Item 4 - ADVISORY BUSINESS

Alpha Omega Group, Inc. dba AOG Wealth Management (hereinafter referred to as “AOG”) is an investment advisory firm offering a variety of advisory services customized to your individual needs.

- A. AOG was established in May 2000 and filed for investment adviser registration in 2011. AOG is owned equally by Frederick P. Baerenz, President, and Sheila C. Baerenz, Vice President.
- B. AOG offers the following advisory services. Each of the services is more fully described below.
 - Asset Management Program referred to as the AOG Wealth Management Program
 - Financial Planning

AOG Wealth Management Program

Upon AOG completing its analysis of your existing portfolio and goals, AOG will determine an asset allocation customized to your financial goals, objectives and risk tolerance.

AOG will meet with you and present the recommended portfolio allocation. Upon your approval, AOG will implement the portfolio allocation. AOG will provide continuous and ongoing management of your account. Unless otherwise expressly requested by you, AOG will manage the account on a discretionary basis and make changes to the allocation as deemed appropriate by AOG. AOG will determine the securities to be purchased and sold in the account and will alter the securities holdings from time to time, without prior consultation. AOG may actively trade securities and hold such holdings for periods of 30 days or less or maintain positions for longer or shorter term periods. Discretionary authority will be granted by you to AOG by execution of the Asset Management agreement.

If you elect to have your accounts managed on a nondiscretionary basis, no changes will be made to the allocation of your account without prior consultation with you and your expressed agreement. However, AOG will periodically rebalance your account to maintain the initially agreed upon asset allocation. AOG does not deem rebalancing as a form of discretion.

AOG uses a modified endowment model portfolio allocation. Portfolios will be allocated across several asset classes and using several different investment vehicles. Portfolios will follow a model similar to the following and will be adjusted for each client based on the individual's goals, objectives and risk tolerance. Additionally, portfolios will be adjusted based on the economic environment at the time of investment.

The endowment model seeks higher investment returns over long periods of time on a more consistent basis by allocating to public and non-public, relatively illiquid markets. Typically fixed income allocations are minimized in favor of market neutral income options. In addition, long-only equity allocations are supplemented with private equity, venture capital and real asset investments.

Transactions in the account, account reallocations and rebalancing may trigger a taxable event, with the exception of IRA accounts, 403(b) accounts, 401(k) accounts, and other qualified retirement accounts.

Financial Planning Services

AOG assist you in working toward your financial goals.

Plans are based on your financial situation at the time and on financial information disclosed by you to AOG. Certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates and use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. However, past performance is in no way an indication of future performance. AOG cannot offer any guarantees or promises that your financial goals and objectives will be met. Further, you must continue to review the plan and update the plan based upon changes in your financial situation, goals, or objectives or changes in the economy. If your financial situation or investment goals or objectives change, you must notify AOG promptly of the changes. You are advised that the advice offered by AOG may be limited and is not meant to be comprehensive. Therefore, you may need to seek the services of other professionals such as an insurance adviser, attorney and/or accountant.

You are not obligated to implement advice through AOG or their Advisory Representatives. If you implement the plan with AOG's Advisory Representatives commissions or other compensation may be received in addition to the advisory fee paid to AOG.

General Information

The investment recommendations and advice offered by AOG are not legal advice or accounting advice. You should coordinate and discuss the impact of financial advice with your attorney and/or accountant. You are advised that it is necessary to inform AOG promptly with respect to any changes in your financial situation and investment goals and objectives. Failure to notify AOG of any such changes could result in investment recommendations that do not completely address your needs.

- C. AOG tailors the advisory services it offers to your individual needs. You may impose restrictions and/or limitations on the investing in certain securities or types of securities.

