Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Kevin Michael Kaplan is licensed to sell life insurance products. He may recommend and sell life, health, and long-term care insurance and will receive the usual and customary commissions. The sale of these products accounts for less than 5% of his time. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as the Insurance licensed Investment Adviser Reps earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. We require that all Investment Adviser Reps disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. Also, we require Investment Adviser Reps to disclose that Clients may purchase recommended insurance products from other insurance agents not affiliated with us.

Kevin Kaplan is an initial investor in the restaurant, North by Northwest, LLC. This accounts for approximately 1% of his time.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

There is no additional compensation awarded to Kevin Michael Kaplan for providing advisory services, such as sales awards or prizes. Kevin Michael Kaplan may receive additional compensation for sales of insurance products.

Item 6 - Supervision

In the course of his duties as Managing Member and Investment Advisor Representative, Kevin Michael Kaplan will periodically review client portfolios and financial planning activities. Kevin Michael Kaplan is supervised by the CCO, James Werner. Please contact James Werner at (512) 774-5340 with questions regarding supervision.
