Item 2 Educational Background and Business Experience

Glenn Ullmann, CDFA™

Year of Birth: 1963

Formal Education After High School:

- USAF Academy, B.S., Finance/Management, 1985
- University of Oklahoma, M.A., International Affairs, 1989

Business Background Preceding Five Years:

- Ullmann Financial Group, Inc., President, 10/2002 - Present
- SagePoint Financial, Inc., Registered Representative, 10/2002 - Present
- Northwestern Mutual Investment Services, LLC, 01/2002 - 10/2002
- Robert W. Baird & Co., Inc., 02/1997 - 10/2002

Certifications: CDFA™

Certified Divorce Financial Analyst (CDFA™) To be a Certified Divorce Financial Analyst (CDFA™), a professional must have at least two years experience in the financial or legal industry, complete a series of four examinations based on coursework that includes the treatment of property during divorce, alimony and child support, and tax implications of property division. Certification is issued by the Institute for Divorce Financial Analysts.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Glenn Ullmann has no reportable disciplinary information.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Glenn Ullmann is licensed as an insurance agent and earns commission-based compensation for selling insurance products. Insurance commissions earned by Mr. Ullmann are separate and in addition to our advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest because Mr. Ullmann has an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through Mr. Ullmann.

Mr. Ullmann is associated with SagePoint Financial, Inc. ("SagePoint") as a Registered Representative and may recommend the purchase of securities offered by SagePoint. If you purchase these products through Mr. Ullmann, he will receive normal commissions which may be in addition to customary advisory fees. As such, Mr. Ullmann may have an incentive to sell you commissionable products in addition to providing you with advisory services when such commissionable products may not be suitable. Alternatively, he may have an incentive to forego providing you with advisory services when appropriate, and instead recommend the purchase of commissionable investments, if Mr. Ullmann deems that the payout for recommending the purchase of these investments would be higher than providing management advice on these products for an advisory fee. Therefore, a conflict of interest may exist between Mr. Ullmann's interests and your best interests.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Glenn Ullmann does not receive any additional compensation for providing advisory services beyond the compensation he receives as President of Ullmann Financial Group, Inc.

Item 6 Supervision

As President and Chief Compliance Officer of Ullmann Financial Group, Inc, Glenn Ullmann is not supervised by other persons. However, our firm has in place written supervisory procedures that are reasonably designed to detect and prevent violations of the securities laws, rules and regulations.

- University of North Florida, 08/1996 - 12/1999
- GE Capital, 08/1995 - 02/1998

Certifications: CFP[®]

Certified Financial Planner[™] (CFP[®]): The CFP[®] certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP[®] certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. To attain the right to use the CFP[®] marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements: Education - Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning; Examination - Pass the comprehensive CFP[®] Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances; Experience - Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and Ethics - Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP professionals. Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP[®] marks: Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP[®] professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP[®] professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients. CFP[®] professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP[®] certification.