AOG will meet with you and conduct an interview and data gathering session to compile information about you, your financial goals and objectives, and your financial concerns. You should expect at least two to three meetings during the due diligence, data gathering and analysis process. The information gathered by AOG will enable your advisors to provide you with the requested services that are customized to your financial situation. Depending on the services you have requested, AOG will gather various financial information and history from you including, but not limited to:

- Retirement and financial goals
- Investment objectives
- Investment horizon
- Investment Experience
- Financial needs
- Cash flow analysis
- Income Protection
- Cost of living needs
- Education-funding needs
- Saving tendencies
- Other applicable financial information required by AOG in order to provide the investment advisory services requested.

- D. AOG does not offer a wrap fee program. Clients will pay AOG an advisory fee as further described in Item 5 below and pay transaction charges to the broker/dealer through which transactions are executed.
- E. As of March 27, 2014, we have approximately $68,000,000 of client assets under our discretionary management and approximately $61,300,000 of non-discretionary client assets under management.

Item 5 - FEES AND COMPENSATION

AOG Wealth Management Program

- A. Fees are negotiable and are not based on a share of capital gains upon or capital appreciation of the funds or any portion of the funds.

Additional assets deposited into the Account after it is opened will not be charged a pro-rata fee based upon the number of days remaining in the then current calendar month. Similarly, partial withdrawals from the account will not result in a prorated portion of the fee being calculated on the withdrawal. No fee adjustments will be made for Account appreciation or depreciation.

Account Size	Annual Fee
First $1,000,000	1.25%
Next $4,000,000	1.00%
$5,000,000 and above	0.80%

AOG aggregates or households all of your managed accounts together to determine your quarterly fee.

For example, if you have four managed accounts with a value as of the just completed calendar month of: $1,001,569.40, $550,498.46, $675,879.50, and $740,301.12 with a total value of $2,968,248.48, fees will be calculated as follows.

First $1,000,000 x 1.25%	$12,500.00
Next 1,968,248.48 x 1%	$19,682.48
Annual Fee	$32,182.48 / 365 x number of days in the month = Monthly Fee

AOG may change the above fee schedule upon 30-days prior written notice to you.

- B. Advisory fees will generally be collected directly from your account, provided you have given AOG written authorization. You will be provided with an account statement reflecting the deduction of the advisory fee direct from the account custodian. If the Account does not contain sufficient funds to pay advisory fees, AOG has limited authority to sell or redeem securities in sufficient amounts to pay advisory fees. You may reimburse the account for advisory fees paid to AOG, except for ERISA and IRA accounts.
- C. In addition to the advisory fees above, you will pay for transaction charges on each transaction conducted in the managed account, custodial services, account maintenance fees, and other fees associated with maintaining the Account. Such fees are not charged by AOG and are charged by the product, broker/dealer or account custodian. AOG does not share in any portion of such fees. Additionally, you may pay your proportionate share of the fund's management and administrative fees and sales charges as well as the mutual fund adviser's fee of any mutual fund they purchase. Such advisory fees are not shared with AOG and are compensation to the fund-manager.

- D. Advisory fees are charged in arrears of each calendar month. The monthly advisory fee will be based on the value of the Account on the last business day of the just completed calendar month. Fees for partial periods will be prorated. The initial monthly fee will be a pro-rated portion of the fee based on the number of days remaining in the calendar month.
- E. You are advised Advisory Representatives of AOG are dually registered representatives of Kalos Capital, Inc. (“Kalos Capital”), a registered broker/dealer, member of the Financial Regulatory Association (FINRA) and SIPC. Advisory Representatives of AOG who are Registered Representatives may receive trail commissions (i.e. 12b-1 fees) for a period of time as a result of directing securities transactions through Kalos Capital. Load and no-load mutual funds may pay annual distribution charges, sometimes referred to as 12b-1 fees. 12b-1 fees come from fund assets, therefore, indirectly from your assets. 12b-1 fees may be initially paid to Kalos Capital and a portion passed to the Advisory Representatives. The receipt of such fees could represent an incentive for the Advisory Representatives to recommend funds with 12b-1 fees over funds that have no fees or lower fees. As a result, there is a potential conflict of interest.

