Item 4. Other Business Activities

Investment Related Activities:

Brian Wieland is also an insurance agent. In such capacity, he can recommend non-variable insurance products (Life, Long-term Care) and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of any purchase made by clients.

¹ The program is administered by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. Those with the CFP® designation have demonstrated competency in all areas of finance related to financial planning. Candidates complete studies on over 100 topics, including stocks, bonds, taxes, insurance, retirement planning and estate planning. In addition to passing the CFP certification exam, candidates must also complete qualifying work experience and agree to adhere to the CFP Board's code of ethics and professional responsibility and financial planning standards.

² The Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) designation is awarded by The American College to insurance and financial services professionals who have met the College's three-year business experience requirement, passed its eight college-level education courses and agreed to abide by its code of ethics.

The client is under no obligation to purchase any insurance products through Mr. Wieland on a commissionable basis. In addition, Mr. Wieland may receive other compensation such as fixed or variable life trails. The potential for receipt of commissions and other compensation when Mr. Wieland acts as an insurance agent creates an incentive to recommend insurance products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. Mr. Wieland spends approximately 8 – 12 hours monthly on this other business activity.

Non-Investment Related Activities:

Brian Wieland is not engaged in any other business or occupation that provides substantial compensation or involves a substantial amount of his time.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

Brian Wieland does not receive any additional compensation from third parties for providing investment advice to its clients and does not compensate anyone for client referrals.

Item 6. Supervision

William P. Davis, Chief Investment Officer, is responsible for the supervision and monitoring of investment advice offered to advisory clients of Deschaine & Company, LLC He can be reached at (618) 397-1002.

Item 7. Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Brian M. Wieland has never been the subject of a bankruptcy petition nor has he ever been involved in any of the additional disciplinary events reportable under this Item.
