ITEM 4. ADVISORY BUSINESS

Falcon E&P Opportunities GP, LLC (“Falcon GP”) is registering as an investment adviser with the SEC as a result of rules adopted by the SEC to implement certain changes applicable to private investment funds and their managers imposed by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. We are the general partner of the Falcon E&P Opportunities Fund, L.P. (the “Falcon Fund” or the “Fund”). The Falcon Fund held its initial closing in July of 2010 and completed its final closing to investors in November of 2011. The Falcon Fund is not accepting additional subscriptions from investors.

OWNERSHIP

We are owned 51% by HCMS Falcon, L.P. (“HCMS Falcon”) and 49% by PetroCap Management Company LLC (“PetroCap”). The general partner of HCMS Falcon is HCMS Falcon GP, LLC (“HCMS Falcon GP”). Highland Capital Management Services, Inc. (“HCM Services”) is the sole owner of HCMS Falcon GP and is the sole limited partner of HCMS Falcon. HCM Services is owned 75% by James Dondero and 25% by Mark Okada. PetroCap is owned by the four PetroCap principals as follows: 27.8% by each of Messrs. Rinehart and Evans, with Messrs. Sears and Neville also holding minority interests. Our day to day management is controlled by the five members of our Board of Managers, which includes the four PetroCap principals listed above, as described more fully in our Limited Liability Company Agreement and as described more fully in Item 13 hereof.

TYPES OF ADVISORY SERVICES

The Falcon Fund is our sole advisory client. The Falcon Fund invests in stand-alone oil and natural gas projects with a focus on the “upstream” or exploration and production (E&P) segment of the domestic oil and natural gas industry.

TAILORING SERVICES

As our sole advisory client, our services are tailored to investments consistent with the investment objective of the Falcon Fund.

REGULATORY ASSETS UNDER MANAGEMENT

As of December 31, 2014, our total regulatory assets under management, inclusive of outstanding capital commitments, was $108.3 million.

All assets are managed on a discretionary basis.

ITEM 5. FEES AND COMPENSATION

Our fee schedule is provided directly to investors in the Falcon Fund, all of which are “qualified purchasers” as defined in Section 2(a)(51)(A) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

Fees may be deducted directly from Falcon Fund accounts or capital may be called directly from investors in the Falcon Fund for this purpose.

Management fees are paid quarterly in advance. In the event of any termination of our services mid-quarter, a pro rata portion of the management fees applicable to such quarter would be rebated to the Falcon Fund. Carried interest, if any, is distributed quarterly from net cash available for distribution for such purpose.

We have entered into an administrative service agreement with Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (“HCM” or “Highland”) pursuant to which HCM will provide administrative services to the General Partner on mutually agreed terms. Payments from the Falcon Fund to HCM pursuant to the administrative service agreement will be funded solely by the Management Fee.

We may enter into side letters with investors in the Falcon Fund that provide for a reduction in the fees set forth above.

The Falcon Fund will pay all other expenses attributable to the activities of the Falcon Fund (collectively, “Operating Expenses”) including, without limitation:

- fees, costs, and expenses related to the purchase, holding, operation, development and sale of properties;
- taxes;
- costs and expenses related to tax preparation and any tax controversy;
- fees and expenses of accountants, engineers, consultants and legal counsel;
- insurance;
- costs and expenses of the Falcon Fund’s independent Advisory Committee;
- costs and expenses related to annual Limited Partner meetings;
- litigation expenses, if any; and
- other extraordinary expenses.

The Fund will also bear third party expenses incurred in connection with transactions not consummated. These costs may be deducted directly from the operating accounts of the Falcon Fund.

We do not intend to purchase eligible investments from affiliates.

ITEM 6. PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

As described above, we or an affiliate of ours are eligible to receive investment profit allocations in the form of carried interest. To the extent that any carried interest payments are distributed, all such payments will comply with the requirements of Section 205 and Rule 205-3 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the “Advisers Act”). Carried interest arrangements creates an economic incentive to make riskier investments and/or pursue riskier strategies than might otherwise be pursued.

Our sole advisory client is the Falcon Fund.

ITEM 7. TYPES OF CLIENTS

Our sole advisory client is the Falcon Fund, a Delaware limited partnership. The Falcon Fund is closed to future subscriptions.