As stated above, AOG recommends mutual funds that pay 12b-1 fees and no-load funds.

You may purchase the securities recommended by AOG directly or through other brokers or agents not affiliated with AOG.

Termination Provisions

You may terminate investment advisory services obtained from AOG, without penalty, upon written notice within five (5) business days after entering into the advisory agreement with AOG. You will be responsible for any fees and charges incurred from third parties as a result of maintaining the Account such as transaction fees for any securities transactions executed and Account maintenance or custodial fees. Thereafter, you may terminate investment advisory services with 30-days written notice to AOG. Should you terminate investment advisory services during a calendar quarter, you will be charged a pro-rated portion of the advisory fee for the quarter up to the date of termination.

Financial Planning Services

You are advised that fees for planning services are strictly for planning services. Therefore, you may pay fees and/or commissions for additional services obtained such as asset management or products purchased such as securities or insurance.

Fees are negotiable. Your fees will be dependent on several factors including time spent with AOG, number of meetings, complexity of your situation, amount of research, services requested and staff resources.

Fee Type	Maximum Fee	Payable
Fixed Fee	$3,000	Payable one-half (1/2) upon execution of the advisory agreement with AOG and the balance due at the time of presentation of the plan, unless otherwise negotiated with you.

Hourly Fee	$300 per hour	An estimated quote will be provided prior to executing an agreement with AOG. One-half (1/2) of the estimated fee is due upon execution of the advisory agreement and the balance due at the time of presentation, unless otherwise negotiated.

Termination Provisions

You may terminate advisory services obtained from AOG, without penalty, upon written notice within five (5) business days after entering into the advisory agreement with AOG. Thereafter, you may terminate investment advisory services with 30-days written notice to AOG. You will be responsible for any time spent by AOG.

Item 6 - PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE BY SIDE MANAGEMENT

This section is not applicable to AOG since AOG does not charge performance based fees.

Item 7 - TYPES OF CLIENTS

AOG's services are focused on high net worth individuals (i.e. clients with a net worth of $2,000,000), high net worth corporations or other business.

Item 8 - METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

- A. AOG conducts economic analysis and attempts to analyze and determine macroeconomic trends. Additionally, AOG conducts fundamental and technical analysis. Fundamental analysis generally involves assessing a company's or security's value based on factors such as sales, assets, markets, management, products and services, earnings, and financial structure. Technical analysis generally involves studying trends and movements in a security's price, trading volume, and other market-related factors in an attempt to discern patterns.
- B. You are advised investing in securities involves risk of loss, including the potential loss of principal. Therefore, your participation in any of the management programs offered by AOG will require you to be prepared to bear the risk of loss and fluctuating performance.

AOG does not represent, warrant or imply that the services or methods of analysis used by AOG can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate you from losses due to major market corrections or crashes. Past performance is no indication of future performance. No guarantees can be offered that your goals or objectives will be achieved. Further, no promises or assumptions can be made that the advisory services offered by AOG will provide a better return than other investment strategies.

- C. As stated above under Item 4, AOG allocates managed portfolios across several different assets classes and investment vehicles. The following is a summary of the risks associated with the various investment vehicles used by AOG.

Some of the risks associated with the endowment model include:

- Tax Risk
- Liquidity Risk
- Market Risk
- Interest Rate Risk
- Credit Risk

The risks with mutual funds, variable annuities, and unit investment trusts include:

- Manager Risk: which is the risk that an actively managed mutual fund's investment adviser will fail to execute the fund's stated investment strategy.
- Market Risk: which is the risk that the Stock Market will decline, decreasing the value of the securities contained within the mutual funds we recommend to you.
- Industry Risk: which is the risk that a group of stocks in a single industry will decline in price due to adverse developments in that industry, decreasing the value of mutual funds that are significantly invested in that industry.
- Inflation Risk: which is the risk that the rate of price increases in the economy deteriorates the returns associated with the mutual fund.

