Advisory Business

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 4

Trinity Investment Advisors, LLC's registration was granted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on June 30, 2006. Michael Kevin McCabe is Member and chief compliance officer of the firm. Mr. McCabe owns one hundred (100%) percent of the equity of the firm. The firm is not publicly owned or traded. There are no indirect owners of the firm or intermediaries who have any ownership interest in the firm. The firm manages each client's portfolio on an individualized basis. Clients may impose restrictions. The firm does not participate in wrap programs. As of December 31, 2014, the firm managed assets on a discretionary basis in the amount of $123,944,204 which represented 62 accounts and on a nondiscretionary basis in the amount of $5,166,620. This also represented 16 accounts.

Firm shall primarily engage in the provision of investment supervisory services to its client base. Approximately ninety-five (95%) percent of Firm's professional time and billings shall be attributable to this function. In addition, Firm shall establish professional relationships and alliances with outside third party portfolio managers and shall direct certain advisory clients to such third party management firms for the purpose of having assets placed under management.

With respect to investment supervisory services per se, Firm shall never have any actual or constructive custody of client assets, cash or securities as the professional services of an outside "Qualified Custodial" shall be employed.

An asset based fee, payable quarterly in arrears shall be payable by the client. In most cases, such asset advisory fee shall be debited directly from the client's account. The "Qualified Custodian" shall communicate on a monthly basis directly to the client.

Firm shall also, in certain circumstances also refer certain advisory clients to outside portfolio management firms. Such firms shall charge the client an asset based fee and Firm shall share in a portion of such compensation.

Firm shall not vote proxy statements on behalf of advisory clients.

All clients are advised that in addition to paying investment advisory fees to Firm firm, a second layer of fees will be payable by the advisory client to the investment adviser of mutual funds.

In addition to paying an advisory fee, clients invested in mutual funds will bear a proportionate amount of the operating expenses of the various funds in which they are invested, including management fees that are paid to the funds' advisers.

It is further disclosed that the firm shall receive compensation as a result of its involvement in the separately managed account programs.

Client shall enjoy a five (5) business day penalty free right of rescission.

Fees and Compensation

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 5

Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 11

Firm has adopted a written Code of Ethics in compliance with SEC Rule 204A-1. Such Code of Ethics is available upon request from any client or prospective client. The firm's Code of Ethics requires the Chief Compliance Officer of the firm to monitor the personal securities transactions of access persons and to require a high standard of professionalism within the firm in its dealings with advisory clients.

Brokerage Practices

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 12

Because firm may exercise discretionary authority over client assets, it is likely that applicant, without first obtaining specific client consent, may have authority to determine the securities to be bought or sold, the amount of the securities to be bought or sold, the broker or dealer to be used and commission rates to be paid. Firm has a limited trading authorization from advisory clients and has limited discretionary authority. When selecting brokers, applicant shall consider such factors of reputation within the securities industry, track record, service, accessibility and the like. Firm may recommend brokers to advisory clients.

Review of Accounts

Form ADV Part 2A, Item 13

With respect to investment supervisory (asset management) activity, the advisory client shall receive a monthly account statement from the "qualified custodial firm". Asset management shall be on-going and continuous.
