Item 4 – Services, Fees and Compensation

A. Types of Advisory Services

The Adviser's Wrap Fee Program (the "Program") is an investment advisory program sponsored by the Adviser. The Program will provide individual high net worth investors, individual investors, trusts, and small entities (each, a "Client") with the ability to trade in certain investment products without incurring separate brokerage commissions or transaction charges.

To join the Program, a Client must:

1. Complete an investment management agreement (an "IMA") with the Adviser, which includes a suitability questionnaire that describes the Client's financial needs, investment objectives, risk tolerance, any restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities as well as any other factors relevant to the client's specific financial situation and any other supporting documentation the Program requires;
2. Complete a new account agreement with TD Ameritrade Institutional ("TD Ameritrade"); and
3. Open a securities brokerage account (an "Account") with TD Ameritrade and deposit those assets designated for participation in the Program into the Account.

After an analysis of any information provided by the Client to the Adviser, the Adviser will assist the Clients in developing an appropriate investment strategy for the assets in their Accounts. Thereafter, all Clients are encouraged to discuss their needs, goals, and objectives with the Adviser and to keep the Adviser informed of any changes thereto. The Adviser contacts ongoing Clients at least annually to review its previous services and/or recommendations and to determine whether changes should be made to their investment strategy.

In exchange for participating in the Program, the Adviser charges each Client an annualized fee (the "Program Fee"), which is charged quarterly in advance, based upon the value of the account on the first day of each fiscal quarter. The Program Fee, which is negotiable, varies between 1.0% and 1.5% depending on the amount of assets under management for the Client, as noted in Item 4(B) below. No exact percentage of the total Program Fee is paid to the Adviser; rather the Adviser uses whatever percentage necessary to cover costs incurred in executing transactions for its Clients and keeps the remaining portion as compensation for providing advisory services.

B. Cost of Using the Program

In exchange for this Program Fee, Clients receive both investment advisory services and the execution of transactions for a single, combined, fee. You are required to authorize the Adviser to debit the Program Fee from your Account. If insufficient cash is available to pay such fees, securities in an amount equal to the balance of unpaid fees will be liquidated to pay for the unpaid balance. On an annualized basis, the Adviser's Program Fee, subject to negotiation, is based on the following tiered fee schedule:

Portfolio Size	Annualized Fee
$0 to $500,000	1.50%
$500,001 to $1,000,000	1.25%
Accounts over $1,000,000	1.00%

Participation in the Program may cost the Client more or less than purchasing such services separately. The number of transactions made in the Client's accounts, as well as the commissions charged for each transaction, determines the relative cost of the Program versus paying for execution on a per transaction basis and paying a separate fee for advisory services. The Program Fee may be higher or lower than fees charged by other sponsors of comparable investment advisory programs.

C. Costs in Addition to the Program Fee

Client Accounts will bear some of their own expenses, including but not limited to, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund or exchange-traded fund in the Account (which is disclosed in the fund's prospectus), margin interest expenses, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, and [other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions].

D. Additional Compensation to the Adviser

The Adviser does not receive compensation as a result of the Client participating in the Program in addition to the Program Fee.

Item 5 – Account Requirements and Types of Clients

The Adviser will provide investment advisory services to individual high net worth investors, individual investors, trusts, and small entities. The Adviser does not require that each Account exceed a minimum asset amount prior to accepting the account holder as a Client.

Item 6 – Portfolio Manager Selection and Evaluation

The Adviser acts as both the sponsor and portfolio manager of the Program. The Principal is the portfolio manager for the Program. Currently, the Adviser does not use other portfolio managers.

A. Advisory Business

Principal Owners and Background

Peters Wealth Management, LLC (the "Adviser") was founded in 2014 and has not yet commenced operations. The Adviser is owned and controlled by James Peters (the "Principal").