ETFs trade on an auctionable market. Therefore, there is more price fluctuation with ETFs than with mutual funds since ETFs trade throughout the day, whereas mutual funds are priced once a day. Also, since most ETFs only mirror a market index, such as the S&P 500, they won't outperform the index.

Alternative Investments risks include:

- No readily available market for liquidation, therefore generally illiquid
- If a market is available, the market is a limited secondary market
- Difficulty in ascertaining an accurate value

The risks with stocks and bonds are that their prices fluctuate throughout the day. Stocks can drop in value and become worthless. The risks with bonds are interest rate, inflation and credit risk. Credit risk is the risk that the bond issuer will be unable to make its payments on time or at all, effectively defaulting on the bonds. The risks with stocks are market risk and company specific risk. The price of a stock can decline due to company-specific reasons as well as the health of the overall stock market. Even dividends, which many beginning investors believe are guaranteed payments by the company, can decline or be totally eliminated.

These are some of the primary risks associated with the way we recommend investments to you, please do not hesitate to contact us to discuss these risks and others in more detail. Mutual fund fees are described in the fund's prospectus, which the custodian mails directly to the client following any purchase of a mutual fund that is new to the client's account. In addition, a prospectus is available online at each mutual fund company's Web site. At the client's request at any time AOG will direct the client to the appropriate Web page to access the prospectus.

No investment strategy can avoid loss. Investing in securities involves risk of loss that you need to be prepared to bear.

Item 9 - DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

There is no reportable disciplinary information required for AOG or its management persons that is material to your evaluation of AOG, its business or its management persons.

Item 10 - OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

- A. As previously stated, Advisory Representatives are dually registered as advisory representatives of AOG and as registered representatives of Kalos Capital. You are under no obligation to purchase or sell securities through your Advisory Representative. However, if you choose to implement the plan, commissions may be earned in addition to any fees paid for advisory services. Commissions may be higher or lower at Kalos Capital than at other broker/dealers. Advisory Representatives may have a conflict of interest in having you purchase securities and/or insurance related products through Kalos Capital in that the higher their production with Kalos Capital the greater potential for obtaining a higher pay-out on commissions earned.

Under the rules and regulations of FINRA, Kalos Capital has an obligation to perform certain supervisory functions regarding certain activities engaged in by advisory representatives who are also registered representatives of Kalos Capital. For such supervisory functions, AOG may pay Kalos Capital a portion of the advisory fees they receive. Kalos Capital and AOG are not affiliated.

- B. AOG is not and does not have a related person who is a: futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, commodity trading advisor, or an associated person of the foregoing entities. Further, AOG is not and does not have a related person who is: broker/dealer or other similar type of broker or dealer; investment company or other pooled investment vehicle, other investment adviser or financial planner; futures commission merchant or commodity pool operator; banking or thrift institution; accountant or accounting firm; lawyer or law firm; insurance company or agency; pension consultant; real estate broker or dealer; or sponsor or syndicator of a limited partnership.

AOG is not and does not have a related person who is a: futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, commodity trading advisor, or an associated person of the foregoing entities. Further, AOG is not and does not have a related person who is: broker/dealer or other similar type of broker or dealer; investment company or other pooled investment vehicle, other investment adviser or financial planner; futures commission merchant or commodity pool operator; banking or thrift institution; accountant or accounting firm; lawyer or law firm; insurance company or agency; pension consultant; real estate broker or dealer; or sponsor or syndicator of a limited partnership.