ITEM 8. METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES, AND RISK OF LOSS

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Falcon Fund is our advisory client and invests in stand-alone oil and natural gas projects with a focus on the “upstream” or exploration and production (E&P) segment of the domestic oil and natural gas industry.

METHOD OF ANALYSIS

We employ a disciplined investment process beginning with transaction sourcing and diligence and continuing through the management and final sale of the applicable property. Our investment process is structured to capitalize on the strengths of PetroCap. Numerous potential investments are screened and analyzed prior to investment. Once an investment is made, we have daily to weekly contact with the operator of the investment property or interest, depending on the stage of the investment, and we continually overlay our macro outlook on the status of the project to determine the desired exit point.

MATERIAL RISKS OF SIGNIFICANT STRATEGIES AND METHODS OF ANALYSIS:

In this section we summarize some of the material risks of our investment strategy and methods of analysis. More complete information about the specific risks associated with an investment in the Falcon Fund is provided in the offering documents for the Falcon Fund. All methods of investments involve risk of loss including risk that an investor will lose the entire value of their investment.

Industry Concentration and Diversification

Because the Fund’s investments are concentrated within a particular industry or related group of industries (the energy sector), an investment in the Fund may be subject to greater market fluctuations than an investment in a portfolio of securities representing a broader range of industries. The aggregate return on an investment in the Fund may be substantially adversely affected by the unfavorable performance of even a single investment.

Lack of Liquidity

Interests in the Fund (the “Interests”) have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) or any other applicable securities laws. There is no public market for the Interests and none is expected to develop. In addition, the Interests are not transferable except with our consent, which generally we may withhold in our sole discretion, and are subject to the terms and conditions of the Partnership Agreements. Limited Partners generally may not withdraw capital from the Fund. Consequently, Limited Partners may not be able to liquidate their investments prior to the end of the Fund’s term.

Availability of Investments

We may be unable to identify a sufficient number of attractive investment opportunities for the Fund to meet its investment objectives. In addition, the Fund will be competing for investments against other groups, possibly including direct investment firms, merchant banks, and industrial groups. Other investors may make competing offers for investment opportunities that are identified. Consummating the contemplated investments is subject to a myriad of uncertainties, only some of which are foreseeable or within our control. No assurance can be given that the Fund will be successful in obtaining suitable investments, or that if such investments are made, the objectives of the Fund will be achieved.

General Economic Conditions

General economic conditions may affect the Fund's activities. Interest rates, general levels of economic activity, the price of securities, and participation by other investors in the financial markets may affect the value and number of investments made by the Fund or considered for prospective investment.

Unspecified Use of Proceeds

As of the date of this brochure, we have not selected all the investments that we will make for the Fund. Limited Partners will not have an opportunity to evaluate for themselves the relevant economic, financial, and other information regarding the investments we make for the Fund and, accordingly, will be dependent upon our judgment and ability in investing and managing Fund capital. We cannot assure you that we will be successful in obtaining suitable investments, or that if such investments are made, the Fund objectives will be achieved.

Leverage

We may employ leverage at the project entity level with respect to some or all Fund investments. Any such leverage is generally limited to 50% of commitments. Such leverage will be nonrecourse with respect to the Fund and will be in reasonable amounts relative to the applicable investment's asset base and cash flow. While this leverage component is intended to enhance the equity returns to the investors, the Fund's ability to meet its debt obligations depends on future performance. We do not anticipate incurring any leverage at the Falcon Fund level. General economic conditions, oil and gas prices and financial, business and other factors described herein may affect the Fund's operations and future performance. If the assets of the Fund are insufficient to service the leverage requirements, we may recall distributions previously made to the Limited Partners (subject to certain limitations set forth in governing documents of the Fund) or a default could occur under the terms of the debt. In the event of such a default, an investor could risk losing its entire investment in the Fund.

