ITEM 9: DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION THAT INVOLVES STRAIGHTLINE OR ONE OF ITS MANAGEMENT PERSONS

It is extremely important to us that you trust us and feel confident of the work we are performing for you. This section contains the disclosures required by the SEC.

Neither StraightLine Consulting Group, LLC nor anyone at StraightLine Consulting Group has been involved in an administrative proceeding before the SEC or any other federal regulatory agency, any state regulatory agency, or any foreign regulatory agency that has resulted in any sanction, suspension or limit.

Although our business as a registered investment adviser is not subject to oversight by Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), from 1986 to 2005, Steven F. Mosshart, President and control person of StraightLine Group, an affiliate of StraightLine Consulting, worked in the commission-based brokerage industry which was subject to FINRA. Just after Mr. Mosshart left Citigroup World Markets in 2005, FINRA alleged that Mr. Mosshart had participated in a private securities transaction by accepting promissory notes from a few close friends, some of whom were his clients. Mr. Mosshart contends that the notes were loans, not securities. The funds borrowed under the notes were for the express purpose of providing operating capital for StraightLine Group in its infancy.

On September 11, 2008 Mr. Mosshart and FINRA reached a settlement and entered into an Order of Offer of Settlement in regard to the loans. Pursuant to that order, Mr. Mosshart was suspended for one year from associating with any member of FINRA, which includes the broker dealers and commissioned stockbrokers in their employ. Mr. Mosshart had no intention of returning to that type of business and so agreed to the settlement. In addition, Mr. Mosshart was ordered to make restitution to the holders of the notes if he returned to a FINRA registered firm. Prior to the settlement offer, StraightLine Group had already begun the process to satisfy the terms of the notes. The holders of the notes were all given a choice to receive membership/ownership interest in StraightLine Group in exchange for their notes or to receive the return of their loan amount plus interest. All of the note holders have either been paid in full or have converted their outstanding loan to ownership in StraightLine Group.

ITEM 10: OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

StraightLine Consulting, as mentioned above in Item 4, is owned by StraightLine Group, LLC, an SEC registered investment adviser, and the Kelley F. Snook, Jr. Revocable Living Trust.

StraightLine Group, LLC, is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and currently offers financial advisory services to clients on either their employer sponsored retirement program accounts or their personal investment accounts. StraightLine Group also offers advice to sponsors of 401(k) and 403(b) plans.

The Trustee of the Kelley F. Snook, Jr. Revocable Living Trust is Mr. Kelley F. Snook, Jr. Mr. Snook owns 50% of StraightLine Consulting and is President of SHA Retirement Group LLC ("SHA"), which is a d/b/a for LPL Financial.

StraightLine Consulting has procedures in place which seek to mitigate actual and potential conflicts of interest between StraightLine Consulting, its employees, and StraightLine and SHA affiliates. For example, information barriers have been put in place to prevent the dissemination of material non-public information between the entities.

Part of the services that StraightLine Consulting offers to plan providers includes the evaluation of certain service providers to the plan. StraightLine Group may be a provider of services to plan participants. We do not perceive that there would be any conflict of interest. StraightLine Consulting evaluates service providers completely independently of StraightLine Group. It is also important to recognize that the plan sponsor itself will make the ultimate determination as to whether or not a change needs to be made from the standpoint of a service provider.
