We are required to provide you annually with a summary of material changes to our qualifications or business practices that have occurred since our last annual update. The following is a summary of the material changes to the Form ADV Part 2A and Part 2B for Morningstar Associates, LLC (“Morningstar Associates”) since our last annual update, dated March 26, 2014.

Updates to the ADV Part 2A:

As of December 31, 2014, our assets under management shown in the “Advisory Business” section (rounded to the nearest $100,000) are as follows:

Retirement Services to Individuals (Managed Accounts): $6,553,500,000

Discretionary Investment Management Services to Institutions: $8,255,500,000

Discretionary Plan Sponsor Advice: $415,300,000

During 2014, our parent company Morningstar, Inc., acquired all outstanding ownership interests in HelloWallet, LLC, and also acquired full ownership of ByAllAccounts. In addition, senior management was restructured to include more global oversight of the investment advisory subsidiaries. Therefore, the sixth and seventh paragraphs of the “Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliates” were deleted and replaced with the following two paragraphs:

In some instances, we may use the employees or resources of Morningstar or its affiliates to provide certain support services in conjunction with our advisory services. In addition, Morningstar or its affiliates may also use our employees and resources to provide certain support services in conjunction with the services offered by Morningstar or its affiliates. These affiliates may include Ibbotson Associates, Inc. (“Ibbotson”), a registered investment adviser, Morningstar Investment Services, Inc., a dually registered investment adviser and limited broker-dealer, HelloWallet, LLC, an employee financial wellness program, and ByAllAccounts, an account and data aggregation service. All these entities are wholly owned subsidiaries of Morningstar. If an additional fee for such products or services by Morningstar or its affiliates is required, it will be set forth in the client advisory agreement. In these situations, clients may pay a fee directly to Morningstar or each such affiliate for its products or services, or as part of a joint fee schedule which encompasses all services.

In addition to the U.S.-based affiliates described above, Morningstar is a direct or indirect owner of a number of other investment advisory entities located in other countries. In some cases, members of our senior management may have some management responsibilities to these other affiliated entities. We do not believe that these management responsibilities create any material conflicts of interests for our clients. A current list of all of our investment advisory affiliates can be found in our Form ADV Part 1, which can be obtained at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov, as described on Page 2 of this Brochure.

Updates to the ADV Part 2B:

Jeremy Stempien has taken a leadership role and Cindy Galiano has taken a Director role, both are no longer involved in the day-to-day investment decisions of the Investment Team for the MetLife Expert Select program. Terence Geenty left the firm to pursue an outside opportunity.

Thomas Idzorek stepped down as president of Morningstar's Investment Management group in February 2015 to take on a role as head of investment methodology and economic research for Morningstar. Daniel Needham, global chief investment officer for Morningstar's Investment Management group, succeeds Mr. Idzorek as president.

Therefore, the first two sentences of the Supervision section are deleted and replaced to read as follows:

Scott Wentsel, chief investment officer of the Americas for Morningstar's Investment Management group, provides guidance on the type of strategies we offer and the nature of the due diligence we conduct. He oversees, either directly or indirectly, the investment team, including setting the strategic direction and goals of the team. He is supervised by Daniel Needham, president and global chief investment officer of the Investment Management group.

We have made other edits to our Form ADV Part 2A and Part 2B where necessary to correct grammar or punctuation, to provide clarification or further information, for consistency in terminology or content, or to improve the readability of the brochure. We do not deem these edits to be material in nature. You may obtain a current copy of our brochure at any time as described below.

Advisory Business

Morningstar Associates, LLC (“Morningstar Associates”) is part of Morningstar’s Investment Management group, which is the marketing name for the investment advisory businesses of Morningstar, Inc. (“Morningstar”), a publicly traded company (Nasdaq Ticker: MORN). Morningstar Associates is a wholly owned subsidiary of Morningstar. Because we are required to inform you of any individual who holds more than 25% of our company, please be advised that Joseph Mansueto, CEO of Morningstar, individually holds more than 50% of Morningstar’s outstanding shares of stock, and is therefore an indirect owner of more than 50% of Morningstar Associates.

