Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Randy Immecker attended Northwestern College in Orange City Iowa.

He has worked in the financial services industry with Prudential Life Insurance Company since 1982, more recently joining Money Concepts in 2004 and operating an independent financial planning practice in Sioux Center Iowa until joining Northwest Wealth Management in September 2010.

He has successfully passed the FINRA Series 6 Investment Company Products/Variable Contracts Representative exam, Series 7 General Securities Representative exam, Series 63 Uniform Securities Agent State Law exam, and Series 65 Uniform Investment Advisor Law exam.

He is a Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP) , a Charter Life Underwriter (CLU), and a Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC).

The CFP® certification is granted by Certified Financial Planners Board of Standards, Inc.. The certification is voluntary; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education - Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or it's equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination - Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience - Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics - Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individual who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and

- Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interest of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

The CLU or Chartered Life Underwriter® designation is granted by The American College to those individuals whom have completed a program and passed a 100 questions examination covering the application of life and health insurance in filling needs for survivor income, estate planning, business continuation and employee benefits. The individual must also meet experience and ethical standards and achieve continuing education requirements.

The ChFC® designation is granted by The American College after successfully completing the program which requires the candidate to complete 7 required courses including Financial Planning: Process and Environment, Fundamentals of Insurance Planning, Income Taxation, Planning for Retirement Needs, Investments, Fundamentals of Estate Planning and Financial Planning Applications; 2 elective courses; complete three years of full-time business experience; agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures; and complete on-going continuing education requirements.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

He has not been party to a criminal or civil action in a domestic, foreign or military court, (b) been party to an administrative proceeding before the SEC, any other federal regulatory agency, any state regulatory agency or any foreign financial regulatory authority; or (c) been party to a self-regulatory proceeding.