Item 11 - CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OF INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

Code Of Ethics

- A. AOG has a fiduciary duty to act in your best interest and always place your interests first and foremost. AOG takes seriously its compliance and regulatory obligations and requires all staff to comply with such rules and regulations as well as AOG's policies and procedures. Further, AOG strives to handle your non-public information in such a way to protect information from falling into hands that have no business reason to know such information and provides you with AOG's Privacy Policy. As such, AOG maintains a code of ethics for its Advisory Representatives, supervised persons and staff. The Code of Ethics contains provisions for standards of business conduct in order to comply with federal securities laws, personal securities reporting requirements, pre-approval procedures for certain transactions, code violations reporting requirements, and safeguarding of material non-public information about your transactions. Further, AOG's Code of Ethics establishes AOG's expectation for business conduct. A copy of our Code of Ethics will be provided to you upon request.
- B. Neither AOG nor its associated persons recommends to clients or buys or sells for client accounts any securities in which we have a material financial interest.
- C. AOG and its associated persons may buy or sell securities identical to those securities recommended to you. Therefore, AOG and/or its associated persons may have an interest or position in certain securities that are also recommended and bought or sold to you. AOG and its associated persons will not put their interests before your interest. AOG and its associated persons may not trade ahead of you or trade in such a way to obtain a better price for themselves than for you or other clients.
- D. AOG is required to maintain a list of all securities holdings for its associated persons and develop procedures to supervise the trading activities of associated persons who have knowledge of your transactions and their related family accounts at least quarterly. Further, associated persons are prohibited from trading on non-public information or sharing such information.

Item 12 - BROKERAGE PRACTICES

As previously stated, Advisory Representatives are registered representatives of Kalos Capital. As a result they are subject to FINRA Conduct Rule 3040 which may restrict them from conducting securities transactions away from Kalos Capital unless Kalos Capital provides them with written authorization. Advisory Representatives have obtained approval to offer you the ability to maintain accounts through Kalos Capital at its clearing firm or through

- National Financial Services LLC and Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC (collectively, and together with all affiliates, "Fidelity") through which Fidelity provides AOG with "institutional platform services."
- AOG participates in the institutional advisor program (the "Program") offered by TD Ameritrade Institutional. TD Ameritrade Institutional is a division of TD Ameritrade Inc., member FINRA/SIPC/NFA ("TD Ameritrade"), an unaffiliated SEC-registered broker-dealer and FINRA member. TD Ameritrade offers to independent investment advisors services which include custody of securities, trade execution, clearance and settlement of transactions. AOG receives some benefits from TD Ameritrade through its participation in the Program.

AOG is independently owned and operated and not affiliated with Kalos Capital or any of the above referenced firms.

You are advised that not all investment advisers require you to maintain accounts at a specific broker/dealer. You are advised you may maintain accounts at another broker/dealer. However, the services provided by AOG will be limited to only advice and will not include implementation, with the exception of accounts through Kalos Capital, LLC, Fidelity, or TD Ameritrade. If you select another brokerage firm for custodial and/or brokerage services you will not be able to receive asset management services from AOG.

In initially selecting Kalos Capital, AOG conducted due diligence. AOG's evaluation and criteria includes:

- Ability to service you
- Financial strength
- Industry reputation
- Ability to report to you and to AOG
- Availability of an efficient trading platform
- Products and services available
- Technology resources
- Educational resources
- Execution capability
- Financial responsibility and viability
- Confidentiality and security of your information
- Responsiveness
- Other factors that may bear on the overall evaluation of best price and execution

Alpha Omega Group, Inc. dba AOG Wealth Management

You are advised there is an incentive for AOG and the Advisory Representatives to recommend a broker/dealer over another based on the products and services that will be received rather than your best interest.

Due to the individual management of client accounts, we do not aggregate the purchase or sale of securities for various client accounts.

Fidelity

The institutional platform services include, among others, brokerage, custody, and other related services. Fidelity's institutional platform services that assist AOG in managing and administering clients' accounts include software and other technology that (i) provide access to client account data (such as trade confirmations and account statements); (ii) facilitate trade execution and allocate aggregated trade orders for multiple client accounts; (iii) provide research, pricing and other market data; (iv) facilitate payment of fees from its clients' accounts; and (v) assist with back-office functions, recordkeeping and client reporting.