Indemnification

The Fund will be required to indemnify us and our members, agents, and employees, all of their respective successors, heirs, and assigns, and the Advisory Committee members for liabilities incurred in connection with the affairs of the Fund and otherwise as provided in the Fund Partnership Agreement. Such liabilities may be material and may have an adverse effect on the returns to the Limited Partners. For example, we or our affiliates may be subject to claims brought by landowners and other persons holding interests in and to the properties. The indemnification obligation of the Fund would be payable from the assets of the Fund, including the unfunded capital commitments of the Limited Partners. If the assets of the Fund are insufficient, we may recall distributions previously made to the Limited Partners (subject to certain limitations set forth in the Partnership Agreement).

Recourse to the Fund's Assets

The Fund's assets, including any investment made by the Fund and any funds held by the Fund, are available to satisfy all liabilities and other obligations of the Fund. If the Fund becomes subject to a liability, parties seeking to have the liability satisfied may have recourse to the Fund's assets generally and such recourse may not be limited to any particular asset, such as the asset representing the investment giving rise to the liability.

Failure to Make Capital Contributions

If a Limited Partner fails to pay when due installments of its commitment to the Fund, and the contributions made by non-defaulting Limited Partners and borrowings by the Fund are inadequate to cover the defaulted capital contribution, the Fund may be unable to pay its obligations when due. As a result, the Fund may be subject to significant penalties that could materially adversely affect the returns to the Limited Partners (including non-defaulting Limited Partners). If a Limited Partner defaults, it may be subject to various remedies as provided in the Partnership Agreement, including without limitation, reductions in its capital account balance.

Diverse Limited Partner Group

The Limited Partners may have conflicting investment, tax, and other interests with respect to their investments in the Fund. The conflicting interests of individual Limited Partners may relate or arise from, among other things, the nature of investments made by the Fund, the structuring or the acquisition of investments, and the timing of disposition of investments. As a consequence, conflicts of interest may arise in connection with the decisions we make, including with respect to the nature or structuring of investments that may be more beneficial for one investor than for another investor, especially with respect to investors' individual tax situations. In selecting and structuring investments appropriate for the Fund, we will consider the investment and tax objectives of the Fund and its Partners as a whole, not the investment, tax, or other objectives of any Limited Partner individually.

Importance of Certain Personnel

The success of the Fund depends in substantial part on the skill and expertise of our principals and other employees and/or contractors. There can be no assurance that our principals or other key personnel will continue to be actively involved in the Fund's activities throughout the life of the Fund. The loss of principals or other key personnel could have a material adverse effect on the Fund.

Risk of PetroCap Credit Event

Although we and the Fund are separate legal entities from PetroCap, in the event that PetroCap were to file for bankruptcy, become insolvent and/or subject to liquidation, or if there were a change of control of PetroCap, the Fund may nonetheless be adversely affected. Such an event could cause the Fund to have difficulty retaining personnel or otherwise adversely affect the Fund and its ability to achieve its investment objectives.

Protection of Confidentiality by Investors

Limited Partners will generally be required to keep confidential all information relating to the Fund (including its investors and investments) and/or its investment results and expectations thereof. To protect the sensitive nature of this information, we, in our discretion, may generally make all or certain confidential information unavailable to all or certain Limited Partners, in some cases based on the status of those Limited Partners.

No Right to Control the Fund's Operations

Limited Partners will have no opportunity to control the day-to-day operations, including investment and disposition decisions, of the Fund. In order to safeguard their limited liability for the liabilities and obligations of the Fund, Limited Partners must rely entirely on us to conduct and manage the affairs of the Fund.

Carried Interest

The fact that our compensation (through Carried Interest distributions to our affiliate) is based on the performance of the Fund may create an incentive for us to cause the Fund to make investments that are more speculative than would be the case in the absence of performance-based compensation.

Commodity Prices

Prices for oil and natural gas are subject to large fluctuations in response to relatively minor changes in the supply of and demand for oil and gas, market uncertainty and a variety of additional factors beyond the Fund's control. These factors include, but are not limited to, weather conditions in the United States, the condition of the United States economy, political stability in the Middle East and elsewhere, the foreign supply of oil and gas, the price of foreign oil imports, the availability of alternate fuel sources, and transportation interruption.

Any substantial and extended decline in the price of oil or gas would have an adverse effect on the value of the Fund's reserves and its revenues, profitability, and cash flows from operations. Volatile oil and gas prices make it difficult to estimate the value of producing properties for acquisition and divestiture and often cause disruption in the market for oil and gas producing properties, as buyers and sellers have difficulty agreeing on such value. Price volatility also makes it difficult to budget for and project the return on acquisitions and development and exploitation projects.