Types of Advisory Services

The Adviser will offer advisory services to individual high net worth investors, individual investors, trusts, and small entities (each, a “Client”). The Adviser has discretion with respect to investment decisions made for its Clients. The Adviser provides investment advisory services to each Client based on the particular investment objectives, guidelines, restrictions, and other information provided by the Client and pursuant to an IMA with the Client.

Tailoring of Advisory Services

The Adviser tailors its advisory services to the needs of its Clients. Clients may impose restrictions on investing in certain securities or types of securities.

Wrap Fee Programs

The Adviser has a wrap fee program for all of its Clients. No exact percentage of the total fee charged to each Client is paid to the Adviser; rather the Adviser uses whatever percentage necessary to cover costs incurred in executing transactions for its Clients and keeps the remaining portion as compensation for providing advisory services.

Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

No performance-based compensation will be charged to Client Accounts. If, in the future, the Adviser were to manage Client Accounts that were charged a performance-based fee, the Adviser may have an incentive to favor those Accounts that were charged a performance-based fee. We will implement procedures to allocate investment opportunities fairly among our Clients if, in the future, we were to manage assets for Clients that are charged a performance-based fee.

B. Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

The Adviser provides investment advisory services to Clients based on the investment objectives, guidelines, restrictions, and other information provided by Client in the Client’s IMA.

The overall objective in managing most Accounts is to seek capital appreciation by investing in securities consisting of equity and equity related securities that are publicly traded on U.S. exchanges. The Adviser may invest in a wide range of securities and other financial instruments including, but not limited to, exchange listed and over-the-counter equity securities, preferred stocks, convertible securities, exchange-traded funds, warrants, rights, options, corporate and municipal debt securities and U.S. government securities. Accounts managed by the Adviser may own long positions and sell short positions.

The Adviser may utilize the following methods of security analysis:

- Charting – analysis performed using patterns to identify current trends and trend reversals to forecast the direction of prices
- Fundamental – analysis performed on historical and present data, with the goal of making financial forecasts

- Technical – analysis performed on historical and present data, focusing on price and trade volume, to forecast the direction of prices

The Adviser may utilize the following investment strategies when implementing investment advice given to clients:

- Long Term Purchase – securities held at least a year
- Short Term Purchases – securities sold within a year
- Trading – securities sold within 30 days
- Short Sales – contracted sale of borrowed securities with an obligation to make the lender whole
- Margin Transaction (use of borrowed assets to purchase financial instruments)
- Options – contract for the purchase or sale of a security at a predetermined price during a specific period of time

An investment in securities involves risk. There can be no assurance that a Client's investment objectives will be achieved or that Clients will not lose all or substantially all of their investment.

C. Voting Client Securities

It is the Adviser's policy not to vote proxies with respect to proposals submitted for approval by shareholders of companies whose shares are held in Client Accounts. Each Client will receive all proxy statements directly from TD Ameritrade and may contact the Adviser to discuss any such proxies or other corporate initiatives.

Item 7 – Client Information provided to Portfolio Managers

The Adviser acts as the sponsor and portfolio manager to the Program. Certain wrap programs involve the services of multiple parties in these capacities. In those circumstances, the sponsor is required to disclose how and what type of information about Clients that it provides to portfolio managers. The Adviser has no disclosures to make under this Item 7.

Item 8 – Client Contact with Portfolio Managers

There are no restrictions on the Clients' ability to contact and consult with the Adviser or the portfolio manager.

Item 9 – Additional Information

A. Disciplinary Information

Neither the Adviser nor the Principal have been involved in any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a current or potential Client's evaluation of the Adviser's advisory business or the integrity of its management.

B. Other Financial Industry Activities

Affiliates Broker-Dealer Registration

The Adviser is not registered as a broker-dealer or a registered representative of a broker-dealer, nor does it have any pending application to register. The Principal is currently a registered representative of a broker-dealer, First Allied Securities. Upon registration of the Adviser, Mr. Peters will discontinue his relationship with that broker-dealer.

Futures and Commodities Registration

Neither the Adviser nor the Principal is registered as a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, commodity trading advisor, or associated party of any of those, nor does either party have any pending application to register as such.

