO of Sentinel in accordance with the Policies and Procedures of Sentinel Capital Solutions, including its Compliance Program. All of these policies are designed to assist in meeting regulatory and fiduciary requirements for the benefit of clients.