Operating Risks

The operation of oil and gas properties is subject to numerous risks inherent in the oil and gas industry, such as blowouts, cratering, explosions, uncontrollable flows of oil, gas or well fluids, fires, pollution, earthquakes, and environmental risks. These risks could result in substantial losses due to injury and loss of life, severe damage to and destruction of property and equipment, pollution and other environmental damage, and suspension of operations. The Fund's operations could result in liability for personal injuries, property damage, oil spills, discharge of hazardous materials, remediation and clean-up costs, and other environmental damages. The Fund could be liable for environmental damages caused by previous property owners. As a result, substantial liabilities to third parties or governmental entities may be incurred, the payment of which could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's financial condition and results of operations. The Fund will seek to maintain insurance coverage for its operations, including limited coverage for sudden environmental damages, but insurance coverage for environmental damages that occur over time or insurance coverage for the full potential liability that could be caused by sudden environmental damages may not be available at a reasonable cost, and the Fund may be subject to liability or may lose substantial portions of its properties in the event of certain environmental damages.

Demand for Oil and Gas

The Fund's success is materially dependent upon the demand for oil and gas. The availability of a ready market for the Fund's oil and gas production depends on a number of factors beyond the Fund's control, including the demand for, and supply of oil and gas, the availability of alternative energy sources, the proximity of reserves to, and the capacity of, oil and gas gathering systems, pipelines or trucking and terminal facilities. The Fund may also have to shut-in some of its wells temporarily due to a lack of market or adverse weather conditions including hurricanes. In addition, federal and state regulation of oil and natural gas production and transportation, general economic conditions, and changes in supply and demand could adversely affect the Fund's ability to produce and market its oil and natural gas on a profitable basis. Any significant change in the Fund's ability to produce and market its oil and natural gas production could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's financial condition and results of operations.

Drilling Risks

The revenues and operating results of the Fund will be dependent upon the success of the Fund's exploitation, development, and drilling activities. These oil and gas activities involve numerous risks, including the risk that no commercially productive oil or natural gas reservoirs will be encountered. The timing and cost of drilling, completing and operating wells is often uncertain, and drilling operations may be curtailed, delayed or canceled as a result of a variety of factors, including unexpected drilling conditions, pressure or irregularities in formations, equipment failures or accidents, adverse weather conditions, compliance with governmental requirements, and shortages or delays in the availability of drilling rigs and the delivery of equipment.

Acquisition Strategy

The Fund's investment strategy depends on the Fund's ability to acquire oil and gas properties. The Fund may not be able to identify suitable acquisition opportunities or finance and complete any particular acquisition successfully. Furthermore, acquisitions involve a number of risks and challenges, including difficulty in assuming recoverable reserves, future production rates, operating costs, infrastructure requirements, environmental and other liabilities, and other factors beyond the Fund's control. As a result, the Fund may not recover its investment in a property from the sale of production from the property, or may not recognize an acceptable return from investments it makes. Any of these factors could adversely affect the Fund's ability to achieve anticipated levels of cash flows from its investments or realize other anticipated benefits of investments.

Hedging

The Fund may seek to reduce exposure to the volatility of oil and gas prices by actively hedging a portion of production. Certain types of hedging contracts could prevent the Fund from receiving the full advantage of increases in oil or gas prices above the fixed amount specified in the hedge agreement. In a typical hedge transaction, the Fund has the right to receive from the hedge counterparty the excess of the fixed price specified in the hedge agreement over a floating price based on a market index, multiplied by the quantity hedged. If the floating price exceeds the fixed price, the Fund must pay the counterparty this difference multiplied by the quantity hedged even if the Fund had insufficient production to cover the quantities specified in the hedge agreement. Accordingly, if the Fund has less production than it has hedged when the floating price exceeds the fixed price, the Fund must make payments against which there are no offsetting sales of production. If these payments become too large, the remainder of the Fund's business may be adversely affected. In addition, hedging agreements expose the Fund to the risk of financial loss if the counterparty to a hedging contract defaults on its contract obligations.