Morningstar Associates has been registered with the SEC since 1999. In addition, we have filed the appropriate notices to conduct business in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico. We offer a suite of investment advisory services to individuals, plan sponsors, and institutional clients. This brochure focuses on the products and services we provide to 403(b) plans and their participants through the MetLife ExpertSelect program (the “Program”). You may obtain a copy of our brochure describing our other advisory services to individuals, plan sponsors or institutional clients by following the instructions above.

Program Services. We selected the lineup of mutual funds (each, a “Fund”) available in the Program from the universe of funds that MetLife is authorized to offer. We review the universe of funds using our standard proprietary screening process, and the Funds selected for the Program have met our screening criteria. We do not review the annuity products issued by MetLife either in connection with the Program or your Plan. On an ongoing basis, we monitor the Funds in the Program lineup using the same proprietary screening process described above. This monitoring may result in changes to the Program lineup due to, for example, one or more Funds no longer meeting our screening criteria. If we determine that a Fund should be removed from the Program lineup, we will identify a replacement from those funds that MetLife may offer that has similar characteristics (e.g., asset class, risk/return) as the Fund being replaced and that meets our screening criteria. In performing this service, we are acting in an advisory capacity to the Program and we are not acting in an advisory capacity to you with respect to the selection and ongoing monitoring of the Funds within the Program. We only provide advisory services to you on a limited basis as described under Participant Services below.

Participant Services. The Funds in the Program lineup include a broad range of investment alternatives that are diverse and have different risk and return characteristics. The goal of the Program Fund lineup is to give you the ability to build a diversified portfolio of Funds with risk and return characteristics that you feel are most appropriate for your situation. You are solely responsible for deciding how to allocate your Plan account among available investment options in the Plan and your Program account among the Funds available in the Program lineup. We do not offer any advice or recommendation with respect to the purchase or sale of a particular investment option in your Plan or the Funds in your Program lineup, or with respect to the purchase or sale of annuity products issued by MetLife.

When a change in the Program lineup occurs, we provide MetLife with a written communication to be distributed to you in advance of the change (“Notification”). For purpose of delivering the Notification, MetLife will use your personal mailing information that you have made available to MetLife through the Plan enrollment process or subsequent notification. If your Program account has a balance in the Fund that is intended to be removed from the Program lineup, you are to contact MetLife to instruct them as to which remaining Fund or Funds you would like that balance to be reallocated and how you would like future contributions to be allocated. If you do not provide such instructions to MetLife on a timely basis prior to the change, we will provide you with certain limited discretionary advisory services, which only include:

- the reallocation of your entire existing account balance in the Fund that is being removed from the Program lineup to the Fund that has been added to the Program lineup in its place; and
- the direction of future contributions to the Fund that has been substituted in the Program lineup.

You can contact MetLife by calling 1-800-543-2520 or by going to www.mlr.metlife.com for answers to questions about the implementation of a Fund substitution or the Program in general. You are solely responsible for the monitoring of your Program account. You may contact MetLife at any time to change your Fund allocations and/or instructions on how to allocate your future contributions.

The Program and Participant Services to you will terminate:

- if your participation in the Program is terminated,
- if we cease to provide services in connection with the Program, or
- if you elect to invest your Plan account assets in a Plan investment option other than the Program lineup.

Types of Investments. We provide advice based on the universe of investment options available to your Plan through the Program. These investment options include open-end mutual funds.

Regulatory Assets Under Management. As of December 31, 2014, our assets under management were as follows:

- Retirement Services to Individuals (Managed Accounts): $6,553,500,000
- Discretionary Investment Management Services to Institutions: $8,255,500,000
- Discretionary Plan Sponsor Services: $415,300,000

Fees and Compensation

For the above services, only your Program account (and not any other part of your Plan account, including assets in a MetLife Fixed Annuity Account) will be charged an annual asset-based fee of 0.05% in payment for the Program and Participant Services (the “Program Service Fee”). The Program Service Fee is included in the fee for the Program. MetLife, acting as a conduit, will remit the Program Service Fee to us. MetLife does not retain any portion of the Program Service Fee and we do not pay MetLife in connection with the Program. We receive a minimum annual fee for our services. If the aggregate amount of annual Program Service Fees does not reach the annual minimum fee owed to us, MetLife has agreed to pay the difference. The amount of compensation we receive does not change based upon any particular Fund in the Program lineup.

