

LJPR, LLC

Registered Investment Advisor

Brochure Supplement (Part 2B of Form ADV)

Education and Business Standards

LJPR, LLC requires that advisors in its employ have a bachelor's degree and further coursework demonstrating knowledge of financial planning and tax planning. Examples of acceptable coursework include: an MBA, a CFP®, a CFA, a ChFC, JD, CTFA, or CPA. Additionally, advisors must have work experience that demonstrates their aptitude for financial planning and investment management.

Professional Certifications

Employees have earned certifications and credentials, or are enrolled in an educational program. The credentials are explained in further detail below.

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®): Certified Financial Planners are licensed by the CFP® Board to use the CFP® mark. CFP® certification requirements:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.
- Completion of the financial planning education requirements set by the CFP® Board (www.cfp.net).
- Successful completion of the 10-hour CFP® Certification Exam.
- Three-year qualifying full-time work experience.
- Successfully pass the Candidate Fitness Standards and background check.

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA): Chartered Financial Analysts are licensed by the CFA Institute to use the CFA mark. CFA certification requirements:

- Hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution or have equivalent education or work experience.
- Successful completion of all three exam levels of the CFA Program.
- Have 48 months of acceptable professional work experience in the investment decision-making process.

- Fulfill society requirements, which vary by society. Unless you are upgrading from affiliate membership, all societies require two sponsor statements as part of each application; these are submitted online by your sponsors.
- Agree to adhere to and sign the Member's Agreement, a Professional Conduct Statement, and any additional documentation requested by CFA Institute.

Certified Public Account (CPA): are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA in Michigan include:

- Hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution with 24 total hours each in accounting and general business courses.
- Michigan requires CPA candidates to earn one year of qualifying work experience prior to obtaining their CPA certificates. Candidates must have 2,000 hours of qualifying experience in a minimum of one year as an auditor in a CPA firm or a government agency. Additionally, their work must be supervised by an active CPA certificate holder.
- The CPA exam is a series of four tests that take on average 14 hours to complete. Each test is designed to test specific accounting fundamentals: auditing, reporting, regulations and business concepts.
- All American Institute of Certified Public Accounts (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services.

Personal Financial Specialist (PFS)

- The PFS credential demonstrates that the individual has met the minimum education, experience and testing required of a CPA in addition to a minimum level of expertise in personal financial planning.
- To attain the PFS credential, a candidate must hold a CPA license, and fulfill 3,000 hours of personal financial planning business experience.
- The PFS must complete 80 hours of personal financial planning CPE credits and pass a comprehensive financial planning exam.
- A PFS credential holder must be an active member of the AICPA and is required to adhere to the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct.

- To maintain the PFS credential, the recipient must complete 60 hours of financial planning CPE credits every three years.
- The PFS credential is administered through the AICPA.

Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF)

- Articulate the basis for, and benefits of, fiduciary standards of excellence.
- Identify the legal standards that require fiduciaries to prudently manage investment decisions.
- Apply the Practices that define a prudent investment process for Investment Stewards and Advisors and recognize the Practices for Investment Managers.
- Strengthen own or clients' fiduciary policies.
- Website: fi360.com.

Accredited Wealth Management Advisor (AWMA)

- Individuals who hold the AWMA® designation have completed a course of study encompassing wealth strategies, equity-based compensation plans, tax reduction alternatives, and asset protection alternatives. The program is designed for approximately 120-150 hours of self-study. The program is self-paced and must be completed within one year from enrollment.
- Awarded by the College for Financial Planning.
- Website: cffpinfo.com

Certified Wealth Strategist (CWS)

- This designation is earned only after six months of comprehensive study and requires ongoing certification requirements. A person with the CWS designation has received special training in the management and protection of assets and client interaction.
- Website: certifiedwealthstrategist.com

Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA)

- Those who have earned the CIMA certification have at least three years of experience in financial services, have passed an extensive background check, have completed a demanding two-step, graduate-level program of study, and have passed a comprehensive examination.
- Website: imca.org

Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA)

- The CAIA Charter, recognized globally, is administered by the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association and requires a comprehensive understanding of core and advanced concepts regarding alternative investments, structures, and ethical obligations. To qualify for the CAIA Charter, finance professionals must complete a self-directed, comprehensive course of study on risk-return attributes of institutional quality alternative assets; pass both the Level I and Level II CAIA examinations at global, proctored testing centers; attest annually to the terms of the Member Agreement; and hold a US bachelor's degree (or equivalent) plus have at least one year of professional experience or have four years of professional experience. Professional experience includes full-time employment in a professional capacity within the regulatory, banking, financial, or related fields. Once a qualified candidate completes the CAIA program, he or she may apply for CAIA membership and the right to use the CAIA designation, providing an opportunity to access ongoing educational opportunities.