Unavailability of Equipment or Personnel

The energy industry is cyclical and, from time to time, there is a shortage of drilling rigs, equipment, supplies, or qualified personnel. During these periods, the costs and delivery times of rigs, equipment and supplies are substantially greater. In addition, demand for, and wage rates of, qualified drilling rig crews rise with increases in the number of active rigs in service. If the unavailability or high cost of drilling rigs, equipment, supplies, or qualified personnel were particularly severe, the Fund's business could be materially and adversely affected.

Terrorist Activities

U.S. activities in Iraq and recent terrorist attacks of unprecedented scope have caused instability in the world financial markets and may generate global economic instability. The continued threat of terrorism and the impact of military or other action have led to and will likely lead to increased volatility in prices for oil and gas and could affect the Fund's financial results. Further, the United States government has issued public warnings indicating that energy assets might be specific target of terrorist organizations. As a result of such a terrorist attack or of terrorist activities in general, the Fund may not be able to obtain insurance coverage and other endorsements at commercially reasonable prices or at all.

Compliance with Anti-Money Laundering Requirements

In response to increased regulatory concerns with respect to the sources of funds used in investments and other activities, we may request Limited Partners to provide additional documentation verifying, among other things, such Limited Partners' identity and source of funds used to purchase Interests. Requests for documentation and additional information may be made at any time during which a Limited Partner holds an Interest. We may be required to provide this information, or report the failure to comply with such requests, to appropriate governmental authorities, in certain circumstances without notifying the Limited Partners that the information has been provided. We will take such steps as we determine are necessary to comply with applicable law, regulations, orders, directives, or special measures. Governmental authorities are continuing to consider appropriate measures to implement and at this point it is unclear what steps we may be required to take; however, these steps may include prohibiting a Limited Partner from making further contributions of capital to the Fund, depositing distributions which a Limited Partner would otherwise be entitled to in an escrow account, or causing the withdrawal of a Limited Partner from the Fund.

Taxation

Investments in properties in the energy sector may be subject to numerous taxes and fees by the jurisdictions in which such companies are organized or operate. Properties engaged in oil and natural gas operations or having substantial real property holdings, in particular, may be subject to specific tax regimes, such as petroleum revenue taxes, fees for drilling rights and exploration licenses, oil production fees, real estate taxes, and stamp duties.

Tax Treatment

There may be changes in tax laws or interpretations of such tax laws adverse to the Fund or its Partners. There can be no assurance that the structure of the Fund or of any investment will be tax efficient to any particular Partner. For example, it is anticipated that all or some of the Fund's investments will generate "unrelated business taxable income". Prospective investors are urged to consult their own tax advisers with reference to their specific tax situations, including any applicable U.S. state or local or non-U.S. taxes and, in the case of U.S. tax-exempt and non-U.S. investors, with reference to any special issues that investment in the Fund may raise for such investors. There can be no assurance that the Fund will have sufficient cash flow to permit it to make annual distributions in the amount necessary to pay all tax liabilities resulting from Limited Partners' ownership of Interests.

Environmental Liabilities

The oil and gas business is subject to environmental hazards, such as oil spills, gas leaks and ruptures and discharges of petroleum products and hazardous substances, and historic disposal activities. These environmental hazards could expose the Fund to material liabilities for property damages, personal injuries or other environmental harm, including costs of investigating and remediating contaminated properties. In addition, the Fund also may be liable for environmental damages caused by the previous owners or operators of properties it purchases. A variety of stringent federal, state, and local laws and regulations govern the environmental aspects of the oil and gas business. Any noncompliance with these laws and regulations could subject the Fund to material administrative, civil or criminal penalties, or other liabilities. Additionally, compliance with these laws may, from time to time, result in increased costs of operations or decreased production, and may affect acquisition costs.

ITEM 9. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Additional information regarding potential conflicts of interest is provided in the section titled Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading.

ITEM 11. CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

We maintain a policy of strict compliance with the highest standards of ethical business conduct and the provisions of applicable federal securities laws, including rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC, and have adopted policies and procedures described in our Code of Ethics. The Code of Ethics applies to each of our “access persons” as defined under the Advisers Act. It is designed to ensure compliance with legal requirements of our standard of business conduct.