Related Persons

The Principal is a practicing accountant at James R. Peters, CPA, an accounting firm that Mr. Peters owns and operates. Mr. Peters is also a licensed insurance agent for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Texas. Otherwise, neither the Adviser nor the Principal has any relationships that are material to the Adviser's advisory business or to its Clients with any related person of the types listed below:

- broker-dealer, municipal securities dealer, or government securities dealer or broker;
- investment company or other pooled investment vehicle (including a mutual fund, closed-end investment company, unit investment trust, private investment company or "hedge fund," and offshore fund);
- other investment adviser or financial planner;
- futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading advisor;
- banking or thrift institution;
- accountant or accounting firm;
- lawyer or law firm;
- insurance company or agency;
- pension consultant;
- real estate broker or dealer; or
- sponsor or syndicator of limited partnerships.

Conflicts of Interest

The Adviser will not be compensated for recommending or selecting other investment advisers for its Clients. The Adviser also has no other business relationships with such advisers that will create a material conflict of interest.

C. Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

The Adviser has a fiduciary responsibility to treat its Clients fairly and to avoid actual or potential conflicts of interest. The employees of the Adviser have an obligation to act solely in the best interests of its Clients and to make full and fair disclosure of all material facts, particularly where the Clients' interests may conflict with the interests of the Adviser or its employees.

Code of Ethics

We will adopt a code of ethics that complies with Rule 206(4)-7 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"), and will provide any Client or prospective Client with a copy of our Code of Ethics upon request.

The Code of Ethics will contain a policy designed to prevent the misuse of material, nonpublic information.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

Generally, the Adviser does not recommend to Clients, or buy or sell for Client Accounts, securities in which it or its related persons have a material financial interest. If it were to do so in the future, the Adviser will develop policies and procedures that comport with Section 206(3) of the Advisers Act.

Personal Securities Investing

The Adviser or the Principal may invest in the same securities in which a Client Account invests. The Adviser will adopt personal trading policies and procedures to address conflicts of interest with the Client Accounts which may arise as a result of such investing.

Personal Securities Trading

As explained above, the Adviser or the Principal may invest in the same securities as those in which a Client Account invests; however, we will adopt policies and procedures to address potential conflicts of interest. In addition, the Adviser will maintain a restricted list of securities that the Adviser and its employees may not trade in order to avoid the misuse of material nonpublic information or confidential client information.

D. Review of Accounts

The Principal reviews Client Accounts on an ongoing basis. All Clients are advised that it remains their responsibility to make the Adviser aware of any changes in their investment objectives or financial situation. All Clients (in person or via telephone) are encouraged to review financial planning issues, as applicable, investment objectives and account performance with the Adviser on an annual basis.

Frequency of Review

The Adviser may conduct Account reviews upon the occurrence of a triggering event, such as a change in a Client's investment objectives or financial situation, market corrections, or Client request. Otherwise, such review will be done on at least an annual basis.

Content and Frequency of Regular Reports

Clients are provided, at least quarterly, with written transaction confirmation notices and regular unaudited summary account statements directly from their custodian. The Adviser may also provide a written period report summarizing account activity and performance. Clients are provided online access to their Account and may receive reports at their discretion from their own login to their Account.

E. Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Other Compensation

No person, other than the Clients, provides an economic benefit to the Adviser in exchange for providing investment advice or other advisory services to the Advisor's Clients.

Client Referrals

The Adviser does not intend on paying inside or outside parties for referring Clients to the Adviser. If the Adviser does so in the future, it will describe the arrangement in an amendment to this Wrap Fee Disclosure Brochure and will comply with all securities laws.

F. Financial Information

Prepayment of Fees

The Adviser does not require or solicit prepayment of more than $1,200 in fees per Client, six months or more in advance.

Financial Condition

There is no financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair the Adviser's ability to continue to meet its contractual commitments and to provide services to its Clients.

Bankruptcy

The Adviser has never been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
