*This brochure supplement provides information about the qualifications of Jacob & Co.'s investment advisory personnel. This is a supplement to the Jacobs & Co. brochure which you should have received previously. Please contact the Firm's Chief Compliance Officer, Thomas W. Newmeyer if you have not received the brochure or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement. Additional information about Jacobs & Co. is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Each member of Jacobs & Co.'s professional staff is evaluated on the basis of his or her education and work experience. The Firm requires that all principals have a college degree and substantive investment-related work experience. In addition, any associated persons involved in determining investment strategy or giving investment advice to clients must meet the examination or other licensing requirements of the states in which they provide services. The following are the formal education and business background (last 10 years) for members of Jacobs & Co.'s professional staff, who determine the investment advice to be given to clients.

All Firm personnel are supervised by the Firm's principals and the Chief Compliance Officer. Supervision is ongoing and includes account reviews, trade supervision, annual compliance reviews including the forensic testing of Firm systems, staff meetings and employee reviews.