A complete copy of our Code of Ethics is available to any Client or prospective Client upon request.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

We and our access persons are expected to comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations. Access persons are expected to adhere to the highest standards of ethical conduct and maintain confidentiality of all information obtained with respect to Client matters and bring any risk issues, violations, or potential violations to the attention of our Chief Compliance Officer. Access persons are expected to deal with Clients fairly and disclose any activity that may create an actual or potential conflict of interest between them and us or any Client.

ETHICAL BUSINESS PRACTICES

Falsification or alteration of records or reports, also known as a prohibited financial practice, or knowingly approving such conduct is prohibited. Payments to government officials or employees are prohibited except for political contributions approved by our Chief Compliance Officer. We seek to outperform our competition fairly and honestly and seek competitive advantages through superior performance not illegal or unethical dealings. Access persons are strictly prohibited from (i) participating in online blogging and communication with the media, and (ii) spreading of false rumors pertaining to any publicly traded company.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Access persons must maintain the confidentiality of our proprietary and confidential information and that of our Clients, and must not disclose that information unless the necessary approval is obtained. We have a particular duty and responsibility, as investment adviser, to safeguard Client information. Information concerning the identity and transactions of investors is confidential, and such information will only be disclosed to those access persons and outside parties who need to know it in order to fulfill their responsibilities.

GIFT AND ENTERTAINMENT POLICY

Access persons are permitted, on occasion, to accept gifts and invitations to attend entertainment events. When doing so, however, employees should always act in our best interests and that of our Clients and should avoid any activity that might create an actual or perceived conflict of interest or impropriety in the course of our business relationships. Under no circumstances may (i) gifts of cash or cash equivalents be accepted or (ii) may any gifts be received in consideration or recognition of any services provided to or transactions entered into by, Client Accounts.

PERSONAL TRADING

Personal Trading Policy

Access persons are allowed to trade reportable securities. Access persons are not permitted to trade any security of which we or the Fund own any portion of the capital structure or that is on our restricted list without permission. Access persons who violate the personal trading policy are reprimanded in accordance with the sanctions provisions outlined in the Code of Ethics. Personal securities transactions are reviewed by the Chief Compliance Officer or his/her designee for compliance with the personal trading policy and applicable SEC rules and regulations.

Prohibition against Insider Trading

We forbid any access person from trading, either personally or on behalf of others, including the Fund, on material non-public information or communicating material non-public information to others in violation of the law or duty owed to another party. This conduct is frequently referred to as “insider trading”. The concepts of material non-public information, penalties for insider trading, and processes for identifying insider trading are addressed in detail in the Compliance Manual and Code of Ethics.

Reporting Requirements

In compliance with SEC rules, access persons are required to disclose all of their reportable securities holdings within 10 days becoming an access person, within 10 days of opening a new account, and annually thereafter. Additionally, at the end of each month after quarter-end, all access persons must report all transactions in reportable securities over which the access person had any direct or indirect beneficial ownership. Access persons are also required annually to affirm all reportable transactions from the prior year.

POTENTIAL CONFLICTS

We and our affiliates engage in a broad range of activities, including activities for our own account and for the account of the Fund. This section describes various potential conflicts that may arise in respect of our business, as well as how we address such conflicts of interest. The discussion below does not describe all conflicts that may arise.

The Fund may be subject to certain conflicts of interest arising out of its relationship with us and our affiliates. Certain provision of the Partnership Agreement are designed to protect the interests of the Limited Partners in situations where conflicts may exist, and the Advisory Committee will be consulted on transactions involving conflicts of interest, although these provisions do not eliminate such conflicts of interest. The agreements and arrangements among us, the Fund, and their respective affiliates, including those relating to compensation, have been established by us and are not the result of arm's-length negotiations.

We or an affiliate may have a role in determining asset values with respect to Fund investments and may be required to price an asset when a market price is unavailable or unreliable. In order to mitigate these conflicts, we and our affiliates determine asset values in accordance with valuation procedures, which generally are set forth in our Compliance Manual.

Certain qualified employees and affiliates have invested in the Fund either through general partner entities or as limited partners or otherwise. We may reduce all or a portion of the management fee, performance-based fee, or other costs and expenses related to the investments by such persons. We do not charge these people fees or receive carried interest in respect of such persons, but they are allocated to their share of fund expenses.