Fidelity also offers other services intended to help AOG manage and further develop its advisory practice. Such services include, but are not limited to, performance reporting, financial planning, contact management systems, third party research, publications, access to educational conferences, roundtables and webinars, practice management resources, access to consultants and other third party service providers who provide a wide array of business related services and technology with whom AOG may contract directly.

Fidelity generally does not charge its advisor clients separately for custody services but is compensated by account holders through commissions and other transaction-related or asset-based fees for securities trades that are executed through Fidelity or that settle into Fidelity accounts (i.e., transactions fees are charged for certain no-load mutual funds, commissions are charged for individual equity and debt securities transactions). Fidelity provides access to many no-load mutual funds without transaction charges and other no-load funds at nominal transaction charges.

TD Ameritrade

Please see the disclosure under Item 14. below.

Kalos Capital

Kalos Capital has a wide range of approved securities products for which Kalos Capital performs due diligence prior to selection. Kalos Capital' registered representatives are required to adhere to these products when implementing securities transactions through Kalos Capital. Commissions charged for these products may be higher or lower than commissions you may be able to obtain if transactions were implemented through another broker/dealer. Kalos Capital also provides Advisory Representatives, and therefore the AOG, with back-office operational, technology, and other administrative support. Other services may include consulting, publications and conferences on practice management, information technology, business succession, regulatory compliance and marketing. Such services are intended to help Advisory Representatives and AOG manage and further develop its business enterprise.

Kalos Capital and its clearing broker/dealer, National Financial Services, also make available to AOG other products and services that benefit AOG but may not directly benefit you. Some of these other products and services assist AOG with managing and administering your accounts. These include software and other technology that provide access to your account data (such as trade confirmation and account statements); facilitate trade execution; provide research, pricing information and other market data; facilitate payment of AOG's fees from your accounts; and assist with back-office functions; recordkeeping and client reporting. Many of these services generally may be used to service all or a substantial number of AOG 's accounts, including accounts not held through Kalos Capital.

Item 13 - REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

- A. If you are participating in the AOG Wealth Management Program you will be invited to participate in at least an annual review. You may request more frequent reviews and may set thresholds for triggering events that would cause a review to take place. Your Advisory Representative will monitor for changes or shifts in the economy, changes to the management and structure of a mutual fund or company in which your assets are invested, and market shifts and corrections.

If you are participating in Financial Planning Services you will not receive regular reviews. AOG recommends you have at least an annual review and update to any plans. However, the time and frequency of the reviews is solely your decision. Additionally, you will be charged review fees based on the fee schedule disclosed under the program. Other than the initial plan or analysis, there will be no other reports issued.

The following individuals conduct reviews:

Frederick P. Baerenz, President and Asset Manager
James T. Ortlip, Asset Manager
David S. Sweat, Asset Manager

- B. You are advised that you must notify your Advisory Representative promptly of any changes to your financial goals, objectives or financial situation as such changes may require him review the portfolio allocation and make recommendations for changes.
- C. You will be provided statements at least quarterly direct from the account custodian. Additionally, you will receive confirmations of all transactions occurring direct from the account custodian. AOG will provide you a quarterly report reflecting your managed account allocation and its performance. You should compare the report with statements received direct from the account custodian. Should there be any discrepancy the account custodian's report will prevail.

Item 14 - CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

- A. Product vendors recommended by AOG may provide monetary and non-monetary assistance with client events, provide educational tools and resources, and reimbursement for travel costs for due diligence and educational meetings. AOG does not select products as a result of any monetary or non-monetary assistance. The selection of product is first and foremost. AOG's due diligence of a product does not take into consideration any assistance it may receive. Therefore, this is not considered a conflict of interest but a benefit for you and AOG.

