Education and Business Standards

We require that individual investment adviser representatives working for us have a bachelor's degree and further coursework demonstrating knowledge of investment expertise. Examples of acceptable coursework include: an MBA, a CFA, a JD, or CPA. Additionally, advisers must have work experience that demonstrates their aptitude for investment management. In some circumstances, work experience in the institutional fixed income markets may be sufficient in lieu of additional coursework.

Professional Certifications

Employees have earned certifications and credentials that are required to be explained in further detail.

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA): Chartered Financial Analysts are licensed by the CFA Institute to use the CFA mark. CFA certification requirements:

- Hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution or have equivalent education or work experience.
- Successful completion of all three exam levels of the CFA Program.
- Have 48 months of acceptable professional work experience in the investment decision-making process.
- Fulfill society requirements, which vary by society. Unless you are upgrading from affiliate membership, all societies require two sponsor statements as part of each application; these are submitted online by your sponsors.
- Agree to adhere to and sign the Member's Agreement, a Professional Conduct Statement, and any additional documentation requested by the CFA Institute.

Education and Business Standards

We require that individual investment adviser representatives working for us have a bachelor's degree and further coursework demonstrating knowledge of investment expertise. Examples of acceptable coursework include: an MBA, a CFA, a JD, or CPA. Additionally, advisers must have work experience that demonstrates their aptitude for investment management. In some circumstances, work experience in the institutional fixed income markets may be sufficient in lieu of additional coursework.

Professional Certifications

Employees have earned certifications and credentials that are required to be explained in further detail.

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA): Chartered Financial Analysts are licensed by the CFA Institute to use the CFA mark. CFA certification requirements:

- Hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution or have equivalent education or work experience.
- Successful completion of all three exam levels of the CFA Program.
- Have 48 months of acceptable professional work experience in the investment decision-making process.
- Fulfill society requirements, which vary by society. Unless you are upgrading from affiliate membership, all societies require two sponsor statements as part of each application; these are submitted online by your sponsors.
- Agree to adhere to and sign the Member's Agreement, a Professional Conduct Statement, and any additional documentation requested by the CFA Institute.