ITEM 12. BROKERAGE PRACTICES

Factors Used to Select Custodians

The Adviser only deals with private equity investments and therefore does not recommend custodians/broker dealers. The Limited Partners own an interest in the fund managed by the Adviser. All assets of the two funds will be held by a qualified custodian.

Soft Dollars

We do not receive any soft dollars from broker-dealers, custodians or third party money managers.

Best Execution

This is not applicable due to the fact that Falcon is not in the business of buying or selling individual securities, bonds, mutual funds, etc.

Brokerage for Client Referrals

The Adviser only deals with private equity investments and therefore does not recommend custodians/broker dealers, and therefore, there are no conflicts of interest.

Directed Brokerage

We do not permit directed brokerage. We will require you to use the custodian of our choosing as the custodial firm.

Trading

This is not applicable due to the fact that Falcon is not in the business of buying or selling individual securities, bonds, mutual funds, etc.

ITEM 13. REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

ACCOUNT REVIEW

All our existing and potential investments are reviewed no less frequently than monthly by our Board of Managers (our “Board”), which includes the following:

Douglas Raymond Evans

Thomas Alexander Neville

Richard David Rinehart

John Russell Sears, Jr

William Lane Britain

The Board is responsible for assessing and approving investment opportunities for the Fund. Messrs. Britain, Evans, Neville, Rinehart and Sears are principals of the Fund.

The Board also evaluates the Fund’s objectives along with, among other factors, applicable portfolio restrictions, available cash, particularized investment suitability and investment performance.

NATURE AND FREQUENCY OF REPORTING

We furnish to the Fund’s Limited Partners the following written reports:

- audited financial statements annually;
- reserve reports prepared by an independent petroleum engineer at least annually;
- descriptive investment information quarterly, and
- tax information necessary for each Partner’s tax returns annually.

The Fund holds annual meetings to provide Limited Partners with the opportunity to review and discuss with us the Fund’s investment activities and properties.

ITEM 14. CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

The Adviser does not receive any economic benefit from someone who is not a client for providing investment advice or other advisory services to our clients nor do we directly or indirectly pay any compensation to another person if they refer clients to us.

ITEM 15. CUSTODY

We do not act as custodian for Client assets. However, under Rule 206(4)-2 under the Advisers Act, we may be deemed to have custody of Client assets. The accounts of the Falcon Fund are maintained with “qualified custodians” as defined under the Advisers Act and the Fund is subject to an audit at least annually and its audited financial statements will be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and distributed to all limited partners within 120 days of the end of its fiscal year.

ITEM 16. INVESTMENT DISCRETION

Our sole advisory client is the Falcon Fund, which we manage on a discretionary basis. For a description of limitations imposed on our discretionary authority to manage securities, please see the section titled Our Advisory Business.

All investors in the Falcon Fund completed the subscription documentation we required in order to accept an investment in the Fund, which includes a joinder to the Partnership Agreement of the Fund. This documentation includes an authorization granting us investment discretion for the Fund.

ITEM 17. VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

SECURITIES HELD IN CLIENT ACCOUNTS

Our proxy voting policy ensures proxies, if any, are voted in the best economic interests of the Fund, without regard to the interests of our principals or their respective affiliates. Our Board of Managers (our “Board”) evaluates the subject matter of each proxy and votes on behalf of the Fund in accordance to the Guidelines set forth in the proxy voting policy. Our Board also may determine not to vote proxies with respect to securities of any issuer if it determines it would be in its Client’s overall best interests not to vote.

If our Board determines that we may have a potential material conflict of interest in voting a proxy, the Board will contact our Chief Compliance Officer prior to the voting deadline.

OBTAINING A COPY OF THE POLICY

Clients and prospective Clients can obtain a copy of the proxy voting policy or information on how we voted proxies by contacting our Chief Compliance Officer at compliance@feplp.com.

ITEM 18. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

We are required to provide you with certain financial information or disclosures about our financial condition. We have no financial commitment that would impair our ability to meet any contractual and fiduciary commitments to you, our client. We have not been the subject of any bankruptcy proceedings.

In no event shall we charge advisory fees that are both in excess of twelve hundred dollars and more than six months in advance of advisory services rendered.