Other Fees. All fees paid by you for the Program and the Participant Services are separate from fees and expenses charged by the investment options or fees that may be charged by a third party, such as your plan provider. The Funds’ fees and expenses are described in a prospectus or its equivalent. These fees will generally include a management fee, other investment expenses, and possibly a distribution fee (e.g., 12b-1). In some cases, an investment option may also charge an initial or deferred sales charge. In addition, Fund transactions within your Program account may result in a redemption fee being charged to your Program account by the underlying Fund or Funds. Such redemption fees are separate and distinct and are in addition to the above-mentioned fees paid for the Program and Participant Services. Neither Morningstar Associates nor any of our employees receive transaction-based compensation for the investment recommendations we make.

Performance-Based Fees and Side-by-Side Management

We do not charge any performance-based fees (fees based on a share of capital gains or on capital appreciation of assets in your account). Therefore, we do not manage any performance-based fee accounts side-by-side with non-performance based fee accounts.

Types of Clients

In addition to the services described in this brochure, we also provide investment advisory services to individuals and institutional clients such as banking institutions, investment companies, pension or profit sharing plans, trusts, endowments, foundations, or other business entities. If you would like a copy of our brochures describing these services, please follow the instructions on Page 1. The services described in this brochure are only available to participants of 403(b) plans that enroll in the Program. We do not require a minimum account balance to use our services, and we generally do not impose any other conditions on your use of our services.

Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Development of Investment Advice. Our Global Investment Policy Committee and its working sub-committees are responsible for oversight of the investment methodologies across all products and services. Members of the Committee may include officers, chief investment officers, managing directors, or managers of Morningstar Associates or its affiliates. The sub-committees focus on specific investment areas such as capital market assumptions and methodologies used for asset allocation, manager selection, portfolio construction, and advice.

An investment team provides the investment advice used in the products and services referenced in this brochure. Information on the key members of this investment team is included in Part 2B attached hereto.

Analysis Methods. Our analysis of investment options combines quantitative data analysis and screening methods with fundamental and qualitative evaluations of investment managers, asset allocation model portfolios and individual investments. The primary sources of information we use are the extensive databases and methodologies of Morningstar, and interviews with investment managers. Other sources include financial publications, annual reports, prospectuses, press releases, and filings with the SEC.

Investment Strategy. We use a three-phase process to build, manage, and monitor an investment lineup for the Program that offers participants a manageable menu of funds for their 403(b) plan.

Risk of Loss. You should remember that all investments involve risk and will not always be profitable. We do not make any guarantee about the future performance or profitability of your Plan account and its underlying investments, nor do we promise that investments in the Funds in the Program lineup will be profitable. The investment options in the Program lineup may be subject to a variety of risks, including market, currency, and political risks. We cannot guarantee that negative returns can or will be avoided in any of our recommendations. An investment's future performance may differ substantially from its historical performance and as a result, may incur a loss. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Tax Considerations. You should consider the impact, if any, that an investment in or a distribution from your 403(b) account may have on your tax situation. Potential tax consequences may exist. We do not provide tax advice. We encourage you to consult with a tax professional about these and other tax consequences.

Disciplinary Information

We are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would influence your decision to hire or retain us as your investment advisor. We do not have any material legal or disciplinary events to report.

Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

This section provides information on other business activities we may conduct in addition to the services described above. In addition, it describes any potential conflicts of interest we may have, and how we mitigate those potential conflicts.

Our parent company, Morningstar, offers various products and services to the public. Some of its clients are service providers (e.g., portfolio managers, advisers, or distributors affiliated with a mutual fund or other investment option, collectively "Service Providers"). We may have a contractual relationship to provide consulting or advisory services to these same Service Providers. In some cases, we may recommend the products of these Service Providers to our advisory clients. To mitigate any actual or potential conflicts of interest, we do not consider Morningstar's relationship with these Service Providers when making investment option recommendations. We are not paid to recommend one investment option over another, including products of Service Providers with which Morningstar has a relationship.

