This brochure supplement provides information about Edward G. Haik that supplements the Asset Management Group of Bank of Hawaii brochure. You should have received a copy of that brochure. If you have not received a copy of that brochure, or if you have any questions about the contents of this brochure supplement, please contact Donald Charles, the Chief Compliance Officer for the Asset Management Group of Bank of Hawaii, at (808)694-4758 or by email at don.charles@boh.com.

Item 2: Educational Background and Business Experience

Edward G. Haik is a Vice President and Senior Portfolio Manager and has been with Bank of Hawaii for more than 20 years. With over 25 years of investment industry experience, he manages short-intermediate-term taxable portfolios, with total assets over $1 billion, utilizing U.S. Treasury and Agency securities and corporate notes. Prior to joining the Bank, he was a bond broker for Garban Tokyo, Ltd., Cantor Fitzgerald Securities, and Merrill Lynch. Mr. Haik is originally from Minneapolis, Minnesota. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Holy Cross College.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal, civil or disciplinary events to disclose regarding Mr. Haik, nor has he been involved in any regulatory, civil or criminal actions. There have been no client complaints, lawsuits, arbitration claims or administrative proceedings against Mr. Haik.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

In addition to managing the investments held in accounts for clients of the Asset Management Group of Bank of Hawaii, Mr. Haik manages fixed income accounts for clients of the Bank of Hawaii Investment Services Group through its Investment Management Services Division.

In managing accounts for both the Asset Management Group and the Investment Services Group, Mr. Haik acts in a fiduciary capacity, which requires that the interests of the clients of both groups take priority over the interests of the Bank of Hawaii and its officers, directors and employees. Trades for clients of both groups are combined to the extent practical and allocated fairly among all client accounts participating in the trades. Please refer to the Trade Allocation discussion in Item 12, Brokerage Practices, of the Asset Management Group of Bank of Hawaii brochure for more information in this regard.

Mr. Haik is not engaged in any other outside business activities that create a material conflict of interest with clients.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Haik does not receive any additional compensation as a result of managing accounts for both of the Groups identified above.

Item 6: Supervision

All employees are subject to the Code of Ethics discussed in detail in Item 11 of the Asset Management Group of Bank of Hawaii brochure. The Code is designed to promote honest and ethical behavior in all dealings with clients, putting their interests first when managing clients' investments. The Asset Management Group maintains a comprehensive compliance program that monitors the activities of its employees.

Edward Haik is supervised by David Lum, Vice President and Fixed Income Manager. Mr. Lum may be reached at (808)694-4408.