Fidelity and TD Ameritrade provide AOG with certain brokerage and research products and services that qualify as "brokerage or research services" under Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act").

As disclosed under Item 12. above, AOG participates in TD Ameritrade's institutional customer program and AOG may recommend TD Ameritrade to Clients for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between AOG's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its Clients, although AOG receives economic benefits through its participation in the program that are typically not available to TD Ameritrade retail investors. These benefits include the following products and services (provided without cost or at a discount): receipt of duplicate Client statements and confirmations; research related products and tools; consulting services; access to a trading desk serving AOG participants; access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to Client accounts); the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from Client accounts; access to an electronic communications network for Client order entry and account information; access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology, and practice management products or services provided to AOG by third party vendors. TD Ameritrade may also have paid for business consulting and professional services received by AOG's related persons. Some of the products and services made available by TD Ameritrade through the program may benefit AOG but may not benefit its Client accounts. These products or services may assist AOG in managing and administering Client accounts, including accounts not maintained at TD Ameritrade. Other services made available by TD Ameritrade are intended to help AOG manage and further develop its business enterprise. The benefits received by AOG or its personnel through participation in the program do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD Ameritrade. As part of its fiduciary duties to clients, AOG endeavors at all times to put the interests of its clients first. Clients should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by AOG or its related persons in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest and may indirectly influence the AOG's choice of TD Ameritrade for custody and brokerage services.

- B. AOG does not directly or indirectly compensate any person who is not a supervised person of AOG for referrals. Further, AOG does not receive an economic benefit from a non-client for providing investment advice or advisory services to you.

Item 15 - CUSTODY

With the exception of deduction of AOG's advisory fees from your accounts, AOG does not take custody of your funds or securities.

Under government regulations, we are deemed to have custody of your assets if, for example, you authorize us to instruct your account custodian to deduct our advisory fees directly from your account or if you grant us authority to move your money to another person's account. Your account custodian maintains actual custody of your assets. You will receive account statements directly from your account custodian at least quarterly. They will be sent to the email or postal mailing address you provided. You should carefully review those statements promptly when you receive them.

Item 16 - INVESTMENT DISCRETION

You may grant AOG authorization to manage your account on a discretionary basis. Discretionary authority will give AOG the authority to buy, sell, exchange and convert securities in your managed accounts. You will grant such authority to AOG by execution of the advisory agreement. You may terminate discretionary authorization at any time upon receipt of written notice by AOG.

Additionally, you are advised that:

- 1) You may set parameters with respect to when account should be rebalanced and set trading restrictions or limitations;
- 2) Your written consent is required to establish any mutual fund, variable annuity, or brokerage account;
- 3) AOG requires the use of the broker/dealer with which your Advisory Representative is registered for sales in commissionable mutual funds or variable annuities, if you elect to implement recommendations through your Advisory Representative;
- 4) With the exception of deduction of AOG's advisory fees from the account, if you have authorized automatic deductions, AOG will not have the ability to withdraw your funds or securities from the account.

Item 17 - VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

AOG does not vote your securities. Unless you suppress proxies, securities proxies will be sent directly to you by the account custodian or transfer agent. You may contact AOG about questions you may have an opinions on how to vote the proxies. However, the voting and how you vote the proxies is solely your decision.

Item 18 - FINANCIAL INFORMATION

- A. AOG will not require you to prepay more than $1,200 and six or more months in advance of receiving the advisory service.
- B. As stated above, AOG has discretionary authority over client accounts; however that authority does not extend to the withdrawal of any client assets, with the exception of deduction of AOG's advisory fees from your accounts. We are financially stable. There is no financial condition that is likely to impair our ability to meet our contract actual commitment to you or any other client.

- C. Neither AOG nor any of its Advisory Representatives has ever been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.

Item 19 - REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE REGISTERED ADVISERS

This section is not applicable to AOG. AOG is not state registered. AOG is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