Morningstar provides information to the public about various investment products, including open-end mutual funds and ETFs. In some cases, this information includes written analyses of these investment products. Although we may use certain products, services, or databases of Morningstar, we do not participate in or have any input in the written analyses that Morningstar provides its subscribers. Our investment recommendations are based on our separate and independent research and analysis of the available investment products.

In some situations, we may recommend an investment product that holds a position in publicly-traded shares of Morningstar. Such an investment in Morningstar is solely the decision of the investment product's portfolio manager. We have no input into a portfolio manager's investment decision nor do we require that the investment products we recommend own shares of Morningstar. An investment product's position in Morningstar has no direct bearing on our investment selection process.

In certain situations, we may recommend an ETF that tracks an index created and maintained by Morningstar, and the ETF sponsor has entered into a licensing agreement with Morningstar to use such index. To mitigate any conflicts of interest arising from our selection of such ETFs, we may use solely quantitative criteria established by our advisory client to make such selection, or, in the alternative, Morningstar's compensation from the ETF sponsor will not be based on nor will it include assets that are a result of our recommendation to our advisory client to invest in those ETFs. In addition, Morningstar does not and will not have any input into our investment decisions, including what ETFs will be recommended for our recommended portfolios.

In some instances, we may use the employees or resources of Morningstar or its affiliates to provide certain support services in conjunction with our advisory services. In addition, Morningstar or its affiliates may also use our employees and resources to provide certain support services in conjunction with the services offered by Morningstar or its affiliates. These affiliates may include Ibbotson Associates, Inc. ("Ibbotson"), a registered investment adviser, Morningstar Investment Services, Inc., a dually registered investment adviser and limited broker-dealer, HelloWallet, LLC, an employee financial wellness program, and ByAllAccounts, an account and data aggregation service. All of these entities are wholly owned subsidiaries of Morningstar. If an additional fee for such services by affiliates is required, it will be set forth in the client advisory agreement. In these situations, clients may pay a fee directly to each such affiliate for its services, or as part of a joint fee schedule which encompasses all services.

In addition to the U.S.-based affiliates described above, Morningstar is a direct or indirect owner of a number of other investment advisory entities located in other countries. In some cases, members of our senior management may have some management responsibilities to these other affiliated entities. We do not believe that these management responsibilities create any material conflicts of interests for our clients. A current list of all of our investment advisory affiliates can be found in our Form ADV Part 1, which can be obtained at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov, as described on Page 2 of this Brochure.

We may make our clients aware of various products and services offered by Morningstar or its affiliates. We do not receive compensation from our affiliates in presenting these potential opportunities.

In certain circumstances, we may use the middle-office and back-office capabilities of our affiliate Morningstar Investment Services. When we do, we compensate Morningstar Investment Services for use of those services. In addition, Morningstar Investment Services may provide sales support by educating investment adviser representatives about programs for which Morningstar Associates and Morningstar Investment Services act as investment strategists. For this sales support, the third-party investment adviser will pay a specific agreed upon fee to Morningstar Associates and Morningstar Investment Services.

The universe of investment options from which we make our investment selections is typically defined by the institutional client for which we are providing services or by the plan provider client through which our retirement plan services are delivered. In some cases, this universe of investment options may include proprietary investment options of the institutional client or plan provider client. To mitigate the conflict of interest presented by this situation, we subject all investment options to the same quantitative and qualitative investment selection methodology, based on several factors, including performance, risk, and expenses, and the proprietary nature of the investment options does not influence our selection.

We may provide consulting or advisory services to institutional clients that offer investment products, such as mutual funds, variable annuities, or model portfolios. Because of our role in these investment products, recommending these products to other advisory clients may present a conflict of interest. To mitigate this potential conflict of interest, we exclude these investment products from the universe of investment options from which we make our recommendations.

Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions, and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics. We have adopted a Code of Ethics that strives to uphold the highest standards of moral and ethical conduct, including placing our clients' interest ahead of our own. All access persons are subject to this Code of Ethics. "Access persons" includes our officers and employees, and any officer or employee of our affiliates who makes or participates in investment recommendations to clients; or who has the ability to access a client's nonpublic information, including a client's security holdings or investment recommendations a client has received or will receive. Our Code of Ethics addresses such topics as our fiduciary duty, our professional responsibilities, protecting our clients' non-public personal information, our gifts and entertainment policies, and the personal trading practices of all access persons.. A copy of our Code of Ethics is available to existing and prospective clients by sending a written request addressed to our Compliance Department at the address or email address shown on the cover page of this brochure.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions. Our access persons may maintain personal investment accounts, and may purchase or sell investments in those accounts that are the same as or different from the investments we recommend to clients. Because we primarily recommend mutual funds and ETFs, our access persons' personal investing activities should not conflict with our advisory activities or the timing of our recommendations. In addition, our Code of Ethics is designed to ensure that access persons' personal trading activities will not interfere with our clients' interests, while allowing our access persons to invest in their own accounts.

We do not engage in principal transactions (transactions where we, acting in our own account or in an affiliated account, buy a security from or sell a security to a client's account). In addition, we do not engage in agency cross transactions (transactions where we or our affiliate executes a transaction while acting as a broker for both our client and the other party in the transaction).

Personal Trading. Our Code of Ethics also includes policies designed to prevent access persons from trading on the basis of material non-public information. Access persons in possession of material non-public information may not trade in securities which are the subject of such information, and may not tip such information to others. In certain instances, we employ information blocking devices such as restricted lists to prevent illegal insider trading. Our Compliance Department monitors the trading activities of all access persons in their personal accounts on an ongoing basis.

Brokerage Practices

Where we exercise investment discretion, we will generate trade instructions for each individual account that requires rebalancing and forward those instructions to the appropriate institution as designated by the plan provider. As a result, we do not have the ability to make decisions regarding which broker is used to execute the transactions in your account. We do not participate in any soft dollar practices.

Review of Accounts

We provide ongoing monitoring of the Funds in the Program and, when necessary, may remove and replace Funds included in the Program. However, we do not provide periodic review or ongoing monitoring of individual participant accounts.

Client Referrals and Other Compensation

In certain situations, we may make cash payments to unaffiliated third parties for recommending the use of our advisory services to their clients. Such cash payments are paid pursuant to a written agreement between us and the third-party solicitor. The third-party solicitor will provide each prospective client with a copy of this brochure and a disclosure document that sets forth the terms of the arrangement (including the nature of the relationship and the fees to be paid). Clients referred by third-party solicitors may in some cases pay a higher fee than clients who contract with us directly. Solicited clients should refer to the disclosure document for information on the effect of the fees paid to third-party solicitors.

Custody

We do not serve as a custodian of client assets. (However, in cases where we have the ability to debit fees directly from client accounts, we may be deemed to have custody of client assets under Rule 206(4)-2 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, even if we do not act as a custodian.) The plan sponsor is responsible for selecting the custodian for plan assets. The selection of custodians may be limited by your plan provider.

Investment Discretion

You retain the investment discretion over the assets in your Plan account. We only have investment discretion under the limited circumstances more specifically described under Participant Services in the Advisory Business section above, in the event you fail to provide MetLife with instructions on how to reallocate investments in your account in a Fund that has been removed from the Program lineup, and how to allocate future investments in your account.

Voting Client Securities

You are responsible for receiving and voting proxies for all investments held in your account. We do not have the authority to and will not vote proxies.

Financial Information

We are required to provide you with certain financial information or disclosures about our financial condition. We do not have any financial commitment that impairs our ability to meet our contractual and fiduciary commitments to clients, and we have not been the subject of any bankruptcy proceeding.

Scott Wentsel, chief investment officer of the Americas for Morningstar's Investment Management group, provides guidance on the type of strategies we offer and the nature of the due diligence we conduct. He oversees, either directly or indirectly, the investment team, including setting the strategic direction and goals of the team. He is supervised by Daniel Needham, president and global chief investment officer of the Investment Management group. The activities of the investment team are guided by the Global Investment Policy Committee. The Global Investment Policy Committee and its working sub-committees are responsible for oversight of the investment methodologies. The sub-committees focus on specific investment areas such as capital market assumptions, asset allocation, manager selection, portfolio construction, advice methodologies, fundamental dynamic asset allocation and quantitative tactical asset allocation. Please refer to the "Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss" section of our Firm Brochure for a description of the Global Investment Policy Committee.
